67:17 A mountain in which God is well pleased to dwell: * for there the Lord shall dwell unto the end.

67:18 The chariot of God is attended by ten thousands; thousands of them that rejoice: * the Lord is among them in Sinai, in the holy place.

67:19 Thou hast ascended on high, thou hast led captivity captive; * thou hast received gifts in men.

67:19 Yea for those also that do not believe, * the dwelling of the Lord God.

67:20 Blessed be the Lord day by day: * the God of our salvation will make our journey prosperous to us.

67:21 Our God is the God of salvation: * and of the Lord, of the Lord are the issues from death.

67:22 But God shall break the heads of his enemies: * the hairy crown of them that walk on in their sins.

67:23 The Lord said: I will turn them from Basan, * I will turn them into the depth of the sea:

67:24 That thy foot may be dipped in the blood of thy enemies; * the tongue of thy dogs be red with the same.

Psalmus 67(25-36)

67:25 They have seen thy goings, O God, * the goings of my God: of my king who is in his sanctuary.

67:26 Princes went before joined with singers, * in the midst of young damsels playing on timbrels.

67:27 In the churches bless ye God the Lord, * from the fountains of Israel.

67:28 There is Benjamin a youth, * in ecstasy of mind.

67:28 The princes of Juda are their leaders: * the princes of Zabulon, the princes of Nephthali.

67:29 Command thy strength, O God: * confirm, O God, what thou hast wrought in us.

67:30 From thy temple in Jerusalem, * kings shall offer presents to thee.

67:31 Rebuke the wild beasts of the reeds, the congregation of bulls with the kine of the people; * who seek to exclude them who are tried with silver.

67:31 Scatter thou the nations that delight in wars: ambassadors shall come out of Egypt: * Ethiopia shall soon stretch out her hands to God.

67:33 Sing to God, ye kingdoms of the earth: * sing ye to the Lord:

67:33 Sing ye to God, who mounteth above the heaven of heavens, * to the east.

67:34 Behold he will give to his voice the voice of power: give ye glory to God for Israel, * his magnificence, and his power is in the clouds.

67:36 God is wonderful in his saints: the God of Israel is he who will give power and strength to his people; * blessed be God.

Save me, O God * for the waters are come in even unto my soul. ‡

Psalmus 68(2-13)

([7])

68:2 Save me, O God: for the waters are come in even unto my soul.

68:3 ‡ I stick fast in the mire of the deep: * and there is no sure standing.

68:3 I am come into the depth of the sea: * and a tempest hath overwhelmed me.

68:4 I have laboured with crying; my jaws are become hoarse: * my eyes have failed, whilst I hope in my God.

68:5 They are multiplied above the hairs of my head, * who hate me without cause.

68:5 My enemies are grown strong who have wrongfully persecuted me: * then did I pay that which I took not away.

68:6 O God, thou knowest my foolishness; * and my offences are not hidden from thee.

68:7 Let not them be ashamed for me, who look for thee, O Lord, * the Lord of hosts.

68:7 Let them not be confounded on my account, * who seek thee, O God of Israel.

68:8 Because for thy sake I have borne reproach; * shame hath covered my face.

68:9 I am become a stranger to my brethren, * and an alien to the sons of my mother.

68:10 For the zeal of thy house hath eaten me up: * and the reproaches of them that reproached thee are fallen upon me.

68:11 And I covered my soul in fasting: * and it was made a reproach to me.

68:12 And I made haircloth my garment: * and I became a byword to them.

68:13 They that sat in the gate spoke against me: * and they that drank wine made me their song.

68:13 But as for me, my prayer is to thee, O Lord; * for the time of thy good pleasure, O God.

68:14 In the multitude of thy mercy hear me, * in the truth of thy salvation.

68:15 Draw me out of the mire, that I may not stick fast: * deliver me from them that hate me, and out of the deep waters.

68:16 Let not the tempest of water drown me, nor the deep swallow me up: * and let not the pit shut her mouth upon me.

68:17 Hear me, O Lord, for thy mercy is kind; * look upon me according to the multitude of thy tender mercies.

68:18 And turn not away thy face from thy servant: * for I am in trouble, hear me speedily.

68:19 Attend to my soul, and deliver it: * save me because of my enemies.

68:20 Thou knowest my reproach, and my confusion, * and my shame.

68:21 In thy sight are all they that afflict me; * my heart hath expected reproach and misery.

68:21 And I looked for one that would grieve together with me, * but there was none: and for one that would comfort me, and I found none.

68:22 And they gave me gall for my food, * and in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.

68:23 Let their table become as a snare before them, * and a recompense, and a stumblingblock.

68:24 Let their eyes be darkened that they see not; * and their back bend thou down always.

68:25 Pour out thy indignation upon them: * and let thy wrathful anger take hold of them.

68:26 Let their habitation be made desolate: * and let there be none to dwell in their tabernacles.

68:27 Because they have persecuted him whom thou hast smitten; * and they have added to the grief of my wounds.

68:28 Add thou iniquity upon their iniquity: * and let them not come into thy justice.

68:29 Let them be blotted out of the book of the living; * and with the just let them not be written.

68:33 Let the poor see and rejoice: * seek ye God, and your soul shall live.

68:34 For the Lord hath heard the poor: * and hath not despised his prisoners.

68:35 Let the heavens and the earth praise him; * the sea, and every thing that creepeth therein.

Lesson from the book of Isaias

Isa 64:1-4

1 That thou wouldst rend the heavens, and wouldst come down: the mountains would melt away at thy presence.

2 They would melt as at the burning of fire, the waters would burn with fire, that thy name might be made known to thy enemies: that the nations might tremble at thy presence.

3 When thou shalt do wonderful things, we shall not bear them: thou didst come down, and at thy presence the mountains melted away.

4 From the beginning of the world they have not heard, nor perceived with the ears: the eye hath not seen, O God, besides thee, what things thou hast prepared for them that wait for thee.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℞. Thanks be to God.

℞. Blow ye the trumpet in Zion, call together the nations, tell it out among the people, and say:

* Behold, God our Saviour cometh.

℣. Tell it out and make it to be heard; speak aloud and cry.

℞. Behold, God our Saviour cometh.

℣. Grant, Lord, a blessing.

Benedictio

May the Son, the Sole-begotten, mercifully bless and keep us.

℞. Amen.

Isa 64:5-7

5 Thou hast met him that rejoiceth, and doth justice: in thy ways they shall remember thee: behold thou art angry, and we have sinned: in them we have been always, and we shall be saved.

6 And we are all become as one unclean, and all our justices as the rag of a menstruous woman: and we have all fallen as a leaf, and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away.

7 There is none that calleth upon thy name: that riseth up, and taketh hold of thee: thou hast hid thy face from us, and hast crushed us in the hand of our iniquity.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℞. Thanks be to God.

℞. The sceptre shall not depart from Judah, nor the law-giver from his loins, until he that shall be sent cometh.

* And unto him shall the longing of the Gentiles be.

℣. His eyes shall be bright with wine, and his teeth white with milk.

℞. And unto him shall the desire of the Gentiles be.

℣. Grant, Lord, a blessing.

Benedictio

May the grace of the Holy Spirit enlighten all our hearts and minds.

℞. Amen.

Isa 64:8-11

8 And now, O Lord, thou art our father, and we are clay: and thou art our maker, and we all are the works of thy hands.

9 Be not very angry, O Lord, and remember no longer our iniquity: behold, see we are all thy people.

10 The city of thy sanctuary is become a desert, Sion is made a desert, Jerusalem is desolate.

11 The house of our holiness, and of our glory, where our fathers praised thee, is burnt with fire, and all our lovely things are turned into ruins.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℞. Thanks be to God.

℞. I must decrease, but He must increase; He it is Who, coming after me is preferred before me;

* Whose shoe's latchet I am not worthy to unloose.

℣. I baptize you with water; but He shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost.

([1])

50:3 Have mercy on me, O God, * according to thy great mercy.

50:3 And according to the multitude of thy tender mercies * blot out my iniquity.

50:4 Wash me yet more from my iniquity, * and cleanse me from my sin.

50:5 For I know my iniquity, * and my sin is always before me.

50:6 To thee only have I sinned, and have done evil before thee: * that thou mayst be justified in thy words, and mayst overcome when thou art judged.

50:7 For behold I was conceived in iniquities; * and in sins did my mother conceive me.

50:8 For behold thou hast loved truth: * the uncertain and hidden things of thy wisdom thou hast made manifest to me.

50:9 Thou shalt sprinkle me with hyssop, and I shall be cleansed: * thou shalt wash me, and I shall be made whiter than snow.

50:10 To my hearing thou shalt give joy and gladness: * and the bones that have been humbled shall rejoice.

50:11 Turn away thy face from my sins, * and blot out all my iniquities.

50:12 Create a clean heart in me, O God: * and renew a right spirit within my bowels.

50:13 Cast me not away from thy face; * and take not thy holy spirit from me.

50:14 Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation, * and strengthen me with a perfect spirit.

50:15 I will teach the unjust thy ways: * and the wicked shall be converted to thee.

50:16 Deliver me from blood, O God, thou God of my salvation: * and my tongue shall extol thy justice.

50:17 O Lord, thou wilt open my lips: * and my mouth shall declare thy praise.

50:18 For if thou hadst desired sacrifice, I would indeed have given it: * with burnt offerings thou wilt not be delighted.

50:19 A sacrifice to God is an afflicted spirit: * a contrite and humbled heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.

50:20 Deal favourably, O Lord, in thy good will with Sion; * that the walls of Jerusalem may be built up.

50:21 Then shalt thou accept the sacrifice of justice, oblations and whole burnt offerings: * then shall they lay calves upon thy altar.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℞. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. Before thee only have I sinned, O Lord, have mercy on me.

89:1 Lord, thou hast been our refuge * from generation to generation.

89:2 Before the mountains were made, or the earth and the world was formed; * from eternity and to eternity thou art God.

89:3 Turn not man away to be brought low: * and thou hast said: Be converted, O ye sons of men.

89:4 For a thousand years in thy sight * are as yesterday, which is past.

89:5 And as a watch in the night, * things that are counted nothing, shall their years be.

89:6 In the morning man shall grow up like grass; in the morning he shall flourish and pass away: * in the evening he shall fall, grow dry, and wither.

89:7 For in thy wrath we have fainted away: * and are troubled in thy indignation.

89:8 Thou hast set our iniquities before thy eyes: * our life in the light of thy countenance.

89:9 For all our days are spent; * and in thy wrath we have fainted away.

89:9 Our years shall be considered as a spider: * the days of our years in them are threescore and ten years.

89:10 But if in the strong they be fourscore years: * and what is more of them is labour and sorrow.

89:10 For mildness is come upon us: * and we shall be corrected.

89:11 Who knoweth the power of thy anger, * and for thy fear can number thy wrath?

89:12 So make thy right hand known: * and men learned in heart, in wisdom.

89:13 Return, O Lord, how long? * and be entreated in favour of thy servants.

89:14 We are filled in the morning with thy mercy: * and we have rejoiced, and are delighted all our days.

89:15 We have rejoiced for the days in which thou hast humbled us: * for the years in which we have seen evils.

89:16 Look upon thy servants and upon their works: * and direct their children.

89:17 And let the brightness of the Lord our God be upon us: and direct thou the works of our hands over us; * yea, the work of our hands do thou direct.

([3])

35:2 The unjust hath said within himself, that he would sin: * there is no fear of God before his eyes.

35:3 For in his sight he hath done deceitfully, * that his iniquity may be found unto hatred.

35:4 The words of his mouth are iniquity and guile: * he would not understand that he might do well.

35:5 He hath devised iniquity on his bed, * he hath set himself on every way that is not good: but evil he hath not hated.

35:6 O Lord, thy mercy is in heaven, * and thy truth reacheth even to the clouds.

35:7 Thy justice is as the mountains of God, * thy judgments are a great deep.

35:7 Men and beasts thou wilt preserve, O Lord: * O how hast thou multiplied thy mercy, O God!

35:8 But the children of men * shall put their trust under the covert of thy wings.

35:9 They shall be inebriated with the plenty of thy house; * and thou shalt make them drink of the torrent of thy pleasure.

35:10 For with thee is the fountain of life; * and in thy light we shall see light.

35:11 Extend thy mercy to them that know thee, * and thy justice to them that are right in heart.

35:12 Let not the foot of pride come to me, * and let not the hand of the sinner move me.

35:13 There the workers of iniquity are fallen, * they are cast out, and could not stand.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Canticum Moysis

Exod. 15:1-22

15:1 Let us sing to the Lord: for he is gloriously magnified, * the horse and the rider he hath thrown into the sea.

15:2 The Lord is my strength and my praise, * and he is become salvation to me:

15:3 He is my God and I will glorify him: * the God of my father, and I will exalt him.

15:4 The Lord is as a man of war, Almighty is his name. * Pharaoh's chariots and his army he hath cast into the sea:

15:5 His chosen captains are drowned in the Red Sea. * The depths have covered them, they are sunk to the bottom like a stone.

15:6 Thy right hand, O Lord, is magnified in strength: thy right hand, O Lord, hath slain the enemy. * And in the multitude of thy glory thou hast put down thy adversaries:

15:7 Thou hast sent thy wrath, which hath devoured them like stubble. * And with the blast of thy anger the waters were gathered together:

15:8 The flowing water stood, * the depths were gathered together in the midst of the sea.

15:9 The enemy said: I will pursue and overtake, * I will divide the spoils, my soul shall have its fill:

15:10 I will draw my sword, * my hand shall slay them.

15:11 Thy wind blew and the sea covered them: * they sunk as lead in the mighty waters.

15:12 Who is like to thee, among the strong, O Lord? * who is like to thee, glorious in holiness, terrible and praiseworthy, doing wonders?

15:13 Thou stretchedst forth thy hand, and the earth swallowed them. * In thy mercy thou hast been a leader to the people which thou hast redeemed:

15:14 And in thy strength thou hast carried them * to thy holy habitation.

15:15 Nations rose up, and were angry: * sorrows took hold on the inhabitants of Philisthiim.

15:16 Then were the princes of Edom troubled, trembling seized on the stout men of Moab: * all the inhabitants of Chanaan became stiff.

15:17 Let fear and dread fall upon them, * in the greatness of thy arm:

15:18 Let them become unmoveable as a stone, until thy people, O Lord, pass by: * until this thy people pass by, which thou hast possessed.

15:19 Thou shalt bring them in, and plant them in the mountain of thy inheritance, * in thy most firm habitation which thou hast made, O Lord;

15:20 Thy sanctuary, O Lord, which thy hands have established. * The Lord shall reign for ever and ever.

15:21 For Pharaoh went in on horseback with his chariots and horsemen into the sea: * and the Lord brought back upon them the waters of the sea:

15:22 But the children of Israel walked on dry ground * in the midst thereof.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

146:2 The Lord buildeth up Jerusalem: * he will gather together the dispersed of Israel.

146:3 Who healeth the broken of heart, * and bindeth up their bruises.

146:4 Who telleth the number of the stars: * and calleth them all by their names.

146:5 Great is our Lord, and great is his power: * and of his wisdom there is no number.

146:6 The Lord lifteth up the meek, * and bringeth the wicked down even to the ground.

146:7 Sing ye to the Lord with praise: * sing to our God upon the harp.

146:8 Who covereth the heaven with clouds, * and prepareth rain for the earth.

146:8 Who maketh grass to grow on the mountains, * and herbs for the service of men.

146:9 Who giveth to beasts their food: * and to the young ravens that call upon him.

146:10 He shall not delight in the strength of the horse: * nor take pleasure in the legs of a man.

146:11 The Lord taketh pleasure in them that fear him: * and in them that hope in his mercy.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Hymnus

Hark, a herald voice is calling;
"Christ is nigh," it seems to say;
"Cast away the dreams of darkness,
O ye children of the day."
Mstartled at the solemn warning,
Let the earth-bound soul arise;
Christ, her sun, all sloth dispelling,
Shines upon the morning skies.
Eo, the Lamb, so long expected,
Comes with pardon down from heaven;
Let us haste, with tears of sorrow,
One and all to be forgiven.
Uo when next he comes with glory,
Wrapping all the earth in fear,
May he then as our defender
On the clouds of heaven appear.
Vonour, glory, virtue, merit,
To the Father and the Son,
With the co-eternal Spirit,
While eternal ages run.

Amen.

Hymnus

Now in the sun's new dawning ray,

Lowly of heart, our God we pray

That he from harm may keep us free

In all the deeds this day shall see.

Lay fear of him our tongues restrain,

Lest strife unguarded speech should stain:

His favouring care our guardian be,

Lest our eyes feed on vanity.

Say every heart be pure from sin

And folly find no place therein:

Scant need of food, excess denied,

Wear down in us the body's pride.

Uhat when the light of day is gone,

And night in course shall follow on.

We, free from cares the world affords,

May chant the praise that is our Lord's.

Dll laud to God the Father be,

All praise, Eternal Son, to thee:

All glory, as is ever meet,

To God the holy Paraclete.

Psalmus 72(1-9)

72:1 How good is God to Israel, * to them that are of a right heart!

72:2 But my feet were almost moved; * my steps had wellnigh slipped.

72:3 Because I had a zeal on occasion of the wicked, * seeing the prosperity of sinners.

72:4 For there is no regard to their death, * nor is there strength in their stripes.

72:5 They are not in the labour of men: * neither shall they be scourged like other men.

72:6 Therefore pride hath held them fast: * they are covered with their iniquity and their wickedness.

72:7 Their iniquity hath come forth, as it were from fatness: * they have passed into the affection of the heart.

72:8 They have thought and spoken wickedness: * they have spoken iniquity on high.

72:9 They have set their mouth against heaven: * and their tongue hath passed through the earth.

72:13 And I said: Then have I in vain justified my heart, * and washed my hands among the innocent.

72:14 And I have been scourged all the day; * and my chastisement hath been in the mornings.

72:15 If I said: I will speak thus; * behold I should condemn the generation of thy children.

([4])

136:1 Upon the rivers of Babylon, there we sat and wept: * when we remembered Sion:
136:2 On the willows in the midst thereof * we hung up our instruments.
136:3 For there they that led us into captivity required of us * the words of songs.
136:3 And they that carried us away, said: * Sing ye to us a hymn of the songs of Sion.
136:4 How shall we sing the song of the Lord * in a strange land?
136:5 If I forget thee, O Jerusalem, * let my right hand be forgotten.
136:6 Let my tongue cleave to my jaws, * if I do not remember thee:
136:6 If I make not Jerusalem * the beginning of my joy.

137:2 For thy mercy, and for thy truth: * for thou hast magnified thy holy name.
137:3 In what day soever I shall call upon thee, hear me: * thou shalt multiply strength in my soul.

Hymnus

Bright builder of the heavenly poles,
Eternal light of faithful souls,
Jesus, Redeemer of mankind,
Our humble prayers vouchsafe to mind.
Qho, lest the fraud of hell's black king
Should all men to destruction bring,
Didst, by an act of generous love,
The fainting world's physician prove.
Cho, that thou mightst our ransom pay
And wash the stains of sin away,
Wouldst from a Virgin's womb proceed
And on the cross a victim bleed.
Chose glorious power, whose saving name
No sooner any voice can frame,
But heaven and earth and hell agree
To honour them with trembling knee.
Thee, Christ, who at the latter day
Shalt be our Judge, we humbly pray
Such arms of heavenly grace to send
As may thy Church from foes defend.
Ve glory given and honour done
To God the Father and the Son
And to the Holy Ghost on high,
From age to age eternally.
Amen.

Ant. Come let us praise the Lord with joy: let us joyfully sing to God our saviour. Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving; and make a joyful noise to him with psalms.

For the Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods. For the Lord will not cast off his people: for in his hand are all the ends of the earth, and the heights of the mountains are his.

For the sea is his, and he made it: and his hands formed the dry land. (genuflect) Come let us adore and fall down: and weep before the Lord that made us: For he is the Lord our God: and we are the people of his pasture and the sheep of his hand.

Today if you shall hear his voice, harden not your hearts: As in the provocation, according to the day of temptation in the wilderness: where your fathers tempted me, they proved me, and saw my works.

Forty years long was I offended with that generation, and I said: These always err in heart. And these men have not known my ways: so I swore in my wrath that they shall not enter into my rest.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

The Lord set up a testimony in Jacob: * and made a law in Israel.

Psalmus 77(1-8)

77:1 Attend, O my people, to my law: * incline your ears to the words of my mouth.

77:2 I will open my mouth in parables: * I will utter propositions from the beginning.

77:3 How great things have we heard and known, * and our fathers have told us.

77:4 They have not been hidden from their children, * in another generation.

77:4 Declaring the praises of the Lord, and his powers, * and his wonders which he hath done.

77:5 And he set up a testimony in Jacob: * and made a law in Israel.

77:5 How great things he commanded our fathers, that they should make the same known to their children: * that another generation might know them.

77:6 The children that should be born and should rise up, * and declare them to their children.

77:7 That they may put their hope in God and may not forget the works of God: * and may seek his commandments.

77:8 That they may not become like their fathers, * a perverse and exasperating generation.

77:8 A generation that set not their heart aright: * and whose spirit was not faithful to God.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. The Lord set up a testimony in Jacob: and made a law in Israel.

The Lord did wonderful things * in the sight of their fathers.

77:9 The sons of Ephraim who bend and shoot with the bow: * they have turned back in the day of battle.

77:10 They kept not the covenant of God: * and in his law they would not walk.

77:11 And they forgot his benefits, * and his wonders that he had shewn them.

77:12 Wonderful things did he do in the sight of their fathers, in the land of Egypt, * in the field of Tanis.

77:13 He divided the sea and brought them through: * and he made the waters to stand as in a vessel.

77:14 And he conducted them with a cloud by day: * and all the night with a light of fire.

77:15 He struck the rock in the wilderness: * and gave them to drink, as out of the great deep.

77:16 He brought forth water out of the rock: * and made streams run down as rivers.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. The Lord did wonderful things in the sight of their fathers.

The Lord opened * the doors of heaven and had rained down manna upon them to eat.

Psalmus 77(17-31)

([3])

77:17 And they added yet more sin against him: * they provoked the most High to wrath in the place without water.

77:18 And they tempted God in their hearts, * by asking meat for their desires.

77:19 And they spoke ill of God: * they said: Can God furnish a table in the wilderness?

77:20 Because he struck the rock, and the waters gushed out, * and the streams overflowed.

77:20 Can he also give bread, * or provide a table for his people?

77:21 Therefore the Lord heard, and was angry: * and a fire was kindled against Jacob, and wrath came up against Israel.

77:22 Because they believed not in God: * and trusted not in his salvation.

77:23 And he had commanded the clouds from above, * and had opened the doors of heaven.

77:24 And had rained down manna upon them to eat, * and had given them the bread of heaven.

77:25 Man ate the bread of angels: * he sent them provisions in abundance.

77:26 He removed the south wind from heaven: * and by his power brought in the southwest wind.

77:27 And he rained upon them flesh as dust: * and feathered fowls like as the sand of the sea.

77:28 And they fell in the midst of their camp, * round about their pavilions.

77:29 So they did eat, and were filled exceedingly, and he gave them their desire: * they were not defrauded of that which they craved.

77:30 As yet their meat was in their mouth: * and the wrath of God came upon them.

77:31 And he slew the fat ones amongst them, * and brought down the chosen men of Israel.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. The Lord opened the doors of heaven and had rained down manna upon them to eat.

God is their helper, * and the most high God their redeemer.

Psalmus 77(32-41)

77:32 In all these things they sinned still: * and they believed not for his wondrous works.

77:33 And their days were consumed in vanity, * and their years in haste.

77:34 When he slew them, then they sought him: * and they returned, and came to him early in the morning.

77:35 And they remembered that God was their helper: * and the most high God their redeemer.

77:36 And they loved him with their mouth: * and with their tongue they lied unto him:

77:37 But their heart was not right with him: * nor were they counted faithful in his covenant.

77:38 But he is merciful, and will forgive their sins: * and will not destroy them.

77:38 And many a time did he turn away his anger: * and did not kindle all his wrath.

77:39 And he remembered that they are flesh: * a wind that goeth and returneth not.

77:40 How often did they provoke him in the desert: * and move him to wrath in the place without water?

77:41 And they turned back and tempted God: * and grieved the holy one of Israel.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. God is their helper, and the most high God their redeemer.

The Lord redeemed them * from the hand of him that afflicted them.

Psalmus 77(42-58)

77:42 They remembered not his hand, * in the day that he redeemed them from the hand of him that afflicted them:

77:43 How he wrought his signs in Egypt, * and his wonders in the field of Tanis.

77:44 And he turned their rivers into blood, * and their showers that they might not drink.

77:45 He sent amongst them diverse sorts of flies, which devoured them: * and frogs which destroyed them.

77:46 And he gave up their fruits to the blast, * and their labours to the locust.

77:47 And he destroyed their vineyards with hail, * and their mulberry trees with hoarfrost.

77:48 And he gave up their cattle to the hail, * and their stock to the fire.

77:49 And he sent upon them the wrath of his indignation: * indignation and wrath and trouble, which he sent by evil angels.

77:50 He made a way for a path to his anger: * he spared not their souls from death, and their cattle he shut up in death.

77:51 And he killed all the firstborn in the land of Egypt: * the firstfruits of all their labour in the tabernacles of Cham.

77:52 And he took away his own people as sheep: * and guided them in the wilderness like a flock.

77:53 And he brought them out in hope, and they feared not: * and the sea overwhelmed their enemies.

77:54 And he brought them into the mountain of his sanctuary: * the mountain which his right hand had purchased.

77:54 And he cast out the Gentiles before them: * and by lot divided to them their land by a line of distribution.

77:55 And he made the tribes of Israel * to dwell in their tabernacles.

77:56 Yet they tempted, and provoked the most high God: * and they kept not his testimonies.

77:57 And they turned away, and kept not the covenant: * even like their fathers they were turned aside as a crooked bow.

77:58 They provoked him to anger on their hills: * and moved him to jealousy with their graven things.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. The Lord redeemed them from the hand of him that afflicted them.

God built * his sanctuary in the earth.

77:59 God heard, and despised them, * and he reduced Israel exceedingly as it were to nothing.

77:60 And he put away the tabernacle of Silo, * his tabernacle where he dwelt among men.

77:61 And he delivered their strength into captivity: * and their beauty into the hands of the enemy.

77:62 And he shut up his people under the sword: * and he despised his inheritance.

77:63 Fire consumed their young men: * and their maidens were not lamented.

77:64 Their priests fell by the sword: * and their widows did not mourn.

77:65 And the Lord was awaked as one out of sleep, * and like a mighty man that hath been surfeited with wine.

77:66 And he smote his enemies on the hinder parts: * he put them to an everlasting reproach.

77:67 And he rejected the tabernacle of Joseph: * and chose not the tribe of Ephraim:

77:68 But he chose the tribe of Juda, * mount Sion which he loved.

77:69 And he built his sanctuary as of unicorns, in the land * which he founded for ever.

77:70 And he chose his servant David, and took him from the flocks of sheep: * he brought him from following the ewes great with young,

77:71 To feed Jacob his servant, * and Israel his inheritance.

77:72 And he fed them in the innocence of his heart: * and conducted them by the skilfulness of his hands.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. God built his sanctuary in the earth.

Help us, O God, our Saviour, * deliver us: and forgive us our sins.

([7])

78:1 O God, the heathens are come into thy inheritance, they have defiled thy holy temple: * they have made Jerusalem as a place to keep fruit.

78:2 They have given the dead bodies of thy servants to be meat for the fowls of the air: * the flesh of thy saints for the beasts of the earth.

78:3 They have poured out their blood as water, round about Jerusalem, * and there was none to bury them.

78:4 We are become a reproach to our neighbours: * a scorn and derision to them that are round about us.

78:5 How long, O Lord, wilt thou be angry for ever: * shall thy zeal be kindled like a fire?

78:6 Pour out thy wrath upon the nations that have not known thee: * and upon the kingdoms that have not called upon thy name.

78:7 Because they have devoured Jacob; * and have laid waste his place.

78:8 Remember not our former iniquities: let thy mercies speedily prevent us, * for we are become exceeding poor.

78:9 Help us, O God, our saviour: and for the glory of thy name, O Lord, deliver us: * and forgive us our sins for thy name's sake:

78:10 Lest they should say among the Gentiles: Where is their God? * And let him be made known among the nations before our eyes,

78:10 By the revenging the blood of thy servants, which hath been shed: * let the sighing of the prisoners come in before thee.

78:11 According to the greatness of thy arm, * take possession of the children of them that have been put to death.

78:12 And render to our neighbours sevenfold in their bosom: * the reproach wherewith they have reproached thee, O Lord.

78:13 But we thy people, and the sheep of thy pasture, * will give thanks to thee for ever.

78:13 We will shew forth thy praise, * unto generation and generation.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. Help us, O God, our Saviour, deliver us: and forgive us our sins.

I am the Lord * God of Israel, who brought you out from the land of Egypt.

([8])

80:2 Rejoice to God, our helper: * sing aloud to the God of Jacob.

80:3 Take a psalm, and bring hither the timbrel: * the pleasant psaltery with the harp.

80:4 Blow up the trumpet on the new moon, * on the noted day of your solemnity.

80:5 For it is a commandment in Israel, * and a judgment to the God of Jacob.

80:6 He ordained it for a testimony in Joseph, when he came out of the land of Egypt: * he heard a tongue which he knew not.

80:7 He removed his back from the burdens: * his hands had served in baskets.

80:8 Thou calledst upon me in affliction, and I delivered thee: * I heard thee in the secret place of temple: I proved thee at the waters of contradiction.

80:9 Hear, O my people, and I will testify to thee: * O Israel, if thou wilt hearken to me; there shall be no new god in thee: neither shalt thou adore a strange god.

80:11 For I am the Lord thy God, who brought thee out of the land of Egypt: * open thy mouth wide, and I will fill it.

80:12 But my people heard not my voice: * and Israel hearkened not to me.

80:13 So I let them go according to the desires of their heart: * they shall walk in their own inventions.

80:14 If my people had heard me: * if Israel had walked in my ways:

80:15 I should soon have humbled their enemies, * and laid my hand on them that troubled them.

80:16 The enemies of the Lord have lied to him: * and their time shall be for ever.

80:17 And he fed them with the fat of wheat, * and filled them with honey out of the rock.

Psalmus 82

([9])

82:2 O God, who shall be like to thee? * Hold not thy peace, neither be O God, thou still,

82:3 For lo, thy enemies have made a noise: * and they that hate thee have lifted up the head.

82:4 They have taken a malicious counsel against thy people, * and have consulted against thy saints.

82:5 They have said: Come and let us destroy them, * so that they be not a nation: and let the name of Israel be remembered no more.

82:6 For they have contrived with one consent: * they have made a covenant together against thee; the tabernacles of the Edomites, and the Ismahelites:

82:8 Moab, and the Agarens, Gebal, and Ammon and Amalec: * the Philistines, with the inhabitants of Tyre.

82:9 Yea, and the Assyrian also is joined with them: * they are come to the aid of the sons of Lot.

82:10 Do to them as thou didst to Madian and to Sisara: * as to Jabin at the brook of Cisson.

82:11 Who perished at Endor: * and became as dung for the earth.

82:12 Make their princes like Oreb, and Zeb, * and Zebbee, and Salmana.

82:13 All their princes, * who have said: Let us possess the sanctuary of God for an inheritance.

82:14 O my God, make them like a wheel; * and as stubble before the wind.

82:15 As fire which burneth the wood: * and as a flame burning mountains:

82:16 So shalt thou pursue them with thy tempest: * and shalt trouble them in thy wrath.

82:17 Fill their faces with shame; * and they shall seek thy name, O Lord.

82:18 Let them be ashamed and troubled for ever and ever: * and let them be confounded and perish.

82:19 And let them know that the Lord is thy name: * thou alone art the most High over all the earth.

98:2 The Lord is great in Sion, * and high above all people.

Psalmus 142

142:1 Hear, O Lord, my prayer: give ear to my supplication in thy truth: * hear me in thy justice.

142:2 And enter not into judgment with thy servant: * for in thy sight no man living shall be justified.

142:3 For the enemy hath persecuted my soul: * he hath brought down my life to the earth.

142:3 He hath made me to dwell in darkness as those that have been dead of old: * and my spirit is in anguish within me: my heart within me is troubled.

142:5 I remembered the days of old, I meditated on all thy works: * I meditated upon the works of thy hands.

142:6 I stretched forth my hands to thee: * my soul is as earth without water unto thee.

142:7 Hear me speedily, O Lord: * my spirit hath fainted away.

Isa 45:15-30

45:15 Verily thou art a hidden God, * the God of Israel the saviour.

45:16 They are all confounded and ashamed: * the forgers of errors are gone together into confusion.

45:17 Israel is saved in the Lord with an eternal salvation: * you shall not be confounded, and you shall not be ashamed for ever and ever.

45:18 For thus saith the Lord that created the heavens, * God himself that formed the earth, and made it, the very maker thereof:

45:19 He did not create it in vain: he formed it to be inhabited. * I am the Lord, and there is no other.

45:20 I have not spoken in secret, * in a dark place of the earth:

45:21 I have not said to the seed of Jacob: Seek me in vain. * I am the Lord that speak justice, that declare right things.

45:22 Assemble yourselves, and come, and draw near together, * ye that are saved of the Gentiles:

45:23 They have no knowledge that set up the wood of their graven work, * and pray to a god that

45:24 Tell ye, and come, and consult together: * who hath declared this from the beginning, who hath foretold this from that time?

1:69 And hath raised up an horn of salvation to us, * in the house of David his servant:

1:70 As he spoke by the mouth of his holy Prophets, * who are from the beginning:

1:71 Salvation from our enemies, * and from the hand of all that hate us:

Hymnus

Now in the sun's new dawning ray,

Lowly of heart, our God we pray

That he from harm may keep us free

In all the deeds this day shall see.

Lay fear of him our tongues restrain,

Lest strife unguarded speech should stain:

His favouring care our guardian be,

Lest our eyes feed on vanity.

Say every heart be pure from sin

And folly find no place therein:

Scant need of food, excess denied,

Wear down in us the body's pride.

Uhat when the light of day is gone,

And night in course shall follow on.

We, free from cares the world affords,

May chant the praise that is our Lord's.

Dll laud to God the Father be,

All praise, Eternal Son, to thee:

All glory, as is ever meet,

To God the holy Paraclete.

Amen.

([1])

21:2 O God my God, look upon me: why hast thou forsaken me? * Far from my salvation are the words of my sins.

21:3 O my God, I shall cry by day, and thou wilt not hear: * and by night, and it shall not be reputed as folly in me.

21:4 But thou dwellest in the holy place, * the praise of Israel.

21:5 In thee have our fathers hoped: * they have hoped, and thou hast delivered them.

21:6 They cried to thee, and they were saved: * they trusted in thee, and were not confounded.

21:7 But I am a worm, and no man: * the reproach of men, and the outcast of the people.

21:8 All they that saw me have laughed me to scorn: * they have spoken with the lips, and wagged the head.

21:9 He hoped in the Lord, let him deliver him: * let him save him, seeing he delighteth in him.

21:10 For thou art he that hast drawn me out of the womb: * my hope from the breasts of my

21:14 They have opened their mouths against me, * as a lion ravening and roaring.

21:15 I am poured out like water; * and all my bones are scattered.

21:15 My heart is become like wax melting * in the midst of my bowels.

21:17 They have dug my hands and feet. * They have numbered all my bones.

Martyrologium

December 26th 2026, the 17th day of the Moon,

Hn the 26th day of December, was born into the higher life

Rt Jerusalem, holy Stephen, the first Martyr. He was stoned by the Jews not long after the Ascension of the Lord.

It Rome, holy Marinus, of the Senatorial order. He was arrested under the Emperor Numerian and the Praefect Marcian, on the charge of being a Christian. He was tortured as they used to do to slaves, on the rack and with iron claws. They threw him into a furnace, but the fire was turned into dew, and he was delivered. He was thrown to wild beasts, but they left him unharmed. He was led again to the altar, and, when he prayed, the idols fell down. Then they smote him with the sword, and he became more than conqueror through up-lifting of his testimony.

Iikewise, at Rome, on this day was laid to sleep (in the year 269) beside the Appian Road the holy Pope Denys, who worked hard for the Church, and is a bright ensample of faith.

79:9 Thou hast brought a vineyard out of Egypt: * thou hast cast out the Gentiles and planted it.

79:10 Thou wast the guide of its journey in its sight: * thou plantedst the roots thereof, and it filled the land.

79:11 The shadow of it covered the hills: * and the branches thereof the cedars of God.

79:12 It stretched forth its branches unto the sea, * and its boughs unto the river.

79:13 Why hast thou broken down the hedge thereof, * so that all they who pass by the way do pluck it?

79:14 The boar out of the wood hath laid it waste: * and a singular wild beast hath devoured it.

79:15 Turn again, O God of hosts, * look down from heaven, and see, and visit this vineyard:

79:16 And perfect the same which thy right hand hath planted: * and upon the son of man whom thou hast confirmed for thyself.

79:17 Things set on fire and dug down * shall perish at the rebuke of thy countenance.

79:18 Let thy hand be upon the man of thy right hand: * and upon the son of man whom thou hast confirmed for thyself.

81:4 Rescue the poor; * and deliver the needy out of the hand of the sinner.

81:5 They have not known nor understood: they walk on in darkness: * all the foundations of the earth shall be moved.

81:6 I have said: You are gods * and all of you the sons of the most High.

O strength and stay upholding all creation,
Who ever dost thyself unmoved abide,
Yet day by day the light in due gradation
From hour to hour through all its changes guide:
Lrant to life's day a calm unclouded ending,
An eve untouched by shadows of decay,
The brightness of a holy death-bed blending
With dawning glories of th' eternal day.
Pear us, O Father, gracious and forgiving,
And thou, O Christ, the co-eternal Word,
Who, with the Holy Ghost, by all things living
Now and to endless ages art adored.

88:2 I will shew forth thy truth with my mouth * to generation and generation.

88:4 I have made a covenant with my elect: I have sworn to David my servant: * Thy seed will I settle for ever.

88:5 And I will build up thy throne * unto generation and generation.

88:6 The heavens shall confess thy wonders, O Lord: * and thy truth in the church of the saints.

88:8 God, who is glorified in the assembly of the saints: * great and terrible above all them that are about him.

88:9 O Lord God of hosts, who is like to thee? * thou art mighty, O Lord, and thy truth is round about thee.

88:10 Thou rulest the power of the sea: * and appeasest the motion of the waves thereof.

88:11 Thou hast humbled the proud one, as one that is slain: * with the arm of thy strength thou hast scattered thy enemies.

88:12 Thine are the heavens, and thine is the earth: the world and the fulness thereof thou hast founded: * the north and the sea thou hast created.

88:13 Thabor and Hermon shall rejoice in thy name: * thy arm is with might.

88:22 For my hand shall help him: * and my arm shall strengthen him.

88:24 And I will cut down his enemies before his face; * and them that hate him I will put to flight.

88:25 And my truth and my mercy shall be with him: * and in my name shall his horn be exalted.

88:26 And I will set his hand in the sea; * and his right hand in the rivers.

88:27 He shall cry out to me: Thou art my father: * my God, and the support of my salvation.

88:28 And I will make him my firstborn, * high above the kings of the earth.

88:29 I will keep my mercy for him for ever: * and my covenant faithful to him.

88:43 Thou hast set up the right hand of them that oppress him: * thou hast made all his enemies to rejoice.

88:44 Thou hast turned away the help of his sword; * and hast not assisted him in battle.

88:45 Thou hast made his purification to cease: * and thou hast cast his throne down to the ground.

88:46 Thou hast shortened the days of his time: * thou hast covered him with confusion.

88:47 How long, O Lord, turnest thou away unto the end? * shall thy anger burn like fire?

88:48 Remember what my substance is: * for hast thou made all the children of men in vain?

76:14 Thy way, O God, is in the holy place: who is the great God like our God? * Thou art the God that dost wonders.
76:15 Thou hast made thy power known among the nations: * with thy arm thou hast redeemed thy people, the children of Jacob and of Joseph.
76:17 The waters saw thee, O God, the waters saw thee: * and they were afraid, and the depths were troubled.
76:18 Great was the noise of the waters: * the clouds sent out a sound.
76:18 For thy arrows pass: * the voice of thy thunder in a wheel.
76:19 Thy lightnings enlightened the world: * the earth shook and trembled.
76:20 Thy way is in the sea, and thy paths in many waters: * and thy footsteps shall not be known.

85:2 Preserve my soul, for I am holy: * save thy servant, O my God, that trusteth in thee.
85:3 Have mercy on me, O Lord, for I have cried to thee all the day. * Give joy to the soul of thy servant, for to thee, O Lord, I have lifted up my soul.

85:13 For thy mercy is great towards me: * and thou hast delivered my soul out of the lower hell.
85:14 O God, the wicked are risen up against me, and the assembly of the mighty have sought my soul: * and they have not set thee before their eyes.
85:15 And thou, O Lord, art a God of compassion, and merciful, * patient, and of much mercy, and true.

85:16 O look upon me, and have mercy on me: * give thy command to thy servant, and save the son of thy handmaid.

Hymnus

Before the ending of the day,
Creator of the world, we pray
That with thy wonted favor thou
Wouldst be our guard and keeper now.
From all ill dreams defend our eyes,
From nightly fears and fantasies;
Tread under foot our ghostly foe,
That no pollution we may know.
PFather, that we ask be done,
Through Jesus Christ, thine only Son;
Who, with the Holy Ghost and thee,
Doth live and reign eternally.
Amen.

Mother of Christ, hear thou thy people's cry

Star of the deep and Portal of the sky!

Mother of Him who thee from nothing made.

Sinking we strive and call to thee for aid:

Come let us praise the Lord with joy: let us joyfully sing to God our saviour. Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving; and make a joyful noise to him with psalms.

Unto us a Christ is born, * O come, let us worship Him.

For the Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods. For the Lord will not cast off his people: for in his hand are all the ends of the earth, and the heights of the mountains are his.

O come, let us worship Him.

For the sea is his, and he made it: and his hands formed the dry land. (genuflect) Come let us adore and fall down: and weep before the Lord that made us: For he is the Lord our God: and we are the people of his pasture and the sheep of his hand.

Unto us a Christ is born, * O come, let us worship Him.

Today if you shall hear his voice, harden not your hearts: As in the provocation, according to the day of temptation in the wilderness: where your fathers tempted me, they proved me, and saw my works.

O come, let us worship Him.

Forty years long was I offended with that generation, and I said: These always err in heart. And these men have not known my ways: so I swore in my wrath that they shall not enter into my rest.

Unto us a Christ is born, * O come, let us worship Him.

Hymnus

Jesus, the Ransomer of man,
Who, ere created light began,
Didst from the sovereign Father spring,
His power and glory equalling.
The Father's Light and Splendor Thou,
Their endless hope to Thee that bow;
Accept the prayers and praise to-day
That through the world Thy servants pay.
Malvation's Author, call to mind
How, taking form of humankind,
Born of a Virgin undefiled,
Thou in man's flesh becam'st a Child.

Thus testifies the present day,
Through every year in long array,
That Thou, salvation's source alone,
Proceedest from the Father's throne.
Hhe heavens above, the rolling main
And all that earth's wide realms contain,
With joyous voice now loudly sing
The glory of their new-born King.
End we who, by Thy precious Blood
From sin redeemed, are marked for God,
On this the day that saw Thy birth,
Sing the new song of ransomed earth.
ILord, the Virgin-born, to Thee
Eternal praise and glory be,
Whom with the Father we adore
And Holy Ghost forevermore.
Amen.

([1])

2:1 Why have the Gentiles raged, * and the people devised vain things?

2:2 The kings of the earth stood up, and the princes met together, * against the Lord and against his Christ.

2:3 Let us break their bonds asunder: * and let us cast away their yoke from us.

2:4 He that dwelleth in heaven shall laugh at them: * and the Lord shall deride them.

2:5 Then shall he speak to them in his anger, * and trouble them in his rage.

2:6 But I am appointed king by him over Sion his holy mountain, * preaching his commandment.

2:7 The Lord hath said to me: * Thou art my son, this day have I begotten thee.

2:8 Ask of me, and I will give thee the Gentiles for thy inheritance, * and the utmost parts of the earth for thy possession.

2:9 Thou shalt rule them with a rod of iron, * and shalt break them in pieces like a potter's vessel.

2:10 And now, O ye kings, understand: * receive instruction, you that judge the earth.

2:11 Serve ye the Lord with fear: * and rejoice unto him with trembling.

2:12 Embrace discipline, lest at any time the Lord be angry, * and you perish from the just way.

2:13 When his wrath shall be kindled in a short time, * blessed are all they that trust in him.

18:5 Their sound hath gone forth into all the earth: * and their words unto the ends of the world.
18:6 He hath set his tabernacle in the sun: * and he, as a bridegroom coming out of his bride chamber,
18:6 Hath rejoiced as a giant to run the way: * his going out is from the end of heaven,
18:7 And his circuit even to the end thereof: * and there is no one that can hide himself from his heat.
18:8 The law of the Lord is unspotted, converting souls: * the testimony of the Lord is faithful, giving wisdom to little ones.
18:9 The justices of the Lord are right, rejoicing hearts: * the commandment of the Lord is lightsome, enlightening the eyes.
18:10 The fear of the Lord is holy, enduring for ever and ever: * the judgments of the Lord are true, justified in themselves.
18:11 More to be desired than gold and many precious stones: * and sweeter than honey and the honeycomb.
18:12 For thy servant keepeth them, * and in keeping them there is a great reward.
18:13 Who can understand sins? † from my secret ones cleanse me, O Lord: * and from those of others spare thy servant.

44:7 Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: * the sceptre of thy kingdom is a sceptre of uprightness.
44:8 Thou hast loved justice, and hated iniquity: * therefore God, thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.
44:9 Myrrh and stacte and cassia perfume thy garments, from the ivory houses: * out of which the daughters of kings have delighted thee in thy glory.

Isa 9:1-6

1 At the first time the land of Zabulon, and the land of Nephtali was lightly touched: and at the last the way of the sea beyond the Jordan of the Galilee of the Gentiles was heavily loaded.

2 The people that walked in darkness, have seen a great light: to them that dwelt in the region of the shadow of death, light is risen.

3 Thou hast multiplied the nation, and hast not increased the joy. They shall rejoice before thee, as they that rejoice in the harvest, as conquerors rejoice after taking a prey, when they divide the spoils.

4 For the yoke of their burden, and the rod of their shoulder, and the sceptre of their oppressor thou hast overcome, as in the day of Median.

5 For every violent taking of spoils, with tumult, and garment mingled with blood, shall be burnt, and be fuel for the fire.

6 For a child is born to us, and a son is given to us, and the government is upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called, Wonderful, Counsellor, God the Mighty, the Father of the world to come, the Prince of Peace.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℟. Thanks be to God.

℟. This is the day whereon the King of heaven was pleased to be born of a Virgin, that He might bring back to heaven man who was lost.

* There is joy among the hosts of Angels, because eternal salvation hath appeared unto men.

℣. Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, to men of goodwill.

℟. There is joy among the hosts of Angels, because eternal salvation hath appeared unto men.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. This is the day whereon the King of heaven was pleased to be born of a Virgin, that He might bring back to heaven man who was lost. There is joy among the hosts of Angels, because eternal salvation hath appeared unto men.

℣. Grant, Lord, a blessing.

Benedictio

God's most mighty strength alway be His people's staff and stay.

℟. Amen.

Isa 40:1-8

1 Be comforted, be comforted, my people, saith your God.

2 Speak ye to the heart of Jerusalem, and call to her: for her evil is come to an end, her iniquity is forgiven: she hath received of the hand of the Lord double for all her sins.

3 The voice of one crying in the desert: Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight in the wilderness the paths of our God.

4 Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low, and the crooked shall become straight, and the rough ways plain.

5 And the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh together shall see, that the mouth of the Lord hath spoken.

6 The voice of one, saying: Cry. And I said: What shall I cry? All flesh is grass, and all the glory thereof as the flower of the field.

7 The grass is withered, and the flower is fallen, because the spirit of the Lord hath blown upon it. Indeed the people is grass:

8 The grass is withered, and the flower is fallen: but the word of our Lord endureth for ever.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℟. Thanks be to God.

℟. This day is the true peace come down unto us from heaven.

* This day throughout the whole world the skies drop down sweetness.

℣. This day is the daybreak of our new redemption, of the restoring of the old, of everlasting joy.

℟. This day throughout the whole world the skies drop down sweetness.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. This day throughout the whole world the skies drop down sweetness.

℣. Grant, Lord, a blessing.

Benedictio

May He that is the Angels' King to that high realm His people bring.

℟. Amen.

Isa 52:1-6

1 Arise, arise, put on thy strength, O Sion, put on the garments of thy glory, O Jerusalem, the city of the Holy One: for henceforth the uncircumcised, and unclean shall no more pass through thee.
2 Shake thyself from the dust, arise, sit up, O Jerusalem: loose the bonds from off thy neck, O captive daughter of Sion.
3 For thus saith the Lord: You were sold gratis, and you shall be redeemed without money.
4 For thus saith the Lord God: My people went down into Egypt at the beginning to sojourn there: and the Assyrian hath oppressed them without any cause at all.
5 And now what have I here, saith the Lord: for my people is taken away gratis. They that rule over them treat them unjustly, saith the Lord, and my name is continually blasphemed all the day long.
6 Therefore my people shall know my name in that day: for I myself that spoke, behold I am here.
V. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.
R. Thanks be to God.

Hymnus

From lands that see the sun arise
To earth's remotest boundaries,
The Virgin-born today we sing,
The Son of Mary, Christ the King.
Blest Author of this earthly frame,
To take a servant's form He came,

That, liberating flesh by flesh,
Whom He had made might live afresh.
On that chaste parent's holy womb
Celestial grace hath found its home;
And she, as earthly bride unknown,
Yet calls that Offspring blest her own.
The mansion of the modest breast
Becomes a shrine where God shall rest:
The pure and undefiled one
Conceived in her womb the Son.
That Son, that Royal Son she bore,
Whom Gabriel's voice had told afore;
Whom, in His mother yet concealed,
The infant Baptist had revealed.
The manger and the straw He bore,
The cradle did He not abhor;
By milk in infant portions fed,
Who gives even fowls their daily bread.
The heavenly chorus filled the sky,
The Angels sang to God on high,
What time to shepherds, watching lone,
They made creation's Shepherd known.
Ill honor, laud, and glory be,
O Jesu, Virgin-born to thee:
All glory, as is ever meet,
To Father and to Paraclete.
Amen.

1:69 And hath raised up an horn of salvation to us, * in the house of David his servant:

1:70 As he spoke by the mouth of his holy Prophets, * who are from the beginning:

1:71 Salvation from our enemies, * and from the hand of all that hate us:

1:72 To perform mercy to our fathers, * and to remember his holy testament,

1:73 The oath, which he swore to Abraham our father, * that he would grant to us,

1:74 That being delivered from the hand of our enemies, * we may serve him without fear,

1:75 In holiness and justice before him, * all our days.

1:76 And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest: * for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways:

1:77 To give knowledge of salvation to his people, * unto the remission of their sins:

Hymnus

Now in the sun's new dawning ray,

Lowly of heart, our God we pray

That he from harm may keep us free

In all the deeds this day shall see.

Lay fear of him our tongues restrain,

Lest strife unguarded speech should stain:

His favouring care our guardian be,

Lest our eyes feed on vanity.

Say every heart be pure from sin

And folly find no place therein:

Scant need of food, excess denied,

Wear down in us the body's pride.

Uhat when the light of day is gone,

And night in course shall follow on.

We, free from cares the world affords,

May chant the praise that is our Lord's.

Dll laud to God the Father be,

All praise, Eternal Son, to thee:

All glory, as is ever meet,

To God the holy Paraclete.

Amen.

93:5 Thy people, O Lord, they have brought low: * and they have afflicted thy inheritance.

93:6 They have slain the widow and the stranger: * and they have murdered the fatherless.

93:7 And they have said: The Lord shall not see: * neither shall the God of Jacob understand.

93:8 Understand, ye senseless among the people: * and, you fools, be wise at last.

93:9 He that planted the ear, shall he not hear? * or he that formed the eye, doth he not consider?

93:12 Blessed is the man whom thou shalt instruct, O Lord: * and shalt teach him out of thy law.

93:13 That thou mayst give him rest from the evil days: * till a pit be dug for the wicked.

93:14 For the Lord will not cast off his people: * neither will he forsake his own inheritance.

93:15 Until justice be turned into judgment: * and they that are near it are all the upright in heart.

93:16 Who shall rise up for me against the evildoers? * or who shall stand with me against the workers of iniquity?

93:17 Unless the Lord had been my helper, * my soul had almost dwelt in hell.

93:19 According to the multitude of my sorrows in my heart, * thy comforts have given joy to my soul.

93:20 Doth the seat of iniquity stick to thee, * who framest labour in commandment?

93:21 They will hunt after the soul of the just, * and will condemn innocent blood.

Martyrologium

December 27th 2026, the 18th day of the Moon, were born into the better life:

At Ephesus, the holy Apostle and Evangelist John. After the writing of his Gospel after his return from exile, and after the Revelation which God gave unto him, he lived on until the time of the Emperor Trajan, and founded and governed the churches of all Asia. He died of old age in the sixty-eighth year after the death of Christ (about the year 101), and was buried hard by the city of Ephesus.

Ct Alexandria, holy Maximus, Pope of that See, who was eminently worthy to be called a confessor (in the year 282).

At Constantinople the holy brethren Theodore (Grapt) and Theophanes. They were bred up from their childhood in the monastery of St. Saba, and afterwards stoutly contended for the honouring of holy images against the Emperor Leo the Armenian, for the which he caused them to be beaten and sent into exile, and after his death they still stoutly withstood the Emperor Theophilus, who was held captive by the same ungodliness, for the which he also caused them to be again beaten and driven into exile. Theodore died in prison, but Theophanes, after that peace was given back to the Church, was made Bishop of Nice, and fell asleep in peace in the Lord (ninth century).

Cikewise, at Constantinople, the holy virgin Niceras, who was eminent for her holiness, in the time of the Emperor Arcadius (about the year 440).

℣. And elsewhere many other holy martyrs, confessors, and holy virgins.

℞. Thanks be to God.

℞. Is the death of his saints.

Our Father is said silently until And lead us not into temptation:.

Hymnus

Come Holy Ghost who ever One
Art with the Father and the Son,
It is the hour, our souls possess
With thy full flood of holiness.
Oet flesh and heart and lips and mind
Sound forth our witness to mankind;
And love light up our mortal frame,
Till others catch the living flame.
Plmighty Father, hear our cry,
Through Jesus Christ, our Lord most High,
Who, with the Holy Ghost and thee,
Doth live and reign eternally.
Amen.

Ant. Let my cry reach unto thee, O Lord: * turn not away thy face from me.

Psalmus 101(2-13)

101:2 Hear, O Lord, my prayer: * and let my cry come to thee.

101:3 Turn not away thy face from me: * in the day when I am in trouble, incline thy ear to me.

101:3 In what day soever I shall call upon thee, * hear me speedily.

101:4 For my days are vanished like smoke: * and my bones are grown dry like fuel for the fire.

101:5 I am smitten as grass, and my heart is withered: * because I forgot to eat my bread.

101:6 Through the voice of my groaning, * my bone hath cleaved to my flesh.

101:7 I am become like to a pelican of the wilderness: * I am like a night raven in the house.

101:8 I have watched, * and am become as a sparrow all alone on the housetop.

101:9 All the day long my enemies reproached me: * and they that praised me did swear against me.

101:10 For I did eat ashes like bread, * and mingled my drink with weeping.

101:11 Because of thy anger and indignation: * for having lifted me up thou hast thrown me down.

101:12 My days have declined like a shadow, * and I am withered like grass.

101:13 But thou, O Lord, endurest for ever: * and thy memorial to all generations.

101:14 Thou shalt arise and have mercy on Sion: * for it is time to have mercy on it, for the time is come.

101:15 For the stones thereof have pleased thy servants: * and they shall have pity on the earth thereof.

101:16 And the Gentiles shall fear thy name, O Lord, * and all the kings of the earth thy glory.

101:17 For the Lord hath built up Sion: * and he shall be seen in his glory.

101:18 He hath had regard to the prayer of the humble: * and he hath not despised their petition.

101:19 Let these things be written unto another generation: * and the people that shall be created shall praise the Lord:

101:20 Because he hath looked forth from his high sanctuary: * from heaven the Lord hath looked upon the earth.

101:21 That he might hear the groans of them that are in fetters: * that he might release the children of the slain:

101:22 That they may declare the name of the Lord in Sion: * and his praise in Jerusalem;

101:23 When the people assemble together, * and kings, to serve the Lord.

101:24 He answered him in the way of his strength: * Declare unto me the fewness of my days.

101:25 Call me not away in the midst of my days: * thy years are unto generation and generation.

101:26 In the beginning, O Lord, thou foundedst the earth: * and the heavens are the works of thy hands.

101:27 They shall perish but thou remainest: * and all of them shall grow old like a garment:

101:28 And as a vesture thou shalt change them, and they shall be changed. * But thou art always the selfsame, and thy years shall not fail.

101:29 The children of thy servants shall continue: * and their seed shall be directed for ever.

Ant. O Lord, my God, * thou art exceedingly great.

([1])

103:1 Bless the Lord, O my soul: * O Lord my God, thou art exceedingly great.

103:1 Thou hast put on praise and beauty: * and art clothed with light as with a garment.

103:2 Who stretchest out the heaven like a pavilion: * who coverest the higher rooms thereof with water.

103:3 Who makest the clouds thy chariot: * who walkest upon the wings of the winds.

103:4 Who makest thy angels spirits: * and thy ministers a burning fire.

103:5 Who hast founded the earth upon its own bases: * it shall not be moved for ever and ever.

103:6 The deep like a garment is its clothing: * above the mountains shall the waters stand.

103:7 At thy rebuke they shall flee: * at the voice of thy thunder they shall fear.

103:8 The mountains ascend, and the plains descend * into the place which thou hast founded for them.

103:9 Thou hast set a bound which they shall not pass over; * neither shall they return to cover the earth.

103:10 Thou sendest forth springs in the vales: * between the midst of the hills the waters shall pass.

103:11 All the beasts of the field shall drink: * the wild asses shall expect in their thirst.

103:12 Over them the birds of the air shall dwell: * from the midst of the rocks they shall give forth their voices.

Psalmus 103(13-23)

103:13 Thou waterest the hills from thy upper rooms: * the earth shall be filled with the fruit of thy works:

103:14 Bringing forth grass for cattle, * and herb for the service of men.

103:14 That thou mayst bring bread out of the earth: * and that wine may cheer the heart of man.

103:15 That he may make the face cheerful with oil: * and that bread may strengthen man's heart.

103:16 The trees of the field shall be filled, and the cedars of Libanus which he hath planted: * there the sparrows shall make their nests.

103:17 The highest of them is the house of the heron. * The high hills are a refuge for the harts, the rock for the irchins.

103:19 He hath made the moon for seasons: * the sun knoweth his going down.

103:20 Thou hast appointed darkness, and it is night: * in it shall all the beasts of the woods go about:

103:21 The young lions roaring after their prey, * and seeking their meat from God.

103:22 The sun ariseth, and they are gathered together: * and they shall lie down in their dens.

103:24 How great are thy works, O Lord? * thou hast made all things in wisdom: the earth is filled with thy riches.

103:25 So is this great sea, which stretcheth wide its arms: * there are creeping things without number:

103:26 Creatures little and great. * There the ships shall go.

103:27 This sea dragon which thou hast formed to play therein. * All expect of thee that thou give them food in season.

103:28 What thou givest to them they shall gather up: * when thou openest thy hand, they shall all be filled with good.

103:29 But if thou turnest away thy face, they shall be troubled: * thou shalt take away their breath, and they shall fail, and shall return to their dust.

103:30 Thou shalt send forth thy spirit, and they shall be created: * and thou shalt renew the face of the earth.

103:31 May the glory of the Lord endure for ever: * the Lord shall rejoice in his works.

103:32 He looketh upon the earth, and maketh it tremble: * he toucheth the mountains, and they smoke.

103:33 I will sing to the Lord as long as I live: * I will sing praise to my God while I have my being.

103:34 Let my speech be acceptable to him: * but I will take delight in the Lord.

Who ever dost thyself unmoved abide,
Yet day by day the light in due gradation
From hour to hour through all its changes guide:
Lrant to life's day a calm unclouded ending,
An eve untouched by shadows of decay,
The brightness of a holy death-bed blending
With dawning glories of th' eternal day.

And thou, O Christ, the co-eternal Word,
Who, with the Holy Ghost, by all things living
Now and to endless ages art adored.

Ant. O God, be thou not silent * for the mouth of the wicked man is opened against me.

108:2 God, be not thou silent in my praise: * for the mouth of the wicked and the mouth of the deceitful man is opened against me.

108:3 They have spoken against me with deceitful tongues; and they have compassed me about with words of hatred; * and have fought against me without cause.

108:4 Instead of making me a return of love, they detracted me: * but I gave myself to prayer.

108:5 And they repaid me evil for good: * and hatred for my love.

108:6 Set thou the sinner over him: * and may the devil stand at his right hand.

108:15 May they be before the Lord continually, and let the memory of them perish from the earth:

* because he remembered not to shew mercy,

108:18 And he loved cursing, and it shall come unto him: * and he would not have blessing, and it shall be far from him.

108:18 And he put on cursing, like a garment: * and it went in like water into his entrails, and like oil in his bones.

108:19 May it be unto him like a garment which covereth him; * and like a girdle with which he is girded continually.

108:20 This is the work of them who detract me before the Lord; * and who speak evils against my soul.

Unto us a Christ is born, * O come, let us worship Him.

For the Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods. For the Lord will not cast off his people: for in his hand are all the ends of the earth, and the heights of the mountains are his.

O come, let us worship Him.

For the sea is his, and he made it: and his hands formed the dry land. (genuflect) Come let us adore and fall down: and weep before the Lord that made us: For he is the Lord our God: and we are the people of his pasture and the sheep of his hand.

Unto us a Christ is born, * O come, let us worship Him.

Today if you shall hear his voice, harden not your hearts: As in the provocation, according to the day of temptation in the wilderness: where your fathers tempted me, they proved me, and saw my works.

O come, let us worship Him.

Forty years long was I offended with that generation, and I said: These always err in heart. And these men have not known my ways: so I swore in my wrath that they shall not enter into my rest.

2:1 Why have the Gentiles raged, * and the people devised vain things?

2:2 The kings of the earth stood up, and the princes met together, * against the Lord and against his Christ.

2:3 Let us break their bonds asunder: * and let us cast away their yoke from us.

88:16 They shall walk, O Lord, in the light of thy countenance: and in thy name they shall rejoice all the day, * and in thy justice they shall be exalted.

88:18 For thou art the glory of their strength: * and in thy good pleasure shall our horn be exalted.

88:19 For our protection is of the Lord, * and of our king the holy one of Israel.

88:27 He shall cry out to me: Thou art my father: * my God, and the support of my salvation.
88:28 And I will make him my firstborn, * high above the kings of the earth.
88:29 I will keep my mercy for him for ever: * and my covenant faithful to him.
88:30 And I will make his seed to endure for evermore: * and his throne as the days of heaven.
88:31 And if his children forsake my law, * and walk not in my judgments:
88:32 If they profane my justices: * and keep not my commandments:
88:33 I will visit their iniquities with a rod: * and their sins with stripes.
88:34 But my mercy I will not take away from him: * nor will I suffer my truth to fail.
88:35 Neither will I profane my covenant: * and the words that proceed from my mouth I will not make void.
88:36 Once have I sworn by my holiness: I will not lie unto David: * his seed shall endure for ever.

Isa 9:1-6

1 At the first time the land of Zabulon, and the land of Nephtali was lightly touched: and at the last the way of the sea beyond the Jordan of the Galilee of the Gentiles was heavily loaded.

2 The people that walked in darkness, have seen a great light: to them that dwelt in the region of the shadow of death, light is risen.

3 Thou hast multiplied the nation, and hast not increased the joy. They shall rejoice before thee, as they that rejoice in the harvest, as conquerors rejoice after taking a prey, when they divide the spoils.

4 For the yoke of their burden, and the rod of their shoulder, and the sceptre of their oppressor thou hast overcome, as in the day of Median.

5 For every violent taking of spoils, with tumult, and garment mingled with blood, shall be burnt, and be fuel for the fire.

6 For a child is born to us, and a son is given to us, and the government is upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called, Wonderful, Counsellor, God the Mighty, the Father of the world to come, the Prince of Peace.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℟. Thanks be to God.

℟. This is the day whereon the King of heaven was pleased to be born of a Virgin, that He might bring back to heaven man who was lost.

Isa 40:1-8

1 Be comforted, be comforted, my people, saith your God.

2 Speak ye to the heart of Jerusalem, and call to her: for her evil is come to an end, her iniquity is forgiven: she hath received of the hand of the Lord double for all her sins.

3 The voice of one crying in the desert: Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight in the wilderness the paths of our God.

4 Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low, and the crooked shall become straight, and the rough ways plain.

5 And the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh together shall see, that the mouth of the Lord hath spoken.

6 The voice of one, saying: Cry. And I said: What shall I cry? All flesh is grass, and all the glory thereof as the flower of the field.

7 The grass is withered, and the flower is fallen, because the spirit of the Lord hath blown upon it. Indeed the people is grass:

8 The grass is withered, and the flower is fallen: but the word of our Lord endureth for ever.

Isa 52:1-6

1 Arise, arise, put on thy strength, O Sion, put on the garments of thy glory, O Jerusalem, the city of the Holy One: for henceforth the uncircumcised, and unclean shall no more pass through thee.

2 Shake thyself from the dust, arise, sit up, O Jerusalem: loose the bonds from off thy neck, O captive daughter of Sion.

3 For thus saith the Lord: You were sold gratis, and you shall be redeemed without money.

4 For thus saith the Lord God: My people went down into Egypt at the beginning to sojourn there: and the Assyrian hath oppressed them without any cause at all.

5 And now what have I here, saith the Lord: for my people is taken away gratis. They that rule over them treat them unjustly, saith the Lord, and my name is continually blasphemed all the day long.

6 Therefore my people shall know my name in that day: for I myself that spoke, behold I am here.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℟. Thanks be to God.

From the Holy Gospel according to Luke

Luc 2:33-40

In that time, his father and mother were wondering at those things which were spoken concerning him. And so on.

Homily by St. Ambrose, Bishop of Milan.

Lib. 2 in cap. 2 Lucae, prope finem

We see that God's abounding grace is poured forth on all by the birth of the Lord, and that the gift of prophecy is not denied to the righteous, but to the unbelieving. Simeon prophesieth that our Lord Jesus Christ is set for the fall and rising again of many in Israel, setting forth that the just and the unjust reap different fruits from the coming of the Saviour; so will it be with us; according to our individual works will the True and Just Judge apportion to us punishment or reward.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℞. Thanks be to God.

Hymnus

From lands that see the sun arise

To earth's remotest boundaries,

The Virgin-born today we sing,

The Son of Mary, Christ the King.

Blest Author of this earthly frame,

To take a servant's form He came,

That, liberating flesh by flesh,

Whom He had made might live afresh.
 On that chaste parent's holy womb
 Celestial grace hath found its home;
 And she, as earthly bride unknown,
 Yet calls that Offspring blest her own.
 The mansion of the modest breast
 Becomes a shrine where God shall rest:
 The pure and undefiled one
 Conceived in her womb the Son.
 That Son, that Royal Son she bore,
 Whom Gabriel's voice had told afore;
 Whom, in His mother yet concealed,
 The infant Baptist had revealed.
 The manger and the straw He bore,
 The cradle did He not abhor;
 By milk in infant portions fed,
 Who gives even fowls their daily bread.
 The heavenly chorus filled the sky,
 The Angels sang to God on high,
 What time to shepherds, watching lone,
 They made creation's Shepherd known.
 All honor, laud, and glory be,
 O Jesu, Virgin-born to thee:
 All glory, as is ever meet,
 To Father and to Paraclete.
 Amen.

℣. The Word was made flesh, alleluia.

℟. And dwelt among us, alleluia.

Ant. While all things were in quiet silence * and that night was in the midst of her swift course, thine Almighty Word, O Lord, leapt down out of thy Royal Throne.

Luc. 1:68-79

1:68 Blessed be the Lord ✠ God of Israel; * because he hath visited and wrought the redemption of his people:

1:69 And hath raised up an horn of salvation to us, * in the house of David his servant:

1:70 As he spoke by the mouth of his holy Prophets, * who are from the beginning:

1:71 Salvation from our enemies, * and from the hand of all that hate us:

1:72 To perform mercy to our fathers, * and to remember his holy testament,

1:73 The oath, which he swore to Abraham our father, * that he would grant to us,

1:74 That being delivered from the hand of our enemies, * we may serve him without fear,

1:75 In holiness and justice before him, * all our days.

1:76 And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest: * for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways:

1:77 To give knowledge of salvation to his people, * unto the remission of their sins:

1:78 Through the bowels of the mercy of our God, * in which the Orient from on high hath visited us:

1:79 To enlighten them that sit in darkness, and in the shadow of death: * to direct our feet into the way of peace.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Hymnus

Now in the sun's new dawning ray,

Lowly of heart, our God we pray

That he from harm may keep us free

In all the deeds this day shall see.

Lay fear of him our tongues restrain,

Lest strife unguarded speech should stain:

His favouring care our guardian be,

Lest our eyes feed on vanity.

Say every heart be pure from sin

And folly find no place therein:

Scant need of food, excess denied,

Wear down in us the body's pride.

Uhat when the light of day is gone,

And night in course shall follow on.

We, free from cares the world affords,

May chant the praise that is our Lord's.

Dll laud to God the Father be,

All praise, Eternal Son, to thee:

All glory, as is ever meet,

To God the holy Paraclete.

118:21 Thou hast rebuked the proud: * they are cursed who decline from thy commandments.

118:22 Remove from me reproach and contempt: * because I have sought after thy testimonies.

118:23 For princes sat, and spoke against me: * but thy servant was employed in thy justifications.

118:145 (Coph) I cried with my whole heart, hear me, O Lord: * I will seek thy justifications.

118:146 I cried unto thee, save me: * that I may keep thy commandments.

118:147 I prevented the dawning of the day, and cried: * because in thy words I very much hoped.

118:148 My eyes to thee have prevented the morning: * that I might meditate on thy words.

118:149 Hear thou my voice, O Lord, according to thy mercy: * and quicken me according to thy judgment.

118:150 They that persecute me have drawn nigh to iniquity; * but they are gone far off from thy law.

118:151 Thou art near, O Lord: * and all thy ways are truth.

118:152 I have known from the beginning concerning thy testimonies: * that thou hast founded them for ever.

118:153 (Res) See my humiliation and deliver me: * for I have not forgotten thy law.

118:154 Judge my judgment and redeem me: * quicken thou me for thy word's sake.

118:155 Salvation is far from sinners; * because they have not sought thy justifications.

118:156 Many, O Lord, are thy mercies: * quicken me according to thy judgment.

118:157 Many are they that persecute me, and afflict me; * but I have not declined from thy testimonies.

118:158 I beheld the transgressors, and I pined away; * because they kept not thy word.

118:166 I looked for thy salvation, O Lord: * and I loved thy commandments.

118:167 My soul hath kept thy testimonies: * and hath loved them exceedingly.

118:168 I have kept thy commandments and thy testimonies: * because all my ways are in thy sight.

118:169 (Tau) Let my supplication, O Lord, come near in thy sight: * give me understanding according to thy word.

118:170 Let my request come in before thee; * deliver thou me according to thy word.

118:171 My lips shall utter a hymn, * when thou shalt teach me thy justifications.

2:1 Why have the Gentiles raged, * and the people devised vain things?

2:2 The kings of the earth stood up, and the princes met together, * against the Lord and against his Christ.

2:3 Let us break their bonds asunder: * and let us cast away their yoke from us.

2:4 He that dwelleth in heaven shall laugh at them: * and the Lord shall deride them.

2:5 Then shall he speak to them in his anger, * and trouble them in his rage.

2:6 But I am appointed king by him over Sion his holy mountain, * preaching his commandment.

2:7 The Lord hath said to me: * Thou art my son, this day have I begotten thee.

2:8 Ask of me, and I will give thee the Gentiles for thy inheritance, * and the utmost parts of the earth for thy possession.

2:9 Thou shalt rule them with a rod of iron, * and shalt break them in pieces like a potter's vessel.

2:10 And now, O ye kings, understand: * receive instruction, you that judge the earth.

2:11 Serve ye the Lord with fear: * and rejoice unto him with trembling.

18:4 There are no speeches nor languages, * where their voices are not heard.

18:5 Their sound hath gone forth into all the earth: * and their words unto the ends of the world.
18:6 He hath set his tabernacle in the sun: * and he, as a bridegroom coming out of his bride chamber,

18:11 More to be desired than gold and many precious stones: * and sweeter than honey and the honeycomb.
18:12 For thy servant keepeth them, * and in keeping them there is a great reward.
18:13 Who can understand sins? † from my secret ones cleanse me, O Lord: * and from those of others spare thy servant.
18:14 If they shall have no dominion over me, then shall I be without spot: * and I shall be cleansed from the greatest sin.

44:8 Thou hast loved justice, and hated iniquity: * therefore God, thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.
44:9 Myrrh and stacte and cassia perfume thy garments, from the ivory houses: * out of which the daughters of kings have delighted thee in thy glory.
44:10 The queen stood on thy right hand, in gilded clothing; * surrounded with variety.
44:11 Harken, O daughter, and see, and incline thy ear: * and forget thy people and thy father's

Isa 9:1-6

1 At the first time the land of Zabulon, and the land of Nephtali was lightly touched: and at the last the way of the sea beyond the Jordan of the Galilee of the Gentiles was heavily loaded.

2 The people that walked in darkness, have seen a great light: to them that dwelt in the region of the shadow of death, light is risen.

3 Thou hast multiplied the nation, and hast not increased the joy. They shall rejoice before thee, as they that rejoice in the harvest, as conquerors rejoice after taking a prey, when they divide the spoils.

4 For the yoke of their burden, and the rod of their shoulder, and the sceptre of their oppressor thou hast overcome, as in the day of Median.

5 For every violent taking of spoils, with tumult, and garment mingled with blood, shall be burnt, and be fuel for the fire.

2 Speak ye to the heart of Jerusalem, and call to her: for her evil is come to an end, her iniquity is forgiven: she hath received of the hand of the Lord double for all her sins.

3 The voice of one crying in the desert: Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight in the wilderness the paths of our God.

4 Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low, and the crooked shall become straight, and the rough ways plain.

5 And the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh together shall see, that the mouth of the Lord hath spoken.

6 The voice of one, saying: Cry. And I said: What shall I cry? All flesh is grass, and all the glory thereof as the flower of the field.

Isa 52:1-6

1 Arise, arise, put on thy strength, O Sion, put on the garments of thy glory, O Jerusalem, the city of the Holy One: for henceforth the uncircumcised, and unclean shall no more pass through thee.
2 Shake thyself from the dust, arise, sit up, O Jerusalem: loose the bonds from off thy neck, O captive daughter of Sion.
3 For thus saith the Lord: You were sold gratis, and you shall be redeemed without money.
4 For thus saith the Lord God: My people went down into Egypt at the beginning to sojourn there: and the Assyrian hath oppressed them without any cause at all.
5 And now what have I here, saith the Lord: for my people is taken away gratis. They that rule over them treat them unjustly, saith the Lord, and my name is continually blasphemed all the day long.

([3])

62:2 O God, my God, * to thee do I watch at break of day.

62:2 For thee my soul hath thirsted; * for thee my flesh, O how many ways!

62:3 In a desert land, and where there is no way, and no water: † so in the sanctuary have I come before thee, * to see thy power and thy glory.

62:4 For thy mercy is better than lives: * thee my lips shall praise.

62:5 Thus will I bless thee all my life long: * and in thy name I will lift up my hands.

62:6 Let my soul be filled as with marrow and fatness: * and my mouth shall praise thee with joyful lips.

62:7 If I have remembered thee upon my bed, † I will meditate on thee in the morning: * because thou hast been my helper.

62:8 And I will rejoice under the covert of thy wings: † my soul hath stuck close to thee: * thy right hand hath received me.

62:10 But they have sought my soul in vain, † they shall go into the lower parts of the earth: * they shall be delivered into the hands of the sword, they shall be the portions of foxes.

62:12 But the king shall rejoice in God, all they shall be praised that swear by him: * because the mouth is stopped of them that speak wicked things.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Hymnus

From lands that see the sun arise
To earth's remotest boundaries,
The Virgin-born today we sing,
The Son of Mary, Christ the King.
Blest Author of this earthly frame,
To take a servant's form He came,

That, liberating flesh by flesh,
Whom He had made might live afresh.
On that chaste parent's holy womb
Celestial grace hath found its home;
And she, as earthly bride unknown,
Yet calls that Offspring blest her own.
The mansion of the modest breast
Becomes a shrine where God shall rest:
The pure and undefiled one
Conceived in her womb the Son.
That Son, that Royal Son she bore,
Whom Gabriel's voice had told afore;
Whom, in His mother yet concealed,
The infant Baptist had revealed.
The manger and the straw He bore,
The cradle did He not abhor;
By milk in infant portions fed,
Who gives even fowls their daily bread.
The heavenly chorus filled the sky,
The Angels sang to God on high,
What time to shepherds, watching lone,
They made creation's Shepherd known.
Ill honor, laud, and glory be,
O Jesu, Virgin-born to thee:
All glory, as is ever meet,
To Father and to Paraclete.
Amen.

Hymnus

Now in the sun's new dawning ray,

Lowly of heart, our God we pray

That he from harm may keep us free

In all the deeds this day shall see.

Lay fear of him our tongues restrain,

Lest strife unguarded speech should stain:

His favouring care our guardian be,

Lest our eyes feed on vanity.

Say every heart be pure from sin

And folly find no place therein:

Scant need of food, excess denied,

Wear down in us the body's pride.

Uhat when the light of day is gone,

And night in course shall follow on.

We, free from cares the world affords,

May chant the praise that is our Lord's.

Dll laud to God the Father be,

All praise, Eternal Son, to thee:

All glory, as is ever meet,

To God the holy Paraclete.

Hymnus

O strength and stay upholding all creation,
Who ever dost thyself unmoved abide,
Yet day by day the light in due gradation
From hour to hour through all its changes guide:
Lrant to life's day a calm unclouded ending,
An eve untouched by shadows of decay,
The brightness of a holy death-bed blending
With dawning glories of th' eternal day.
Pear us, O Father, gracious and forgiving,
And thou, O Christ, the co-eternal Word,
Who, with the Holy Ghost, by all things living
Now and to endless ages art adored.
Amen.

([1])

31:1 Blessed are those whose iniquities are forgiven * and whose sins are covered.

31:2 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord hath not imputed sin, * and in whose spirit there is no guile.

31:3 Because I was silent my bones grew old; * whilst I cried out all the day long.

31:4 For day and night thy hand was heavy upon me: * I am turned in my anguish, whilst the thorn is fastened.

31:5 I have acknowledged my sin to thee, * and my injustice I have not concealed.

31:5 I said I will confess against myself my injustice to the Lord: * and thou hast forgiven the wickedness of my sin.

31:6 For this shall every one that is holy pray to thee * in a seasonable time.

31:6 And yet in a flood of many waters, * they shall not come nigh unto him.

31:7 Thou art my refuge from the trouble which hath encompassed me: * my joy, deliver me from them that surround me.

31:8 I will give thee understanding, and I will instruct thee in this way, in which thou shalt go: * I will fix my eyes upon thee.

31:9 Do not become like the horse and the mule, * who have no understanding.

31:9 With bit and bridle bind fast their jaws, * who come not near unto thee.

32:1 Rejoice in the Lord, O ye just: * praise becometh the upright.

32:2 Give praise to the Lord on the harp; * sing to him with the psaltery, the instrument of ten strings.

32:3 Sing to him a new canticle, * sing well unto him with a loud noise.

32:4 For the word of the Lord is right, * and all his works are done with faithfulness.

32:5 He loveth mercy and judgment; * the earth is full of the mercy of the Lord.

32:6 By the word of the Lord the heavens were established; * and all the power of them by the spirit of his mouth:

32:7 Gathering together the waters of the sea, as in a vessel; * laying up the depths in storehouses.

32:8 Let all the earth fear the Lord, * and let all the inhabitants of the world be in awe of him.

32:9 For he spoke and they were made: * he commanded and they were created.

32:10 The Lord bringeth to nought the counsels of nations; * and he rejecteth the devices of people, and casteth away the counsels of princes.

32:14 From his habitation which he hath prepared, * he hath looked upon all that dwell on the earth.

32:15 He who hath made the hearts of every one of them: * who understandeth all their works.

32:16 The king is not saved by a great army: * nor shall the giant be saved by his own great strength.

32:17 Vain is the horse for safety: * neither shall he be saved by the abundance of his strength.

Hymnus

Jesus, the Ransomer of man,
 Who, ere created light began,
 Didst from the sovereign Father spring,
 His power and glory equalling.
 The Father's Light and Splendor Thou,
 Their endless hope to Thee that bow;
 Accept the prayers and praise to-day
 That through the world Thy servants pay.
 Salvation's Author, call to mind
 How, taking form of humankind,
 Born of a Virgin undefiled,
 Thou in man's flesh becam'st a Child.
 Thus testifies the present day,
 Through every year in long array,
 That Thou, salvation's source alone,
 Proceedest from the Father's throne.
 Hhe heavens above, the rolling main

And all that earth's wide realms contain,
With joyous voice now loudly sing
The glory of their new-born King.
End we who, by Thy precious Blood
From sin redeemed, are marked for God,
On this the day that saw Thy birth,
Sing the new song of ransomed earth.
I Lord, the Virgin-born, to Thee
Eternal praise and glory be,
Whom with the Father we adore
And Holy Ghost forevermore.

Mother of Christ, hear thou thy people's cry

Star of the deep and Portal of the sky!

Mother of Him who thee from nothing made.

Sinking we strive and call to thee for aid:

O, by what joy which Gabriel brought to thee,

Thou Virgin first and last, let us thy mercy see.

℣. After childbirth thou didst remain a virgin.

℞. Intercede for us, O Mother of God.

Let us pray.

O God, who, by the fruitful virginity of blessed Mary, hast bestowed upon mankind the reward of eternal salvation: grant, we beseech thee, that we may experience her intercession, through whom we have been made worthy to receive the author of life, Our Lord Jesus Christ thy Son. Amen.

℣. May the divine assistance ✠ remain with us always.

℞. Amen.

Matins

℣. O Lord, + open thou my lips.

℟. And my mouth shall declare thy praise.

℣. O God, ✠ come to my assistance;

℟. O Lord, make haste to help me.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Alleluia.

Ant. Unto us a Christ is born, * O come, let us worship Him.

Unto us a Christ is born, * O come, let us worship Him.

Come let us praise the Lord with joy: let us joyfully sing to God our saviour. Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving; and make a joyful noise to him with psalms.

Unto us a Christ is born, * O come, let us worship Him.

For the Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods. For the Lord will not cast off his people: for in his hand are all the ends of the earth, and the heights of the mountains are his.

O come, let us worship Him.

For the sea is his, and he made it: and his hands formed the dry land. (genuflect) Come let us adore and fall down: and weep before the Lord that made us: For he is the Lord our God: and we are the people of his pasture and the sheep of his hand.

Unto us a Christ is born, * O come, let us worship Him.

Today if you shall hear his voice, harden not your hearts: As in the provocation, according to the day of temptation in the wilderness: where your fathers tempted me, they proved me, and saw my works.

O come, let us worship Him.

Forty years long was I offended with that generation, and I said: These always err in heart. And these men have not known my ways: so I swore in my wrath that they shall not enter into my rest.

Unto us a Christ is born, * O come, let us worship Him.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

O come, let us worship Him.

Unto us a Christ is born, * O come, let us worship Him.

Hymnus

Jesus, the Ransomer of man,
Who, ere created light began,
Didst from the sovereign Father spring,
His power and glory equalling.
The Father's Light and Splendor Thou,
Their endless hope to Thee that bow;
Accept the prayers and praise to-day
That through the world Thy servants pay.
Malvation's Author, call to mind
How, taking form of humankind,
Born of a Virgin undefiled,
Thou in man's flesh becam'st a Child.

Thus testifies the present day,
Through every year in long array,
That Thou, salvation's source alone,
Proceedest from the Father's throne.
Hhe heavens above, the rolling main
And all that earth's wide realms contain,
With joyous voice now loudly sing
The glory of their new-born King.
End we who, by Thy precious Blood
From sin redeemed, are marked for God,
On this the day that saw Thy birth,
Sing the new song of ransomed earth.
ILord, the Virgin-born, to Thee
Eternal praise and glory be,
Whom with the Father we adore
And Holy Ghost forevermore.
Amen.

Ant. The Lord hath said unto Me: * Thou art My Son, this day have I begotten thee.

2:1 Why have the Gentiles raged, * and the people devised vain things?

2:2 The kings of the earth stood up, and the princes met together, * against the Lord and against his Christ.

2:3 Let us break their bonds asunder: * and let us cast away their yoke from us.

2:4 He that dwelleth in heaven shall laugh at them: * and the Lord shall deride them.

2:5 Then shall he speak to them in his anger, * and trouble them in his rage.

2:6 But I am appointed king by him over Sion his holy mountain, * preaching his commandment.

2:7 The Lord hath said to me: * Thou art my son, this day have I begotten thee.

2:8 Ask of me, and I will give thee the Gentiles for thy inheritance, * and the utmost parts of the earth for thy possession.

2:9 Thou shalt rule them with a rod of iron, * and shalt break them in pieces like a potter's vessel.

2:10 And now, O ye kings, understand: * receive instruction, you that judge the earth.

2:11 Serve ye the Lord with fear: * and rejoice unto him with trembling.

2:12 Embrace discipline, lest at any time the Lord be angry, * and you perish from the just way.

2:13 When his wrath shall be kindled in a short time, * blessed are all they that trust in him.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. The Lord hath said unto Me: Thou art My Son, this day have I begotten thee.

18:2 The heavens shew forth the glory of God, * and the firmament declareth the work of his hands.

18:3 Day to day uttereth speech, * and night to night sheweth knowledge.

18:4 There are no speeches nor languages, * where their voices are not heard.

18:5 Their sound hath gone forth into all the earth: * and their words unto the ends of the world.
18:6 He hath set his tabernacle in the sun: * and he, as a bridegroom coming out of his bride chamber,
18:6 Hath rejoiced as a giant to run the way: * his going out is from the end of heaven,
18:7 And his circuit even to the end thereof: * and there is no one that can hide himself from his heat.
18:8 The law of the Lord is unspotted, converting souls: * the testimony of the Lord is faithful, giving wisdom to little ones.
18:9 The justices of the Lord are right, rejoicing hearts: * the commandment of the Lord is lightsome, enlightening the eyes.
18:10 The fear of the Lord is holy, enduring for ever and ever: * the judgments of the Lord are true, justified in themselves.
18:11 More to be desired than gold and many precious stones: * and sweeter than honey and the honeycomb.
18:12 For thy servant keepeth them, * and in keeping them there is a great reward.
18:13 Who can understand sins? † from my secret ones cleanse me, O Lord: * and from those of others spare thy servant.
18:14 If they shall have no dominion over me, then shall I be without spot: * and I shall be cleansed from the greatest sin.
18:15 And the words of my mouth shall be such as may please: * and the meditation of my heart always in thy sight.
18:15 O Lord, my helper, * and my redeemer.
V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

Psalmus 44

([3])

44:2 My tongue is the pen of a scrivener * that writeth swiftly.
44:3 Thou art beautiful above the sons of men: † grace is poured abroad in thy lips; * therefore hath God blessed thee for ever.
44:4 Gird thy sword upon thy thigh, * O thou most mighty.
44:5 With thy comeliness and thy beauty * set out, proceed prosperously, and reign.
44:5 Because of truth and meekness and justice: * and thy right hand shall conduct thee wonderfully.
44:6 Thy arrows are sharp: under thee shall people fall, * into the hearts of the king's enemies.
44:7 Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: * the sceptre of thy kingdom is a sceptre of uprightness.
44:8 Thou hast loved justice, and hated iniquity: * therefore God, thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.
44:9 Myrrh and stacte and cassia perfume thy garments, from the ivory houses: * out of which the daughters of kings have delighted thee in thy glory.
44:10 The queen stood on thy right hand, in gilded clothing; * surrounded with variety.
44:11 Harken, O daughter, and see, and incline thy ear: * and forget thy people and thy father's house.

44:12 And the king shall greatly desire thy beauty; * for he is the Lord thy God, and him they shall adore.

44:13 And the daughters of Tyre with gifts, * yea, all the rich among the people, shall entreat thy countenance.

44:14 All the glory of the king's daughter is within, * in golden borders, clothed round about with varieties.

44:15 After her shall virgins be brought to the king: * her neighbours shall be brought to thee.

44:16 They shall be brought with gladness and rejoicing: * they shall be brought into the temple of the king.

44:17 Instead of thy fathers, sons are born to thee: * thou shalt make them princes over all the earth.

44:18 They shall remember thy name * throughout all generations.

44:18 Therefore shall people praise thee for ever; yea, * for ever and ever.

47:4 In her houses shall God be known, * when he shall protect her.

47:5 For behold the kings of the earth assembled themselves: * they gathered together.

47:6 So they saw, and they wondered, they were troubled, they were moved: * trembling took hold of them.

47:7 There were pains as of a woman in labour; * with a vehement wind thou shalt break in pieces the ships of Tharsis.

47:11 According to thy name, O God, so also is thy praise unto the ends of the earth: * thy right hand is full of justice.

47:12 Let mount Sion rejoice, and the daughters of Juda be glad; * because of thy judgments, O Lord.

47:13 Surround Sion, and encompass her: * tell ye in her towers.

Reading 1

Beginning of the letter of St. Paul the Apostle to the Romans

Rom 1:1-7

1 Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, separated unto the gospel of God,

2 Which he had promised before, by his prophets, in the holy scriptures,

3 Concerning his Son, who was made to him of the seed of David, according to the flesh,

4 Who was predestinated the Son of God in power, according to the spirit of sanctification, by the resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ from the dead;

5 By whom we have received grace and apostleship for obedience to the faith, in all nations, for his name;

6 Among whom are you also the called of Jesus Christ:

7 To all that are at Rome, the beloved of God, called to be saints. Grace to you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

R. Thanks be to God.

R. This day is the true peace come down unto us from heaven.

* This day throughout the whole world the skies drop down sweetness.

V. This day is the daybreak of our new redemption, of the restoring of the old, of everlasting joy.

R. This day throughout the whole world the skies drop down sweetness.

V. Grant, Lord, a blessing.

Benedictio

May Christ to all His people give, for ever in His sight to live.

R. Amen.

Rom 1:8-12

8 First I give thanks to my God, through Jesus Christ, for you all, because your faith is spoken of in the whole world.

9 For God is my witness, whom I serve in my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I make a commemoration of you;

10 Always in my prayers making request, if by any means now at length I may have a prosperous journey, by the will of God, to come unto you.

11 For I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual grace, to strengthen you:

12 That is to say, that I may be comforted together in you, by that which is common to us both, your faith and mine.

V. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

R. Thanks be to God.

R. O ye shepherds, speak, and tell us what ye have seen; who is appeared in the earth?

* We saw the new-born Child, and Angels singing praise to the Lord.

V. Speak; what have ye seen? And tell us of the Birth of Christ.

R. We saw the new-born Child, and Angels singing praise to the Lord.

V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

R. We saw the new-born Child, and Angels singing praise to the Lord.

V. Grant, Lord, a blessing.

Benedictio

May the Spirit's fire Divine in our hearts enkindled shine.

R. Amen.

Rom 1:13-19

13 And I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that I have often purposed to come unto you, (and have been hindered hitherto,) that I might have some fruit among you also, even as among other Gentiles.

14 To the Greeks and to the barbarians, to the wise and to the unwise, I am a debtor;

15 So (as much as is in me) I am ready to preach the gospel to you also that are at Rome.

16 For I am not ashamed of the gospel. For it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth, to the Jew first, and to the Greek.

17 For the justice of God is revealed therein, from faith unto faith, as it is written: The just man liveth by faith.

18 For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and injustice of those men that detain the truth of God in injustice:

19 Because that which is known of God is manifest in them. For God hath manifested it unto them.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℟. Thanks be to God.

Hymnus

From lands that see the sun arise
To earth's remotest boundaries,
The Virgin-born today we sing,
The Son of Mary, Christ the King.
Blest Author of this earthly frame,
To take a servant's form He came,

That, liberating flesh by flesh,
Whom He had made might live afresh.
On that chaste parent's holy womb
Celestial grace hath found its home;
And she, as earthly bride unknown,
Yet calls that Offspring blest her own.
The mansion of the modest breast
Becomes a shrine where God shall rest:
The pure and undefiled one
Conceived in her womb the Son.
That Son, that Royal Son she bore,
Whom Gabriel's voice had told afore;
Whom, in His mother yet concealed,
The infant Baptist had revealed.
The manger and the straw He bore,
The cradle did He not abhor;
By milk in infant portions fed,
Who gives even fowls their daily bread.
The heavenly chorus filled the sky,
The Angels sang to God on high,
What time to shepherds, watching lone,
They made creation's Shepherd known.
Ill honor, laud, and glory be,
O Jesu, Virgin-born to thee:
All glory, as is ever meet,
To Father and to Paraclete.
Amen.

1:69 And hath raised up an horn of salvation to us, * in the house of David his servant:

1:70 As he spoke by the mouth of his holy Prophets, * who are from the beginning:

1:71 Salvation from our enemies, * and from the hand of all that hate us:

1:72 To perform mercy to our fathers, * and to remember his holy testament,

1:73 The oath, which he swore to Abraham our father, * that he would grant to us,

1:74 That being delivered from the hand of our enemies, * we may serve him without fear,

1:75 In holiness and justice before him, * all our days.

1:76 And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest: * for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways:

1:77 To give knowledge of salvation to his people, * unto the remission of their sins:

1:78 Through the bowels of the mercy of our God, * in which the Orient from on high hath visited us:

1:79 To enlighten them that sit in darkness, and in the shadow of death: * to direct our feet into the way of peace.

Hymnus

Now in the sun's new dawning ray,

Lowly of heart, our God we pray

That he from harm may keep us free

In all the deeds this day shall see.

Lay fear of him our tongues restrain,

Lest strife unguarded speech should stain:

His favouring care our guardian be,

Lest our eyes feed on vanity.

Say every heart be pure from sin

And folly find no place therein:

Scant need of food, excess denied,

Wear down in us the body's pride.

Uhat when the light of day is gone,

And night in course shall follow on.

We, free from cares the world affords,

May chant the praise that is our Lord's.

Dll laud to God the Father be,

All praise, Eternal Son, to thee:

To God the holy Paraclete.

([1])

40:2 Blessed is he that understandeth concerning the needy and the poor: * the Lord will deliver him in the evil day.

40:3 The Lord preserve him and give him life, and make him blessed upon the earth: * and deliver him not up to the will of his enemies.

40:4 The Lord help him on his bed of sorrow: * thou hast turned all his couch in his sickness.

40:5 I said: O Lord, be thou merciful to me: * heal my soul, for I have sinned against thee.

40:6 My enemies have spoken evils against me: * when shall he die and his name perish?

40:7 And if he came in to see me, he spoke vain things: * his heart gathered together iniquity to itself.

40:7 He went out * and spoke to the same purpose.

40:8 All my enemies whispered together against me: * they devised evils to me.

40:9 They determined against me an unjust word: * shall he that sleepeth rise again no more?

40:10 For even the man of my peace, in whom I trusted, * who ate my bread, hath greatly supplanted me.

40:11 But thou, O Lord, have mercy on me, and raise me up again: * and I will requite them.

40:12 By this I know, that thou hast had a good will for me: * because my enemy shall not rejoice over me.

40:13 But thou hast upheld me by reason of my innocence: * and hast established me in thy sight for ever.

40:14 Blessed be the Lord the God of Israel from eternity to eternity. * So be it. So be it.

41:2 As the hart panteth after the fountains of water; * so my soul panteth after thee, O God.

41:3 My soul hath thirsted after the strong living God; * when shall I come and appear before the face of God?

41:4 My tears have been my bread day and night, * whilst it is said to me daily: Where is thy God?

41:5 These things I remembered, and poured out my soul in me: * for I shall go over into the place of the wonderful tabernacle, even to the house of God:

41:5 With the voice of joy and praise; * the noise of one feasting.

41:6 Why art thou sad, O my soul? * and why dost thou trouble me?

41:6 Hope in God, for I will still give praise to him: * the salvation of my countenance, and my God.

Psalmus 41(7-12)

41:7 My soul is troubled within myself: * therefore will I remember thee from the land of Jordan and Hermoniim, from the little hill.

41:8 Deep calleth on deep, * at the noise of thy flood-gates.

41:8 All thy heights and thy billows * have passed over me.

41:9 In the daytime the Lord hath commanded his mercy; * and a canticle to him in the night.

41:9 With me is prayer to the God of my life. * I will say to God: Thou art my support.

41:10 Why hast thou forgotten me? * and why go I mourning, whilst my enemy afflicteth me?

41:11 Whilst my bones are broken, * my enemies who trouble me have reproached me;

41:11 Whilst they say to me day by day: Where is thy God? * Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why dost thou disquiet me?

41:12 Hope thou in God, for I will still give praise to him: * the salvation of my countenance, and my God.

Hymnus

O strength and stay upholding all creation,
Who ever dost thyself unmoved abide,
Yet day by day the light in due gradation
From hour to hour through all its changes guide:
Lrant to life's day a calm unclouded ending,
An eve untouched by shadows of decay,
The brightness of a holy death-bed blending
With dawning glories of th' eternal day.
Pear us, O Father, gracious and forgiving,
And thou, O Christ, the co-eternal Word,
Who, with the Holy Ghost, by all things living
Now and to endless ages art adored.

43:2 We have heard, O God, with our ears: * our fathers have declared to us,

43:2 The work thou hast wrought in their days, * and in the days of old.

43:3 Thy hand destroyed the Gentiles, and thou plantedst them: * thou didst afflict the people and cast them out.

43:5 Thou art thyself my king and my God, * who commandest the saving of Jacob.

43:6 Through thee we will push down our enemies with the horn: * and through thy name we will despise them that rise up against us.

43:7 For I will not trust in my bow: * neither shall my sword save me.

Jesus, the Ransomer of man,
 Who, ere created light began,
 Didst from the sovereign Father spring,
 His power and glory equalling.
 The Father's Light and Splendor Thou,
 Their endless hope to Thee that bow;
 Accept the prayers and praise to-day
 That through the world Thy servants pay.
 Salvation's Author, call to mind
 How, taking form of humankind,
 Born of a Virgin undefiled,
 Thou in man's flesh becam'st a Child.
 Thus testifies the present day,
 Through every year in long array,
 That Thou, salvation's source alone,
 Proceedest from the Father's throne.
 Hhe heavens above, the rolling main

And all that earth's wide realms contain,
With joyous voice now loudly sing
The glory of their new-born King.
End we who, by Thy precious Blood
From sin redeemed, are marked for God,
On this the day that saw Thy birth,
Sing the new song of ransomed earth.
I Lord, the Virgin-born, to Thee
Eternal praise and glory be,
Whom with the Father we adore
And Holy Ghost forevermore.

Mother of Christ, hear thou thy people's cry

Star of the deep and Portal of the sky!

Mother of Him who thee from nothing made.

Sinking we strive and call to thee for aid:

O, by what joy which Gabriel brought to thee,

Thou Virgin first and last, let us thy mercy see.

℣. After childbirth thou didst remain a virgin.

℞. Intercede for us, O Mother of God.

Let us pray.

O God, who, by the fruitful virginity of blessed Mary, hast bestowed upon mankind the reward of eternal salvation: grant, we beseech thee, that we may experience her intercession, through whom we have been made worthy to receive the author of life, Our Lord Jesus Christ thy Son. Amen.

℣. May the divine assistance ✠ remain with us always.

℞. Amen.

℣. O Lord, + open thou my lips.

℟. And my mouth shall declare thy praise.

℣. O God, ✠ come to my assistance;

℟. O Lord, make haste to help me.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

Alleluia.

Ant. Unto us a Christ is born, * O come, let us worship Him.

Unto us a Christ is born, * O come, let us worship Him.

Come let us praise the Lord with joy: let us joyfully sing to God our saviour. Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving; and make a joyful noise to him with psalms.

Unto us a Christ is born, * O come, let us worship Him.

For the Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods. For the Lord will not cast off his people: for in his hand are all the ends of the earth, and the heights of the mountains are his.

O come, let us worship Him.

For the sea is his, and he made it: and his hands formed the dry land. (genuflect) Come let us adore and fall down: and weep before the Lord that made us: For he is the Lord our God: and we are the people of his pasture and the sheep of his hand.

Unto us a Christ is born, * O come, let us worship Him.

Today if you shall hear his voice, harden not your hearts: As in the provocation, according to the day of temptation in the wilderness: where your fathers tempted me, they proved me, and saw my works.

O come, let us worship Him.

Forty years long was I offended with that generation, and I said: These always err in heart. And these men have not known my ways: so I swore in my wrath that they shall not enter into my rest.

Unto us a Christ is born, * O come, let us worship Him.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

O come, let us worship Him.

Unto us a Christ is born, * O come, let us worship Him.

Hymnus

Jesus, the Ransomer of man,
Who, ere created light began,
Didst from the sovereign Father spring,
His power and glory equalling.
The Father's Light and Splendor Thou,
Their endless hope to Thee that bow;
Accept the prayers and praise to-day
That through the world Thy servants pay.
Malvation's Author, call to mind
How, taking form of humankind,
Born of a Virgin undefiled,
Thou in man's flesh becam'st a Child.

Thus testifies the present day,
Through every year in long array,
That Thou, salvation's source alone,
Proceedest from the Father's throne.
Hhe heavens above, the rolling main
And all that earth's wide realms contain,
With joyous voice now loudly sing
The glory of their new-born King.
End we who, by Thy precious Blood
From sin redeemed, are marked for God,
On this the day that saw Thy birth,
Sing the new song of ransomed earth.
ILord, the Virgin-born, to Thee
Eternal praise and glory be,
Whom with the Father we adore
And Holy Ghost forevermore.
Amen.

([1])

2:1 Why have the Gentiles raged, * and the people devised vain things?

2:2 The kings of the earth stood up, and the princes met together, * against the Lord and against his Christ.

2:3 Let us break their bonds asunder: * and let us cast away their yoke from us.

2:4 He that dwelleth in heaven shall laugh at them: * and the Lord shall deride them.

2:5 Then shall he speak to them in his anger, * and trouble them in his rage.

2:6 But I am appointed king by him over Sion his holy mountain, * preaching his commandment.

2:7 The Lord hath said to me: * Thou art my son, this day have I begotten thee.

2:8 Ask of me, and I will give thee the Gentiles for thy inheritance, * and the utmost parts of the earth for thy possession.

2:9 Thou shalt rule them with a rod of iron, * and shalt break them in pieces like a potter's vessel.

2:10 And now, O ye kings, understand: * receive instruction, you that judge the earth.

2:11 Serve ye the Lord with fear: * and rejoice unto him with trembling.

2:12 Embrace discipline, lest at any time the Lord be angry, * and you perish from the just way.

2:13 When his wrath shall be kindled in a short time, * blessed are all they that trust in him.

Ÿ. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℞. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

18:2 The heavens shew forth the glory of God, * and the firmament declareth the work of his hands.

18:3 Day to day uttereth speech, * and night to night sheweth knowledge.

18:4 There are no speeches nor languages, * where their voices are not heard.

18:5 Their sound hath gone forth into all the earth: * and their words unto the ends of the world.
18:6 He hath set his tabernacle in the sun: * and he, as a bridegroom coming out of his bride chamber,
18:6 Hath rejoiced as a giant to run the way: * his going out is from the end of heaven,
18:7 And his circuit even to the end thereof: * and there is no one that can hide himself from his heat.
18:8 The law of the Lord is unspotted, converting souls: * the testimony of the Lord is faithful, giving wisdom to little ones.
18:9 The justices of the Lord are right, rejoicing hearts: * the commandment of the Lord is lightsome, enlightening the eyes.
18:10 The fear of the Lord is holy, enduring for ever and ever: * the judgments of the Lord are true, justified in themselves.
18:11 More to be desired than gold and many precious stones: * and sweeter than honey and the honeycomb.
18:12 For thy servant keepeth them, * and in keeping them there is a great reward.
18:13 Who can understand sins? † from my secret ones cleanse me, O Lord: * and from those of others spare thy servant.
18:14 If they shall have no dominion over me, then shall I be without spot: * and I shall be cleansed from the greatest sin.
18:15 And the words of my mouth shall be such as may please: * and the meditation of my heart always in thy sight.
18:15 O Lord, my helper, * and my redeemer.

44:5 Because of truth and meekness and justice: * and thy right hand shall conduct thee wonderfully.
44:6 Thy arrows are sharp: under thee shall people fall, * into the hearts of the king's enemies.
44:7 Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: * the sceptre of thy kingdom is a sceptre of uprightness.
44:8 Thou hast loved justice, and hated iniquity: * therefore God, thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.
44:9 Myrrh and stacte and cassia perfume thy garments, from the ivory houses: * out of which the daughters of kings have delighted thee in thy glory.
44:10 The queen stood on thy right hand, in gilded clothing; * surrounded with variety.
44:11 Harken, O daughter, and see, and incline thy ear: * and forget thy people and thy father's house.

44:12 And the king shall greatly desire thy beauty; * for he is the Lord thy God, and him they shall adore.

44:13 And the daughters of Tyre with gifts, * yea, all the rich among the people, shall entreat thy countenance.

44:14 All the glory of the king's daughter is within, * in golden borders, clothed round about with varieties.

44:15 After her shall virgins be brought to the king: * her neighbours shall be brought to thee.

44:16 They shall be brought with gladness and rejoicing: * they shall be brought into the temple of the king.

44:17 Instead of thy fathers, sons are born to thee: * thou shalt make them princes over all the earth.

Lesson from the letter of St. Paul the Apostle to the Romans

Rom 2:1-4

1 Wherefore thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest. For wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself. For thou dost the same things which thou judgest.

2 For we know that the judgment of God is, according to truth, against them that do such things.

3 And thinkest thou this, O man, that judgest them who do such things, and dost the same, that thou shalt escape the judgment of God?

4 Or despisest thou the riches of his goodness, and patience, and longsuffering? Knowest thou not, that the benignity of God leadeth thee to penance?

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℟. Thanks be to God.

℟. This day is the true peace come down unto us from heaven.

* This day throughout the whole world the skies drop down sweetness.

℣. This day is the daybreak of our new redemption, of the restoring of the old, of everlasting joy.

℞. This day throughout the whole world the skies drop down sweetness.

℣. Grant, Lord, a blessing.

Benedictio

God's most mighty strength alway be His people's staff and stay.

℞. Amen.

Rom 2:5-8

5 But according to thy hardness and impenitent heart, thou treasurest up to thyself wrath, against the day of wrath, and revelation of the just judgment of God.

6 Who will render to every man according to his works.

7 To them indeed, who according to patience in good work, seek glory and honour and incorruption, eternal life:

8 But to them that are contentious, and who obey not the truth, but give credit to iniquity, wrath and indignation.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℞. Thanks be to God.

℞. O ye shepherds, speak, and tell us what ye have seen; who is appeared in the earth?

* We saw the new-born Child, and Angels singing praise to the Lord.

℣. Speak; what have ye seen? And tell us of the Birth of Christ.

℞. We saw the new-born Child, and Angels singing praise to the Lord.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℞. We saw the new-born Child, and Angels singing praise to the Lord.

℣. Grant, Lord, a blessing.

Benedictio

May He that is the Angels' King to that high realm His people bring.

℞. Amen.

Rom 2:9-13

9 Tribulation and anguish upon every soul of man that worketh evil, of the Jew first, and also of the Greek.

10 But glory, and honour, and peace to every one that worketh good, to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

11 For there is no respect of persons with God.

12 For whosoever have sinned without the law, shall perish without the law; and whosoever have sinned in the law, shall be judged by the law.

13 For not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℞. Thanks be to God.

Hymnus

From lands that see the sun arise
To earth's remotest boundaries,
The Virgin-born today we sing,
The Son of Mary, Christ the King.
Blest Author of this earthly frame,
To take a servant's form He came,

That, liberating flesh by flesh,
Whom He had made might live afresh.
On that chaste parent's holy womb
Celestial grace hath found its home;
And she, as earthly bride unknown,
Yet calls that Offspring blest her own.
The mansion of the modest breast
Becomes a shrine where God shall rest:
The pure and undefiled one
Conceived in her womb the Son.
That Son, that Royal Son she bore,
Whom Gabriel's voice had told afore;
Whom, in His mother yet concealed,
The infant Baptist had revealed.
The manger and the straw He bore,
The cradle did He not abhor;
By milk in infant portions fed,
Who gives even fowls their daily bread.
The heavenly chorus filled the sky,
The Angels sang to God on high,
What time to shepherds, watching lone,
They made creation's Shepherd known.
Ill honor, laud, and glory be,
O Jesu, Virgin-born to thee:
All glory, as is ever meet,
To Father and to Paraclete.
Amen.

1:68 Blessed be the Lord ☩ God of Israel; * because he hath visited and wrought the redemption of his people:

1:69 And hath raised up an horn of salvation to us, * in the house of David his servant:

1:70 As he spoke by the mouth of his holy Prophets, * who are from the beginning:

1:71 Salvation from our enemies, * and from the hand of all that hate us:

1:72 To perform mercy to our fathers, * and to remember his holy testament,

1:73 The oath, which he swore to Abraham our father, * that he would grant to us,

1:74 That being delivered from the hand of our enemies, * we may serve him without fear,

1:75 In holiness and justice before him, * all our days.

1:76 And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest: * for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways:

1:77 To give knowledge of salvation to his people, * unto the remission of their sins:

1:78 Through the bowels of the mercy of our God, * in which the Orient from on high hath visited us:

1:79 To enlighten them that sit in darkness, and in the shadow of death: * to direct our feet into the way of peace.

Hymnus

Now in the sun's new dawning ray,

Lowly of heart, our God we pray

That he from harm may keep us free

In all the deeds this day shall see.

Lay fear of him our tongues restrain,

Lest strife unguarded speech should stain:

His favouring care our guardian be,

Lest our eyes feed on vanity.

Say every heart be pure from sin

And folly find no place therein:

Scant need of food, excess denied,

Wear down in us the body's pride.

Uhat when the light of day is gone,

And night in course shall follow on.

We, free from cares the world affords,

May chant the praise that is our Lord's.

Dll laud to God the Father be,

All praise, Eternal Son, to thee:

All glory, as is ever meet,

To God the holy Paraclete.

25:2 Prove me, O Lord, and try me; * burn my reins and my heart.

25:3 For thy mercy is before my eyes; * and I am well pleased with thy truth.

25:4 I have not sat with the council of vanity: * neither will I go in with the doers of unjust things.

25:5 I have hated the assembly of the malignant; * and with the wicked I will not sit.

25:6 I will wash my hands among the innocent; * and will compass thy altar, O Lord:

25:7 That I may hear the voice of thy praise: * and tell of all thy wondrous works.

25:8 I have loved, O Lord, the beauty of thy house; * and the place where thy glory dwelleth.

25:9 Take not away my soul, O God, with the wicked: * nor my life with bloody men:

25:10 In whose hands are iniquities: * their right hand is filled with gifts.

25:11 But as for me, I have walked in my innocence: * redeem me, and have mercy on me.

25:12 My foot hath stood in the direct way: * in the churches I will bless thee, O Lord.

51:3 Why dost thou glory in malice, * thou that art mighty in iniquity?

51:4 All the day long thy tongue hath devised injustice: * as a sharp razor, thou hast wrought deceit.

51:5 Thou hast loved malice more than goodness: * and iniquity rather than to speak righteousness.

51:6 Thou hast loved all the words of ruin, * O deceitful tongue.

51:7 Therefore will God destroy thee for ever: * he will pluck thee out, and remove thee from thy dwelling place: and thy root out of the land of the living.

51:8 The just shall see and fear, and shall laugh at him, and say: * Behold the man that made not God his helper:

51:9 But trusted in the abundance of his riches: * and prevailed in his vanity.

51:10 But I, as a fruitful olive tree in the house of God, * have hoped in the mercy of God for ever, yea for ever and ever.

52:2 They are corrupted, and become abominable in iniquities: * there is none that doth good.

52:3 God looked down from heaven on the children of men: * to see if there were any that did understand, or did seek God.

52:4 All have gone aside, they are become unprofitable together, * there is none that doth good, no not one.

52:5 Shall not all the workers of iniquity know, * who eat up my people as they eat bread?

52:6 They have not called upon God: * there have they trembled for fear, where there was no fear.

52:6 For God hath scattered the bones of them that please men: * they have been confounded, because God hath despised them.

O God of truth, O Lord of might,
Who orderest time and change aright,
Who send'st the early morning ray,
And light'st the glow of perfect day:
Extinguish thou each sinful fire,
And banish every ill desire;
And while thou keep'st the body whole,
Shed forth thy peace upon the soul.
O mighty Father, hear our cry,

Who, with the Holy Ghost and thee,
Doth live and reign eternally.

([1])

55:2 Have mercy on me, O God, for man hath trodden me under foot; * all the day long he hath afflicted me fighting against me.

55:3 My enemies have trodden on me all the day long; * for they are many that make war against me.

55:4 From the height of the day I shall fear: * but I will trust in thee.

55:5 In God I will praise my words, in God I have put my trust: * I will not fear what flesh can do against me.

55:6 All the day long they detested my words: * all their thoughts were against me unto evil.

55:7 They will dwell and hide themselves: * they will watch my heel.

55:8 As they have waited for my soul, for nothing shalt thou save them: * in thy anger thou shalt break the people in pieces.

55:9 O God, I have declared to thee my life: * thou hast set my tears in thy sight,

55:9 As also in thy promise. * Then shall my enemies be turned back.

55:10 In what day soever I shall call upon thee, * behold I know thou art my God.

55:11 In God will I praise the word, in the Lord will I praise his speech. * In God have I hoped, I will not fear what man can do to me.

55:12 In me, O God, are vows to thee, * which I will pay, praises to thee:

56:2 Have mercy on me, O God, have mercy on me: * for my soul trusteth in thee.

56:2 And in the shadow of thy wings will I hope, * until iniquity pass away.

56:3 I will cry to God the most High; * to God who hath done good to me.

56:4 He hath sent from heaven and delivered me: * he hath made them a reproach that trod upon me.

56:4 God hath sent his mercy and his truth, * and he hath delivered my soul from the midst of the young lions. I slept troubled.

57:5 Their madness is according to the likeness of a serpent: * like the deaf asp that stoppeth her ears:

57:6 Which will not hear the voice of the charmers; * nor of the wizard that charmeth wisely.

57:7 God shall break in pieces their teeth in their mouth: * the Lord shall break the grinders of the lions.

57:8 They shall come to nothing, like water running down; * he hath bent his bow till they be weakened.

57:9 Like wax that melteth they shall be taken away: * fire hath fallen on them, and they shall not see the sun.

57:10 Before your thorns could know the brier; he swalloweth them up, * as alive, in his wrath.

57:11 The just shall rejoice when he shall see the revenge: * he shall wash his hands in the blood of the sinner.

Who ever dost thyself unmoved abide,
Yet day by day the light in due gradation
From hour to hour through all its changes guide:

The brightness of a holy death-bed blending
With dawning glories of th' eternal day.

Now and to endless ages art adored.

Jesus, the Ransomer of man,
 Who, ere created light began,
 Didst from the sovereign Father spring,
 His power and glory equalling.
 The Father's Light and Splendor Thou,
 Their endless hope to Thee that bow;
 Accept the prayers and praise to-day
 That through the world Thy servants pay.
 Salvation's Author, call to mind
 How, taking form of humankind,
 Born of a Virgin undefiled,
 Thou in man's flesh becam'st a Child.
 Thus testifies the present day,
 Through every year in long array,
 That Thou, salvation's source alone,
 Proceedest from the Father's throne.
 Hhe heavens above, the rolling main

And all that earth's wide realms contain,
With joyous voice now loudly sing
The glory of their new-born King.
End we who, by Thy precious Blood
From sin redeemed, are marked for God,
On this the day that saw Thy birth,
Sing the new song of ransomed earth.
I Lord, the Virgin-born, to Thee
Eternal praise and glory be,
Whom with the Father we adore
And Holy Ghost forevermore.

Before the ending of the day,
Creator of the world, we pray
That with thy wonted favor thou
Wouldst be our guard and keeper now.
From all ill dreams defend our eyes,
From nightly fears and fantasies;
Tread under foot our ghostly foe,
That no pollution we may know.
PFather, that we ask be done,
Through Jesus Christ, thine only Son;
Who, with the Holy Ghost and thee,
Doth live and reign eternally.
Amen.

Mother of Christ, hear thou thy people's cry

Star of the deep and Portal of the sky!

Mother of Him who thee from nothing made.

Sinking we strive and call to thee for aid:

O, by what joy which Gabriel brought to thee,

Thou Virgin first and last, let us thy mercy see.

℣. After childbirth thou didst remain a virgin.

℞. Intercede for us, O Mother of God.

Let us pray.

O God, who, by the fruitful virginity of blessed Mary, hast bestowed upon mankind the reward of eternal salvation: grant, we beseech thee, that we may experience her intercession, through whom we have been made worthy to receive the author of life, Our Lord Jesus Christ thy Son. Amen.

Unto us a Christ is born, * O come, let us worship Him.

Come let us praise the Lord with joy: let us joyfully sing to God our saviour. Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving; and make a joyful noise to him with psalms.

Unto us a Christ is born, * O come, let us worship Him.

For the Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods. For the Lord will not cast off his people: for in his hand are all the ends of the earth, and the heights of the mountains are his.

O come, let us worship Him.

For the sea is his, and he made it: and his hands formed the dry land. (genuflect) Come let us adore and fall down: and weep before the Lord that made us: For he is the Lord our God: and we are the people of his pasture and the sheep of his hand.

Unto us a Christ is born, * O come, let us worship Him.

Today if you shall hear his voice, harden not your hearts: As in the provocation, according to the day of temptation in the wilderness: where your fathers tempted me, they proved me, and saw my works.

O come, let us worship Him.

Forty years long was I offended with that generation, and I said: These always err in heart. And these men have not known my ways: so I swore in my wrath that they shall not enter into my rest.

Unto us a Christ is born, * O come, let us worship Him.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

Hymnus

Jesus, the Ransomer of man,
Who, ere created light began,
Didst from the sovereign Father spring,
His power and glory equalling.
The Father's Light and Splendor Thou,
Their endless hope to Thee that bow;
Accept the prayers and praise to-day
That through the world Thy servants pay.
Malvation's Author, call to mind
How, taking form of humankind,
Born of a Virgin undefiled,
Thou in man's flesh becam'st a Child.

Thus testifies the present day,
Through every year in long array,
That Thou, salvation's source alone,
Proceedest from the Father's throne.
Hhe heavens above, the rolling main
And all that earth's wide realms contain,
With joyous voice now loudly sing
The glory of their new-born King.
End we who, by Thy precious Blood
From sin redeemed, are marked for God,
On this the day that saw Thy birth,
Sing the new song of ransomed earth.
ILord, the Virgin-born, to Thee
Eternal praise and glory be,
Whom with the Father we adore
And Holy Ghost forevermore.
Amen.

([1])

2:1 Why have the Gentiles raged, * and the people devised vain things?

2:2 The kings of the earth stood up, and the princes met together, * against the Lord and against his Christ.

2:3 Let us break their bonds asunder: * and let us cast away their yoke from us.

2:4 He that dwelleth in heaven shall laugh at them: * and the Lord shall deride them.

2:5 Then shall he speak to them in his anger, * and trouble them in his rage.

2:6 But I am appointed king by him over Sion his holy mountain, * preaching his commandment.

2:7 The Lord hath said to me: * Thou art my son, this day have I begotten thee.

2:8 Ask of me, and I will give thee the Gentiles for thy inheritance, * and the utmost parts of the earth for thy possession.

2:9 Thou shalt rule them with a rod of iron, * and shalt break them in pieces like a potter's vessel.

2:10 And now, O ye kings, understand: * receive instruction, you that judge the earth.

2:11 Serve ye the Lord with fear: * and rejoice unto him with trembling.

2:12 Embrace discipline, lest at any time the Lord be angry, * and you perish from the just way.

2:13 When his wrath shall be kindled in a short time, * blessed are all they that trust in him.

18:5 Their sound hath gone forth into all the earth: * and their words unto the ends of the world.
18:6 He hath set his tabernacle in the sun: * and he, as a bridegroom coming out of his bride chamber,
18:6 Hath rejoiced as a giant to run the way: * his going out is from the end of heaven,

18:10 The fear of the Lord is holy, enduring for ever and ever: * the judgments of the Lord are true, justified in themselves.
18:11 More to be desired than gold and many precious stones: * and sweeter than honey and the honeycomb.
18:12 For thy servant keepeth them, * and in keeping them there is a great reward.
18:13 Who can understand sins? † from my secret ones cleanse me, O Lord: * and from those of others spare thy servant.

Lesson from the letter of St. Paul the Apostle to the Romans

Rom 3:19-22

19 Now we know, that what things soever the law speaketh, it speaketh to them that are in the law; that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may be made subject to God.

20 Because by the works of the law no flesh shall be justified before him. For by the law is the knowledge of sin.

21 But now without the law the justice of God is made manifest, being witnessed by the law and the prophets.

22 Even the justice of God, by faith of Jesus Christ, unto all and upon all them that believe in him: for there is no distinction:

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℟. Thanks be to God.

℟. This day is the true peace come down unto us from heaven.

* This day throughout the whole world the skies drop down sweetness.
V. This day is the daybreak of our new redemption, of the restoring of the old, of everlasting joy.
R. This day throughout the whole world the skies drop down sweetness.
V. Grant, Lord, a blessing.

Benedictio

May the Son, the Sole-begotten, mercifully bless and keep us.
R. Amen.

Rom 3:23-26

23 For all have sinned, and do need the glory of God.
24 Being justified freely by his grace, through the redemption, that is in Christ Jesus,
25 Whom God hath proposed to be a propitiation, through faith in his blood, to the shewing of his justice, for the remission of former sins,
26 Through the forbearance of God, for the shewing of his justice in this time; that he himself may be just, and the justifier of him, who is of the faith of Jesus Christ.
V. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.
R. Thanks be to God.
R. O ye shepherds, speak, and tell us what ye have seen; who is appeared in the earth?
* We saw the new-born Child, and Angels singing praise to the Lord.
V. Speak; what have ye seen? And tell us of the Birth of Christ.
R. We saw the new-born Child, and Angels singing praise to the Lord.
V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.
R. We saw the new-born Child, and Angels singing praise to the Lord.
V. Grant, Lord, a blessing.

Benedictio

May the grace of the Holy Spirit enlighten all our hearts and minds.
R. Amen.

Rom 3:27-31

27 Where is then thy boasting? It is excluded. By what law? Of works? No, but by the law of faith.
28 For we account a man to be justified by faith, without the works of the law.
29 Is he the God of the Jews only? Is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also.
30 For it is one God, that justifieth circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith.
31 Do we, then, destroy the law through faith? God forbid: but we establish the law.
V. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.
R. Thanks be to God.

Hymnus

From lands that see the sun arise
To earth's remotest boundaries,
The Virgin-born today we sing,
The Son of Mary, Christ the King.
Blest Author of this earthly frame,
To take a servant's form He came,

That, liberating flesh by flesh,
Whom He had made might live afresh.
On that chaste parent's holy womb
Celestial grace hath found its home;
And she, as earthly bride unknown,
Yet calls that Offspring blest her own.
The mansion of the modest breast
Becomes a shrine where God shall rest:
The pure and undefiled one
Conceived in her womb the Son.
That Son, that Royal Son she bore,
Whom Gabriel's voice had told afore;
Whom, in His mother yet concealed,
The infant Baptist had revealed.
The manger and the straw He bore,
The cradle did He not abhor;
By milk in infant portions fed,
Who gives even fowls their daily bread.
The heavenly chorus filled the sky,
The Angels sang to God on high,
What time to shepherds, watching lone,
They made creation's Shepherd known.
Ill honor, laud, and glory be,
O Jesu, Virgin-born to thee:
All glory, as is ever meet,
To Father and to Paraclete.
Amen.

1:71 Salvation from our enemies, * and from the hand of all that hate us:

1:74 That being delivered from the hand of our enemies, * we may serve him without fear,

1:75 In holiness and justice before him, * all our days.

1:76 And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest: * for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways:

1:77 To give knowledge of salvation to his people, * unto the remission of their sins:

1:78 Through the bowels of the mercy of our God, * in which the Orient from on high hath visited us:

Now in the sun's new dawning ray,

Lowly of heart, our God we pray

That he from harm may keep us free

In all the deeds this day shall see.

Lay fear of him our tongues restrain,

Lest strife unguarded speech should stain:

His favouring care our guardian be,

Lest our eyes feed on vanity.

Say every heart be pure from sin

And folly find no place therein:

Scant need of food, excess denied,

Wear down in us the body's pride.

Uhat when the light of day is gone,

And night in course shall follow on.

We, free from cares the world affords,

May chant the praise that is our Lord's.

Dll laud to God the Father be,

Come Holy Ghost who ever One
Art with the Father and the Son,
It is the hour, our souls possess
With thy full flood of holiness.
Oet flesh and heart and lips and mind
Sound forth our witness to mankind;
And love light up our mortal frame,
Till others catch the living flame.
Plmighty Father, hear our cry,
Through Jesus Christ, our Lord most High,
Who, with the Holy Ghost and thee,
Doth live and reign eternally.

Ant. How good is God * to Israel, to them that are of a right heart! ‡

Psalmus 72(1-9)

72:1 How good is God to Israel, to them that are of a right heart!

72:2 ‡ But my feet were almost moved; * my steps had wellnigh slipped.

72:3 Because I had a zeal on occasion of the wicked, * seeing the prosperity of sinners.

72:4 For there is no regard to their death, * nor is there strength in their stripes.

72:5 They are not in the labour of men: * neither shall they be scourged like other men.

72:6 Therefore pride hath held them fast: * they are covered with their iniquity and their wickedness.

72:7 Their iniquity hath come forth, as it were from fatness: * they have passed into the affection of the heart.

72:8 They have thought and spoken wickedness: * they have spoken iniquity on high.

72:9 They have set their mouth against heaven: * and their tongue hath passed through the earth.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℞. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Psalmus 72(10-17)

72:10 Therefore will my people return here * and full days shall be found in them.

72:11 And they said: How doth God know? * and is there knowledge in the most High?

72:12 Behold these are sinners; and yet abounding in the world * they have obtained riches.

72:13 And I said: Then have I in vain justified my heart, * and washed my hands among the innocent.

72:14 And I have been scourged all the day; * and my chastisement hath been in the mornings.

72:15 If I said: I will speak thus; * behold I should condemn the generation of thy children.

72:16 I studied that I might know this thing, * it is a labour in my sight:

72:17 Until I go into the sanctuary of God, * and understand concerning their last ends.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Psalmus 72(18-28)

([3])

72:18 But indeed for deceits thou hast put it to them: * when they were lifted up, thou hast cast them down.

72:19 How are they brought to desolation? they have suddenly ceased to be: * they have perished by reason of their iniquity.

72:20 As the dream of them that awake, O Lord; * so in thy city thou shalt bring their image to nothing.

72:21 For my heart hath been inflamed, and my reins have been changed: * and I am brought to nothing, and I knew not.

72:23 I am become as a beast before thee: * and I am always with thee.

72:24 Thou hast held me by my right hand; and by thy will thou hast conducted me, * and with thy glory thou hast received me.

72:25 For what have I in heaven? * and besides thee what do I desire upon earth?

72:26 For thee my flesh and my heart hath fainted away: * thou art the God of my heart, and the God that is my portion for ever.

72:27 For behold they that go far from thee shall perish: * thou hast destroyed all them that are disloyal to thee.

72:28 But it is good for me to adhere to my God, * to put my hope in the Lord God:

72:28 That I may declare all thy praises, * in the gates of the daughter of Sion.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

O God of truth, O Lord of might,
Who orderest time and change aright,
Who send'st the early morning ray,
And light'st the glow of perfect day:
Extinguish thou each sinful fire,

Ant. Remember * thy congregation, which thou hast possessed from the beginning.

Psalmus 73(1-9)

73:1 O God, why hast thou cast us off unto the end: * why is thy wrath enkindled against the sheep of thy pasture?

73:2 Remember thy congregation, * which thou hast possessed from the beginning.

73:2 The sceptre of thy inheritance which thou hast redeemed: * mount Sion in which thou hast dwelt.

73:3 Lift up thy hands against their pride unto the end; * see what things the enemy hath done wickedly in the sanctuary.

73:4 And they that hate thee have made their boasts, * in the midst of thy solemnity.

73:5 They have set up their ensigns for signs, * and they knew not both in the going out and on the highest top.

73:6 As with axes in a wood of trees, they have cut down at once the gates thereof, * with axe and hatchet they have brought it down.

73:7 They have set fire to thy sanctuary: * they have defiled the dwelling place of thy name on the earth.

73:8 They said in their heart, the whole kindred of them together: * Let us abolish all the festival days of God from the land.

73:9 Our signs we have not seen, there is now no prophet: * and he will know us no more.

Psalmus 73(10-17)

73:10 How long, O God, shall the enemy reproach: * is the adversary to provoke thy name for ever?

73:11 Why dost thou turn away thy hand: and thy right hand * out of the midst of thy bosom for ever?

73:12 But God is our king before ages: * he hath wrought salvation in the midst of the earth.

73:13 Thou by thy strength didst make the sea firm: * thou didst crush the heads of the dragons in the waters.

73:14 Thou hast broken the heads of the dragon: * thou hast given him to be meat for the people of the Ethiopians.

73:15 Thou hast broken up the fountains and the torrents: * thou hast dried up the Ethan rivers.

73:16 Thine is the day, and thine is the night: * thou hast made the morning light and the sun.

73:17 Thou hast made all the borders of the earth: * the summer and the spring were formed by thee.

73:18 Remember this, the enemy hath reproached the Lord: * and a foolish people hath provoked thy name.

73:19 Deliver not up to beasts the souls that confess to thee: * and forget not to the end the souls of thy poor.

73:20 Have regard to thy covenant: * for they that are the obscure of the earth have been filled with dwellings of iniquity.

73:21 Let not the humble be turned away with confusion: * the poor and needy shall praise thy name.

Who ever dost thyself unmoved abide,
Yet day by day the light in due gradation
From hour to hour through all its changes guide:
Lrant to life's day a calm unclouded ending,
An eve untouched by shadows of decay,
The brightness of a holy death-bed blending
With dawning glories of th' eternal day.

Hymnus

Jesus, the Ransomer of man,
 Who, ere created light began,
 Didst from the sovereign Father spring,
 His power and glory equalling.
 The Father's Light and Splendor Thou,
 Their endless hope to Thee that bow;
 Accept the prayers and praise to-day
 That through the world Thy servants pay.
 Salvation's Author, call to mind
 How, taking form of humankind,
 Born of a Virgin undefiled,
 Thou in man's flesh becam'st a Child.
 Thus testifies the present day,
 Through every year in long array,
 That Thou, salvation's source alone,
 Proceedest from the Father's throne.
 Hhe heavens above, the rolling main

And all that earth's wide realms contain,
With joyous voice now loudly sing
The glory of their new-born King.
End we who, by Thy precious Blood
From sin redeemed, are marked for God,
On this the day that saw Thy birth,
Sing the new song of ransomed earth.
I Lord, the Virgin-born, to Thee
Eternal praise and glory be,
Whom with the Father we adore
And Holy Ghost forevermore.

℟. Who made heaven and earth.

There follows an examination of conscience, or the Our Father said silently.

Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation: But deliver us from evil. Amen.

I confess to almighty God, to blessed Mary ever Virgin, to blessed Michael the Archangel, to blessed John the Baptist, to the holy Apostles Peter and Paul, and to all the Saints, that I have sinned exceedingly in thought, word and deed: strikes his breast through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault. Therefore I beseech blessed Mary ever Virgin, blessed Michael the Archangel, blessed John the Baptist, the holy Apostles Peter and Paul, and all the Saints, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life. Amen.

May the almighty ✠ and merciful Lord grant us pardon, absolution and remission of our sins. Amen.

℣. Turn us then, ✙︎ O God, our saviour:

℟. And let thy anger cease from us.

℣. O God, ✠ come to my assistance;

As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Alleluia.

Ant. Have mercy * on me, O Lord, and hear my prayer.

([1])

4:2 When I called upon him, the God of my justice heard me: * when I was in distress, thou hast enlarged me.

4:2 Have mercy on me: * and hear my prayer.

4:3 O ye sons of men, how long will you be dull of heart? * Why do you love vanity, and seek after lying?

4:4 Know ye also that the Lord hath made his holy one wonderful: * the Lord will hear me when I shall cry unto him.

4:5 Be ye angry, and sin not: † the things you say in your hearts, * be sorry for them upon your beds.

4:6 Offer up the sacrifice of justice, † and trust in the Lord: * many say, Who sheweth us good things?

4:7 The light of thy countenance, O Lord, is signed upon us: * thou hast given gladness in my heart.

4:8 By the fruit of their corn, their wine, and oil, * they are multiplied.

4:9 In peace in the selfsame * I will sleep, and I will rest:

4:10 For thou, O Lord, singularly * hast settled me in hope.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

90:1 He that dwelleth in the aid of the most High, * shall abide under the protection of the God of Jacob.

90:2 He shall say to the Lord: Thou art my protector, and my refuge: * my God, in him will I trust.

90:3 For he hath delivered me from the snare of the hunters: * and from the sharp word.

90:4 He will overshadow thee with his shoulders: * and under his wings thou shalt trust.

90:5 His truth shall compass thee with a shield: * thou shalt not be afraid of the terror of the night.

90:6 Of the arrow that flieth in the day, † of the business that walketh about in the dark: * of invasion, or of the noonday devil.

90:7 A thousand shall fall at thy side, † and ten thousand at thy right hand: * but it shall not come nigh thee.

90:8 But thou shalt consider with thy eyes: * and shalt see the reward of the wicked.

90:9 Because thou, O Lord, art my hope: * thou hast made the most High thy refuge.

90:10 There shall no evil come to thee: * nor shall the scourge come near thy dwelling.

90:11 For he hath given his angels charge over thee; * to keep thee in all thy ways.

90:12 In their hands they shall bear thee up: * lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

90:13 Thou shalt walk upon the asp and the basilisk: * and thou shalt trample under foot the lion and the dragon.

90:14 Because he hoped in me I will deliver him: * I will protect him because he hath known my name.

90:15 He shall cry to me, and I will hear him: † I am with him in tribulation, * I will deliver him, and I will glorify him.

90:16 I will fill him with length of days; * and I will shew him my salvation.

Before the ending of the day,
Creator of the world, we pray
That with thy wonted favor thou
Wouldst be our guard and keeper now.
From all ill dreams defend our eyes,
From nightly fears and fantasies;

That no pollution we may know.
PFather, that we ask be done,
Through Jesus Christ, thine only Son;
Who, with the Holy Ghost and thee,
Doth live and reign eternally.
Amen.

Mother of Christ, hear thou thy people's cry

Star of the deep and Portal of the sky!

Mother of Him who thee from nothing made.

Sinking we strive and call to thee for aid:

O, by what joy which Gabriel brought to thee,

Thou Virgin first and last, let us thy mercy see.

℣. After childbirth thou didst remain a virgin.

℞. Intercede for us, O Mother of God.

Let us pray.

O God, who, by the fruitful virginity of blessed Mary, hast bestowed upon mankind the reward of eternal salvation: grant, we beseech thee, that we may experience her intercession, through whom we have been made worthy to receive the author of life, Our Lord Jesus Christ thy Son. Amen.

Unto us a Christ is born, * O come, let us worship Him.

Come let us praise the Lord with joy: let us joyfully sing to God our saviour. Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving; and make a joyful noise to him with psalms.

Unto us a Christ is born, * O come, let us worship Him.

For the Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods. For the Lord will not cast off his people: for in his hand are all the ends of the earth, and the heights of the mountains are his.

O come, let us worship Him.

For the sea is his, and he made it: and his hands formed the dry land. (genuflect) Come let us adore and fall down: and weep before the Lord that made us: For he is the Lord our God: and we are the people of his pasture and the sheep of his hand.

Unto us a Christ is born, * O come, let us worship Him.

Today if you shall hear his voice, harden not your hearts: As in the provocation, according to the day of temptation in the wilderness: where your fathers tempted me, they proved me, and saw my works.

O come, let us worship Him.

Forty years long was I offended with that generation, and I said: These always err in heart. And these men have not known my ways: so I swore in my wrath that they shall not enter into my rest.

Unto us a Christ is born, * O come, let us worship Him.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

Unto us a Christ is born, * O come, let us worship Him.

Hymnus

Jesus, the Ransomer of man,
Who, ere created light began,
Didst from the sovereign Father spring,
His power and glory equalling.
The Father's Light and Splendor Thou,
Their endless hope to Thee that bow;
Accept the prayers and praise to-day
That through the world Thy servants pay.
Malvation's Author, call to mind
How, taking form of humankind,
Born of a Virgin undefiled,
Thou in man's flesh becam'st a Child.

Thus testifies the present day,
Through every year in long array,
That Thou, salvation's source alone,
Proceedest from the Father's throne.
Hhe heavens above, the rolling main
And all that earth's wide realms contain,
With joyous voice now loudly sing
The glory of their new-born King.
End we who, by Thy precious Blood
From sin redeemed, are marked for God,
On this the day that saw Thy birth,
Sing the new song of ransomed earth.
ILord, the Virgin-born, to Thee
Eternal praise and glory be,
Whom with the Father we adore
And Holy Ghost forevermore.
Amen.

Ant. The Lord set up a testimony in Jacob: * and made a law in Israel.

Psalmus 77(1-8)

77:1 Attend, O my people, to my law: * incline your ears to the words of my mouth.

77:2 I will open my mouth in parables: * I will utter propositions from the beginning.

77:3 How great things have we heard and known, * and our fathers have told us.

77:4 They have not been hidden from their children, * in another generation.

77:4 Declaring the praises of the Lord, and his powers, * and his wonders which he hath done.

77:5 And he set up a testimony in Jacob: * and made a law in Israel.

77:5 How great things he commanded our fathers, that they should make the same known to their children: * that another generation might know them.

77:6 The children that should be born and should rise up, * and declare them to their children.

77:7 That they may put their hope in God and may not forget the works of God: * and may seek his commandments.

77:8 That they may not become like their fathers, * a perverse and exasperating generation.

77:8 A generation that set not their heart aright: * and whose spirit was not faithful to God.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. The Lord set up a testimony in Jacob: and made a law in Israel.

The Lord did wonderful things * in the sight of their fathers.

Psalmus 77(9-16)

77:9 The sons of Ephraim who bend and shoot with the bow: * they have turned back in the day of battle.

77:10 They kept not the covenant of God: * and in his law they would not walk.

77:11 And they forgot his benefits, * and his wonders that he had shewn them.

77:12 Wonderful things did he do in the sight of their fathers, in the land of Egypt, * in the field of Tanis.

77:13 He divided the sea and brought them through: * and he made the waters to stand as in a vessel.

77:14 And he conducted them with a cloud by day: * and all the night with a light of fire.

77:15 He struck the rock in the wilderness: * and gave them to drink, as out of the great deep.

77:16 He brought forth water out of the rock: * and made streams run down as rivers.

Ÿ. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℞. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. The Lord did wonderful things in the sight of their fathers.

The Lord opened * the doors of heaven and had rained down manna upon them to eat.

Psalmus 77(17-31)

([3])

77:17 And they added yet more sin against him: * they provoked the most High to wrath in the place without water.

77:18 And they tempted God in their hearts, * by asking meat for their desires.

77:19 And they spoke ill of God: * they said: Can God furnish a table in the wilderness?

77:20 Because he struck the rock, and the waters gushed out, * and the streams overflowed.

77:20 Can he also give bread, * or provide a table for his people?

77:21 Therefore the Lord heard, and was angry: * and a fire was kindled against Jacob, and wrath came up against Israel.

77:22 Because they believed not in God: * and trusted not in his salvation.

77:23 And he had commanded the clouds from above, * and had opened the doors of heaven.

77:24 And had rained down manna upon them to eat, * and had given them the bread of heaven.

77:25 Man ate the bread of angels: * he sent them provisions in abundance.

77:26 He removed the south wind from heaven: * and by his power brought in the southwest wind.

77:27 And he rained upon them flesh as dust: * and feathered fowls like as the sand of the sea.

77:28 And they fell in the midst of their camp, * round about their pavilions.

77:29 So they did eat, and were filled exceedingly, and he gave them their desire: * they were not defrauded of that which they craved.

77:30 As yet their meat was in their mouth: * and the wrath of God came upon them.

77:31 And he slew the fat ones amongst them, * and brought down the chosen men of Israel.

Ÿ. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℞. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. The Lord opened the doors of heaven and had rained down manna upon them to eat.

God is their helper, * and the most high God their redeemer.

Psalmus 77(32-41)

77:32 In all these things they sinned still: * and they believed not for his wondrous works.

77:33 And their days were consumed in vanity, * and their years in haste.

77:34 When he slew them, then they sought him: * and they returned, and came to him early in the morning.

77:35 And they remembered that God was their helper: * and the most high God their redeemer.

77:36 And they loved him with their mouth: * and with their tongue they lied unto him:

77:37 But their heart was not right with him: * nor were they counted faithful in his covenant.

77:38 But he is merciful, and will forgive their sins: * and will not destroy them.

77:38 And many a time did he turn away his anger: * and did not kindle all his wrath.
77:39 And he remembered that they are flesh: * a wind that goeth and returneth not.
77:40 How often did they provoke him in the desert: * and move him to wrath in the place without water?
77:41 And they turned back and tempted God: * and grieved the holy one of Israel.
V̇. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.
Ṙ. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. God is their helper, and the most high God their redeemer.
The Lord redeemed them * from the hand of him that afflicted them.

Psalmus 77(42-58)

([5])

77:42 They remembered not his hand, * in the day that he redeemed them from the hand of him that afflicted them:
77:43 How he wrought his signs in Egypt, * and his wonders in the field of Tanis.
77:44 And he turned their rivers into blood, * and their showers that they might not drink.
77:45 He sent amongst them diverse sorts of flies, which devoured them: * and frogs which destroyed them.
77:46 And he gave up their fruits to the blast, * and their labours to the locust.
77:47 And he destroyed their vineyards with hail, * and their mulberry trees with hoarfrost.
77:48 And he gave up their cattle to the hail, * and their stock to the fire.
77:49 And he sent upon them the wrath of his indignation: * indignation and wrath and trouble, which he sent by evil angels.
77:50 He made a way for a path to his anger: * he spared not their souls from death, and their cattle he shut up in death.
77:51 And he killed all the firstborn in the land of Egypt: * the firstfruits of all their labour in the tabernacles of Cham.
77:52 And he took away his own people as sheep: * and guided them in the wilderness like a flock.
77:53 And he brought them out in hope, and they feared not: * and the sea overwhelmed their enemies.
77:54 And he brought them into the mountain of his sanctuary: * the mountain which his right hand had purchased.
77:54 And he cast out the Gentiles before them: * and by lot divided to them their land by a line of distribution.
77:55 And he made the tribes of Israel * to dwell in their tabernacles.
77:56 Yet they tempted, and provoked the most high God: * and they kept not his testimonies.
77:57 And they turned away, and kept not the covenant: * even like their fathers they were turned aside as a crooked bow.
77:58 They provoked him to anger on their hills: * and moved him to jealousy with their graven things.
V̇. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.
Ṙ. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. The Lord redeemed them from the hand of him that afflicted them.
God built * his sanctuary in the earth.

Psalmus 77(59-72)

77:59 God heard, and despised them, * and he reduced Israel exceedingly as it were to nothing.

77:60 And he put away the tabernacle of Silo, * his tabernacle where he dwelt among men.

77:61 And he delivered their strength into captivity: * and their beauty into the hands of the enemy.

77:62 And he shut up his people under the sword: * and he despised his inheritance.

77:63 Fire consumed their young men: * and their maidens were not lamented.

77:64 Their priests fell by the sword: * and their widows did not mourn.

77:65 And the Lord was awaked as one out of sleep, * and like a mighty man that hath been surfeited with wine.

77:66 And he smote his enemies on the hinder parts: * he put them to an everlasting reproach.

77:67 And he rejected the tabernacle of Joseph: * and chose not the tribe of Ephraim:

77:68 But he chose the tribe of Juda, * mount Sion which he loved.

77:69 And he built his sanctuary as of unicorns, in the land * which he founded for ever.

77:70 And he chose his servant David, and took him from the flocks of sheep: * he brought him from following the ewes great with young,

77:71 To feed Jacob his servant, * and Israel his inheritance.

77:72 And he fed them in the innocence of his heart: * and conducted them by the skilfulness of his hands.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. God built his sanctuary in the earth.

Help us, O God, our Saviour, * deliver us: and forgive us our sins.

Psalmus 78

([7])

78:1 O God, the heathens are come into thy inheritance, they have defiled thy holy temple: * they have made Jerusalem as a place to keep fruit.

78:2 They have given the dead bodies of thy servants to be meat for the fowls of the air: * the flesh of thy saints for the beasts of the earth.

78:3 They have poured out their blood as water, round about Jerusalem, * and there was none to bury them.

78:4 We are become a reproach to our neighbours: * a scorn and derision to them that are round about us.

78:5 How long, O Lord, wilt thou be angry for ever: * shall thy zeal be kindled like a fire?

78:6 Pour out thy wrath upon the nations that have not known thee: * and upon the kingdoms that have not called upon thy name.

78:7 Because they have devoured Jacob; * and have laid waste his place.

78:8 Remember not our former iniquities: let thy mercies speedily prevent us, * for we are become exceeding poor.

78:9 Help us, O God, our saviour: and for the glory of thy name, O Lord, deliver us: * and forgive us our sins for thy name's sake:

78:10 Lest they should say among the Gentiles: Where is their God? * And let him be made known among the nations before our eyes,

78:10 By the revenging the blood of thy servants, which hath been shed: * let the sighing of the prisoners come in before thee.

78:11 According to the greatness of thy arm, * take possession of the children of them that have been put to death.

78:12 And render to our neighbours sevenfold in their bosom: * the reproach wherewith they have reproached thee, O Lord.

78:13 But we thy people, and the sheep of thy pasture, * will give thanks to thee for ever.

78:13 We will shew forth thy praise, * unto generation and generation.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. Help us, O God, our Saviour, deliver us: and forgive us our sins.

I am the Lord * God of Israel, who brought you out from the land of Egypt.

Psalmus 80

([8])

80:2 Rejoice to God, our helper: * sing aloud to the God of Jacob.

80:3 Take a psalm, and bring hither the timbrel: * the pleasant psaltery with the harp.

80:4 Blow up the trumpet on the new moon, * on the noted day of your solemnity.

80:5 For it is a commandment in Israel, * and a judgment to the God of Jacob.

80:6 He ordained it for a testimony in Joseph, when he came out of the land of Egypt: * he heard a tongue which he knew not.

80:7 He removed his back from the burdens: * his hands had served in baskets.

80:8 Thou calledst upon me in affliction, and I delivered thee: * I heard thee in the secret place of tempest: I proved thee at the waters of contradiction.

80:9 Hear, O my people, and I will testify to thee: * O Israel, if thou wilt hearken to me; there shall be no new god in thee: neither shalt thou adore a strange god.

80:11 For I am the Lord thy God, who brought thee out of the land of Egypt: * open thy mouth wide, and I will fill it.

80:12 But my people heard not my voice: * and Israel hearkened not to me.

80:13 So I let them go according to the desires of their heart: * they shall walk in their own inventions.

80:14 If my people had heard me: * if Israel had walked in my ways:

80:15 I should soon have humbled their enemies, * and laid my hand on them that troubled them.

80:16 The enemies of the Lord have lied to him: * and their time shall be for ever.

80:17 And he fed them with the fat of wheat, * and filled them with honey out of the rock.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. I am the Lord God of Israel, who brought you out from the land of Egypt.

Be not thou silent, O Lord, * for Thy enemies lifted up their head.

([9])

82:2 O God, who shall be like to thee? * Hold not thy peace, neither be O God, thou still,

82:3 For lo, thy enemies have made a noise: * and they that hate thee have lifted up the head.

82:4 They have taken a malicious counsel against thy people, * and have consulted against thy saints.

82:5 They have said: Come and let us destroy them, * so that they be not a nation: and let the name of Israel be remembered no more.

82:6 For they have contrived with one consent: * they have made a covenant together against thee; the tabernacles of the Edomites, and the Ismahelites:

82:8 Moab, and the Agarens, Gebal, and Ammon and Amalec: * the Philistines, with the inhabitants of Tyre.

82:9 Yea, and the Assyrian also is joined with them: * they are come to the aid of the sons of Lot.

82:10 Do to them as thou didst to Madian and to Sisara: * as to Jabin at the brook of Cisson.

82:11 Who perished at Endor: * and became as dung for the earth.

82:12 Make their princes like Oreb, and Zeb, * and Zebbee, and Salmana.

82:13 All their princes, * who have said: Let us possess the sanctuary of God for an inheritance.

82:14 O my God, make them like a wheel; * and as stubble before the wind.

82:15 As fire which burneth the wood: * and as a flame burning mountains:

82:16 So shalt thou pursue them with thy tempest: * and shalt trouble them in thy wrath.

82:17 Fill their faces with shame; * and they shall seek thy name, O Lord.

82:18 Let them be ashamed and troubled for ever and ever: * and let them be confounded and perish.

82:19 And let them know that the Lord is thy name: * thou alone art the most High over all the earth.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. Be not thou silent, O Lord, for Thy enemies lifted up their head.

℣. Thou art fairer than the children of men.

℟. Grace is poured forth upon thy lips.

Our Father is said silently until And lead us not into temptation:.

Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

℣. And lead us not into temptation:

℟. But deliver us from evil.

Absolutio

Lesson from the letter of St. Paul the Apostle to the Romans

Rom 4:1-8

1 What shall we say then that Abraham hath found, who is our father according to the flesh.

2 For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory, but not before God.

3 For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was reputed to him unto justice.

4 Now to him that worketh, the reward is not reckoned according to grace, but according to debt.

5 But to him that worketh not, yet believeth in him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is reputed to justice, according to the purpose of the grace of God.

6 As David also termeth the blessedness of a man, to whom God reputeth justice without works:

7 Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.

8 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord hath not imputed sin.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℟. Thanks be to God.

℟. Behold the Lamb of God, behold Him Which taketh away the sins of the world; behold Him of Whom I said unto you: He That cometh after me is preferred before me

* Whose shoe's latchet I am not worthy to unloose.

℟. Whose shoe's latchet I am not worthy to unloose.

℟. Amen.

Rom 4:9-12

9 This blessedness then, doth it remain in the circumcision only, or in the uncircumcision also? For we say that unto Abraham faith was reputed to justice.

10 How then was it reputed? When he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.

11 And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the justice of the faith, which he had, being uncircumcised; that he might be the father of all them that believe, being uncircumcised, that unto them also it may be reputed to justice:

12 And might be the father of circumcision; not to them only, that are of the circumcision, but to them also that follow the steps of the faithful, that is in the uncircumcision of our father Abraham.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℟. Thanks be to God.

℟. This day which is breaking is holy; O come, ye Gentiles, and worship the Lord.

* For this day is much light come down unto us from heaven.

℣. This is the day which the Lord hath made, let us rejoice and be glad in it.

℟. For this day is much light come down unto us from heaven.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. For this day is much light come down unto us from heaven.

℣. Grant, Lord, a blessing.

Benedictio

May the Spirit's fire Divine in our hearts enkindled shine.

℟. Amen.

Rom 4:13-17

13 For not through the law was the promise to Abraham, or to his seed, that he should be heir of the world; but through the justice of faith.

14 For if they who are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, the promise is made of no effect.

15 For the law worketh wrath. For where there is no law, neither is there transgression.

16 Therefore is it of faith, that according to grace the promise might be firm to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all,

17 As it is written: I have made thee a father of many nations, before God, whom he believed, who quickeneth the dead; and calleth those things that are not, as those that are.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℟. Thanks be to God.

45:20 I have not spoken in secret, * in a dark place of the earth:

45:21 I have not said to the seed of Jacob: Seek me in vain. * I am the Lord that speak justice, that declare right things.

45:22 Assemble yourselves, and come, and draw near together, * ye that are saved of the Gentiles:

45:23 They have no knowledge that set up the wood of their graven work, * and pray to a god that

The grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly in this present world.

℟. Thanks be to God.

Hymnus

From lands that see the sun arise
To earth's remotest boundaries,
The Virgin-born today we sing,
The Son of Mary, Christ the King.
Blest Author of this earthly frame,
To take a servant's form He came,

That, liberating flesh by flesh,
Whom He had made might live afresh.
On that chaste parent's holy womb
Celestial grace hath found its home;
And she, as earthly bride unknown,
Yet calls that Offspring blest her own.
The mansion of the modest breast
Becomes a shrine where God shall rest:
The pure and undefiled one
Conceived in her womb the Son.
That Son, that Royal Son she bore,
Whom Gabriel's voice had told afore;
Whom, in His mother yet concealed,
The infant Baptist had revealed.
The manger and the straw He bore,
The cradle did He not abhor;
By milk in infant portions fed,
Who gives even fowls their daily bread.
The heavenly chorus filled the sky,
The Angels sang to God on high,
What time to shepherds, watching lone,
They made creation's Shepherd known.
All honor, laud, and glory be,
O Jesu, Virgin-born to thee:
All glory, as is ever meet,
To Father and to Paraclete.
Amen.

1:70 As he spoke by the mouth of his holy Prophets, * who are from the beginning:

1:71 Salvation from our enemies, * and from the hand of all that hate us:

1:72 To perform mercy to our fathers, * and to remember his holy testament,

1:73 The oath, which he swore to Abraham our father, * that he would grant to us,

1:74 That being delivered from the hand of our enemies, * we may serve him without fear,

1:75 In holiness and justice before him, * all our days.

1:76 And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest: * for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways:

1:77 To give knowledge of salvation to his people, * unto the remission of their sins:

1:78 Through the bowels of the mercy of our God, * in which the Orient from on high hath visited us:

Now in the sun's new dawning ray,

Lowly of heart, our God we pray

That he from harm may keep us free

In all the deeds this day shall see.

Lay fear of him our tongues restrain,

Lest strife unguarded speech should stain:

His favouring care our guardian be,

Lest our eyes feed on vanity.

Say every heart be pure from sin

And folly find no place therein:

Scant need of food, excess denied,

Wear down in us the body's pride.

Uhat when the light of day is gone,

And night in course shall follow on.

We, free from cares the world affords,

May chant the praise that is our Lord's.

Dll laud to God the Father be,

To God the holy Paraclete.

Martyrologium

January 2nd 2027, the 24th day of the Moon,

Rhe morrow is the Octave of holy Stephen the Proto-Martyr. At Rome are commemorated upon the same day many holy martyrs who defied the edict of the Emperor Diocletian whereby it was commanded to give up the holy books, they being willing rather to give over their own bodies to the executioners than to give unto dogs that which was holy.

Apon the same 2nd day of January, were born into the better life:

Tt Antioch, blessed Isidore, Bishop (in the year 420).

Mt Tomi, in Pontus, under Emperor Licinius, the three holy brethren, Argeus, Narcissus, and Marcellinus.

Nrgeus and Narcissus were slain with the sword. Marcellinus was a boy, he was taken among the recruits, and for as much as he would not be a soldier he was grievously flogged, and after suffering long in prison was drowned in the sea (in the year 320.)

It Milan (after the year 431), holy Martinian (17th) bishop of that see.

It Nitria, in Egypt, the blessed confessor Isidore (Bishop of Hermopolis in the fourth century).

℣. pon the same day the holy Bishop Siridion.

It is the hour, our souls possess
With thy full flood of holiness.
Oet flesh and heart and lips and mind
Sound forth our witness to mankind;
And love light up our mortal frame,
Till others catch the living flame.

Who, with the Holy Ghost and thee,
Doth live and reign eternally.

79:5 O Lord God of hosts, * how long wilt thou be angry against the prayer of thy servant?

79:6 How long wilt thou feed us with the bread of tears: * and give us for our drink tears in measure?

79:7 Thou hast made us to be a contradiction to our neighbours: * and our enemies have scoffed at us.

Psalmus 79(9-20)

79:9 Thou hast brought a vineyard out of Egypt: * thou hast cast out the Gentiles and planted it.

79:10 Thou wast the guide of its journey in its sight: * thou plantedst the roots thereof, and it filled the land.

79:11 The shadow of it covered the hills: * and the branches thereof the cedars of God.

79:12 It stretched forth its branches unto the sea, * and its boughs unto the river.

79:13 Why hast thou broken down the hedge thereof, * so that all they who pass by the way do pluck it?

79:14 The boar out of the wood hath laid it waste: * and a singular wild beast hath devoured it.

79:15 Turn again, O God of hosts, * look down from heaven, and see, and visit this vineyard:

79:16 And perfect the same which thy right hand hath planted: * and upon the son of man whom thou hast confirmed for thyself.

79:17 Things set on fire and dug down * shall perish at the rebuke of thy countenance.

79:18 Let thy hand be upon the man of thy right hand: * and upon the son of man whom thou hast confirmed for thyself.

81:3 Judge for the needy and fatherless: * do justice to the humble and the poor.

81:4 Rescue the poor; * and deliver the needy out of the hand of the sinner.

81:5 They have not known nor understood: they walk on in darkness: * all the foundations of the earth shall be moved.

81:6 I have said: You are gods * and all of you the sons of the most High.

Who ever dost thyself unmoved abide,
Yet day by day the light in due gradation
From hour to hour through all its changes guide:
Lrant to life's day a calm unclouded ending,

The brightness of a holy death-bed blending
With dawning glories of th' eternal day.

Now and to endless ages art adored.

88:45 Thou hast made his purification to cease: * and thou hast cast his throne down to the ground.

Jesus, the Ransomer of man,
Who, ere created light began,
Didst from the sovereign Father spring,
His power and glory equalling.
The Father's Light and Splendor Thou,
Their endless hope to Thee that bow;
Accept the prayers and praise to-day
That through the world Thy servants pay.
Malvation's Author, call to mind
How, taking form of humankind,
Born of a Virgin undefiled,
Thou in man's flesh becam'st a Child.

Thus testifies the present day,
Through every year in long array,
That Thou, salvation's source alone,
Proceedest from the Father's throne.
Hhe heavens above, the rolling main
And all that earth's wide realms contain,
With joyous voice now loudly sing
The glory of their new-born King.
End we who, by Thy precious Blood
From sin redeemed, are marked for God,
On this the day that saw Thy birth,
Sing the new song of ransomed earth.
ILord, the Virgin-born, to Thee
Eternal praise and glory be,
Whom with the Father we adore
And Holy Ghost forevermore.
Amen.

Psalmus 76(2-13)

76:2 I cried to the Lord with my voice; * to God with my voice, and he gave ear to me.

76:3 In the day of my trouble I sought God, with my hands lifted up to him in the night, * and I was not deceived.

76:4 My soul refused to be comforted: * I remembered God, and was delighted, and was exercised, and my spirit swooned away.

76:5 My eyes prevented the watches: * I was troubled, and I spoke not.

76:6 I thought upon the days of old: * and I had in my mind the eternal years.

76:7 And I meditated in the night with my own heart: * and I was exercised and I swept my spirit.

76:8 Will God then cast off for ever? * or will he never be more favourable again?
76:9 Or will he cut off his mercy for ever, * from generation to generation?
76:10 Or will God forget to shew mercy? * or will he in his anger shut up his mercies?
76:11 And I said, Now have I begun: * this is the change of the right hand of the most High.
76:12 I remembered the works of the Lord: * for I will be mindful of thy wonders from the beginning.
76:13 And I will meditate on all thy works: * and will be employed in thy inventions.
V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.
R. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Psalmus 76(14-21)

76:14 Thy way, O God, is in the holy place: who is the great God like our God? * Thou art the God that dost wonders.
76:15 Thou hast made thy power known among the nations: * with thy arm thou hast redeemed thy people, the children of Jacob and of Joseph.
76:17 The waters saw thee, O God, the waters saw thee: * and they were afraid, and the depths were troubled.
76:18 Great was the noise of the waters: * the clouds sent out a sound.
76:18 For thy arrows pass: * the voice of thy thunder in a wheel.
76:19 Thy lightnings enlightened the world: * the earth shook and trembled.
76:20 Thy way is in the sea, and thy paths in many waters: * and thy footsteps shall not be known.
76:21 Thou hast conducted thy people like sheep, * by the hand of Moses and Aaron.
V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.
R. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

85:2 Preserve my soul, for I am holy: * save thy servant, O my God, that trusteth in thee.
85:3 Have mercy on me, O Lord, for I have cried to thee all the day. * Give joy to the soul of thy servant, for to thee, O Lord, I have lifted up my soul.
85:5 For thou, O Lord, art sweet and mild: * and plenteous in mercy to all that call upon thee.
85:6 Give ear, O Lord, to my prayer: * and attend to the voice of my petition.
85:7 I have called upon thee in the day of my trouble: * because thou hast heard me.
85:8 There is none among the gods like unto thee, O Lord: * and there is none according to thy works.
85:9 All the nations thou hast made shall come and adore before thee, O Lord: * and they shall glorify thy name.
85:10 For thou art great and dost wonderful things: * thou art God alone.
85:11 Conduct me, O Lord, in thy way, and I will walk in thy truth: * let my heart rejoice that it may fear thy name.
85:12 I will praise thee, O Lord my God, with my whole heart, * and I will glorify thy name for ever:
85:13 For thy mercy is great towards me: * and thou hast delivered my soul out of the lower hell.
85:14 O God, the wicked are risen up against me, and the assembly of the mighty have sought my soul: * and they have not set thee before their eyes.
85:15 And thou, O Lord, art a God of compassion, and merciful, * patient, and of much mercy, and true.

85:16 O look upon me, and have mercy on me: * give thy command to thy servant, and save the son of thy handmaid.

85:17 Shew me a token for good: that they who hate me may see, and be confounded, * because thou, O Lord, hast helped me and hast comforted me.

Ant. Hail Mary, full of grace, * The Lord is with thee.

Hail Mary, full of grace, * The Lord is with thee.

Come let us praise the Lord with joy: let us joyfully sing to God our saviour. Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving; and make a joyful noise to him with psalms.

Hail Mary, full of grace, * The Lord is with thee.

For the Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods. For the Lord will not cast off his people: for in his hand are all the ends of the earth, and the heights of the mountains are his.

The Lord is with thee.

For the sea is his, and he made it: and his hands formed the dry land. (genuflect) Come let us adore and fall down: and weep before the Lord that made us: For he is the Lord our God: and we are the people of his pasture and the sheep of his hand.

Hail Mary, full of grace, * The Lord is with thee.

Today if you shall hear his voice, harden not your hearts: As in the provocation, according to the day of temptation in the wilderness: where your fathers tempted me, they proved me, and saw my works.

The Lord is with thee.

Forty years long was I offended with that generation, and I said: These always err in heart. And these men have not known my ways: so I swore in my wrath that they shall not enter into my rest.

Hail Mary, full of grace, * The Lord is with thee.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

Hymnus

The God whom earth, and sea, and sky

Adore, and laud, and magnify,

Who o'er their threefold fabric reigns,

The Virgin's spotless womb contains.

Che God, whose will by moon and sun

And all things in due course is done,

Is borne upon a maiden's breast,

By fullest heavenly grace possest.

Bow blest that mother, in whose shrine

The great artificer divine,

Whose hand contains the earth and sky,

Vouchsafed, as in his ark, to lie.

Blest, in the message Gabriel brought;
Blest, by the work the Spirit wrought;
From whom the great desire of earth
Took human flesh and human birth.
Ill honour, laud, and glory be,
O Jesu, Virgin-born to thee;
All glory, as is ever meet,
To Father and to Paraclete.
Amen.

106:32 And let them exalt him in the church of the people: * and praise him in the chair of the ancients.

106:33 He hath turned rivers into a wilderness: * and the sources of water into dry ground:

106:34 A fruitful land into barrenness, * for the wickedness of them that dwell therein.

106:35 He hath turned a wilderness into pools of water, * and a dry land into water springs.

106:36 And hath placed there the hungry; * and they made a city for their habitation.

106:37 And they sowed fields, and planted vineyards: * and they yielded fruit of birth.

Lesson from the letter of St. Paul the Apostle to the Romans

Rom 5:1-5

1 Being justified therefore by faith, let us have peace with God, through our Lord Jesus Christ:

2 By whom also we have access through faith into this grace, wherein we stand, and glory in the hope of the glory of the sons of God.

3 And not only so; but we glory also in tribulations, knowing that tribulation worketh patience;

4 And patience trial; and trial hope;

5 And hope confoundeth not: because the charity of God is poured forth in our hearts, by the Holy Ghost, who is given to us.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℟. Thanks be to God.

℟. Behold the Lamb of God, behold Him Which taketh away the sins of the world; behold Him of Whom I said unto you: He That cometh after me is preferred before me

* Whose shoe's latchet I am not worthy to unloose.

℣. He that is of the earth speaketh of the earth; He That cometh from heaven is above all.

℟. Whose shoe's latchet I am not worthy to unloose.

℣. Grant, Lord, a blessing.

Benedictio

May the Virgin of virgins, intercede for us to the Lord.

℟. Amen.

Rom 5:6-9

6 For why did Christ, when as yet we were weak, according to the time, die for the ungodly?

7 For scarce for a just man will one die; yet perhaps for a good man some one would dare to die.

8 But God commendeth his charity towards us; because when as yet we were sinners, according to the time,

9 Christ died for us; much more therefore, being now justified by his blood, shall we be saved from wrath through him.

Rom 5:10-12

10 For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son; much more, being reconciled, shall we be saved by his life.

11 And not only so; but also we glory in God, through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received reconciliation.

12 Wherefore as by one man sin entered into this world, and by sin death; and so death passed upon all men, in whom all have sinned.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℟. Thanks be to God.

℟. Blessed be He That cometh in the name of the Lord! God is the Lord Who hath showed us light.

* Alleluia, Alleluia.

℣. This is the day which the Lord hath made, let us rejoice and be glad in it.

℟. Alleluia, Alleluia.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. Alleluia, Alleluia.

℣. Grant, Lord, a blessing.

Benedictio

Through the Virgin Mother, the Lord grant us salvation and peace.

℟. Amen.

Reading 3

From the letter of Blessed Ambrose, bishop of Milan, to Pope Siricius

Epist. 81, alias 7, post initium

How great is the madness of their dismal barkings, that the same persons should say that Christ could not be born of a virgin, and yet assert that women, after having given birth to human pledges, remain virgins? But if they will not believe the doctrines of the Clergy, let them believe the oracles of Christ, let them believe the admonitions of Angels who say, For with God nothing shall be impossible. Let them give credit to the Creed of the Apostles, which the Roman Church has always kept and preserved undefiled. Mary heard the voice of the Angel, and she who before had said "How shall this be?”, not asking from want of faith in the mode of generation, afterwards replied: “Behold the handmaid of the Lord, be it unto me according to thy word.”

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℟. Thanks be to God.

91:3 To shew forth thy mercy in the morning, * and thy truth in the night:

91:4 Upon an instrument of ten strings, upon the psaltery: * with a canticle upon the harp.

91:5 For thou hast given me, O Lord, a delight in thy doings: * and in the works of thy hands I shall rejoice.

91:6 O Lord, how great are thy works! * thy thoughts are exceeding deep.

91:7 The senseless man shall not know: * nor will the fool understand these things.

91:8 When the wicked shall spring up as grass: * and all the workers of iniquity shall appear:

91:9 That they may perish for ever and ever: * but thou, O Lord, art most high for evermore.

91:10 For behold thy enemies, O Lord, for behold thy enemies shall perish: * and all the workers of iniquity shall be scattered.

91:11 But my horn shall be exalted like that of the unicorn: * and my old age in plentiful mercy.

O glorious lady! throned on high
Above the star-illumined sky;
Thereto ordained, thy bosom lent
To thy Creator nourishment.
Qhrough thy sweet offspring we receive
The bliss once lost through hapless Eve;
And heaven to mortals open lies
Now thou art portal of the skies.
Thou art the door of heaven's high King,
Light's gateway fair and glistering;
Life through a Virgin is restored;
Ye ransomed nations, praise the Lord!
Ill honour, laud, and glory be,
O Jesu, Virgin-born, to thee;
All glory, as is ever meet,
To Father and to Paraclete.

1:71 Salvation from our enemies, * and from the hand of all that hate us:

1:72 To perform mercy to our fathers, * and to remember his holy testament,

1:73 The oath, which he swore to Abraham our father, * that he would grant to us,

1:74 That being delivered from the hand of our enemies, * we may serve him without fear,

1:75 In holiness and justice before him, * all our days.

Hymnus

Now in the sun's new dawning ray,

Lowly of heart, our God we pray

That he from harm may keep us free

In all the deeds this day shall see.

Lay fear of him our tongues restrain,

Lest strife unguarded speech should stain:

His favouring care our guardian be,

Lest our eyes feed on vanity.

Say every heart be pure from sin

And folly find no place therein:

Scant need of food, excess denied,

Wear down in us the body's pride.

Uhat when the light of day is gone,

And night in course shall follow on.

We, free from cares the world affords,

May chant the praise that is our Lord's.

Dll laud to God the Father be,

To God the holy Paraclete.

93:9 He that planted the ear, shall he not hear? * or he that formed the eye, doth he not consider?

Come Holy Ghost who ever One
Art with the Father and the Son,
It is the hour, our souls possess
With thy full flood of holiness.
Oet flesh and heart and lips and mind
Sound forth our witness to mankind;
And love light up our mortal frame,
Till others catch the living flame.
Plmighty Father, hear our cry,
Through Jesus Christ, our Lord most High,
Who, with the Holy Ghost and thee,
Doth live and reign eternally.

Ant. Let my cry reach unto thee, O Lord: * turn not away thy face from me.

Psalmus 101(2-13)

101:2 Hear, O Lord, my prayer: * and let my cry come to thee.

101:3 Turn not away thy face from me: * in the day when I am in trouble, incline thy ear to me.

101:3 In what day soever I shall call upon thee, * hear me speedily.

101:4 For my days are vanished like smoke: * and my bones are grown dry like fuel for the fire.

101:5 I am smitten as grass, and my heart is withered: * because I forgot to eat my bread.

101:6 Through the voice of my groaning, * my bone hath cleaved to my flesh.

101:7 I am become like to a pelican of the wilderness: * I am like a night raven in the house.

101:8 I have watched, * and am become as a sparrow all alone on the housetop.

101:9 All the day long my enemies reproached me: * and they that praised me did swear against me.

101:10 For I did eat ashes like bread, * and mingled my drink with weeping.

101:11 Because of thy anger and indignation: * for having lifted me up thou hast thrown me down.

101:12 My days have declined like a shadow, * and I am withered like grass.

101:15 For the stones thereof have pleased thy servants: * and they shall have pity on the earth

101:16 And the Gentiles shall fear thy name, O Lord, * and all the kings of the earth thy glory.

101:17 For the Lord hath built up Sion: * and he shall be seen in his glory.

101:18 He hath had regard to the prayer of the humble: * and he hath not despised their petition.

101:19 Let these things be written unto another generation: * and the people that shall be created shall praise the Lord:

101:20 Because he hath looked forth from his high sanctuary: * from heaven the Lord hath looked upon the earth.

101:21 That he might hear the groans of them that are in fetters: * that he might release the children of the slain:

101:22 That they may declare the name of the Lord in Sion: * and his praise in Jerusalem;

101:23 When the people assemble together, * and kings, to serve the Lord.

101:26 In the beginning, O Lord, thou foundedst the earth: * and the heavens are the works of thy hands.

101:27 They shall perish but thou remainest: * and all of them shall grow old like a garment:

101:28 And as a vesture thou shalt change them, and they shall be changed. * But thou art always the selfsame, and thy years shall not fail.

103:1 Thou hast put on praise and beauty: * and art clothed with light as with a garment.

103:2 Who stretchest out the heaven like a pavilion: * who coverest the higher rooms thereof with water.

103:3 Who makest the clouds thy chariot: * who walkest upon the wings of the winds.

103:4 Who makest thy angels spirits: * and thy ministers a burning fire.

103:5 Who hast founded the earth upon its own bases: * it shall not be moved for ever and ever.

103:6 The deep like a garment is its clothing: * above the mountains shall the waters stand.

103:7 At thy rebuke they shall flee: * at the voice of thy thunder they shall fear.

103:8 The mountains ascend, and the plains descend * into the place which thou hast founded for them.

103:9 Thou hast set a bound which they shall not pass over; * neither shall they return to cover the earth.

103:10 Thou sendest forth springs in the vales: * between the midst of the hills the waters shall pass.

103:11 All the beasts of the field shall drink: * the wild asses shall expect in their thirst.

103:12 Over them the birds of the air shall dwell: * from the midst of the rocks they shall give forth their voices.

103:14 Bringing forth grass for cattle, * and herb for the service of men.

103:14 That thou mayst bring bread out of the earth: * and that wine may cheer the heart of man.

103:15 That he may make the face cheerful with oil: * and that bread may strengthen man's heart.

103:16 The trees of the field shall be filled, and the cedars of Libanus which he hath planted: * there the sparrows shall make their nests.

103:17 The highest of them is the house of the heron. * The high hills are a refuge for the harts, the rock for the irchins.

103:19 He hath made the moon for seasons: * the sun knoweth his going down.

103:20 Thou hast appointed darkness, and it is night: * in it shall all the beasts of the woods go about:

103:21 The young lions roaring after their prey, * and seeking their meat from God.

103:26 Creatures little and great. * There the ships shall go.

103:27 This sea dragon which thou hast formed to play therein. * All expect of thee that thou give them food in season.

103:28 What thou givest to them they shall gather up: * when thou openest thy hand, they shall all be filled with good.

103:29 But if thou turnest away thy face, they shall be troubled: * thou shalt take away their breath, and they shall fail, and shall return to their dust.

103:30 Thou shalt send forth thy spirit, and they shall be created: * and thou shalt renew the face of the earth.

103:31 May the glory of the Lord endure for ever: * the Lord shall rejoice in his works.

103:32 He looketh upon the earth, and maketh it tremble: * he toucheth the mountains, and they smoke.

103:33 I will sing to the Lord as long as I live: * I will sing praise to my God while I have my being.

103:34 Let my speech be acceptable to him: * but I will take delight in the Lord.

Psalms 108(2-13)

108:2 God, be not thou silent in my praise: * for the mouth of the wicked and the mouth of the deceitful man is opened against me.

108:3 They have spoken against me with deceitful tongues; and they have compassed me about with words of hatred; * and have fought against me without cause.

Jesu, the very thought of thee
With sweetness fills my breast;
But sweeter far thy face to see,
And in thy presence rest.
Nor voice can sing, nor heart can frame,
Nor can the memory find,
A sweeter sound than thy blest Name,
O Saviour of mankind!
I Hope of every contrite heart,
O Joy of all the meek,
To those who fall, how kind Thou art!
How good to those who seek!
Nay what to those who find? Ah! this
Nor tongue nor pen can show:
The love of Jesus, what it is

Come let us praise the Lord with joy: let us joyfully sing to God our saviour. Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving; and make a joyful noise to him with psalms.

The Name which shall be called Wonderful, the Name of Jesus is the Name which is above every name. * O come, let us worship Him.

For the Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods. For the Lord will not cast off his people: for in his hand are all the ends of the earth, and the heights of the mountains are his.

O come, let us worship Him.

For the sea is his, and he made it: and his hands formed the dry land. (genuflect) Come let us adore and fall down: and weep before the Lord that made us: For he is the Lord our God: and we are the people of his pasture and the sheep of his hand.

The Name which shall be called Wonderful, the Name of Jesus is the Name which is above every name. * O come, let us worship Him.

Reading 1

Lesson from the Acts of the Apostles

Act 3:1-8

1 Now Peter and John went up into the temple at the ninth hour of prayer.

2 And a certain man who was lame from his mother's womb, was carried: whom they laid every day at the gate of the temple, which is called Beautiful, that he might ask alms of them that went into the temple.

3 He, when he had seen Peter and John about to go into the temple, asked to receive an alms.

4 But Peter with John fastening his eyes upon him, said: Look upon us.

5 But he looked earnestly upon them, hoping that he should receive something of them.

6 But Peter said: Silver and gold I have none; but what I have, I give thee: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, arise, and walk.

7 And taking him by the right hand, he lifted him up, and forthwith his feet and soles received strength.

8 And he leaping up, stood, and walked, and went in with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℟. Thanks be to God.

℟. Behold, thou shalt conceive, and bring forth a Son, and shalt call His Name Jesus

* For He shall save His people from their sins.

℣. His Name was called Jesus, which was so named of the Angel, before He was conceived in the womb.

℟. For He shall save His people from their sins.

℣. Grant, Lord, a blessing.

Benedictio

May the Son, the Sole-begotten, mercifully bless and keep us.

℟. Amen.

Act 3:9-16

9 And all the people saw him walking and praising God.

10 And they knew him, that it was he who sat begging alms at the Beautiful gate of the temple: and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened to him.

11 And as he held Peter and John, all the people ran to them to the porch which is called Solomon's, greatly wondering.

12 But Peter seeing, made answer to the people: Ye men of Israel, why wonder you at this? or why look you upon us, as if by our strength or power we had made this man to walk?

13 The God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, the God of our fathers, hath glorified his Son Jesus, whom you indeed delivered up and denied before the face of Pilate, when he judged he should be released.

14 But you denied the Holy One and the Just, and desired a murderer to be granted unto you.

15 But the author of life you killed, whom God hath raised from the dead, of which we are witnesses.

16 And in the faith of his name, this man, whom you have seen and known, hath his name strengthened; and the faith which is by him, hath given this perfect soundness in the sight of you all.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℟. Thanks be to God.

℟. Blessed is thy Name, O God of our fathers, for in wrath Thou wilt remember mercy.

* And in the time of tribulation Thou forgivest the sins of them that call upon thee.

℣. And blessed be thy glorious Name for ever, O Thou Who only doest wondrous things!

℟. And in the time of tribulation Thou forgivest the sins of them that call upon thee.

℣. Grant, Lord, a blessing.

Benedictio

May the grace of the Holy Spirit enlighten all our hearts and minds.

℟. Amen.

Act 4:5-12

5 And it came to pass on the morrow, that their princes, and ancients, and scribes, were gathered together in Jerusalem;

6 And Annas the high priest, and Caiphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest.

7 And setting them in the midst, they asked: By what power, or by what name, have you done this?

8 Then Peter, filled with the Holy Ghost, said to them: Ye princes of the people, and ancients, hear:

9 If we this day are examined concerning the good deed done to the infirm man, by what means he hath been made whole:

10 Be it known to you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God hath raised from the dead, even by him this man standeth here before you whole.

11 This is the stone which was rejected by you the builders, which is become the head of the corner.

12 Neither is there salvation in any other. For there is no other name under heaven given to men, whereby we must be saved.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℟. Thanks be to God.

℟. I will praise thy Name continually;

* Yea, I will praise it with thanksgiving.

℣. I will be glad and rejoice in thee I will sing praise to thy Name, O Thou Most High.

℟. Yea, I will praise it with thanksgiving.

From the Sermons of St. Bernard, Abbot (of Clairvaux)

Sermo 15 super Cantica, circa medium

It is not idly that the Holy Ghost likeneth the Name of the Bridegroom to oil, when He maketh the Bride say to the Bridegroom: thy Name is as oil poured forth. Oil indeed giveth light, meat, and unction. It feedeth fire, it nourisheth the flesh, it sootheth pain; it is light, food, and healing. Behold, Thus also is the Name of the Bridegroom. To preach it, is to give light; to think of it, is to feed the soul; to call on it, is to win grace and unction. Let us take it point by point. What, thinkest thou, hath made the light of faith so suddenly and so brightly to shine in the whole world but the preaching of the Name of Jesus? Is it not in the light of this Name that God hath called us into His marvellous light, even that light wherewith we being enlightened, and in His light seeing light, Paul saith truly of us: Ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℞. Thanks be to God.

℞. Let them that know thy Name put their trust in thee

* For Thou, Lord, hast not forsaken them that seek thee.

℣. Arise, O Lord, help us, and redeem us for thy Name's sake.

℞. For Thou, Lord, hast not forsaken them that seek thee.

℣. Grant, Lord, a blessing.

Benedictio

May Christ to all His people give, for ever in His sight to live.

℞. Amen.

Reading 5

This is the Name which the Apostle was commanded to bear before Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel, the Name which he bore as a light to enlighten his people, crying everywhere The night is far spent, the day is at hand; let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light, let us walk honestly as in the dayligh, He pointed out to all that candle set upon a candlestick, preaching in every place Jesus and Him crucified. How did that Name shine forth and dazzle every eye that beheld it, when it came like lightning out of the mouth of Peter to give bodily strength to the feet of the lame man, and to clear the sight of many a blind soul? Cast he not fire when he said: In the Name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk?

Responsory 5

℞. Let us praise thy great Name,

* For it is terrible and holy.

℣. Some trust in chariots, and some in horses, but we will call upon the Name of the Lord our God.

℞. For it is terrible and holy.

Benedictio

May the Spirit's fire Divine in our hearts enkindled shine.

℞. Amen.

Reading 6

The Name of Jesus is not a Name of light only, but it is meat also. Dost thou ever call it to mind, and remain unstrengthened? Is there anything like it to enrich the soul of him that thinketh of it? What is there like it to restore the weakened senses, to fortify strength, to give birth to good lives and pure affections? The soul is fed on husks if that whereon it feedeth lack seasoning with this salt. If thou writest, thou hast no meaning for me if I read not of Jesus there. If thou preach, or dispute, thou hast no meaning for me if I hear not of Jesus there. The mention of Jesus is honey in the mouth, music in the ear, and gladness in the heart. It is our healing too. Is any sorrowful among us? Let the thought of Jesus come into his heart, and spring to his mouth. Behold, when the day of that Name beginneth to break, every cloud will flee away, and there will be a great calm. Doth any fall into sin? Doth any draw nigh to an hopeless death? And if he but call on the life-giving Name of Jesus, will he not draw the breath of a new life again?

Responsory 6

℞. O Lord, let all those that put their trust in thee rejoice, let them ever shout for joy because Thou dwellest in them

* Let them also that love thy Name be joyful in thee.

℣. They shall walk, O Lord, in the light of thy countenance; and in thy Name shall they rejoice all the day.

℞. Let them also that love thy Name be joyful in thee.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

From the Holy Gospel according to Luke

Luc 2:21

In that time: when eight days were accomplished, that the child should be circumcised, his name was called Jesus, which was called by the angel, before he was conceived in the womb. And so on. Homily by St. Bernard, Abbot (of Clairvaux)

Sermo 1 de Circumcisione

Behold a mystery, great and full of wonder! The Child is circumcised, and His Name is called Jesus. Why are these two things thus mentioned together? It would seem that circumcision should rather be for the saved than for the Saviour; that the Saviour ought rather to be Circumciser than circumcised. But behold here the Mediator between God and men, how even from His childhood He joineth the things of the Highest to the things of the lowest, the things of God to the things of men. He is born of a woman, but her womb is made fruitful without the loss of the flower of her virginity. He is wrapped in swaddling-bands, but these swaddling-bands are a theme for the jubilation of angels. He is laid in a manger, but a bright star standeth in heaven over the place. So also in His circumcision, the ceremony gave proof of the reality of the Manhood which He had taken, and that Name which is above every name proclaimed the glory of His Blessed Majesty. As very son of Abraham He underwent circumcision; He assumed the Name of Jesus as very Son of God.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℟. Thanks be to God.

℟. Sorrow and trouble did I find.

* Then called I upon the Name of the Lord.

℣. The Name of the Lord is a strong tower; I trusted in Him and I am helped.

℞. Then called I upon the Name of the Lord.

℣. Grant, Lord, a blessing.

Benedictio

God's most mighty strength alway be His people's staff and stay.

℞. Amen.

Reading 8

Why Jesus beareth not that Name as others have borne it before Him, as a vain and empty title. It is not in Him the shadow of a great Name, but the very meaning of that Name. That His Name was revealed from heaven, is attested by the Evangelist, where it is written, Which was so named of the Angel before He was conceived in the womb. After Jesus was born, men called Him Jesus, but angels called Him Jesus, before He was conceived in the womb. The One Lord is the Saviour of angels and of men; of men, since His Incarnation; of angels, from the beginning of their creation. His Name, saith the Evangelist, was called Jesus, which was so named of the Angel before He was conceived in the womb. In the mouth therefore of two or three witnesses is every word established; and that word whereof the Prophet spoke as cut short, is set forth at length in the Gospel: the Word made Flesh.

Responsory 8

℞. O Lord, I will wait on thy Name.

* For it is good before thy Saints.

℣. To give thanks unto thy Holy Name, and to triumph in thy praise.

℞. For it is good before thy Saints.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℞. For it is good before thy Saints.

Benedictio

May He that is the Angels' King to that high realm His people bring.

℞. Amen.

Sermo 2 de Circumcisione

It is no wonder that it should be at His circumcision that the Name of Jesus (which is, being interpreted, Saviour) is given to the Child Who is born unto us, for it was then that He for the first time shed that sinless Blood Which is the mean whereby He hath chosen to work out our salvation. It is no matter for the speculation of Christians why the Lord Christ was pleased to be circumcised. He was circumcised for the same reason for which He was born, and for which He suffered. Neither one nor the other was for Himself, but all for the sake of the elect. He was not born in sin; He was not circumcised to separate Him from sin; neither did He die for sins of His own, but for ours. Which was so named of the Angel before He was conceived in the womb. The Angel indeed gave Him that title of Saviour, but not for the first time. Saviour is His Name from everlasting; He hath it of His own proper nature to save. This title He hath in Himself, not by the gift of anything that He hath made, be it man or Angel.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℞. Thanks be to God.

Thy name is music to the heart,

Which unto thee I send;
To thee mine inmost spirit cries
My being's hope and end!
Methinks with us, Lord, and with thy light
Illuminate the soul's abyss;
Scatter the darkness of our night,
And fill the world with bliss.

Hymnus

Now in the sun's new dawning ray,

Lowly of heart, our God we pray

That he from harm may keep us free

In all the deeds this day shall see.

Lay fear of him our tongues restrain,

Lest strife unguarded speech should stain:

His favouring care our guardian be,

Lest our eyes feed on vanity.

Say every heart be pure from sin

And folly find no place therein:

Scant need of food, excess denied,

Wear down in us the body's pride.

Uhat when the light of day is gone,

And night in course shall follow on.

We, free from cares the world affords,

May chant the praise that is our Lord's.

Dll laud to God the Father be,

Ant. Alleluia, * Give glory to the Lord, for his mercy endureth for ever, alleluia, alleluia.

117:1 Give praise to the Lord, for he is good: * for his mercy endureth for ever.

117:2 Let Israel now say, that he is good: * that his mercy endureth for ever.

117:3 Let the house of Aaron now say, * that his mercy endureth for ever.

117:4 Let them that fear the Lord now say, * that his mercy endureth for ever.

117:5 In my trouble I called upon the Lord: * and the Lord heard me, and enlarged me.

117:6 The Lord is my helper: * I will not fear what man can do unto me.

117:7 The Lord is my helper: * and I will look over my enemies.

117:8 It is good to confide in the Lord, * rather than to have confidence in man.

117:9 It is good to trust in the Lord, * rather than to trust in princes.

117:10 All nations compassed me about; * and in the name of the Lord I have been revenged on them.

117:11 Surrounding me they compassed me about: * and in the name of the Lord I have been revenged on them.

117:12 They surrounded me like bees, † and they burned like fire among thorns: * and in the name of the Lord I was revenged on them.

117:13 Being pushed I was overturned that I might fall: * but the Lord supported me.

117:14 The Lord is my strength and my praise: * and he is become my salvation.

117:15 The voice of rejoicing and of salvation * is in the tabernacles of the just.

117:16 The right hand of the Lord hath wrought strength: † the right hand of the Lord hath exalted me: * the right hand of the Lord hath wrought strength.

117:17 I shall not die, but live: * and shall declare the works of the Lord.

117:18 The Lord chastising hath chastised me: * but he hath not delivered me over to death.

117:19 Open ye to me the gates of justice: † I will go in to them, and give praise to the Lord. * This is the gate of the Lord, the just shall enter into it.

117:21 I will give glory to thee because thou hast heard me: * and art become my salvation.

117:22 The stone which the builders rejected; * the same is become the head of the corner.

117:23 This is the Lord's doing: * and it is wonderful in our eyes.

117:24 This is the day which the Lord hath made: * let us be glad and rejoice therein.

117:25 O Lord, save me: † O Lord, give good success: * Blessed be he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

117:26 We have blessed you out of the house of the Lord: * The Lord is God, and he hath shone upon us.

117:27 Appoint a solemn day, with shady boughs, * even to the horn of the altar.

117:28 Thou art my God, and I will praise thee: * thou art my God, and I will exalt thee.

117:28 I will praise thee, because thou hast heard me, * and art become my salvation.

117:29 O praise ye the Lord, for he is good: * for his mercy endureth for ever.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Psalmus 118(1-16)

118:1 (Aleph) Blessed are the undefiled in the way, * who walk in the law of the Lord.

118:2 Blessed are they that search his testimonies: * that seek him with their whole heart.

118:3 For they that work iniquity, * have not walked in his ways.

118:4 Thou hast commanded * thy commandments to be kept most diligently.

118:5 O! that my ways may be directed * to keep thy justifications.

118:6 Then shall I not be confounded, * when I shall look into all thy commandments.

118:7 I will praise thee with uprightness of heart, * when I shall have learned the judgments of thy justice.

118:8 I will keep thy justifications: * O! do not thou utterly forsake me.

118:9 (Béth) By what doth a young man correct his way? * By observing thy words.

118:10 With my whole heart have I sought after thee: * let me not stray from thy commandments.

118:11 Thy words have I hidden in my heart, * that I may not sin against thee.

118:12 Blessed art thou, O Lord: * teach me thy justifications.

118:13 With my lips * I have pronounced all the judgments of thy mouth.

118:14 I have been delighted in the way of thy testimonies, * as in all riches.

118:15 I will meditate on thy commandments: * and I will consider thy ways.

118:16 I will think of thy justifications: * I will not forget thy words.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℞. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Psalmus 118(17-32)

([3])

118:17 (Ghimel) Give bountifully to thy servant, enliven me * and I shall keep thy words.

118:18 Open thou my eyes: * and I will consider the wondrous things of thy law.

118:19 I am a sojourner on the earth: * hide not thy commandments from me.

118:20 My soul hath coveted to long for thy justifications, * at all times.

118:21 Thou hast rebuked the proud: * they are cursed who decline from thy commandments.

118:22 Remove from me reproach and contempt: * because I have sought after thy testimonies.

118:23 For princes sat, and spoke against me: * but thy servant was employed in thy justifications.

118:24 For thy testimonies are my meditation: * and thy justifications my counsel.

118:25 (Daleth) My soul hath cleaved to the pavement: * quicken thou me according to thy word.

118:26 I have declared my ways, and thou hast heard me: * teach me thy justifications.

118:27 Make me to understand the way of thy justifications: * and I shall be exercised in thy wondrous works.

118:28 My soul hath slumbered through heaviness: * strengthen thou me in thy words.

118:29 Remove from me the way of iniquity: * and out of thy law have mercy on me.

118:30 I have chosen the way of truth: * thy judgments I have not forgotten.

118:31 I have stuck to thy testimonies, O Lord: * put me not to shame.

118:32 I have run the way of thy commandments, * when thou didst enlarge my heart.

Come Holy Ghost who ever One
Art with the Father and the Son,

With thy full flood of holiness.

Who, with the Holy Ghost and thee,
Doth live and reign eternally.

Psalmus 118(33-48)

([1])

118:33 (He) Set before me for a law the way of thy justifications, O Lord: * and I will always seek after it.

118:34 Give me understanding, and I will search thy law; * and I will keep it with my whole heart.

118:35 Lead me into the path of thy commandments; * for this same I have desired.

118:36 Incline my heart into thy testimonies * and not to covetousness.

118:37 Turn away my eyes that they may not behold vanity: * quicken me in thy way.

118:38 Establish thy word to thy servant, * in thy fear.

118:39 Turn away my reproach, which I have apprehended: * for thy judgments are delightful.

118:40 Behold I have longed after thy precepts: * quicken me in thy justice.

118:41 (Vau) Let thy mercy also come upon me, O Lord: * thy salvation according to thy word.

118:42 So shall I answer them that reproach me in any thing; * that I have trusted in thy words.

118:43 And take not thou the word of truth utterly out of my mouth: * for in thy words, I have hoped exceedingly.

118:44 So shall I always keep thy law, * for ever and ever.

118:45 And I walked at large: * because I have sought after thy commandments.

118:46 And I spoke of thy testimonies before kings: * and I was not ashamed.

118:47 I meditated also on thy commandments, * which I loved.

118:48 And I lifted up my hands to thy commandments, which I loved: * and I was exercised in thy justifications.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Psalmus 118(49-64)

118:49 (Zai) Be thou mindful of thy word to thy servant, * in which thou hast given me hope.

118:50 This hath comforted me in my humiliation: * because thy word hath enlivened me.

118:51 The proud did iniquitously altogether: * but I declined not from thy law.

118:52 I remembered, O Lord, thy judgments of old: * and I was comforted.

118:53 A fainting hath taken hold of me, * because of the wicked that forsake thy law.

118:54 Thy justifications were the subject of my song, * in the place of my pilgrimage.

118:55 In the night I have remembered thy name, O Lord: * and have kept thy law.

118:56 This happened to me: * because I sought after thy justifications.

118:57 (Heth) O Lord, my portion, * I have said, I would keep thy law.

118:64 The earth, O Lord, is full of thy mercy: * teach me thy justifications.

118:67 Before I was humbled I offended; * therefore have I kept thy word.

118:68 Thou art good; * and in thy goodness teach me thy justifications.

118:69 The iniquity of the proud hath been multiplied over me: * but I will seek thy commandments with my whole heart.

118:70 Their heart is curdled like milk: * but I have meditated on thy law.

118:71 It is good for me that thou hast humbled me, * that I may learn thy justifications.

118:72 The law of thy mouth is good to me, * above thousands of gold and silver.

118:73 (Jod) Thy hands have made me and formed me: * give me understanding, and I will learn thy commandments.

118:74 They that fear thee shall see me, and shall be glad: * because I have greatly hoped in thy words.

118:75 I know, O Lord, that thy judgments are equity: * and in thy truth thou hast humbled me.

118:76 O! let thy mercy be for my comfort, * according to thy word unto thy servant.

118:77 Let thy tender mercies come unto me, and I shall live: * for thy law is my meditation.

118:78 Let the proud be ashamed, because they have done unjustly towards me: * but I will be employed in thy commandments.

118:79 Let them that fear thee turn to me: * and they that know thy testimonies.

118:80 Let my heart be undefiled in thy justifications, * that I may not be confounded.

Psalmus 118(81-96)

118:81 (Caph) My soul hath fainted after thy salvation: * and in thy word I have very much hoped.

118:82 My eyes have failed for thy word, * saying: When wilt thou comfort me?

118:83 For I am become like a bottle in the frost: * I have not forgotten thy justifications.

118:84 How many are the days of thy servant: * when wilt thou execute judgment on them that persecute me?

118:85 The wicked have told me fables: * but not as thy law.

118:86 All thy statutes are truth: * they have persecuted me unjustly, do thou help me.

118:87 They had almost made an end of me upon earth: * but I have not forsaken thy commandments.

118:88 Quicken thou me according to thy mercy: * and I shall keep the testimonies of thy mouth.

118:89 (Lamed) For ever, O Lord, * thy word standeth firm in heaven.

118:93 Thy justifications I will never forget: * for by them thou hast given me life.

118:94 I am thine, save thou me: * for I have sought thy justifications.

O strength and stay upholding all creation,
Who ever dost thyself unmoved abide,
Yet day by day the light in due gradation
From hour to hour through all its changes guide:
Lrant to life's day a calm unclouded ending,
An eve untouched by shadows of decay,
The brightness of a holy death-bed blending
With dawning glories of th' eternal day.
Pear us, O Father, gracious and forgiving,
And thou, O Christ, the co-eternal Word,
Who, with the Holy Ghost, by all things living
Now and to endless ages art adored.
Amen.

Ant. Alleluia, * make thy face to shine upon thy servant, alleluia, alleluia.

Psalmus 118(129-144)

([1])

118:129 (Phe) Thy testimonies are wonderful: * therefore my soul hath sought them.

118:130 The declaration of thy words giveth light: * and giveth understanding to little ones.

118:131 I opened my mouth, and panted: * because I longed for thy commandments.

118:132 Look thou upon me, and have mercy on me, * according to the judgment of them that love thy name.

118:133 Direct my steps according to thy word: * and let no iniquity have dominion over me.

118:134 Redeem me from the calumnies of men: * that I may keep thy commandments.

118:135 Make thy face to shine upon thy servant: * and teach me thy justifications.

118:136 My eyes have sent forth springs of water: * because they have not kept thy law.

118:137 (Sade) Thou art just, O Lord: * and thy judgment is right.

118:138 Thou hast commanded justice thy testimonies: * and thy truth exceedingly.

118:139 My zeal hath made me pine away: * because my enemies forgot thy words.

118:140 Thy word is exceedingly refined: * and thy servant hath loved it.

118:141 I am very young and despised; but * I forget not thy justifications.

118:142 Thy justice is justice for ever: * and thy law is the truth.

118:143 Trouble and anguish have found me: * thy commandments are my meditation.

118:144 Thy testimonies are justice for ever: * give me understanding, and I shall live.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℞. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Psalmus 118(145-160)

118:145 (Coph) I cried with my whole heart, hear me, O Lord: * I will seek thy justifications.

118:146 I cried unto thee, save me: * that I may keep thy commandments.

118:147 I prevented the dawning of the day, and cried: * because in thy words I very much hoped.

118:148 My eyes to thee have prevented the morning: * that I might meditate on thy words.

118:149 Hear thou my voice, O Lord, according to thy mercy: * and quicken me according to thy judgment.

118:150 They that persecute me have drawn nigh to iniquity; * but they are gone far off from thy law.

118:151 Thou art near, O Lord: * and all thy ways are truth.

118:152 I have known from the beginning concerning thy testimonies: * that thou hast founded them for ever.

118:153 (Res) See my humiliation and deliver me: * for I have not forgotten thy law.

118:154 Judge my judgment and redeem me: * quicken thou me for thy word's sake.

118:155 Salvation is far from sinners; * because they have not sought thy justifications.

118:156 Many, O Lord, are thy mercies: * quicken me according to thy judgment.

118:157 Many are they that persecute me, and afflict me; * but I have not declined from thy testimonies.

118:158 I beheld the transgressors, and I pined away; * because they kept not thy word.

118:159 Behold I have loved thy commandments, O Lord; * quicken me thou in thy mercy.

118:160 The beginning of thy words is truth: * all the judgments of thy justice are for ever.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

118:164 Seven times a day I have given praise to thee, * for the judgments of thy justice.

118:165 Much peace have they that love thy law, * and to them there is no stumbling-block.

118:166 I looked for thy salvation, O Lord: * and I loved thy commandments.

118:167 My soul hath kept thy testimonies: * and hath loved them exceedingly.

118:168 I have kept thy commandments and thy testimonies: * because all my ways are in thy sight.

118:169 (Tau) Let my supplication, O Lord, come near in thy sight: * give me understanding according to thy word.

118:170 Let my request come in before thee; * deliver thou me according to thy word.

118:171 My lips shall utter a hymn, * when thou shalt teach me thy justifications.

118:172 My tongue shall pronounce thy word: * because all thy commandments are justice.

118:173 Let thy hand be with me to save me; * for I have chosen thy precepts.

118:174 I have longed for thy salvation, O Lord; * and thy law is my meditation.

118:175 My soul shall live and shall praise thee: * and thy judgments shall help me.

Hymnus

Jesu, the very thought of thee
With sweetness fills my breast;
But sweeter far thy face to see,
And in thy presence rest.
Nor voice can sing, nor heart can frame,
Nor can the memory find,
A sweeter sound than thy blest Name,
O Saviour of mankind!
I Hope of every contrite heart,
O Joy of all the meek,
To those who fall, how kind Thou art!
How good to those who seek!
Nay what to those who find? Ah! this
Nor tongue nor pen can show:
The love of Jesus, what it is
None but his loved ones know.
Jesus, our only joy be Thou,
As Thou our prize wilt be;
Jesus, be Thou our glory now,
And through eternity.

Hymnus

Jesus, the Ransomer of man,
Who, ere created light began,
Didst from the sovereign Father spring,
His power and glory equalling.
The Father's Light and Splendor Thou,
Their endless hope to Thee that bow;
Accept the prayers and praise to-day
That through the world Thy servants pay.
Malvation's Author, call to mind
How, taking form of humankind,
Born of a Virgin undefiled,
Thou in man's flesh becam'st a Child.

Thus testifies the present day,
Through every year in long array,
That Thou, salvation's source alone,
Proceedest from the Father's throne.
Hhe heavens above, the rolling main
And all that earth's wide realms contain,
With joyous voice now loudly sing
The glory of their new-born King.
End we who, by Thy precious Blood
From sin redeemed, are marked for God,
On this the day that saw Thy birth,
Sing the new song of ransomed earth.
ILord, the Virgin-born, to Thee
Eternal praise and glory be,
Whom with the Father we adore
And Holy Ghost forevermore.
Amen.

Ant. The Lord hath looked down from heaven * upon the children of men.

([1])

13:1 The fool hath said in his heart: * there is no God.

13:1 They are corrupt, and are become abominable in their ways: * there is none that doth good, no not one.

13:2 The Lord hath looked down from heaven upon the children of men, * to see if there be any that understand and seek God.

13:3 They are all gone aside, they are become unprofitable together: * there is none that doth good: no not one.

13:3 Their throat is an open sepulchre; † with their tongues they acted deceitfully: * the poison of asps is under their lips.

13:3 Their mouth is full of cursing and bitterness; * their feet are swift to shed blood.

13:3 Destruction and unhappiness in their ways; † and the way of peace they have not known: * there is no fear of God before their eyes.

13:4 Shall not all they know that work iniquity, * who devour my people as they eat bread?

13:5 They have not called upon the Lord: * there have they trembled for fear, where there was no fear.

13:6 For the Lord is in the just generation: † you have confounded the counsel of the poor man; * but the Lord is his hope.

13:7 Who shall give out of Sion the salvation of Israel? * when the Lord shall have turned away the captivity of his people, Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

He who worketh justice * may rest on thy holy mountain, O Lord.

Psalmus 14

14:1 Lord, who shall dwell in thy tabernacle? * or who shall rest in thy holy hill?

14:2 He that walketh without blemish, * and worketh justice:

14:3 He that speaketh truth in his heart, * who hath not used deceit in his tongue:

14:3 Nor hath done evil to his neighbour: * nor taken up a reproach against his neighbours.

14:4 In his sight the malignant is brought to nothing: * but he glorifieth them that fear the Lord:

14:4 He that sweareth to his neighbour, and deceiveth not; * He that hath not put out his money to usury, nor taken bribes against the innocent:

14:5 He that doth these things, * shall not be moved for ever.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. He who worketh justice may rest on thy holy mountain, O Lord.

O Lord, incline * thy ear to me, and hear my voice, my Lord.

Psalmus 16

([3])

16:1 Hear, O Lord, my justice: * attend to my supplication.

16:1 Give ear unto my prayer, * which proceedeth not from deceitful lips.

16:2 Let my judgment come forth from thy countenance: * let thy eyes behold the things that are equitable.

16:3 Thou hast proved my heart, and visited it by night, * thou hast tried me by fire: and iniquity hath not been found in me.

16:4 That my mouth may not speak the works of men: * for the sake of the words of thy lips, I have kept hard ways.

16:5 Perfect thou my goings in thy paths: * that my footsteps be not moved.

16:6 I have cried to thee, for thou, O God, hast heard me: * O incline thy ear unto me, and hear my words.

16:7 Shew forth thy wonderful mercies; * thou who savest them that trust in thee.

16:8 From them that resist thy right hand keep me, * as the apple of thy eye.

16:8 Protect me under the shadow of thy wings: * from the face of the wicked who have afflicted me.

16:9 My enemies have surrounded my soul: † They have shut up their fat: * their mouth hath spoken proudly.

16:11 They have cast me forth, and now they have surrounded me: * they have set their eyes bowing down to the earth.

16:12 They have taken me, as a lion prepared for the prey; * and as a young lion dwelling in secret places.

16:13 Arise, O Lord, disappoint him and supplant him; * deliver my soul from the wicked one; thy sword from the enemies of thy hand.

16:14 O Lord, divide them from the few of the earth in their life: * their belly is filled from thy hidden stores.

16:14 They are full of children: * and they have left to their little ones the rest of their substance.

16:15 But as for me, I will appear before thy sight in justice: * I shall be satisfied when thy glory shall appear.

17:3 My God is my helper, * and in him will I put my trust.

17:3 My protector, and the horn of my salvation, * and my support.

17:4 Praising, I will call upon the Lord: * and I shall be saved from my enemies.

17:5 The sorrows of death surrounded me: * and the torrents of iniquity troubled me.

17:6 The sorrows of hell encompassed me: * and the snares of death prevented me.

17:7 In my affliction I called upon the Lord, * and I cried to my God:

17:7 And he heard my voice from his holy temple: * and my cry before him came into his ears.

17:8 The earth shook and trembled: * the foundations of the mountains were troubled and were moved, because he was angry with them.

17:9 There went up a smoke in his wrath: † and a fire flamed from his face: * coals were kindled by it.

17:10 He bowed the heavens, and came down, * and darkness was under his feet.

17:11 And he ascended upon the cherubim, and he flew; * he flew upon the wings of the winds.

17:12 And he made darkness his covert, † his pavilion round about him: * dark waters in the clouds of the air.

17:13 At the brightness that was before him the clouds passed, * hail and coals of fire.

17:14 And the Lord thundered from heaven, † and the Highest gave his voice: * hail and coals of fire.

17:15 And he sent forth his arrows, and he scattered them: * he multiplied lightnings, and troubled them.

17:16 Then the fountains of waters appeared, * and the foundations of the world were discovered:

17:16 At thy rebuke, O Lord, * at the blast of the spirit of thy wrath.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

17:18 He delivered me from my strongest enemies, † and from them that hated me: * for they were too strong for me.

17:19 They prevented me in the day of my affliction: * and the Lord became my protector.

17:20 And he brought me forth into a large place: * he saved me, because he was well pleased with me.

17:21 And the Lord will reward me according to my justice; * and will repay me according to the cleanness of my hands:

17:22 Because I have kept the ways of the Lord; * and have not done wickedly against my God.

17:23 For all his judgments are in my sight: * and his justices I have not put away from me.

17:24 And I shall be spotless with him: * and shall keep myself from my iniquity.

17:25 And the Lord will reward me according to my justice: * and according to the cleanness of my hands before his eyes.

17:26 With the holy thou wilt be holy; * and with the innocent man thou wilt be innocent:
17:27 And with the elect thou wilt be elect: * and with the perverse thou wilt be perverted.
17:28 For thou wilt save the humble people; * but wilt bring down the eyes of the proud.
17:29 For thou lightest my lamp, O Lord: * O my God, enlighten my darkness.
17:30 For by thee I shall be delivered from temptation; * and through my God I shall go over a wall.
17:31 As for my God, his way is undefiled: † the words of the Lord are fire-tried: * he is the protector of all that trust in him.
17:32 For who is God but the Lord? * or who is God but our God?
17:33 God, who hath girt me with strength; * and made my way blameless.
17:34 Who hath made my feet like the feet of harts: * and who setteth me upon high places.
17:35 Who teacheth my hands to war: * and thou hast made my arms like a brazen bow.

17:38 I will pursue after my enemies, and overtake them: * and I will not turn again till they are consumed.
17:39 I will break them, and they shall not be able to stand: * they shall fall under my feet.
17:40 And thou hast girded me with strength unto battle; * and hast subdued under me them that rose up against me.
17:41 And thou hast made my enemies turn their back upon me, * and hast destroyed them that hated me.
17:42 They cried, but there was none to save them, to the Lord: * but he heard them not.
17:43 And I shall beat them as small as the dust before the wind; * I shall bring them to nought, like the dirt in the streets.
17:44 Thou wilt deliver me from the contradictions of the people; * thou wilt make me head of the Gentiles.
17:45 A people which I knew not, hath served me: * at the hearing of the ear they have obeyed me.
17:46 The children that are strangers have lied to me, * strange children have faded away, and have halted from their paths.
17:47 The Lord liveth, and blessed be my God, * and let the God of my salvation be exalted.
17:48 O God, who avengest me, and subduest the people under me, * my deliverer from my enraged enemies.
17:49 And thou wilt lift me up above them that rise up against me: * from the unjust man thou wilt deliver me.
17:50 Therefore will I give glory to thee, O Lord, among the nations, * and I will sing a psalm to thy name.

Lesson from the letter of St. Paul the Apostle to the Romans

Rom 7:1-3

1 Know you not, brethren, for I speak to them that know the law, that the law hath dominion over a man, as long as it liveth?

2 For the woman that hath an husband, whilst her husband liveth is bound to the law. But if her husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband.

3 Therefore, whilst her husband liveth, she shall be called an adulteress, if she be with another man: but if her husband be dead, she is delivered from the law of her husband; so that she is not an adulteress, if she be with another man.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℟. Thanks be to God.

℟. O Mary, how holy and how spotless is thy virginity! I am too dull to praise thee!

* For thou hast borne in thy breast Him Whom the heavens cannot contain.

℣. Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb.

℟. For thou hast borne in thy breast Him Whom the heavens cannot contain.

℣. Grant, Lord, a blessing.

Benedictio

May the Son, the Sole-begotten, mercifully bless and keep us.

℟. Amen.

Rom 7:4-6

4 Therefore, my brethren, you also are become dead to the law, by the body of Christ; that you may belong to another, who is risen again from the dead, that we may bring forth fruit to God.

5 For when we were in the flesh, the passions of sins, which were by the law, did work in our members, to bring forth fruit unto death.

6 But now we are loosed from the law of death, wherein we were detained; so that we should serve in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℟. Thanks be to God.

℟. The Virgin-Mother that knew not a man, bore, but travailed not.

* She fed the Saviour of the world, The King of Angel hosts above, Jesus, our Redeemer blest, From the fountain of her breast.

℣. Soon rises in that modest shrine, The Temple of the Lord Divine; The stainless and unwedded one, Within her womb conceived the Son.

℟. She fed the Saviour of the world, The King of Angel hosts above, Jesus, our Redeemer blest, From the fountain of her breast.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. She fed the Saviour of the world, The King of Angel hosts above, Jesus, our Redeemer blest, From the fountain of her breast.

℣. Grant, Lord, a blessing.

Benedictio

May the grace of the Holy Spirit enlighten all our hearts and minds.

℟. Amen.

Rom 7:7-9

7 What shall we say, then? Is the law sin? God forbid. But I do not know sin, but by the law; for I had not known concupiscence, if the law did not say: Thou shalt not covet.

8 But sin taking occasion by the commandment, wrought in me all manner of concupiscence. For without the law sin was dead.

9 And I lived some time without the law. But when the commandment came, sin revived.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℟. Thanks be to God.

Hymnus

From lands that see the sun arise
To earth's remotest boundaries,
The Virgin-born today we sing,
The Son of Mary, Christ the King.
Blest Author of this earthly frame,
To take a servant's form He came,
That, liberating flesh by flesh,
Whom He had made might live afresh.
On that chaste parent's holy womb
Celestial grace hath found its home;
And she, as earthly bride unknown,
Yet calls that Offspring blest her own.
The mansion of the modest breast
Becomes a shrine where God shall rest:
The pure and undefiled one
Conceived in her womb the Son.
That Son, that Royal Son she bore,
Whom Gabriel's voice had told afore;
Whom, in His mother yet concealed,
The infant Baptist had revealed.
The manger and the straw He bore,
The cradle did He not abhor;
By milk in infant portions fed,
Who gives even fowls their daily bread.
The heavenly chorus filled the sky,
The Angels sang to God on high,
What time to shepherds, watching lone,
They made creation's Shepherd known.
Ill honor, laud, and glory be,
O Jesu, Virgin-born to thee:
All glory, as is ever meet,
To Father and to Paraclete.
Amen.

Ÿ. The Word was made flesh, alleluia.

℞. And dwelt among us, alleluia.

Luc. 1:68-79

1:68 Blessed be the Lord ✠ God of Israel; * because he hath visited and wrought the redemption of his people:

1:69 And hath raised up an horn of salvation to us, * in the house of David his servant:

1:70 As he spoke by the mouth of his holy Prophets, * who are from the beginning:

1:71 Salvation from our enemies, * and from the hand of all that hate us:

1:72 To perform mercy to our fathers, * and to remember his holy testament,

1:73 The oath, which he swore to Abraham our father, * that he would grant to us,

1:74 That being delivered from the hand of our enemies, * we may serve him without fear,

1:75 In holiness and justice before him, * all our days.

1:76 And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest: * for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways:

1:77 To give knowledge of salvation to his people, * unto the remission of their sins:

1:78 Through the bowels of the mercy of our God, * in which the Orient from on high hath visited us:

1:79 To enlighten them that sit in darkness, and in the shadow of death: * to direct our feet into the way of peace.

Hymnus

Now in the sun's new dawning ray,

Lowly of heart, our God we pray

That he from harm may keep us free

In all the deeds this day shall see.

Lay fear of him our tongues restrain,

Lest strife unguarded speech should stain:

His favouring care our guardian be,

Lest our eyes feed on vanity.

Say every heart be pure from sin

And folly find no place therein:

Scant need of food, excess denied,

Wear down in us the body's pride.

Uhat when the light of day is gone,

And night in course shall follow on.

We, free from cares the world affords,

May chant the praise that is our Lord's.

Dll laud to God the Father be,

All praise, Eternal Son, to thee:

All glory, as is ever meet,

To God the holy Paraclete.

Amen.

Yet day by day the light in due gradation
From hour to hour through all its changes guide:

The brightness of a holy death-bed blending
With dawning glories of th' eternal day.

Now and to endless ages art adored.

Psalmus 32(1-11)

32:1 Rejoice in the Lord, O ye just: * praise becometh the upright.

32:2 Give praise to the Lord on the harp; * sing to him with the psaltery, the instrument of ten strings.

32:3 Sing to him a new canticle, * sing well unto him with a loud noise.

32:4 For the word of the Lord is right, * and all his works are done with faithfulness.

32:5 He loveth mercy and judgment; * the earth is full of the mercy of the Lord.

32:6 By the word of the Lord the heavens were established; * and all the power of them by the spirit of his mouth:

32:7 Gathering together the waters of the sea, as in a vessel; * laying up the depths in storehouses.

32:8 Let all the earth fear the Lord, * and let all the inhabitants of the world be in awe of him.

32:9 For he spoke and they were made: * he commanded and they were created.

32:10 The Lord bringeth to nought the counsels of nations; * and he rejecteth the devices of people, and casteth away the counsels of princes.

32:11 But the counsel of the Lord standeth for ever: * the thoughts of his heart to all generations.

32:13 The Lord hath looked from heaven: * he hath beheld all the sons of men.

32:14 From his habitation which he hath prepared, * he hath looked upon all that dwell on the earth.

32:15 He who hath made the hearts of every one of them: * who understandeth all their works.

32:16 The king is not saved by a great army: * nor shall the giant be saved by his own great strength.

32:17 Vain is the horse for safety: * neither shall he be saved by the abundance of his strength.

32:18 Behold the eyes of the Lord are on them that fear him: * and on them that hope in his mercy.

32:19 To deliver their souls from death; * and feed them in famine.

32:20 Our soul waiteth for the Lord: * for he is our helper and protector.

32:21 For in him our heart shall rejoice: * and in his holy name we have trusted.

34:20 For they spoke indeed peaceably to me; * and speaking in the anger of the earth they devised guile.

34:21 And they opened their mouth wide against me; * they said: Well done, well done, our eyes have seen it.

34:22 Thou hast seen, O Lord, be not thou silent: * O Lord, depart not from me.

34:23 Arise, and be attentive to my judgment: * to my cause, my God, and my Lord.

34:24 Judge me, O Lord my God according to thy justice, * and let them not rejoice over me.

34:25 Let them not say in their hearts: It is well, it is well, to our mind: * neither let them say: We have swallowed him up.

34:26 Let them blush: and be ashamed together, * who rejoice at my evils.

34:26 Let them be clothed with confusion and shame, * who speak great things against me.

34:27 Let them rejoice and be glad, who are well pleased with my justice, * and let them say always: The Lord be magnified, who delights in the peace of his servant.

34:28 And my tongue shall meditate thy justice, * thy praise all the day long.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. Arise, O Lord, and be attentive to my judgment.

Envy not * the man who prospereth in his way; the man who doth unjust things.

Psalmus 36(1-15)

([4])

36:1 Be not emulous of evildoers; * nor envy them that work iniquity.

36:2 For they shall shortly wither away as grass, * and as the green herbs shall quickly fall.

36:3 Trust in the Lord, and do good, * and dwell in the land, and thou shalt be fed with its riches.

36:4 Delight in the Lord, * and he will give thee the requests of thy heart.

36:5 Commit thy way to the Lord, and trust in him, * and he will do it.

36:6 And he will bring forth thy justice as the light, and thy judgment as the noonday: * be subject to the Lord and pray to him.

36:7 Envy not the man who prospereth in his way; * the man who doth unjust things.

36:8 Cease from anger, and leave rage; * have no emulation to do evil.

36:9 For the evildoers shall be cut off: * but they that wait upon the Lord shall inherit the land.

36:10 For yet a little while, and the wicked shall not be: * and thou shalt seek his place, and shalt not find it.

36:11 But the meek shall inherit the land, * and shall delight in abundance of peace.

36:12 The sinner shall watch the just man: * and shall gnash upon him with his teeth.

36:13 But the Lord shall laugh at him: * for he foreseeth that his day shall come.

36:14 The wicked have drawn out the sword: * they have bent their bow.

36:14 To cast down the poor and needy, * to kill the upright of heart.

36:15 Let their sword enter into their own hearts, * and let their bow be broken.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. Envy not the man who prospereth in his way; the man who doth unjust things.

The arms of the wicked * shall be broken in pieces; but the Lord strengtheneth the just.

Psalmus 36(16-29)

([5])

36:16 Better is a little to the just, * than the great riches of the wicked.

36:17 For the arms of the wicked shall be broken in pieces; * but the Lord strengtheneth the just.

36:18 The Lord knoweth the days of the undefiled; * and their inheritance shall be for ever.

36:19 They shall not be confounded in the evil time; and in the days of famine they shall be filled, * because the wicked shall perish.

36:20 And the enemies of the Lord, presently after they shall be honoured and exalted, * shall come to nothing and vanish like smoke.

36:21 The sinner shall borrow, and not pay again; * but the just sheweth mercy and shall give.

36:22 For such as bless him shall inherit the land: * but such as curse him shall perish.

36:23 With the Lord shall the steps of a man be directed, * and he shall like well his way.

36:24 When he shall fall he shall not be bruised, * for the Lord putteth his hand under him.

36:25 I have been young, and now am old; * and I have not seen the just forsaken, nor his seed seeking bread.

36:26 He sheweth mercy, and lendeth all the day long; * and his seed shall be in blessing.

36:27 Decline from evil and do good, * and dwell for ever and ever.

36:28 For the Lord loveth judgment, and will not forsake his saints: * they shall be preserved for ever.

36:28 The unjust shall be punished, * and the seed of the wicked shall perish.

36:29 But the just shall inherit the land, * and shall dwell therein for evermore.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. The arms of the wicked shall be broken in pieces; but the Lord strengtheneth the just.

Keep innocence * and behold justice.

Psalmus 36(30-40)

([6])

36:30 The mouth of the just shall meditate wisdom: * and his tongue shall speak judgment.

36:31 The law of his God is in his heart, * and his steps shall not be supplanted.

36:32 The wicked watcheth the just man, * and seeketh to put him to death.
36:33 But the Lord will not leave him in his hands; * nor condemn him when he shall be judged.
36:34 Expect the Lord and keep his way: and he will exalt thee to inherit the land: * when the sinners shall perish thou shalt see.
36:35 I have seen the wicked highly exalted, * and lifted up like the cedars of Libanus.
36:36 And I passed by, and lo, he was not: * and I sought him and his place was not found.
36:37 Keep innocence, and behold justice: * for there are remnants for the peaceable man.
36:38 But the unjust shall be destroyed together: * the remnants of the wicked shall perish.
36:39 But the salvation of the just is from the Lord, * and he is their protector in the time of trouble.
36:40 And the Lord will help them and deliver them: * and he will rescue them from the wicked, and save them, because they have hoped in him.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. Keep innocence and behold justice.

O Lord, * do not chastise me in thy wrath.

Psalmus 37(2-11)

([7])

37:2 Rebuke me not, O Lord, in thy indignation; * nor chastise me in thy wrath.
37:3 For thy arrows are fastened in me: * and thy hand hath been strong upon me.
37:4 There is no health in my flesh, because of thy wrath: * there is no peace for my bones, because of my sins.
37:5 For my iniquities are gone over my head: * and as a heavy burden are become heavy upon me.
37:6 My sores are putrified and corrupted, * because of my foolishness.
37:7 I am become miserable, and am bowed down even to the end: * I walked sorrowful all the day long.
37:8 For my loins are filled with illusions; * and there is no health in my flesh.
37:9 I am afflicted and humbled exceedingly: * I roared with the groaning of my heart.
37:10 Lord, all my desire is before thee, * and my groaning is not hidden from thee.
37:11 My heart is troubled, my strength hath left me, * and the light of my eyes itself is not with me.
℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.
℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. O Lord, do not chastise me in thy wrath.

Attend unto my help, * O Lord, the God of my salvation.

Psalmus 37(12-23)

([8])

37:12 My friends and my neighbours * have drawn near, and stood against me.
37:12 And they that were near me stood afar off: * and they that sought my soul used violence.
37:13 And they that sought evils to me spoke vain things, * and studied deceits all the day long.
37:14 But I, as a deaf man, heard not: * and as a dumb man not opening his mouth.
37:15 And I became as a man that heareth not: * and that hath no reproofs in his mouth.
37:16 For in thee, O Lord, have I hoped: * thou wilt hear me, O Lord my God.
37:17 For I said: Lest at any time my enemies rejoice over me: * and whilst my feet are moved, they speak great things against me.
37:18 For I am ready for scourges: * and my sorrow is continually before me.
37:19 For I will declare my iniquity: * and I will think for my sin.

37:20 But my enemies live, and are stronger than I: * and they that hate me wrongfully are multiplied.

37:21 They that render evil for good, have detracted me, * because I followed goodness.

37:22 Forsake me not, O Lord my God: * do not thou depart from me.

37:23 Attend unto my help, * O Lord, the God of my salvation.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. Attend unto my help, O Lord, the God of my salvation.

Remove, O Lord, * thy scourges from me.

Psalmus 38

([9])

38:2 I said: I will take heed to my ways: * that I sin not with my tongue.

38:2 I have set guard to my mouth, * when the sinner stood against me.

38:3 I was dumb, and was humbled, and kept silence from good things: * and my sorrow was renewed.

38:4 My heart grew hot within me: * and in my meditation a fire shall flame out.

38:5 I spoke with my tongue: * O Lord, make me know my end.

38:5 And what is the number of my days: * that I may know what is wanting to me.

38:6 Behold thou hast made my days measurable: * and my substance is as nothing before thee.

38:6 And indeed all things are vanity: * every man living.

38:7 Surely man passeth as an image: * yea, and he is disquieted in vain.

38:7 He storeth up: * and he knoweth not for whom he shall gather these things.

38:8 And now what is my hope? Is it not the Lord? * And my substance is with thee.

38:9 Deliver thou me from all my iniquities: * thou hast made me a reproach to the fool.

38:10 I was dumb, and I opened not my mouth, because thou hast done it: * remove thy scourges from me.

38:12 The strength of thy hand hath made me faint in rebukes: * thou hast corrected man for iniquity.

38:12 And thou hast made his soul to waste away like a spider: * surely in vain is any man disquieted.

38:13 Hear my prayer, O Lord, and my supplication: * give ear to my tears.

38:13 Be not silent: for I am a stranger with thee, * and a sojourner as all my fathers were.

38:14 O forgive me, that I may be refreshed, before I go hence, * and be no more.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. Remove, O Lord, thy scourges from me.

℣. Thou art fairer than the children of men.

℟. Grace is poured forth upon thy lips.

Our Father is said silently until And lead us not into temptation:.

Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

℣. And lead us not into temptation:

℟. But deliver us from evil.

Absolutio

May His loving-kindness and mercy help us, Who liveth and reigneth with the Father, and the Holy Ghost, world without end.

℞. Amen.

℣. Grant, Lord, a blessing.

Benedictio

May God the Father Omnipotent, be to us merciful and clement.

℞. Amen.

Lesson from the letter of St. Paul the Apostle to the Romans

Rom 8:1-4

1 There is now therefore no condemnation to them that are in Christ Jesus, who walk not according to the flesh.

2 For the law of the spirit of life, in Christ Jesus, hath delivered me from the law of sin and of death.

3 For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh; God sending his own Son, in the likeness of sinful flesh and of sin, hath condemned sin in the flesh;

4 That the justification of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh, but according to the spirit.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℞. Thanks be to God.

℞. Behold the Lamb of God, behold Him Which taketh away the sins of the world; behold Him of Whom I said unto you: He That cometh after me is preferred before me

* Whose shoe's latchet I am not worthy to unloose.

℣. He that is of the earth speaketh of the earth; He That cometh from heaven is above all.

℞. Whose shoe's latchet I am not worthy to unloose.

℣. Grant, Lord, a blessing.

Benedictio

May Christ to all His people give, for ever in His sight to live.

℞. Amen.

Rom 8:5-9

5 For they that are according to the flesh, mind the things that are of the flesh; but they that are according to the spirit, mind the things that are of the spirit.

6 For the wisdom of the flesh is death; but the wisdom of the spirit is life and peace.

7 Because the wisdom of the flesh is an enemy to God; for it is not subject to the law of God, neither can it be.

8 And they who are in the flesh, cannot please God.

9 But you are not in the flesh, but in the spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℞. Thanks be to God.

℞. This day which is breaking is holy; O come, ye Gentiles, and worship the Lord.

* For this day is much light come down unto us from heaven.

℣. This is the day which the Lord hath made, let us rejoice and be glad in it.

℞. For this day is much light come down unto us from heaven.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℞. For this day is much light come down unto us from heaven.

℣. Grant, Lord, a blessing.

Benedictio

May the Spirit's fire Divine in our hearts enkindled shine.

℞. Amen.

Rom 8:9-11

9 Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.

10 And if Christ be in you, the body indeed is dead, because of sin; but the spirit liveth, because of justification.

11 And if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead, dwell in you; he that raised up Jesus Christ from the dead, shall quicken also your mortal bodies, because of his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℞. Thanks be to God.

Hymnus

From lands that see the sun arise
 To earth's remotest boundaries,
 The Virgin-born today we sing,
 The Son of Mary, Christ the King.
 Blest Author of this earthly frame,
 To take a servant's form He came,
 That, liberating flesh by flesh,
 Whom He had made might live afresh.
 Cn that chaste parent's holy womb
 Celestial grace hath found its home;
 And she, as earthly bride unknown,
 Yet calls that Offspring blest her own.
 Dhe mansion of the modest breast
 Becomes a shrine where God shall rest:

The pure and undefilèd one
Conceived in her womb the Son.
Ehat Son, that Royal Son she bore,
Whom Gabriel's voice had told afore;
Whom, in His mother yet concealed,
The infant Baptist had revealed.
Fhe manger and the straw He bore,
The cradle did He not abhor;
By milk in infant portions fed,
Who gives e'en fowls their daily bread.
Ghe heavenly chorus filled the sky,
The Angels sang to God on high,
What time to shepherds, watching lone,
They made creation's Shepherd known.
Ill honor, laud, and glory be,
O Jesu, Virgin-born to thee:
All glory, as is ever meet,
To Father and to Paraclete.
Amen.

Luc. 1:68-79

1:68 Blessed be the Lord ✠ God of Israel; * because he hath visited and wrought the redemption of his people:

1:69 And hath raised up an horn of salvation to us, * in the house of David his servant:

1:70 As he spoke by the mouth of his holy Prophets, * who are from the beginning:

1:71 Salvation from our enemies, * and from the hand of all that hate us:

1:72 To perform mercy to our fathers, * and to remember his holy testament,

1:73 The oath, which he swore to Abraham our father, * that he would grant to us,

1:74 That being delivered from the hand of our enemies, * we may serve him without fear,

1:75 In holiness and justice before him, * all our days.

1:76 And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest: * for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways:

1:77 To give knowledge of salvation to his people, * unto the remission of their sins:

1:78 Through the bowels of the mercy of our God, * in which the Orient from on high hath visited us:

1:79 To enlighten them that sit in darkness, and in the shadow of death: * to direct our feet into the way of peace.

Hymnus

Now in the sun's new dawning ray,

Lowly of heart, our God we pray

That he from harm may keep us free

In all the deeds this day shall see.

Lay fear of him our tongues restrain,

Lest strife unguarded speech should stain:

His favouring care our guardian be,

Lest our eyes feed on vanity.

Say every heart be pure from sin

And folly find no place therein:

Scant need of food, excess denied,

Wear down in us the body's pride.

Uhat when the light of day is gone,

And night in course shall follow on.

We, free from cares the world affords,

May chant the praise that is our Lord's.

Dll laud to God the Father be,

All praise, Eternal Son, to thee:

All glory, as is ever meet,

To God the holy Paraclete.

Amen.

24:4 Let all them be confounded that act unjust things * without cause.

24:4 Shew, O Lord, thy ways to me, * and teach me thy paths.

24:5 Direct me in thy truth, and teach me; * for thou art God my Saviour; and on thee have I waited all the day long.

24:6 Remember, O Lord, thy bowels of compassion; * and thy mercies that are from the beginning of the world.

24:7 The sins of my youth * and my ignorances do not remember.

24:7 According to thy mercy remember thou me: * for thy goodness' sake, O Lord.

40:3 The Lord preserve him and give him life, and make him blessed upon the earth: * and deliver him not up to the will of his enemies.

40:4 The Lord help him on his bed of sorrow: * thou hast turned all his couch in his sickness.

40:5 I said: O Lord, be thou merciful to me: * heal my soul, for I have sinned against thee.

40:6 My enemies have spoken evils against me: * when shall he die and his name perish?

40:7 And if he came in to see me, he spoke vain things: * his heart gathered together iniquity to itself.

40:7 He went out * and spoke to the same purpose.

40:8 All my enemies whispered together against me: * they devised evils to me.

40:9 They determined against me an unjust word: * shall he that sleepeth rise again no more?

40:11 But thou, O Lord, have mercy on me, and raise me up again: * and I will requite them.

40:12 By this I know, that thou hast had a good will for me: * because my enemy shall not rejoice over me.

123:3 When their fury was enkindled against us, * perhaps the waters had swallowed us up.

Titus 2:11-12

The grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly in this present world.

Hymnus

Jesus, the Ransomer of man,

Who, ere created light began,

Didst from the sovereign Father spring,

His power and glory equalling.
 The Father's Light and Splendor Thou,
 Their endless hope to Thee that bow;
 Accept the prayers and praise to-day
 That through the world Thy servants pay.
 Salvation's Author, call to mind
 How, taking form of humankind,
 Born of a Virgin undefiled,
 Thou in man's flesh becam'st a Child.
 Thus testifies the present day,
 Through every year in long array,
 That Thou, salvation's source alone,
 Proceedest from the Father's throne.
 Hhe heavens above, the rolling main
 And all that earth's wide realms contain,
 With joyous voice now loudly sing
 The glory of their new-born King.
 End we who, by Thy precious Blood
 From sin redeemed, are marked for God,
 On this the day that saw Thy birth,
 Sing the new song of ransomed earth.
 O Lord, the Virgin-born, to Thee
 Eternal praise and glory be,
 Whom with the Father we adore
 And Holy Ghost forevermore.
 Amen.

℣. The Lord hath made known, alleluia.

℟. His salvation, alleluia.

1:49 Because he that is mighty, hath done great things to me; * and holy is his name.

1:50 And his mercy is from generation unto generations, * to them that fear him.

1:51 He hath shewed might in his arm: * he hath scattered the proud in the conceit of their heart.

1:52 He hath put down the mighty from their seat, * and hath exalted the humble.

1:53 He hath filled the hungry with good things; * and the rich he hath sent empty away.

1:54 He hath received Israel his servant, * being mindful of his mercy:

1:55 As he spoke to our fathers, * to Abraham and to his seed for ever.

([1])

11:2 Save me, O Lord, for there is now no saint: * truths are decayed from among the children of men.

11:3 They have spoken vain things every one to his neighbour: * with deceitful lips, and with a double heart have they spoken.

Ant. Come let us praise the Lord with joy: let us joyfully sing to God our saviour. Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving; and make a joyful noise to him with psalms.

For the Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods. For the Lord will not cast off his people: for in his hand are all the ends of the earth, and the heights of the mountains are his.

For the sea is his, and he made it: and his hands formed the dry land. (genuflect) Come let us adore and fall down: and weep before the Lord that made us: For he is the Lord our God: and we are the people of his pasture and the sheep of his hand.

Today if you shall hear his voice, harden not your hearts: As in the provocation, according to the day of temptation in the wilderness: where your fathers tempted me, they proved me, and saw my works.

Forty years long was I offended with that generation, and I said: These always err in heart. And these men have not known my ways: so I swore in my wrath that they shall not enter into my rest.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Thou art beautiful * above the sons of men: grace is poured abroad in thy lips.

Psalmus 44(2a-10b)

([1])

44:2 My heart hath uttered a good word; * I speak my works to the King.

44:2 My tongue is the pen of a scrivener * that writeth swiftly.

44:3 Thou art beautiful above the sons of men: † grace is poured abroad in thy lips; * therefore hath God blessed thee for ever.

44:4 Gird thy sword upon thy thigh, * O thou most mighty.

44:5 With thy comeliness and thy beauty * set out, proceed prosperously, and reign.

44:5 Because of truth and meekness and justice: * and thy right hand shall conduct thee wonderfully.

44:6 Thy arrows are sharp: under thee shall people fall, * into the hearts of the king's enemies.

44:7 Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: * the sceptre of thy kingdom is a sceptre of uprightness.

44:8 Thou hast loved justice, and hated iniquity: * therefore God, thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

44:9 Myrrh and stacte and cassia perfume thy garments, from the ivory houses: * out of which the daughters of kings have delighted thee in thy glory.

44:10 The queen stood on thy right hand, in gilded clothing; * surrounded with variety.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. Thou art beautiful above the sons of men: grace is poured abroad in thy lips.
Let people confess to thee, * O God, forever.

Psalmus 44(11-18b)

44:11 Hearken, O daughter, and see, and incline thy ear: * and forget thy people and thy father's house.

44:12 And the king shall greatly desire thy beauty; * for he is the Lord thy God, and him they shall adore.

44:13 And the daughters of Tyre with gifts, * yea, all the rich among the people, shall entreat thy countenance.

44:14 All the glory of the king's daughter is within, * in golden borders, clothed round about with varieties.

44:15 After her shall virgins be brought to the king: * her neighbours shall be brought to thee.

44:16 They shall be brought with gladness and rejoicing: * they shall be brought into the temple of the king.

44:17 Instead of thy fathers, sons are born to thee: * thou shalt make them princes over all the earth.

47:6 So they saw, and they wondered, they were troubled, they were moved: * trembling took hold of them.

49:17 Seeing thou hast hated discipline: * and hast cast my words behind thee.

49:21 Thou thoughtest unjustly that I should be like to thee: * but I will reprove thee, and set before thy face.

Psalmus 50

([9])

50:3 Have mercy on me, O God, * according to thy great mercy.

50:3 And according to the multitude of thy tender mercies * blot out my iniquity.

50:4 Wash me yet more from my iniquity, * and cleanse me from my sin.

50:5 For I know my iniquity, * and my sin is always before me.

50:6 To thee only have I sinned, and have done evil before thee: * that thou mayst be justified in thy words, and mayst overcome when thou art judged.

50:7 For behold I was conceived in iniquities; * and in sins did my mother conceive me.

50:8 For behold thou hast loved truth: * the uncertain and hidden things of thy wisdom thou hast made manifest to me.

50:9 Thou shalt sprinkle me with hyssop, and I shall be cleansed: * thou shalt wash me, and I shall be made whiter than snow.

50:10 To my hearing thou shalt give joy and gladness: * and the bones that have been humbled shall rejoice.

50:11 Turn away thy face from my sins, * and blot out all my iniquities.

50:12 Create a clean heart in me, O God: * and renew a right spirit within my bowels.

50:13 Cast me not away from thy face; * and take not thy holy spirit from me.

50:14 Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation, * and strengthen me with a perfect spirit.

50:15 I will teach the unjust thy ways: * and the wicked shall be converted to thee.

50:16 Deliver me from blood, O God, thou God of my salvation: * and my tongue shall extol thy justice.

50:17 O Lord, thou wilt open my lips: * and my mouth shall declare thy praise.

50:18 For if thou hadst desired sacrifice, I would indeed have given it: * with burnt offerings thou wilt not be delighted.

50:19 A sacrifice to God is an afflicted spirit: * a contrite and humbled heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.

50:20 Deal favourably, O Lord, in thy good will with Sion; * that the walls of Jerusalem may be built up.

1:69 And hath raised up an horn of salvation to us, * in the house of David his servant:

Hymnus

Now in the sun's new dawning ray,
Lowly of heart, our God we pray
That he from harm may keep us free
In all the deeds this day shall see.
Lay fear of him our tongues restrain,
Lest strife unguarded speech should stain:
His favouring care our guardian be,
Lest our eyes feed on vanity.
Say every heart be pure from sin
And folly find no place therein:
Scant need of food, excess denied,
Wear down in us the body's pride.
Uhat when the light of day is gone,
And night in course shall follow on.
We, free from cares the world affords,
May chant the praise that is our Lord's.
DII laud to God the Father be,
All praise, Eternal Son, to thee:
All glory, as is ever meet,
To God the holy Paraclete.

25:8 I have loved, O Lord, the beauty of thy house; * and the place where thy glory dwelleth.

25:9 Take not away my soul, O God, with the wicked: * nor my life with bloody men:

54:17 But I have cried to God: * and the Lord will save me.
 54:18 Evening and morning, and at noon I will speak and declare: * and he shall hear my voice.
 54:19 He shall redeem my soul in peace from them that draw near to me: * for among many they were with me.
 54:20 God shall hear, * and the Eternal shall humble them.

Hymnus

O God of truth, O Lord of might,
Who orderest time and change aright,
Who send'st the early morning ray,
And light'st the glow of perfect day:
Extinguish thou each sinful fire,
And banish every ill desire;
And while thou keep'st the body whole,
Shed forth thy peace upon the soul.
Plmighty Father, hear our cry,
Through Jesus Christ, our Lord most High,
Who, with the Holy Ghost and thee,
Doth live and reign eternally.
Amen.

Psalmus 55

([1])

55:2 Have mercy on me, O God, for man hath trodden me under foot; * all the day long he hath afflicted me fighting against me.

55:3 My enemies have trodden on me all the day long; * for they are many that make war against me.

55:4 From the height of the day I shall fear: * but I will trust in thee.

55:5 In God I will praise my words, in God I have put my trust: * I will not fear what flesh can do against me.

55:6 All the day long they detested my words: * all their thoughts were against me unto evil.

55:7 They will dwell and hide themselves: * they will watch my heel.

55:8 As they have waited for my soul, for nothing shalt thou save them: * in thy anger thou shalt break the people in pieces.

55:9 O God, I have declared to thee my life: * thou hast set my tears in thy sight,

55:9 As also in thy promise. * Then shall my enemies be turned back.

55:10 In what day soever I shall call upon thee, * behold I know thou art my God.

55:11 In God will I praise the word, in the Lord will I praise his speech. * In God have I hoped, I will not fear what man can do to me.

55:12 In me, O God, are vows to thee, * which I will pay, praises to thee:

55:13 Because thou hast delivered my soul from death, my feet from falling: * that I may please in the sight of God, in the light of the living.

([2])

56:2 Have mercy on me, O God, have mercy on me: * for my soul trusteth in thee.

56:2 And in the shadow of thy wings will I hope, * until iniquity pass away.

56:3 I will cry to God the most High; * to God who hath done good to me.

56:4 He hath sent from heaven and delivered me: * he hath made them a reproach that trod upon me.

56:4 God hath sent his mercy and his truth, * and he hath delivered my soul from the midst of the young lions. I slept troubled.

56:5 The sons of men, whose teeth are weapons and arrows, * and their tongue a sharp sword.

56:6 Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens, * and thy glory above all the earth.

56:7 They prepared a snare for my feet; * and they bowed down my soul.

56:7 They dug a pit before my face, * and they are fallen into it.

56:8 My heart is ready, O God, my heart is ready: * I will sing, and rehearse a psalm.

56:9 Arise, O my glory, arise psaltery and harp: * I will arise early.

56:10 I will give praise to thee, O Lord, among the people: * I will sing a psalm to thee among the nations.

Psalmus 57

([3])

57:2 If in very deed you speak justice: * judge right things, ye sons of men.

57:3 For in your heart you work iniquity: * your hands forge injustice in the earth.

57:4 The wicked are alienated from the womb; they have gone astray from the womb: * they have spoken false things.

57:5 Their madness is according to the likeness of a serpent: * like the deaf asp that stoppeth her ears:

57:6 Which will not hear the voice of the charmers; * nor of the wizard that charmeth wisely.

57:7 God shall break in pieces their teeth in their mouth: * the Lord shall break the grinders of the lions.

57:8 They shall come to nothing, like water running down; * he hath bent his bow till they be weakened.

57:9 Like wax that melteth they shall be taken away: * fire hath fallen on them, and they shall not see the sun.

57:10 Before your thorns could know the brier; he swalloweth them up, * as alive, in his wrath.

57:11 The just shall rejoice when he shall see the revenge: * he shall wash his hands in the blood of the sinner.

57:12 And man shall say: If indeed there be fruit to the just: * there is indeed a God that judgeth them on the earth.

O strength and stay upholding all creation,
Who ever dost thyself unmoved abide,
Yet day by day the light in due gradation
From hour to hour through all its changes guide:
Lrant to life's day a calm unclouded ending,
An eve untouched by shadows of decay,
The brightness of a holy death-bed blending
With dawning glories of th' eternal day.
Pear us, O Father, gracious and forgiving,
And thou, O Christ, the co-eternal Word,
Who, with the Holy Ghost, by all things living
Now and to endless ages art adored.

Mother of Christ, hear thou thy people's cry

Star of the deep and Portal of the sky!

Mother of Him who thee from nothing made.

Sinking we strive and call to thee for aid:

O, by what joy which Gabriel brought to thee,

Thou Virgin first and last, let us thy mercy see.

℣. After childbirth thou didst remain a virgin.

℟. Intercede for us, O Mother of God.

Let us pray.

O God, who, by the fruitful virginity of blessed Mary, hast bestowed upon mankind the reward of eternal salvation: grant, we beseech thee, that we may experience her intercession, through whom we have been made worthy to receive the author of life, Our Lord Jesus Christ thy Son. Amen.

℣. May the divine assistance ✠ remain with us always.

℟. Amen.

℣. O Lord, + open thou my lips.

℟. And my mouth shall declare thy praise.

℣. O God, ✠ come to my assistance;

℟. O Lord, make haste to help me.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Alleluia.

Ant. Christ appeared to us, * O come, let us worship Him.

Christ appeared to us, * O come, let us worship Him.

Come let us praise the Lord with joy: let us joyfully sing to God our saviour. Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving; and make a joyful noise to him with psalms.

Christ appeared to us, * O come, let us worship Him.

For the Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods. For the Lord will not cast off his people: for in his hand are all the ends of the earth, and the heights of the mountains are his.

O come, let us worship Him.

For the sea is his, and he made it: and his hands formed the dry land. (genuflect) Come let us adore and fall down: and weep before the Lord that made us: For he is the Lord our God: and we are the people of his pasture and the sheep of his hand.

Christ appeared to us, * O come, let us worship Him.

Today if you shall hear his voice, harden not your hearts: As in the provocation, according to the day of temptation in the wilderness: where your fathers tempted me, they proved me, and saw my works.

O come, let us worship Him.

Forty years long was I offended with that generation, and I said: These always err in heart. And these men have not known my ways: so I swore in my wrath that they shall not enter into my rest.

Christ appeared to us, * O come, let us worship Him.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

O come, let us worship Him.

Christ appeared to us, * O come, let us worship Him.

Hymnus

Why, impious Herod, vainly fear
That Christ the Saviour cometh here?
He takes no earthly realms away
Who gives the crown that lasts for aye.
Io greet His birth the Wise Men went,
Led by the star before them sent;
Called on by light, towards light they pressed,
And by their gifts their God confessed.
In holy Jordan's purest wave
The heavenly Lamb vouchsafed to lave;
That He, to whom was sin unknown,
Might cleanse His people from their own.

New miracle of power divine!
The water reddens into wine:
He spake the word: and poured the wave
In other streams than nature gave.
Ill glory, Lord, to thee we pay
For thine Epiphany to-day:
All glory, as is ever meet,
To Father and to Paraclete.
Amen.

Ant. In God is my salvation * and my glory: and my hope is in God.

Psalmus 61

([1])

61:2 Shall not my soul be subject to God? * for from him is my salvation.
61:3 For he is my God and my saviour: * he is my protector, I shall be moved no more.
61:4 How long do you rush in upon a man? * you all kill, as if you were thrusting down a leaning wall, and a tottering fence.
61:5 But they have thought to cast away my price; I ran in thirst: * they blessed with their mouth, but cursed with their heart.
61:6 But be thou, O my soul, subject to God: * for from him is my patience.
61:7 For he is my God and my saviour: * he is my helper, I shall not be moved.
61:8 In God is my salvation and my glory: * he is the God of my help, and my hope is in God.
61:9 Trust in him, all ye congregation of people: pour out your hearts before him. * God is our helper for ever.
61:10 But vain are the sons of men, the sons of men are liars in the balances: * that by vanity they may together deceive.
61:11 Trust not in iniquity, and cover not robberies: * if riches abound, set not your heart upon them.
61:12 God hath spoken once, these two things have I heard, that power belongeth to God, and mercy to thee, O Lord; * for thou wilt render to every man according to his works.

65:4 Let all the earth adore thee, * and sing to thee: let it sing a psalm to thy name.
65:5 Come and see the works of God; * who is terrible in his counsels over the sons of men.
65:6 Who turneth the sea into dry land, in the river they shall pass on foot: * there shall we rejoice in him.
65:7 Who by his power ruleth for ever: his eyes behold the nations; * let not them that provoke him be exalted in themselves.

65:8 O bless our God, ye Gentiles: * and make the voice of his praise to be heard.
65:9 Who hath set my soul to live: * and hath not suffered my feet to be moved:
65:10 For thou, O God, hast proved us: * thou hast tried us by fire, as silver is tried.

65:12 We have passed through fire and water, * and thou hast brought us out into a refreshment.

65:16 Come and hear, all ye that fear God, * and I will tell you what great things he hath done for my soul.
65:17 I cried to him with my mouth: * and I extolled him with my tongue.

67:5 Sing ye to God, sing a psalm to his name, * make a way for him who ascendeth upon the west: (bow head) the Lord is his name.
67:5 Rejoice ye before him: * but the wicked shall be troubled at his presence, who is the father of orphans, and the judge of widows.
67:6 God in his holy place: * God who maketh men of one manner to dwell in a house:
67:7 Who bringeth out them that were bound in strength; * in like manner them that provoke, that dwell in sepulchres.
67:8 O God, when thou didst go forth in the sight of thy people, * when thou didst pass through the desert:
67:9 The earth was moved, and the heavens dropped at the presence of the God of Sinai, * at the presence of the God of Israel.

67:10 Thou shalt set aside for thy inheritance a free rain, * O God: and it was weakened, but thou hast made it perfect.

Save me, O God * for the waters are come in even unto my soul. ‡

Psalmus 68(2-13)

([7])

68:2 Save me, O God: for the waters are come in even unto my soul.

68:3 ‡ I stick fast in the mire of the deep: * and there is no sure standing.

68:3 I am come into the depth of the sea: * and a tempest hath overwhelmed me.

68:4 I have laboured with crying; my jaws are become hoarse: * my eyes have failed, whilst I hope in my God.

68:5 They are multiplied above the hairs of my head, * who hate me without cause.

68:5 My enemies are grown strong who have wrongfully persecuted me: * then did I pay that which I took not away.

68:6 O God, thou knowest my foolishness; * and my offences are not hidden from thee.

68:7 Let not them be ashamed for me, who look for thee, O Lord, * the Lord of hosts.

68:7 Let them not be confounded on my account, * who seek thee, O God of Israel.

68:8 Because for thy sake I have borne reproach; * shame hath covered my face.

68:9 I am become a stranger to my brethren, * and an alien to the sons of my mother.

68:10 For the zeal of thy house hath eaten me up: * and the reproaches of them that reproached thee are fallen upon me.

68:11 And I covered my soul in fasting: * and it was made a reproach to me.

68:12 And I made haircloth my garment: * and I became a byword to them.

68:13 They that sat in the gate spoke against me: * and they that drank wine made me their song.

68:16 Let not the tempest of water drown me, nor the deep swallow me up: * and let not the pit shut her mouth upon me.

68:17 Hear me, O Lord, for thy mercy is kind; * look upon me according to the multitude of thy tender mercies.

68:18 And turn not away thy face from thy servant: * for I am in trouble, hear me speedily.

68:19 Attend to my soul, and deliver it: * save me because of my enemies.

68:20 Thou knowest my reproach, and my confusion, * and my shame.

68:21 In thy sight are all they that afflict me; * my heart hath expected reproach and misery.

68:21 And I looked for one that would grieve together with me, * but there was none: and for one that would comfort me, and I found none.

68:22 And they gave me gall for my food, * and in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.

68:23 Let their table become as a snare before them, * and a recompense, and a stumblingblock.

68:24 Let their eyes be darkened that they see not; * and their back bend thou down always.

68:25 Pour out thy indignation upon them: * and let thy wrathful anger take hold of them.

68:26 Let their habitation be made desolate: * and let there be none to dwell in their tabernacles.

68:27 Because they have persecuted him whom thou hast smitten; * and they have added to the grief of my wounds.

68:33 Let the poor see and rejoice: * seek ye God, and your soul shall live.

68:34 For the Lord hath heard the poor: * and hath not despised his prisoners.

Lesson from the letter of St. Paul the Apostle to the Romans

Rom 9:1-5

1 I speak the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience bearing me witness in the Holy Ghost:

2 That I have great sadness, and continual sorrow in my heart.

3 For I wished myself to be an anathema from Christ, for my brethren, who are my kinsmen according to the flesh,

4 Who are Israelites, to whom belongeth the adoption as of children, and the glory, and the testament, and the giving of the law, and the service of God, and the promises:

5 Whose are the fathers, and of whom is Christ, according to the flesh, who is over all things, God blessed for ever. Amen.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℞. Thanks be to God.

℞. There are three precious gifts which the wise men offered unto the Lord on this day, and they speak a mystery of the things of God:

* Gold, to show His kingly power; frankincense, for our Great High Priest; and myrrh, against the Lord's burying.

℣. The wise men worshipped the Captain of our Salvation, as He lay in the manger, and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto Him mystic gifts.

℞. Gold, to show His kingly power; frankincense, for our Great High Priest; and myrrh, against the Lord's burying.

℣. Grant, Lord, a blessing.

Benedictio

May the Son, the Sole-begotten, mercifully bless and keep us.

℞. Amen.

Rom 9:6-10

6 Not as though the word of God hath miscarried. For all are not Israelites that are of Israel:

7 Neither are all they that are the seed of Abraham, children; but in Isaac shall thy seed be called:

8 That is to say, not they that are the children of the flesh, are the children of God; but they, that are the children of the promise, are accounted for the seed.

9 For this is the word of promise: According to this time will I come; and Sara shall have a son.

10 And not only she. But when Rebecca also had conceived at once, of Isaac our father.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℞. Thanks be to God.

℞. The Holy Ghost appeared in a bodily shape like a dove, and the voice of the Father was heard:

* This is My beloved Son, in Whom I am well pleased.

℣. The heavens were opened unto him, and, lo, the voice of the Father was heard, like unto thunder, saying:

℟. This is My beloved Son, in Whom I am well pleased.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. This is My beloved Son, in Whom I am well pleased.

℣. Grant, Lord, a blessing.

Benedictio

May the grace of the Holy Spirit enlighten all our hearts and minds.

℟. Amen.

Rom 9:11-16

11 For when the children were not yet born, nor had done any good or evil that the purpose of God, according to election, might stand,

12 Not of works, but of him that calleth, it was said to her: The elder shall serve the younger.

13 As it is written: Jacob I have loved, but Esau I have hated.

14 What shall we say then? Is there injustice with God? God forbid.

15 For he saith to Moses: I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy; and I will shew mercy to whom I will shew mercy.

16 So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℟. Thanks be to God.

89:1 Lord, thou hast been our refuge * ‡ from generation to generation.

89:2 Before the mountains were made, or the earth and the world was formed; * from eternity and to eternity thou art God.

89:3 Turn not man away to be brought low: * and thou hast said: Be converted, O ye sons of men.

89:4 For a thousand years in thy sight * are as yesterday, which is past.

89:5 And as a watch in the night, * things that are counted nothing, shall their years be.

89:6 In the morning man shall grow up like grass; in the morning he shall flourish and pass away: * in the evening he shall fall, grow dry, and wither.

89:7 For in thy wrath we have fainted away: * and are troubled in thy indignation.

89:8 Thou hast set our iniquities before thy eyes: * our life in the light of thy countenance.

89:9 For all our days are spent; * and in thy wrath we have fainted away.

35:3 For in his sight he hath done deceitfully, * that his iniquity may be found unto hatred.

35:4 The words of his mouth are iniquity and guile: * he would not understand that he might do well.

35:5 He hath devised iniquity on his bed, * he hath set himself on every way that is not good: but evil he hath not hated.

35:6 O Lord, thy mercy is in heaven, * and thy truth reacheth even to the clouds.

35:7 Thy justice is as the mountains of God, * thy judgments are a great deep.

35:7 Men and beasts thou wilt preserve, O Lord: * O how hast thou multiplied thy mercy, O God!

35:8 But the children of men * shall put their trust under the covert of thy wings.

35:9 They shall be inebriated with the plenty of thy house; * and thou shalt make them drink of the torrent of thy pleasure.

Hymnus

Bethlehem, of noblest cities

None can once with thee compare;

Thou alone the Lord from heaven

Didst for us incarnate bear.

Qairer than the sun at morning

Was the star that told His birth;

To the lands their God announcing,

Hid beneath a form of earth.

Vy its lambent beauty guided,

See, the eastern kings appear;

See them bend, their gifts to offer,

Gifts of incense, gold, and myrrh.
Rolemn things of mystic meaning:
Incense doth the God disclose;
Gold a royal child proclaimeth;
Myrrh a future tomb foreshows.
Ioly Jesu, in thy brightness
To the Gentile world displayed,
With the Father and the Spirit,
Endless praise to thee be paid.
Amen.

Luc. 1:68-79

1:68 Blessed be the Lord ✠ God of Israel; * because he hath visited and wrought the redemption of his people:

1:69 And hath raised up an horn of salvation to us, * in the house of David his servant:

1:70 As he spoke by the mouth of his holy Prophets, * who are from the beginning:

1:71 Salvation from our enemies, * and from the hand of all that hate us:

1:72 To perform mercy to our fathers, * and to remember his holy testament,

1:73 The oath, which he swore to Abraham our father, * that he would grant to us,

1:74 That being delivered from the hand of our enemies, * we may serve him without fear,

1:75 In holiness and justice before him, * all our days.

1:76 And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest: * for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways:

1:77 To give knowledge of salvation to his people, * unto the remission of their sins:

1:78 Through the bowels of the mercy of our God, * in which the Orient from on high hath visited us:

1:79 To enlighten them that sit in darkness, and in the shadow of death: * to direct our feet into the way of peace.

Now in the sun's new dawning ray,

Lowly of heart, our God we pray

That he from harm may keep us free

In all the deeds this day shall see.

Lay fear of him our tongues restrain,

Lest strife unguarded speech should stain:

His favouring care our guardian be,

Lest our eyes feed on vanity.

Say every heart be pure from sin

And folly find no place therein:

Scant need of food, excess denied,

Wear down in us the body's pride.

Uhat when the light of day is gone,

And night in course shall follow on.

May chant the praise that is our Lord's.

Psalmus 72(1-9)

([1])

72:1 How good is God to Israel, to them that are of a right heart!

72:2 ‡ But my feet were almost moved; * my steps had wellnigh slipped.

72:3 Because I had a zeal on occasion of the wicked, * seeing the prosperity of sinners.

72:4 For there is no regard to their death, * nor is there strength in their stripes.

72:5 They are not in the labour of men: * neither shall they be scourged like other men.

72:6 Therefore pride hath held them fast: * they are covered with their iniquity and their wickedness.

72:7 Their iniquity hath come forth, as it were from fatness: * they have passed into the affection of the heart.

72:8 They have thought and spoken wickedness: * they have spoken iniquity on high.

72:13 And I said: Then have I in vain justified my heart, * and washed my hands among the innocent.

72:14 And I have been scourged all the day; * and my chastisement hath been in the mornings.

72:15 If I said: I will speak thus; * behold I should condemn the generation of thy children.

72:19 How are they brought to desolation? they have suddenly ceased to be: * they have perished by reason of their iniquity.

72:20 As the dream of them that awake, O Lord; * so in thy city thou shalt bring their image to nothing.

72:21 For my heart hath been inflamed, and my reins have been changed: * and I am brought to nothing, and I knew not.

72:23 I am become as a beast before thee: * and I am always with thee.

72:24 Thou hast held me by my right hand; and by thy will thou hast conducted me, * and with thy glory thou hast received me.

72:25 For what have I in heaven? * and besides thee what do I desire upon earth?

72:26 For thee my flesh and my heart hath fainted away: * thou art the God of my heart, and the God that is my portion for ever.

72:27 For behold they that go far from thee shall perish: * thou hast destroyed all them that are disloyal to thee.

O strength and stay upholding all creation,
Who ever dost thyself unmoved abide,
Yet day by day the light in due gradation
From hour to hour through all its changes guide:
Lrant to life's day a calm unclouded ending,
An eve untouched by shadows of decay,
The brightness of a holy death-bed blending
With dawning glories of th' eternal day.

And thou, O Christ, the co-eternal Word,

Now and to endless ages art adored.

Why, impious Herod, vainly fear
That Christ the Saviour cometh here?
He takes no earthly realms away
Who gives the crown that lasts for aye.
Io greet His birth the Wise Men went,
Led by the star before them sent;
Called on by light, towards light they pressed,
And by their gifts their God confessed.
In holy Jordan's purest wave
The heavenly Lamb vouchsafed to lave;
That He, to whom was sin unknown,
Might cleanse His people from their own.
New miracle of power divine!
The water reddens into wine:
He spake the word: and poured the wave
In other streams than nature gave.
Ill glory, Lord, to thee we pay
For thine Epiphany to-day:
All glory, as is ever meet,
To Father and to Paraclete.

Why, impious Herod, vainly fear
That Christ the Saviour cometh here?
He takes no earthly realms away
Who gives the crown that lasts for aye.
Io greet His birth the Wise Men went,
Led by the star before them sent;
Called on by light, towards light they pressed,
And by their gifts their God confessed.
In holy Jordan's purest wave
The heavenly Lamb vouchsafed to lave;
That He, to whom was sin unknown,
Might cleanse His people from their own.

New miracle of power divine!
The water reddens into wine:
He spake the word: and poured the wave
In other streams than nature gave.
Ill glory, Lord, to thee we pay
For thine Epiphany to-day:
All glory, as is ever meet,
To Father and to Paraclete.
Amen.

Ant. The Lord set up a testimony in Jacob: * and made a law in Israel.

Psalmus 77(1-8)

([1])

77:1 Attend, O my people, to my law: * incline your ears to the words of my mouth.
77:2 I will open my mouth in parables: * I will utter propositions from the beginning.
77:3 How great things have we heard and known, * and our fathers have told us.
77:4 They have not been hidden from their children, * in another generation.
77:4 Declaring the praises of the Lord, and his powers, * and his wonders which he hath done.
77:5 And he set up a testimony in Jacob: * and made a law in Israel.
77:5 How great things he commanded our fathers, that they should make the same known to their children: * that another generation might know them.
77:6 The children that should be born and should rise up, * and declare them to their children.
77:7 That they may put their hope in God and may not forget the works of God: * and may seek his commandments.
77:8 That they may not become like their fathers, * a perverse and exasperating generation.
77:8 A generation that set not their heart aright: * and whose spirit was not faithful to God.
V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.
R. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. The Lord set up a testimony in Jacob: and made a law in Israel.

The Lord did wonderful things * in the sight of their fathers.

Psalmus 77(9-16)

([2])

77:9 The sons of Ephraim who bend and shoot with the bow: * they have turned back in the day of battle.
77:10 They kept not the covenant of God: * and in his law they would not walk.
77:11 And they forgot his benefits, * and his wonders that he had shewn them.
77:12 Wonderful things did he do in the sight of their fathers, in the land of Egypt, * in the field of Tanis.
77:13 He divided the sea and brought them through: * and he made the waters to stand as in a vessel.
77:14 And he conducted them with a cloud by day: * and all the night with a light of fire.
77:15 He struck the rock in the wilderness: * and gave them to drink, as out of the great deep.
77:16 He brought forth water out of the rock: * and made streams run down as rivers.
V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.
R. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. The Lord did wonderful things in the sight of their fathers.

The Lord opened * the doors of heaven and had rained down manna upon them to eat.

Psalmus 77(17-31)

([3])

77:17 And they added yet more sin against him: * they provoked the most High to wrath in the place without water.

77:18 And they tempted God in their hearts, * by asking meat for their desires.

77:19 And they spoke ill of God: * they said: Can God furnish a table in the wilderness?

77:20 Because he struck the rock, and the waters gushed out, * and the streams overflowed.

77:20 Can he also give bread, * or provide a table for his people?

77:21 Therefore the Lord heard, and was angry: * and a fire was kindled against Jacob, and wrath came up against Israel.

77:22 Because they believed not in God: * and trusted not in his salvation.

77:23 And he had commanded the clouds from above, * and had opened the doors of heaven.

77:24 And had rained down manna upon them to eat, * and had given them the bread of heaven.

77:25 Man ate the bread of angels: * he sent them provisions in abundance.

77:26 He removed the south wind from heaven: * and by his power brought in the southwest wind.

77:27 And he rained upon them flesh as dust: * and feathered fowls like as the sand of the sea.

77:28 And they fell in the midst of their camp, * round about their pavilions.

77:29 So they did eat, and were filled exceedingly, and he gave them their desire: * they were not defrauded of that which they craved.

77:30 As yet their meat was in their mouth: * and the wrath of God came upon them.

77:31 And he slew the fat ones amongst them, * and brought down the chosen men of Israel.

Ÿ. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℞. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. The Lord opened the doors of heaven and had rained down manna upon them to eat.

God is their helper, * and the most high God their redeemer.

Psalmus 77(32-41)

([4])

77:32 In all these things they sinned still: * and they believed not for his wondrous works.

77:33 And their days were consumed in vanity, * and their years in haste.

77:34 When he slew them, then they sought him: * and they returned, and came to him early in the morning.

77:35 And they remembered that God was their helper: * and the most high God their redeemer.

77:36 And they loved him with their mouth: * and with their tongue they lied unto him:

77:37 But their heart was not right with him: * nor were they counted faithful in his covenant.

77:38 But he is merciful, and will forgive their sins: * and will not destroy them.

77:38 And many a time did he turn away his anger: * and did not kindle all his wrath.

77:39 And he remembered that they are flesh: * a wind that goeth and returneth not.

77:40 How often did they provoke him in the desert: * and move him to wrath in the place without water?

77:41 And they turned back and tempted God: * and grieved the holy one of Israel.

Ÿ. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℞. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. God is their helper, and the most high God their redeemer.
The Lord redeemed them * from the hand of him that afflicted them.

Psalmus 77(42-58)

([5])

77:42 They remembered not his hand, * in the day that he redeemed them from the hand of him that afflicted them:

77:43 How he wrought his signs in Egypt, * and his wonders in the field of Tanis.

77:44 And he turned their rivers into blood, * and their showers that they might not drink.

77:45 He sent amongst them diverse sorts of flies, which devoured them: * and frogs which destroyed them.

77:46 And he gave up their fruits to the blast, * and their labours to the locust.

77:47 And he destroyed their vineyards with hail, * and their mulberry trees with hoarfrost.

77:48 And he gave up their cattle to the hail, * and their stock to the fire.

77:49 And he sent upon them the wrath of his indignation: * indignation and wrath and trouble, which he sent by evil angels.

77:50 He made a way for a path to his anger: * he spared not their souls from death, and their cattle he shut up in death.

77:51 And he killed all the firstborn in the land of Egypt: * the firstfruits of all their labour in the tabernacles of Cham.

77:52 And he took away his own people as sheep: * and guided them in the wilderness like a flock.

77:53 And he brought them out in hope, and they feared not: * and the sea overwhelmed their enemies.

77:54 And he brought them into the mountain of his sanctuary: * the mountain which his right hand had purchased.

77:54 And he cast out the Gentiles before them: * and by lot divided to them their land by a line of distribution.

77:55 And he made the tribes of Israel * to dwell in their tabernacles.

77:56 Yet they tempted, and provoked the most high God: * and they kept not his testimonies.

77:57 And they turned away, and kept not the covenant: * even like their fathers they were turned aside as a crooked bow.

77:58 They provoked him to anger on their hills: * and moved him to jealousy with their graven things.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. The Lord redeemed them from the hand of him that afflicted them.
God built * his sanctuary in the earth.

Psalmus 77(59-72)

([6])

77:59 God heard, and despised them, * and he reduced Israel exceedingly as it were to nothing.

77:60 And he put away the tabernacle of Silo, * his tabernacle where he dwelt among men.

77:61 And he delivered their strength into captivity: * and their beauty into the hands of the enemy.

77:62 And he shut up his people under the sword: * and he despised his inheritance.

77:63 Fire consumed their young men: * and their maidens were not lamented.

77:64 Their priests fell by the sword: * and their widows did not mourn.

77:65 And the Lord was awaked as one out of sleep, * and like a mighty man that hath been surfeited with wine.

77:66 And he smote his enemies on the hinder parts: * he put them to an everlasting reproach.

77:67 And he rejected the tabernacle of Joseph: * and chose not the tribe of Ephraim:

77:68 But he chose the tribe of Juda, * mount Sion which he loved.

77:69 And he built his sanctuary as of unicorns, in the land * which he founded for ever.

77:70 And he chose his servant David, and took him from the flocks of sheep: * he brought him from following the ewes great with young,

77:71 To feed Jacob his servant, * and Israel his inheritance.

77:72 And he fed them in the innocence of his heart: * and conducted them by the skilfulness of his hands.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. God built his sanctuary in the earth.

Help us, O God, our Saviour, * deliver us: and forgive us our sins.

Psalmus 78

([7])

78:1 O God, the heathens are come into thy inheritance, they have defiled thy holy temple: * they have made Jerusalem as a place to keep fruit.

78:2 They have given the dead bodies of thy servants to be meat for the fowls of the air: * the flesh of thy saints for the beasts of the earth.

78:3 They have poured out their blood as water, round about Jerusalem, * and there was none to bury them.

78:4 We are become a reproach to our neighbours: * a scorn and derision to them that are round about us.

78:5 How long, O Lord, wilt thou be angry for ever: * shall thy zeal be kindled like a fire?

78:6 Pour out thy wrath upon the nations that have not known thee: * and upon the kingdoms that have not called upon thy name.

78:7 Because they have devoured Jacob; * and have laid waste his place.

78:8 Remember not our former iniquities: let thy mercies speedily prevent us, * for we are become exceeding poor.

78:9 Help us, O God, our saviour: and for the glory of thy name, O Lord, deliver us: * and forgive us our sins for thy name's sake:

78:10 Lest they should say among the Gentiles: Where is their God? * And let him be made known among the nations before our eyes,

78:10 By the revenging the blood of thy servants, which hath been shed: * let the sighing of the prisoners come in before thee.

78:11 According to the greatness of thy arm, * take possession of the children of them that have been put to death.

78:12 And render to our neighbours sevenfold in their bosom: * the reproach wherewith they have reproached thee, O Lord.

78:13 But we thy people, and the sheep of thy pasture, * will give thanks to thee for ever.

78:13 We will shew forth thy praise, * unto generation and generation.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. Help us, O God, our Saviour, deliver us: and forgive us our sins.

I am the Lord * God of Israel, who brought you out from the land of Egypt.

Psalmus 80

([8])

80:2 Rejoice to God, our helper: * sing aloud to the God of Jacob.

80:3 Take a psalm, and bring hither the timbrel: * the pleasant psaltery with the harp.

80:4 Blow up the trumpet on the new moon, * on the noted day of your solemnity.

80:5 For it is a commandment in Israel, * and a judgment to the God of Jacob.

80:6 He ordained it for a testimony in Joseph, when he came out of the land of Egypt: * he heard a tongue which he knew not.

80:7 He removed his back from the burdens: * his hands had served in baskets.

80:8 Thou calledst upon me in affliction, and I delivered thee: * I heard thee in the secret place of tempest: I proved thee at the waters of contradiction.

80:9 Hear, O my people, and I will testify to thee: * O Israel, if thou wilt hearken to me; there shall be no new god in thee: neither shalt thou adore a strange god.

80:11 For I am the Lord thy God, who brought thee out of the land of Egypt: * open thy mouth wide, and I will fill it.

80:12 But my people heard not my voice: * and Israel hearkened not to me.

80:13 So I let them go according to the desires of their heart: * they shall walk in their own inventions.

80:14 If my people had heard me: * if Israel had walked in my ways:

80:15 I should soon have humbled their enemies, * and laid my hand on them that troubled them.

80:16 The enemies of the Lord have lied to him: * and their time shall be for ever.

80:17 And he fed them with the fat of wheat, * and filled them with honey out of the rock.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. I am the Lord God of Israel, who brought you out from the land of Egypt.

Be not thou silent, O Lord, * for Thy enemies lifted up their head.

Psalmus 82

([9])

82:2 O God, who shall be like to thee? * Hold not thy peace, neither be O God, thou still,

82:3 For lo, thy enemies have made a noise: * and they that hate thee have lifted up the head.

82:4 They have taken a malicious counsel against thy people, * and have consulted against thy saints.

82:5 They have said: Come and let us destroy them, * so that they be not a nation: and let the name of Israel be remembered no more.

82:6 For they have contrived with one consent: * they have made a covenant together against thee; the tabernacles of the Edomites, and the Ismahelites:

82:8 Moab, and the Agarens, Gebal, and Ammon and Amalec: * the Philistines, with the inhabitants of Tyre.

82:9 Yea, and the Assyrian also is joined with them: * they are come to the aid of the sons of Lot.

82:10 Do to them as thou didst to Madian and to Sisara: * as to Jabin at the brook of Cisson.

82:11 Who perished at Endor: * and became as dung for the earth.

82:12 Make their princes like Oreb, and Zeb, * and Zebbee, and Salmana.

82:13 All their princes, * who have said: Let us possess the sanctuary of God for an inheritance.

82:14 O my God, make them like a wheel; * and as stubble before the wind.

82:15 As fire which burneth the wood: * and as a flame burning mountains:

82:16 So shalt thou pursue them with thy tempest: * and shalt trouble them in thy wrath.

82:17 Fill their faces with shame; * and they shall seek thy name, O Lord.

82:18 Let them be ashamed and troubled for ever and ever: * and let them be confounded and perish.

82:19 And let them know that the Lord is thy name: * thou alone art the most High over all the earth.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. Be not thou silent, O Lord, for Thy enemies lifted up their head.

℣. The kings of Tharsis and of the isles shall give presents.

℟. The kings of Arabia and Saba shall bring gifts.

Our Father is said silently until And lead us not into temptation:.

Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

℣. And lead us not into temptation:

℟. But deliver us from evil.

Absolutio

May His loving-kindness and mercy help us, Who liveth and reigneth with the Father, and the Holy Ghost, world without end.

℟. Amen.

℣. Grant, Lord, a blessing.

Benedictio

May God the Father Omnipotent, be to us merciful and clement.

Lesson from the letter of St. Paul the Apostle to the Romans

Rom 12:1-3

1 I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercy of God, that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, pleasing unto God, your reasonable service.

2 And be not conformed to this world; but be reformed in the newness of your mind, that you may prove what is the good, and the acceptable, and the perfect will of God.

3 For I say, by the grace that is given me, to all that are among you, not to be more wise than it behoveth to be wise, but to be wise unto sobriety, and according as God hath divided to every one the measure of faith.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℟. Thanks be to God.

℟. There are three precious gifts which the wise men offered unto the Lord on this day, and they speak a mystery of the things of God:

* Gold, to show His kingly power; frankincense, for our Great High Priest; and myrrh, against the Lord's burying.

℣. The wise men worshipped the Captain of our Salvation, as He lay in the manger, and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto Him mystic gifts.

℞. Gold, to show His kingly power; frankincense, for our Great High Priest; and myrrh, against the Lord's burying.

℣. Grant, Lord, a blessing.

Benedictio

May Christ to all His people give, for ever in His sight to live.

℞. Amen.

Rom 12:4-8

4 For as in one body we have many members, but all the members have not the same office:

5 So we being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another.

6 And having different gifts, according to the grace that is given us, either prophecy, to be used according to the rule of faith;

7 Or ministry, in ministering; or he that teacheth, in doctrine;

8 He that exhorteth, in exhorting; he that giveth, with simplicity; he that ruleth, with carefulness; he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℞. Thanks be to God.

℞. The Holy Ghost appeared in a bodily shape like a dove, and the voice of the Father was heard:

* This is My beloved Son, in Whom I am well pleased.

℣. The heavens were opened unto him, and, lo, the voice of the Father was heard, like unto thunder, saying:

℞. This is My beloved Son, in Whom I am well pleased.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℞. This is My beloved Son, in Whom I am well pleased.

℣. Grant, Lord, a blessing.

Benedictio

May the Spirit's fire Divine in our hearts enkindled shine.

℞. Amen.

Rom 12:9-16

9 Let love be without dissimulation. Hating that which is evil, cleaving to that which is good.

10 Loving one another with the charity of brotherhood, with honour preventing one another.

11 In carefulness not slothful. In spirit fervent. Serving the Lord.

12 Rejoicing in hope. Patient in tribulation. Instant in prayer.

13 Communicating to the necessities of the saints. Pursuing hospitality.

14 Bless them that persecute you: bless, and curse not.

15 Rejoice with them that rejoice; weep with them that weep.

16 Being of one mind one towards another. Not minding high things, but consenting to the humble. Be not wise in your own conceits.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℞. Thanks be to God.

45:15 Verily thou art a hidden God, * the God of Israel the saviour.

45:16 They are all confounded and ashamed: * the forgers of errors are gone together into confusion.

45:17 Israel is saved in the Lord with an eternal salvation: * you shall not be confounded, and you shall not be ashamed for ever and ever.

45:18 For thus saith the Lord that created the heavens, * God himself that formed the earth, and made it, the very maker thereof:

45:19 He did not create it in vain: he formed it to be inhabited. * I am the Lord, and there is no other.

45:20 I have not spoken in secret, * in a dark place of the earth:

45:21 I have not said to the seed of Jacob: Seek me in vain. * I am the Lord that speak justice, that declare right things.

45:22 Assemble yourselves, and come, and draw near together, * ye that are saved of the Gentiles:

45:23 They have no knowledge that set up the wood of their graven work, * and pray to a god that cannot save.

45:24 Tell ye, and come, and consult together: * who hath declared this from the beginning, who hath foretold this from that time?

45:25 Have not I the Lord, and there is no God else besides me? * A just God and a saviour, there is none besides me.

45:26 Be converted to me, and you shall be saved, all ye ends of the earth: * for I am God, and there is no other.

45:27 I have sworn by myself, the word of justice shall go out of my mouth, * and shall not return:

45:28 For every knee shall be bowed to me, * and every tongue shall swear.

45:29 Therefore shall he say: In the Lord are my justices and empire: * they shall come to him, and all that resist him shall be confounded.

Hymnus

Bethlehem, of noblest cities

None can once with thee compare;

Thou alone the Lord from heaven

Didst for us incarnate bear.

Qairer than the sun at morning

Was the star that told His birth;

To the lands their God announcing,

Hid beneath a form of earth.
Vy its lambent beauty guided,
See, the eastern kings appear;
See them bend, their gifts to offer,
Gifts of incense, gold, and myrrh.
Rolemn things of mystic meaning:
Incense doth the God disclose;
Gold a royal child proclaimeth;
Myrrh a future tomb foreshows.
Ioly Jesu, in thy brightness
To the Gentile world displayed,
With the Father and the Spirit,
Endless praise to thee be paid.
Amen.

℣. Worship God. Alleluia.

℞. All ye His angels. Alleluia.

Luc. 1:68-79

1:68 Blessed be the Lord ✠ God of Israel; * because he hath visited and wrought the redemption of his people:

1:69 And hath raised up an horn of salvation to us, * in the house of David his servant:

1:70 As he spoke by the mouth of his holy Prophets, * who are from the beginning:

1:71 Salvation from our enemies, * and from the hand of all that hate us:

1:72 To perform mercy to our fathers, * and to remember his holy testament,

1:73 The oath, which he swore to Abraham our father, * that he would grant to us,

1:74 That being delivered from the hand of our enemies, * we may serve him without fear,

1:75 In holiness and justice before him, * all our days.

1:76 And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest: * for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways:

1:77 To give knowledge of salvation to his people, * unto the remission of their sins:

1:78 Through the bowels of the mercy of our God, * in which the Orient from on high hath visited us:

1:79 To enlighten them that sit in darkness, and in the shadow of death: * to direct our feet into the way of peace.

Hymnus

Now in the sun's new dawning ray,

Lowly of heart, our God we pray

That he from harm may keep us free

In all the deeds this day shall see.

Lay fear of him our tongues restrain,

Lest strife unguarded speech should stain:

His favouring care our guardian be,

Lest our eyes feed on vanity.

Say every heart be pure from sin

And folly find no place therein:

Scant need of food, excess denied,

Wear down in us the body's pride.

Uhat when the light of day is gone,

And night in course shall follow on.

We, free from cares the world affords,

May chant the praise that is our Lord's.

Dll laud to God the Father be,

All praise, Eternal Son, to thee:

All glory, as is ever meet,

To God the holy Paraclete.

Amen.

21:2 O God my God, look upon me: why hast thou forsaken me? * Far from my salvation are the words of my sins.

21:3 O my God, I shall cry by day, and thou wilt not hear: * and by night, and it shall not be reputed as folly in me.

21:4 But thou dwellest in the holy place, * the praise of Israel.

21:5 In thee have our fathers hoped: * they have hoped, and thou hast delivered them.

21:6 They cried to thee, and they were saved: * they trusted in thee, and were not confounded.

21:7 But I am a worm, and no man: * the reproach of men, and the outcast of the people.

21:8 All they that saw me have laughed me to scorn: * they have spoken with the lips, and wagged the head.

21:9 He hoped in the Lord, let him deliver him: * let him save him, seeing he delighteth in him.

21:15 I am poured out like water; * and all my bones are scattered.

21:15 My heart is become like wax melting * in the midst of my bowels.

21:16 My strength is dried up like a potsherd, and my tongue hath cleaved to my jaws: * and thou hast brought me down into the dust of death.

21:17 They have dug my hands and feet. * They have numbered all my bones.

21:18 And they have looked and stared upon me. * They parted my garments amongst them; and upon my vesture they cast lots.

Yet day by day the light in due gradation
From hour to hour through all its changes guide:
Lrant to life's day a calm unclouded ending,
An eve untouched by shadows of decay,
The brightness of a holy death-bed blending
With dawning glories of th' eternal day.
Pear us, O Father, gracious and forgiving,
And thou, O Christ, the co-eternal Word,
Who, with the Holy Ghost, by all things living
Now and to endless ages art adored.
Amen.

Ant. Mercy and truth * shall go before thy face, O Lord.

Psalmus 88(2-19)

([1])

88:2 The mercies of the Lord * I will sing for ever.

88:2 I will shew forth thy truth with my mouth * to generation and generation.

88:3 For thou hast said: Mercy shall be built up for ever in the heavens: * thy truth shall be prepared in them.

88:4 I have made a covenant with my elect: I have sworn to David my servant: * Thy seed will I settle for ever.

88:5 And I will build up thy throne * unto generation and generation.

88:6 The heavens shall confess thy wonders, O Lord: * and thy truth in the church of the saints.

88:7 For who in the clouds can be compared to the Lord: * or who among the sons of God shall be like to God?

88:8 God, who is glorified in the assembly of the saints: * great and terrible above all them that are about him.

88:9 O Lord God of hosts, who is like to thee? * thou art mighty, O Lord, and thy truth is round about thee.

88:10 Thou rulest the power of the sea: * and appeasest the motion of the waves thereof.

88:11 Thou hast humbled the proud one, as one that is slain: * with the arm of thy strength thou hast scattered thy enemies.

88:12 Thine are the heavens, and thine is the earth: the world and the fulness thereof thou hast founded: * the north and the sea thou hast created.

88:13 Thabor and Hermon shall rejoice in thy name: * thy arm is with might.

88:14 Let thy hand be strengthened, and thy right hand exalted: * justice and judgment are the preparation of thy throne.

88:15 Mercy and truth shall go before thy face: * blessed is the people that knoweth jubilation.

88:16 They shall walk, O Lord, in the light of thy countenance: and in thy name they shall rejoice all the day, * and in thy justice they shall be exalted.

88:18 For thou art the glory of their strength: * and in thy good pleasure shall our horn be exalted.

88:19 For our protection is of the Lord, * and of our king the holy one of Israel.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Psalmus 88(20-38)

88:20 Then thou spokest in a vision to thy saints, and saidst: * I have laid help upon one that is mighty, and have exalted one chosen out of my people.

88:21 I have found David my servant: * with my holy oil I have anointed him.

88:22 For my hand shall help him: * and my arm shall strengthen him.

88:23 The enemy shall have no advantage over him: * nor the son of iniquity have power to hurt him.

88:24 And I will cut down his enemies before his face; * and them that hate him I will put to flight.

88:25 And my truth and my mercy shall be with him: * and in my name shall his horn be exalted.

88:26 And I will set his hand in the sea; * and his right hand in the rivers.

88:27 He shall cry out to me: Thou art my father: * my God, and the support of my salvation.

88:28 And I will make him my firstborn, * high above the kings of the earth.

88:29 I will keep my mercy for him for ever: * and my covenant faithful to him.

88:30 And I will make his seed to endure for evermore: * and his throne as the days of heaven.

88:31 And if his children forsake my law, * and walk not in my judgments:

88:32 If they profane my justices: * and keep not my commandments:

88:33 I will visit their iniquities with a rod: * and their sins with stripes.

88:34 But my mercy I will not take away from him: * nor will I suffer my truth to fail.

88:35 Neither will I profane my covenant: * and the words that proceed from my mouth I will not make void.

88:36 Once have I sworn by my holiness: I will not lie unto David: * his seed shall endure for ever.

88:37 And his throne as the sun before me: * and as the moon perfect for ever, and a faithful witness in heaven.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Psalmus 88(39-53)

([3])

88:39 But thou hast rejected and despised: * thou hast been angry with thy anointed.

88:40 Thou hast overthrown the covenant of thy servant: * thou hast profaned his sanctuary on the earth.

88:41 Thou hast broken down all his hedges: * thou hast made his strength fear.

88:42 All that pass by the way have robbed him: * he is become a reproach to his neighbours.

88:43 Thou hast set up the right hand of them that oppress him: * thou hast made all his enemies to rejoice.

88:44 Thou hast turned away the help of his sword; * and hast not assisted him in battle.

88:45 Thou hast made his purification to cease: * and thou hast cast his throne down to the ground.
88:46 Thou hast shortened the days of his time: * thou hast covered him with confusion.
88:47 How long, O Lord, turnest thou away unto the end? * shall thy anger burn like fire?
88:48 Remember what my substance is: * for hast thou made all the children of men in vain?
88:49 Who is the man that shall live, and not see death: * that shall deliver his soul from the hand of hell?
88:50 Lord, where are thy ancient mercies, * according to what thou didst swear to David in thy truth?
88:51 Be mindful, O Lord, of the reproach of thy servants * which I have held in my bosom of many nations:
88:52 Wherewith thy enemies have reproached, O Lord; * wherewith they have reproached the change of thy anointed.
88:53 Blessed be the Lord for evermore. * So be it. So be it.

Why, impious Herod, vainly fear
That Christ the Saviour cometh here?
He takes no earthly realms away
Who gives the crown that lasts for aye.
Io greet His birth the Wise Men went,
Led by the star before them sent;
Called on by light, towards light they pressed,
And by their gifts their God confessed.

The heavenly Lamb vouchsafed to lave;
That He, to whom was sin unknown,
Might cleanse His people from their own.
New miracle of power divine!

The water reddens into wine:

In other streams than nature gave.
Ill glory, Lord, to thee we pay
For thine Epiphany to-day:
All glory, as is ever meet,

Thou Virgin first and last, let us thy mercy see.

℣. After childbirth thou didst remain a virgin.

℞. Intercede for us, O Mother of God.

Let us pray.

O God, who, by the fruitful virginity of blessed Mary, hast bestowed upon mankind the reward of eternal salvation: grant, we beseech thee, that we may experience her intercession, through whom we have been made worthy to receive the author of life, Our Lord Jesus Christ thy Son. Amen.

℣. May the divine assistance ✠ remain with us always.

℞. Amen.

℣. O Lord, + open thou my lips.

℟. And my mouth shall declare thy praise.

℣. O God, ✠ come to my assistance;

℟. O Lord, make haste to help me.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Alleluia.

Ant. Hail Mary, full of grace, * The Lord is with thee.

Hail Mary, full of grace, * The Lord is with thee.

Come let us praise the Lord with joy: let us joyfully sing to God our saviour. Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving; and make a joyful noise to him with psalms.

Hail Mary, full of grace, * The Lord is with thee.

For the Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods. For the Lord will not cast off his people: for in his hand are all the ends of the earth, and the heights of the mountains are his.

The Lord is with thee.

For the sea is his, and he made it: and his hands formed the dry land. (genuflect) Come let us adore and fall down: and weep before the Lord that made us: For he is the Lord our God: and we are the people of his pasture and the sheep of his hand.

Hail Mary, full of grace, * The Lord is with thee.

Today if you shall hear his voice, harden not your hearts: As in the provocation, according to the day of temptation in the wilderness: where your fathers tempted me, they proved me, and saw my works.

The Lord is with thee.

Forty years long was I offended with that generation, and I said: These always err in heart. And these men have not known my ways: so I swore in my wrath that they shall not enter into my rest.

Hail Mary, full of grace, * The Lord is with thee.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

The Lord is with thee.

Hail Mary, full of grace, * The Lord is with thee.

Hymnus

The God whom earth, and sea, and sky

Adore, and laud, and magnify,

Who o'er their threefold fabric reigns,

The Virgin's spotless womb contains.

Che God, whose will by moon and sun

And all things in due course is done,

Is borne upon a maiden's breast,

By fullest heavenly grace possest.

Bow blest that mother, in whose shrine

The great artificer divine,

Whose hand contains the earth and sky,

Vouchsafed, as in his ark, to lie.

Blest, in the message Gabriel brought;
Blest, by the work the Spirit wrought;
From whom the great desire of earth
Took human flesh and human birth.
Ill honour, laud, and glory be,
O Jesu, Virgin-born to thee;
All glory, as is ever meet,
To Father and to Paraclete.
Amen.

Ant. The memory of thy testament * will live forever, O Lord our God.

104:4 Seek ye the Lord, and be strengthened: * seek his face evermore.

104:5 Remember his marvellous works which he hath done; * his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth.

104:6 O ye seed of Abraham his servant; * ye sons of Jacob his chosen.

104:7 He is the Lord our God: * his judgments are in all the earth.

104:8 He hath remembered his covenant for ever: * the word which he commanded to a thousand generations.

104:9 Which he made to Abraham; * and his oath to Isaac:

104:10 And he appointed the same to Jacob for a law, * and to Israel for an everlasting testament:

104:11 Saying: To thee will I give the land of Chanaan, * the lot of your inheritance.

104:12 When they were but a small number: * yea very few, and sojourners therein:

104:13 And they passed from nation to nation, * and from one kingdom to another people.

104:14 He suffered no man to hurt them: * and he reprov'd kings for their sakes.

104:15 Touch ye not my anointed: * and do no evil to my prophets.

104:18 They humbled his feet in fetters: the iron pierced his soul, * until his word came.

104:19 The word of the Lord inflamed him: * the king sent, and he released him: the ruler of the people, and he set him at liberty.

104:21 He made him master of his house, * and ruler of all his possession.

104:22 That he might instruct his princes as himself, * and teach his ancients wisdom.

104:29 He turned their waters into blood, * and destroyed their fish.

104:30 Their land brought forth frogs, * in the inner chambers of their kings.

104:31 He spoke, and there came diverse sorts of flies, * and sciniphs in all their coasts.

104:32 He gave them hail for rain, * a burning fire in the land.

104:33 And he destroyed their vineyards, and their fig trees: * and he broke in pieces the trees of their coasts.

104:34 He spoke, and the locust came, and the bruchus, * of which there was no number.

104:35 And they devoured all the grass in their land, * and consumed all the fruit of their ground.

104:36 And he slew all the firstborn in their land: * the firstfruits of all their labour.

104:37 And he brought them out with silver and gold: * and there was not among their tribes one that was feeble.

104:38 Egypt was glad when they departed: * for the fear of them lay upon them.

104:39 He spread a cloud for their protection, * and fire to give them light in the night.

104:40 They asked, and the quail came: * and he filled them with the bread of heaven.

104:41 He opened the rock, and waters flowed: * rivers ran down in the dry land.

104:42 Because he remembered his holy word, * which he had spoken to his servant Abraham.

104:43 And he brought forth his people with joy, * and his chosen with gladness.

104:44 And he gave them the lands of the Gentiles: * and they possessed the labours of the people:

105:6 We have sinned with our fathers: * we have acted unjustly, we have wrought iniquity.

105:7 Our fathers understood not thy wonders in Egypt: * they remembered not the multitude of thy mercies:

105:37 And they sacrificed their sons, * and their daughters to devils.

105:38 And they shed innocent blood: * the blood of their sons and of their daughters which they sacrificed to the idols of Chanaan.

105:39 And the land was polluted with blood, and was defiled with their works: * and they went aside after their own inventions.

105:40 And the Lord was exceedingly angry with his people: * and he abhorred his inheritance.

105:41 And he delivered them into the hands of the nations: * and they that hated them had dominion over them.

Lesson from the letter of St. Paul the Apostle to the Romans

Rom 13:1-4

1 Let every soul be subject to higher powers: for there is no power but from God: and those that are, are ordained of God.

2 Therefore he that resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God. And they that resist, purchase to themselves damnation.

3 For princes are not a terror to the good work, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? Do that which is good: and thou shalt have praise from the same.

4 For he is God's minister to thee, for good. But if thou do that which is evil, fear: for he beareth not the sword in vain.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℟. Thanks be to God.

℞. There are three precious gifts which the wise men offered unto the Lord on this day, and they speak a mystery of the things of God:

* Gold, to show His kingly power; frankincense, for our Great High Priest; and myrrh, against the Lord's burying.

℣. The wise men worshipped the Captain of our Salvation, as He lay in the manger, and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto Him mystic gifts.

℞. Gold, to show His kingly power; frankincense, for our Great High Priest; and myrrh, against the Lord's burying.

℣. Grant, Lord, a blessing.

Benedictio

May the Virgin of virgins, intercede for us to the Lord.

℞. Amen.

Rom 13:4-7

4 For he is God's minister: an avenger to execute wrath upon him that doth evil.

5 Wherefore be subject of necessity, not only for wrath, but also for conscience' sake.

6 For therefore also you pay tribute. For they are the ministers of God, serving unto this purpose.

7 Render therefore to all men their dues. Tribute, to whom tribute is due: custom, to whom custom: fear, to whom fear: honour, to whom honour.

Rom 13:8-10

8 Owe no man any thing, but to love one another. For he that loveth his neighbour hath fulfilled the law.

9 For: Thou shalt not commit adultery: Thou shalt not kill: Thou shalt not steal: Thou shalt not bear false witness: Thou shalt not covet. And if there be any other commandment, it is comprised in this word: Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

10 The love of our neighbour worketh no evil. Love therefore is the fulfilling of the law.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℞. Thanks be to God.

℞. The kings of Tarshish and of the isles shall bring presents.

* The kings of Arabia and Saba shall offer gifts unto the Lord God.

℣. All they from Saba shall come, they shall bring gold and incense.

℞. The kings of Arabia and Saba shall offer gifts unto the Lord God.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℞. The kings of Arabia and Saba shall offer gifts unto the Lord God.

℣. Grant, Lord, a blessing.

Benedictio

Through the Virgin Mother, the Lord grant us salvation and peace.

℞. Amen.

From the letter of Blessed Ambrose, bishop of Milan, to Pope Siricius

Epist. 81, alias 7, post initium

How great is the madness of their dismal barkings, that the same persons should say that Christ could not be born of a virgin, and yet assert that women, after having given birth to human pledges, remain virgins? But if they will not believe the doctrines of the Clergy, let them believe the oracles of Christ, let them believe the admonitions of Angels who say, For with God nothing shall be impossible. Let them give credit to the Creed of the Apostles, which the Roman Church has always kept and preserved undefiled. Mary heard the voice of the Angel, and she who before had said "How shall this be?", not asking from want of faith in the mode of generation, afterwards replied: "Behold the handmaid of the Lord, be it unto me according to thy word."

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℟. Thanks be to God.

Te Deum

We believe that thou shalt come * to be our Judge.

O Lord, * how great are thy works!

([2])

91:2 It is good to give praise to the Lord: * and to sing to thy name, O most High.

91:3 To shew forth thy mercy in the morning, * and thy truth in the night:

91:4 Upon an instrument of ten strings, upon the psaltery: * with a canticle upon the harp.

91:5 For thou hast given me, O Lord, a delight in thy doings: * and in the works of thy hands I shall rejoice.

91:6 O Lord, how great are thy works! * thy thoughts are exceeding deep.

91:7 The senseless man shall not know: * nor will the fool understand these things.

91:8 When the wicked shall spring up as grass: * and all the workers of iniquity shall appear:

91:9 That they may perish for ever and ever: * but thou, O Lord, art most high for evermore.

Psalmus 63

([3])

63:2 Hear, O God, my prayer, when I make supplication to thee: * deliver my soul from the fear of the enemy.

63:3 Thou hast protected me from the assembly of the malignant; * from the multitude of the workers of iniquity.

63:4 For they have whetted their tongues like a sword; * they have bent their bow a bitter thing, to shoot in secret the undefiled.

63:6 They will shoot at him on a sudden, and will not fear: * they are resolute in wickedness.

63:6 They have talked of hiding snares; * they have said: Who shall see them?

63:7 They have searched after iniquities: * they have failed in their search.

63:7 Man shall come to a deep heart: * and God shall be exalted.

63:8 The arrows of children are their wounds: * and their tongues against them are made weak.

63:9 All that saw them were troubled; * and every man was afraid.

63:10 And they declared the works of God: * and understood his doings.

Sir 36:1-16

36:1 Have mercy upon us, O God of all, and behold us, * and shew us the light of thy mercies:

36:2 And send thy fear upon the nations, * that have not sought after thee:

36:3 That they may know that there is no God beside thee, * and that they may shew forth thy wonders.

36:4 Lift up thy hand over the strange nations, * that they may see thy power.

36:5 For as thou hast been sanctified in us in their sight, * so thou shalt be magnified among them in our presence,

36:6 That they may know thee, as we also have known thee, * that there is no God beside thee, O Lord.

36:7 Renew thy signs, and work new miracles. * Glorify thy hand, and thy right arm.

36:8 Raise up indignation, and pour out wrath. * Take away the adversary, and crush the enemy.

36:9 Hasten the time, and remember the end, * that they may declare thy wonderful works.

36:10 Let him that escapeth be consumed by the rage of the fire: * and let them perish that oppress thy people.

36:11 Crush the head of the princes of the enemies * that say: There is no other beside us.

36:12 Gather together all the tribes of Jacob: that they may know that there is no God besides thee, * and may declare thy great works.

36:13 And thou shalt inherit them * as from the beginning.

36:14 Have mercy on thy people, upon whom thy name is invoked: * and upon Israel, whom thou hast raised up to be thy firstborn.

O glorious lady! throned on high
Above the star-illumined sky;
Thereto ordained, thy bosom lent
To thy Creator nourishment.
Qhrough thy sweet offspring we receive
The bliss once lost through hapless Eve;
And heaven to mortals open lies
Now thou art portal of the skies.
Thou art the door of heaven's high King,
Light's gateway fair and glistering;
Life through a Virgin is restored;
Ye ransomed nations, praise the Lord!
Ill honour, laud, and glory be,
O Jesu, Virgin-born, to thee;
All glory, as is ever meet,
To Father and to Paraclete.

1:68 Blessed be the Lord ☩ God of Israel; * because he hath visited and wrought the redemption of his people:

1:69 And hath raised up an horn of salvation to us, * in the house of David his servant:

1:70 As he spoke by the mouth of his holy Prophets, * who are from the beginning:

1:71 Salvation from our enemies, * and from the hand of all that hate us:

1:72 To perform mercy to our fathers, * and to remember his holy testament,

1:73 The oath, which he swore to Abraham our father, * that he would grant to us,

1:74 That being delivered from the hand of our enemies, * we may serve him without fear,

1:75 In holiness and justice before him, * all our days.

1:76 And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest: * for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways:

1:77 To give knowledge of salvation to his people, * unto the remission of their sins:

Hymnus

Now in the sun's new dawning ray,

Lowly of heart, our God we pray

That he from harm may keep us free

In all the deeds this day shall see.

Lay fear of him our tongues restrain,

Lest strife unguarded speech should stain:

His favouring care our guardian be,

Lest our eyes feed on vanity.

Say every heart be pure from sin

And folly find no place therein:

Scant need of food, excess denied,

Wear down in us the body's pride.

Uhat when the light of day is gone,

And night in course shall follow on.

We, free from cares the world affords,

May chant the praise that is our Lord's.

Dll laud to God the Father be,

All praise, Eternal Son, to thee:

All glory, as is ever meet,

To God the holy Paraclete.

Amen.

Ant. Lift up thyself, O Lord, * thou that judgest the earth: render retribution to the proud.

Psalmus 93(1-11)

([1])

93:1 The Lord is the God to whom revenge belongeth: * the God of revenge hath acted freely.

93:2 Lift up thyself, thou that judgest the earth: * render a reward to the proud.

93:3 How long shall sinners, O Lord: * how long shall sinners glory?

93:4 Shall they utter, and speak iniquity: * shall all speak who work injustice?

93:5 Thy people, O Lord, they have brought low: * and they have afflicted thy inheritance.

93:6 They have slain the widow and the stranger: * and they have murdered the fatherless.

93:7 And they have said: The Lord shall not see: * neither shall the God of Jacob understand.

93:8 Understand, ye senseless among the people: * and, you fools, be wise at last.

93:9 He that planted the ear, shall he not hear? * or he that formed the eye, doth he not consider?

93:10 He that chastiseth nations, shall he not rebuke: * he that teacheth man knowledge?

93:11 The Lord knoweth the thoughts of men, * that they are vain.

Psalmus 93(12-23)

([2])

93:12 Blessed is the man whom thou shalt instruct, O Lord: * and shalt teach him out of thy law.

93:13 That thou mayst give him rest from the evil days: * till a pit be dug for the wicked.

93:14 For the Lord will not cast off his people: * neither will he forsake his own inheritance.

93:15 Until justice be turned into judgment: * and they that are near it are all the upright in heart.

93:16 Who shall rise up for me against the evildoers? * or who shall stand with me against the workers of iniquity?

93:17 Unless the Lord had been my helper, * my soul had almost dwelt in hell.

93:18 If I said: My foot is moved: * thy mercy, O Lord, assisted me.

93:19 According to the multitude of my sorrows in my heart, * thy comforts have given joy to my soul.

93:20 Doth the seat of iniquity stick to thee, * who framest labour in commandment?

93:21 They will hunt after the soul of the just, * and will condemn innocent blood.

93:22 But the Lord is my refuge: * and my God the help of my hope.

93:23 And he will render them their iniquity: and in their malice he will destroy them: * the Lord our God will destroy them.

107:3 Arise, my glory; arise, psaltery and harp * I will arise in the morning early.

O strength and stay upholding all creation,
Who ever dost thyself unmoved abide,
Yet day by day the light in due gradation
From hour to hour through all its changes guide:
Lrant to life's day a calm unclouded ending,
An eve untouched by shadows of decay,
The brightness of a holy death-bed blending
With dawning glories of th' eternal day.
Pear us, O Father, gracious and forgiving,
And thou, O Christ, the co-eternal Word,
Who, with the Holy Ghost, by all things living
Now and to endless ages art adored.

Ant. O God, be thou not silent * for the mouth of the wicked man is opened against me.

Psalms 108(2-13)

([1])

108:2 God, be not thou silent in my praise: * for the mouth of the wicked and the mouth of the deceitful man is opened against me.

108:3 They have spoken against me with deceitful tongues; and they have compassed me about with words of hatred; * and have fought against me without cause.

108:4 Instead of making me a return of love, they detracted me: * but I gave myself to prayer.

108:5 And they repaid me evil for good: * and hatred for my love.

108:6 Set thou the sinner over him: * and may the devil stand at his right hand.

108:7 When he is judged, may he go out condemned; * and may his prayer be turned to sin.

108:8 May his days be few: * and his bishopric let another take.

108:9 May his children be fatherless, * and his wife a widow.

108:10 Let his children be carried about vagabonds, and beg; * and let them be cast out of their dwellings.

108:11 May the usurer search all his substance: * and let strangers plunder his labours.

108:12 May there be none to help him: * nor none to pity his fatherless offspring.

108:13 May his posterity be cut off; * in one generation may his name be blotted out.

Psalms 108(14-21)

108:14 May the iniquity of his fathers be remembered in the sight of the Lord: * and let not the sin of his mother be blotted out.

108:15 May they be before the Lord continually, and let the memory of them perish from the earth:

* because he remembered not to shew mercy,

108:17 But persecuted the poor man and the beggar; * and the broken in heart, to put him to death.

108:18 And he loved cursing, and it shall come unto him: * and he would not have blessing, and it shall be far from him.

108:18 And he put on cursing, like a garment: * and it went in like water into his entrails, and like oil in his bones.

108:19 May it be unto him like a garment which covereth him; * and like a girdle with which he is girded continually.

108:20 This is the work of them who detract me before the Lord; * and who speak evils against my soul.

108:24 My knees are weakened through fasting: * and my flesh is changed for oil.

108:25 And I am become a reproach to them: * they saw me and they shook their heads.

108:26 Help me, O Lord my God; * save me according to thy mercy.

108:27 And let them know that this is thy hand: * and that thou, O Lord, hast done it.

108:28 They will curse and thou wilt bless: * let them that rise up against me be confounded: but thy servant shall rejoice.

108:29 Let them that detract me be clothed with shame: * and let them be covered with their confusion as with a double cloak.

108:30 I will give great thanks to the Lord with my mouth: * and in the midst of many I will praise him.

Home smiled with kindly love;

O Mary, highly graced,
Whose breast gave milk to Jesus,
Whose arms thy God embraced;
Tnd thou of all men chosen
To guard the Virgin's fame,
To whom God's Son refused not
A Father's gracious name;

Of Jesse's lineage high,
Behold the suppliants kneeling,

Dusks all the twilight air:

Pour out our heartfelt prayer.

Made glad with fairest flowers;
May life thus blossom sweetly
In every home of ours.
Ill praise to Thee, O Jesus,

Praise to the sovereign Father
and Paraclete for aye.

℣. O God, ✠ come to my assistance;

℟. O Lord, make haste to help me.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

Alleluia.

Ant. Christ, Son of God, subject to Mary and Joseph, * O come, let us worship Him.

Christ, Son of God, subject to Mary and Joseph, * O come, let us worship Him.

Come let us praise the Lord with joy: let us joyfully sing to God our saviour. Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving; and make a joyful noise to him with psalms.

Christ, Son of God, subject to Mary and Joseph, * O come, let us worship Him.

For the Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods. For the Lord will not cast off his people: for in his hand are all the ends of the earth, and the heights of the mountains are his.

O come, let us worship Him.

For the sea is his, and he made it: and his hands formed the dry land. (genuflect) Come let us adore and fall down: and weep before the Lord that made us: For he is the Lord our God: and we are the people of his pasture and the sheep of his hand.

Christ, Son of God, subject to Mary and Joseph, * O come, let us worship Him.

Today if you shall hear his voice, harden not your hearts: As in the provocation, according to the day of temptation in the wilderness: where your fathers tempted me, they proved me, and saw my works.

O come, let us worship Him.

Forty years long was I offended with that generation, and I said: These always err in heart. And these men have not known my ways: so I swore in my wrath that they shall not enter into my rest.

Christ, Son of God, subject to Mary and Joseph, * O come, let us worship Him.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

O come, let us worship Him.

Christ, Son of God, subject to Mary and Joseph, * O come, let us worship Him.

Hymnus

A thousand lights their glory shed

On shrines and altars garlanded;

While swinging censers dusk the air

With perfumed prayer.

Nnd shall we sing the ancestry

Of Jesus, Son of God most High?

Or the heroic names retrace

Of David's race?

Gweeter is lowly Nazareth,

Where Jesus drew His childish breath—

Sweeter the singing that endears

His hidden years.

Nn Angel leads the pilgrim band
 From Egypt to their native land,
 Where Jesus clings to Joseph's arm,
 Secure from harm.
 AAnd the Child grew in wisdom's ken
 And years and grace with God and men;"
 And in His father's humble art
 Took share and part.
 IWith toil", saith He, "my limbs are wet,
 Prefiguring the Bloody Sweat:"
 Ah! how He bears our chastisement
 With sweet content!
 At Joseph's bench, at Jesus' side,
 The Mother sits, the Virgin-Bride;
 Happy, if she may cheer their hearts
 With loving arts.
 OBlessed Three! who felt the sting
 Of want and toil and suffering,
 Pity the needy and obscure
 Lot of the poor.
 Danish the "pride of life" from all
 Whom ampler wealth and joys befall:
 Be every heart with love repaid
 That seeks your aid.
 Slory to Thee, Jesu dear,
 Model of holy living here!
 Who reign'st, with Sire and Holy Ghost,
 O'er heaven's host.

Lesson from the letter of St. Paul the Apostle to the Colossians

Col 3:12-16

12 Put ye on therefore, as the elect of God, holy, and beloved, the bowels of mercy, benignity, humility, modesty, patience:

13 Bearing with one another, and forgiving one another, if any have a complaint against another: even as the Lord hath forgiven you, so do you also.

14 But above all these things have charity, which is the bond of perfection:

15 And let the peace of Christ rejoice in your hearts, wherein also you are called in one body: and be ye thankful.

16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you abundantly, in all wisdom: teaching and admonishing one another in psalms, hymns, and spiritual canticles, singing in grace in your hearts to God.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℟. Thanks be to God.

℞. Our God did shew himself upon earth,

* And held converse with men.

℣. He hath found out all the way of knowledge, and hath given it unto Jacob his servant.

℞. And held converse with men.

℣. Grant, Lord, a blessing.

Benedictio

May the Son, the Sole-begotten, mercifully bless and keep us.

℞. Amen.

Col 3:17-21

17 All whatsoever you do in word or in work, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, giving thanks to God and the Father by him.

18 Wives, be subject to your husbands, as it behoveth in the Lord.

19 Husbands, love your wives, and be not bitter towards them.

20 Children, obey your parents in all things: for this is well pleasing to the Lord.

21 Fathers, provoke not your children to indignation, lest they be discouraged.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℞. Thanks be to God.

℞. Blessed are they that live

* In thy house, O Lord.

℣. They shall praise thee for ever and ever.

℞. In thy house, O Lord.

℣. Grant, Lord, a blessing.

Benedictio

May the grace of the Holy Spirit enlighten all our hearts and minds.

℞. Amen.

Col 3:22-25; 4:1-2

22 Servants, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh, not serving to the eye, as pleasing men, but in simplicity of heart, fearing God.

23 Whatsoever you do, do it from the heart, as to the Lord, and not to men:

24 Knowing that you shall receive of the Lord the reward of inheritance. Serve ye the Lord Christ.

25 For he that doth wrong, shall receive for that which he hath done wrongfully: and there is no respect of persons with God.

1 Masters, do to your servants that which is just and equal: knowing that you also have a master in heaven.

2 Be instant in prayer; watching in it with thanksgiving:

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℞. Thanks be to God.

℞. In all things it behoved him to be made like unto his brethren,

* That he might be merciful.

℣. Though he was the Son of God, yet learned he obedience by the things which he suffered.

℞. That he might be merciful.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℞. That he might be merciful.

44:3 Thou art beautiful above the sons of men: † grace is poured abroad in thy lips; * therefore hath God blessed thee for ever.

44:4 Gird thy sword upon thy thigh, * O thou most mighty.

44:5 With thy comeliness and thy beauty * set out, proceed prosperously, and reign.

44:5 Because of truth and meekness and justice: * and thy right hand shall conduct thee wonderfully.

44:7 Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: * the sceptre of thy kingdom is a sceptre of uprightness.

44:8 Thou hast loved justice, and hated iniquity: * therefore God, thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

44:9 Myrrh and stacte and cassia perfume thy garments, from the ivory houses: * out of which the daughters of kings have delighted thee in thy glory.

44:15 After her shall virgins be brought to the king: * her neighbours shall be brought to thee.

44:16 They shall be brought with gladness and rejoicing: * they shall be brought into the temple of the king.

From the Apostolic Letters of Pope Leo XIII

Breve « Neminem fugit » 14 iunii 1892

When God in his mercy determined to accomplish the work of man's renewal, which same had so many long ages awaited, he appointed and ordained this work on such wise that its very beginning might shew to the world the august spectacle of a Family which was known to be divinely constituted; that therein all men might behold a perfect model, as well of domestic life as of every virtue and pattern of holiness: for such indeed was the Holy Family of Nazareth. There in secret dwelt the Sun of Righteousness, until the time when he should shine out in full splendour in the sight of all nations. There Christ, our God and Saviour, lived with his Virgin Mother, and with that most holy man Joseph, who held to him the place of father. No one can doubt that in this Holy Family was displayed every virtue which can be called forth by an ordinary home life, with its mutual services of charity, its holy intercourse, and its practices of godly piety, since the Holy Family was destined to be a pattern to all others. For that very reason was it established by the merciful designs of Providence, namely, that every Christian, in every walk of life and in every place, might easily, if he would but give heed to it, have before him a motive and a pattern for the good life.

Ṽ. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

R̃. Thanks be to God.

R̃. As for me, I am poor and needy:

* But the Lord careth for me.

Ṽ. Thou shalt eat the labours of thine hands; blessed art thou, and happy shalt thou be.

R̃. But the Lord careth for me.

Ṽ. Grant, Lord, a blessing.

Benedictio

May Christ to all His people give, for ever in His sight to live.

R̃. Amen.

To all fathers of families, Joseph is verily the best model of paternal vigilance and care. In the most holy Virgin Mother of God, mothers may find an excellent example of love, modesty, resignation of spirit, and the perfecting of faith. And in Jesus, who was subject to his parents, the children of the family have a divine pattern of obedience which they can admire, reverence, and imitate. Those who are of noble birth may learn, from this Family of royal blood, how to live simply in times of prosperity, and how to retain their dignity in times of distress. The rich may learn that moral worth is to be more highly esteemed than wealth. Artisans, and all such as are bitterly grieved by the narrow and slender means of their families, if they would but consider the sublime holiness of the members of this domestic fellowship, cannot fail to find some cause for rejoicing in their lot, rather than for being merely dissatisfied with it. In common with the Holy Family, they have to work, and to provide for the daily wants of life. Joseph had to engage in trade, in order to live; even the divine hands laboured at an artisan's calling. It is not to be wondered at, that the wealthiest men, if truly wise, have been willing to cast away their riches, and to embrace a life of poverty with Jesus, Mary, and Joseph.

May the Spirit's fire Divine in our hearts enkindled shine.

From the foregoing it is evident how natural and fitting it was that devotion to the Holy Family should in due time have grown up amongst Catholics; and once begun, that it should spread far and wide. Proof of this lieth first in the sodalities instituted under the invocation of the Holy Family; then in the unique honours bestowed upon it; and above all, by the privileges and favours granted to this devotion by our predecessors to stimulate fervour and piety in its regard. This devotion was already held in great esteem in the seventeenth century. Widely propagated in Italy, France, and Belgium, it spread over almost the whole of Europe; thence, crossing the wide ocean, through Canada it made its way in the Americas, and finding favour there, became very flourishing. Indeed, among Christian families, nothing more salutary nor efficacious can be imagined than the example of the Holy Family, where are to be found all domestic virtues in perfection and completeness. When Jesus, Mary, and Joseph are invoked in the home, charity is likely to be maintained in the family through their example and heavenly entreaty; a good influence is thus exerted over conduct; the practice of virtue is thus incited; and thus the hardships which are everywhere wont to harass mankind, are both mitigated and made easier to bear. To increase devotion to the Holy Family, Pope Leo XIII prescribed that Christian families should be consecrated thereto. Benedict XV extended the Mass and Office to the whole Church.

Luc 2:42-52

And when he was twelve years old, they going up into Jerusalem, according to the custom of the feast, And having fulfilled the days, when they returned, the child Jesus remained in Jerusalem; and his parents knew it not. And so on.

Homily of St. Bernard Abbot

Homilia 1 super Missus est, n. 7-8

And he was subject unto them. Who was subject? And to whom? God to man! God, I repeat, to whom the Angels are subject, whom the Principalities and Powers do obey, was subject to Mary; and not only to Mary, but to Joseph also for Mary's sake. Marvel, therefore, both at God and man, and choose that which giveth greater wonder, whether it be the most loving condescension of the Son, or the exceeding great dignity of his Mother. Both amaze us, both are marvellous. That God should obey a woman is lowliness without parallel, that woman should rule over God, an elevation beyond comparison. In praise of virgins it is sung of them alone, that they follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. Of what praise do ye judge that woman to be worthy who is thus placed before the Lamb of God.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℟. Thanks be to God.

℟. Verily, thou art a King that hidest thyself,

* O God of Israel, the Saviour.

℣. Grant, Lord, a blessing.

Benedictio

God's most mighty strength alway be His people's staff and stay.

℟. Amen.

Reading 8

Learn, O man, to obey! Learn, O earth, to be subject! Learn, O dust, to submit! The Evangelist speaking of thy Creator saith: And he was subject unto them. And there is no doubt that this sheweth us that God was subject to Mary and Joseph. Shame on you, ye proud entities of dust and ashes! God abaseth himself, and dost thou, O creature sprung from the earth, exalt thyself? God maketh himself subject to man, and dost thou, who art always so eager to lord it over men, set up thyself to lord it over thy Creator? For as often soever as I desire pre-eminency over men, so often do I strive to excel God. For of him it was said: And he was subject unto them. If thou disdainest, O man, to follow the example of man, at least thou canst follow thy Creator without dishonour. If thou canst not, perchance, follow him whithersoever he goeth, deign at least to follow him in this thing wherein he hath emptied himself, and made himself of no reputation, for the sake of such as thou.

Responsory 8

℟. As by one man's disobedience many were made sinners,

* So by the obedience of one Man shall many be made righteous.

℣. He came to Nazareth, and was subject unto them.

℟. So by the obedience of one Man shall many be made righteous.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. So by the obedience of one Man shall many be made righteous.

Benedictio

May He that is the Angels' King to that high realm His people bring.

℟. Amen.

Reading 9

If thou canst not enter upon the lofty paths of virginity, at least follow God by the most safe road of humility. If any turn aside from this straight way, though they be virgins, they do not follow the Lamb, if the truth be told, whithersoever he goeth. The humble man, though stained with sin, followeth the Lamb; the virgin, though proud, also followeth; but neither of these twain followeth whithersoever he goeth. The former cannot attain unto the purity of the Lamb, for he is without spot; the latter deigneth not to descend to his meekness, who was dumb, not before the shearer, but before the murderer. Yet the sinner who followeth in humility hath chosen a more saving way than the proud man who followeth in virginity; for the humble one maketh satisfaction, and is cleansed of his impurity, but the proud one's chastity is stained by his pride.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℟. Thanks be to God.

Hymnus

O house of Nazareth the blest,
Fair hostess of the Lord,
The Church was nurtured at Thy breast
And shared thy scanty hoard.
On all the spreading lands of earth
The wandering sun may see
No dearer spot, no ampler worth
Than erst was found in thee!
Ae know thy humble tenement
Was heaven's hermitage:
Celestial heralds came and went
In endless embassy.
Where, whatsoever Joseph asks

Christ hastens to fulfill;
While Mary loves the household tasks
That wait her joyous will.
Ahere, Joseph toileth at her side
Her joys and griefs to share,
With thousand ties knit to his bride,
Of love and work and prayer.
Het how their bosoms constant burn
And deeper ardors prove
In love of Christ, whose eyes return
Tokens of mutual love.
Sthen, in all the homes of earth,
Be Love the bond of life:
May it enthrone at every hearth
The peace that husheth strife.
Ill praise to Thee, O Jesus,
who parents dost obey;
Praise to the sovereign Father
and Paraclete for aye.
Amen.

1:69 And hath raised up an horn of salvation to us, * in the house of David his servant:
1:70 As he spoke by the mouth of his holy Prophets, * who are from the beginning:
1:71 Salvation from our enemies, * and from the hand of all that hate us:
1:72 To perform mercy to our fathers, * and to remember his holy testament,
1:73 The oath, which he swore to Abraham our father, * that he would grant to us,
1:74 That being delivered from the hand of our enemies, * we may serve him without fear,
1:75 In holiness and justice before him, * all our days.
1:76 And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest: * for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways:
1:77 To give knowledge of salvation to his people, * unto the remission of their sins:
1:78 Through the bowels of the mercy of our God, * in which the Orient from on high hath visited us:

Hymnus

Now in the sun's new dawning ray,

Lowly of heart, our God we pray

That he from harm may keep us free

In all the deeds this day shall see.

Lay fear of him our tongues restrain,

Lest strife unguarded speech should stain:

His favouring care our guardian be,

Lest our eyes feed on vanity.

Say every heart be pure from sin

And folly find no place therein:

Scant need of food, excess denied,

Wear down in us the body's pride.

Uhat when the light of day is gone,

And night in course shall follow on.

We, free from cares the world affords,

May chant the praise that is our Lord's.

Dll laud to God the Father be,

All praise, Eternal Son, to thee:

All glory, as is ever meet,

To God the holy Paraclete.

Amen.

117:7 The Lord is my helper: * and I will look over my enemies.

117:8 It is good to confide in the Lord, * rather than to have confidence in man.

117:9 It is good to trust in the Lord, * rather than to trust in princes.

117:27 Appoint a solemn day, with shady boughs, * even to the horn of the altar.

117:28 Thou art my God, and I will praise thee: * thou art my God, and I will exalt thee.

Art with the Father and the Son,

With thy full flood of holiness.

Sound forth our witness to mankind;

Till others catch the living flame.

Psalmus 118(33-48)

([1])

118:33 (He) Set before me for a law the way of thy justifications, O Lord: * and I will always seek after it.

118:34 Give me understanding, and I will search thy law; * and I will keep it with my whole heart.

118:35 Lead me into the path of thy commandments; * for this same I have desired.

118:36 Incline my heart into thy testimonies * and not to covetousness.

118:37 Turn away my eyes that they may not behold vanity: * quicken me in thy way.

118:38 Establish thy word to thy servant, * in thy fear.

118:39 Turn away my reproach, which I have apprehended: * for thy judgments are delightful.

118:40 Behold I have longed after thy precepts: * quicken me in thy justice.

118:41 (Vau) Let thy mercy also come upon me, O Lord: * thy salvation according to thy word.

118:42 So shall I answer them that reproach me in any thing; * that I have trusted in thy words.

118:43 And take not thou the word of truth utterly out of my mouth: * for in thy words, I have hoped exceedingly.

118:44 So shall I always keep thy law, * for ever and ever.

118:45 And I walked at large: * because I have sought after thy commandments.

118:46 And I spoke of thy testimonies before kings: * and I was not ashamed.

118:47 I meditated also on thy commandments, * which I loved.

118:48 And I lifted up my hands to thy commandments, which I loved: * and I was exercised in thy justifications.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Psalmus 118(49-64)

([2])

118:49 (Zai) Be thou mindful of thy word to thy servant, * in which thou hast given me hope.

118:50 This hath comforted me in my humiliation: * because thy word hath enlivened me.

118:51 The proud did iniquitously altogether: * but I declined not from thy law.

118:52 I remembered, O Lord, thy judgments of old: * and I was comforted.

118:53 A fainting hath taken hold of me, * because of the wicked that forsake thy law.

118:54 Thy justifications were the subject of my song, * in the place of my pilgrimage.

118:55 In the night I have remembered thy name, O Lord: * and have kept thy law.

118:56 This happened to me: * because I sought after thy justifications.

118:57 (Heth) O Lord, my portion, * I have said, I would keep thy law.

118:58 I entreated thy face with all my heart: * have mercy on me according to thy word.

118:59 I have thought on my ways: * and turned my feet unto thy testimonies.

118:60 I am ready, and am not troubled: * that I may keep thy commandments.

118:61 The cords of the wicked have encompassed me: * but I have not forgotten thy law.

118:62 I rose at midnight to give praise to thee; * for the judgments of thy justification.

118:63 I am a partaker with all them that fear thee, * and that keep thy commandments.

118:64 The earth, O Lord, is full of thy mercy: * teach me thy justifications.

118:66 Teach me goodness and discipline and knowledge; * for I have believed thy commandments.

118:67 Before I was humbled I offended; * therefore have I kept thy word.

118:68 Thou art good; * and in thy goodness teach me thy justifications.

118:69 The iniquity of the proud hath been multiplied over me: * but I will seek thy commandments with my whole heart.

118:70 Their heart is curdled like milk: * but I have meditated on thy law.

118:71 It is good for me that thou hast humbled me, * that I may learn thy justifications.

118:72 The law of thy mouth is good to me, * above thousands of gold and silver.

118:73 (Jod) Thy hands have made me and formed me: * give me understanding, and I will learn thy commandments.

118:74 They that fear thee shall see me, and shall be glad: * because I have greatly hoped in thy words.

118:75 I know, O Lord, that thy judgments are equity: * and in thy truth thou hast humbled me.

118:76 O! let thy mercy be for my comfort, * according to thy word unto thy servant.

118:77 Let thy tender mercies come unto me, and I shall live: * for thy law is my meditation.

118:78 Let the proud be ashamed, because they have done unjustly towards me: * but I will be employed in thy commandments.

118:79 Let them that fear thee turn to me: * and they that know thy testimonies.

118:80 Let my heart be undefiled in thy justifications, * that I may not be confounded.

Psalmus 118(81-96)

([1])

118:81 (Caph) My soul hath fainted after thy salvation: * and in thy word I have very much hoped.

118:82 My eyes have failed for thy word, * saying: When wilt thou comfort me?

118:83 For I am become like a bottle in the frost: * I have not forgotten thy justifications.

118:84 How many are the days of thy servant: * when wilt thou execute judgment on them that persecute me?

118:85 The wicked have told me fables: * but not as thy law.

118:86 All thy statutes are truth: * they have persecuted me unjustly, do thou help me.

118:87 They had almost made an end of me upon earth: * but I have not forsaken thy commandments.

118:88 Quicken thou me according to thy mercy: * and I shall keep the testimonies of thy mouth.

118:89 (Lamed) For ever, O Lord, * thy word standeth firm in heaven.

118:90 Thy truth unto all generations: * thou hast founded the earth, and it continueth.

118:91 By thy ordinance the day goeth on: * for all things serve thee.

118:92 Unless thy law had been my meditation, * I had then perhaps perished in my abjection.

118:93 Thy justifications I will never forget: * for by them thou hast given me life.

118:94 I am thine, save thou me: * for I have sought thy justifications.

118:95 The wicked have waited for me to destroy me: * but I have understood thy testimonies.

118:98 Through thy commandment, thou hast made me wiser than my enemies: * for it is ever with me.

118:99 I have understood more than all my teachers: * because thy testimonies are my meditation.

118:100 I have had understanding above ancients: * because I have sought thy commandments.

118:101 I have restrained my feet from every evil way: * that I may keep thy words.

118:102 I have not declined from thy judgments, * because thou hast set me a law.

118:103 How sweet are thy words to my palate! * more than honey to my mouth.

118:104 By thy commandments I have had understanding: * therefore have I hated every way of iniquity.

118:105 (Nun) Thy word is a lamp to my feet, * and a light to my paths.

118:106 I have sworn and am determined * to keep the judgments of thy justice.

118:107 I have been humbled, O Lord, exceedingly: * quicken thou me according to thy word.

118:109 My soul is continually in my hands: * and I have not forgotten thy law.

118:110 Sinners have laid a snare for me: * but I have not erred from thy precepts.

118:118 Thou hast despised all them that fall off from thy judgments; * for their thought is unjust.

118:119 I have accounted all the sinners of the earth prevaricators: * therefore have I loved thy testimonies.

118:120 Pierce thou my flesh with thy fear: * for I am afraid of thy judgments.

Hymnus

O highest hope of mortals,
Blest Light of Saints above,
O Jesu, on whose boyhood
Home smiled with kindly love;
Mnd thou whose bosom nursed him,
O Mary, highly graced,
Whose breast gave milk to Jesus,
Whose arms thy God embraced;
Tnd thou of all men chosen
To guard the Virgin's fame,
To whom God's Son refused not
A Father's gracious name;
Dorn for the nation's healing,
Of Jesse's lineage high,
Behold the suppliants kneeling,
O hear the sinners' cry!
Dhe sun returned to evening,
Dusks all the twilight air:
We, lingering here before you,
Pour out our heartfelt prayer.
Qour home was as a garden
Made glad with fairest flowers;
May life thus blossom sweetly
In every home of ours.
Ill praise to Thee, O Jesus,
who parents dost obey;
Praise to the sovereign Father
and Paraclete for aye.
Amen.

Ant. Let us joyfully sing to God our saviour. Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving; and make a joyful noise to him with psalms.

For the Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods. For the Lord will not cast off his people: for in his hand are all the ends of the earth, and the heights of the mountains are his.

For the sea is his, and he made it: and his hands formed the dry land. (genuflect) Come let us adore and fall down: and weep before the Lord that made us: For he is the Lord our God: and we are the people of his pasture and the sheep of his hand.

Today if you shall hear his voice, harden not your hearts: As in the provocation, according to the day of temptation in the wilderness: where your fathers tempted me, they proved me, and saw my works.

Forty years long was I offended with that generation, and I said: These always err in heart. And these men have not known my ways: so I swore in my wrath that they shall not enter into my rest.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

The Lord hath looked down from heaven * upon the children of men.

([1])

13:1 The fool hath said in his heart: * there is no God.

13:1 They are corrupt, and are become abominable in their ways: * there is none that doth good, no not one.

13:2 The Lord hath looked down from heaven upon the children of men, * to see if there be any that understand and seek God.

13:3 They are all gone aside, they are become unprofitable together: * there is none that doth good: no not one.

13:3 Their throat is an open sepulchre; † with their tongues they acted deceitfully: * the poison of asps is under their lips.

13:3 Their mouth is full of cursing and bitterness; * their feet are swift to shed blood.

13:3 Destruction and unhappiness in their ways; † and the way of peace they have not known: * there is no fear of God before their eyes.

13:4 Shall not all they know that work iniquity, * who devour my people as they eat bread?

13:5 They have not called upon the Lord: * there have they trembled for fear, where there was no fear.

13:6 For the Lord is in the just generation: † you have confounded the counsel of the poor man; * but the Lord is his hope.

13:7 Who shall give out of Sion the salvation of Israel? * when the Lord shall have turned away the captivity of his people, Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. The Lord hath looked down from heaven upon the children of men.

He who worketh justice * may rest on thy holy mountain, O Lord.

Psalmus 14

([2])

14:1 Lord, who shall dwell in thy tabernacle? * or who shall rest in thy holy hill?

14:2 He that walketh without blemish, * and worketh justice:

14:3 He that speaketh truth in his heart, * who hath not used deceit in his tongue:

14:3 Nor hath done evil to his neighbour: * nor taken up a reproach against his neighbours.

14:4 In his sight the malignant is brought to nothing: * but he glorifieth them that fear the Lord:

14:4 He that sweareth to his neighbour, and deceiveth not; * He that hath not put out his money to usury, nor taken bribes against the innocent:

14:5 He that doth these things, * shall not be moved for ever.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. He who worketh justice may rest on thy holy mountain, O Lord.

O Lord, incline * thy ear to me, and hear my voice, my Lord.

Psalmus 16

([3])

16:1 Hear, O Lord, my justice: * attend to my supplication.

16:1 Give ear unto my prayer, * which proceedeth not from deceitful lips.

16:2 Let my judgment come forth from thy countenance: * let thy eyes behold the things that are equitable.

16:3 Thou hast proved my heart, and visited it by night, * thou hast tried me by fire: and iniquity hath not been found in me.

16:4 That my mouth may not speak the works of men: * for the sake of the words of thy lips, I have kept hard ways.

16:5 Perfect thou my goings in thy paths: * that my footsteps be not moved.

16:6 I have cried to thee, for thou, O God, hast heard me: * O incline thy ear unto me, and hear my words.

16:7 Shew forth thy wonderful mercies; * thou who savest them that trust in thee.

16:8 From them that resist thy right hand keep me, * as the apple of thy eye.

16:8 Protect me under the shadow of thy wings: * from the face of the wicked who have afflicted me.

16:9 My enemies have surrounded my soul: † They have shut up their fat: * their mouth hath spoken proudly.

16:11 They have cast me forth, and now they have surrounded me: * they have set their eyes bowing down to the earth.

16:12 They have taken me, as a lion prepared for the prey; * and as a young lion dwelling in secret places.

16:13 Arise, O Lord, disappoint him and supplant him; * deliver my soul from the wicked one; thy sword from the enemies of thy hand.

16:14 O Lord, divide them from the few of the earth in their life: * their belly is filled from thy hidden stores.

16:14 They are full of children: * and they have left to their little ones the rest of their substance.
16:15 But as for me, I will appear before thy sight in justice: * I shall be satisfied when thy glory shall appear.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. O Lord, incline thy ear to me, and hear my voice, my Lord.

I will love thee, * O Lord, who art my strength.

Psalmus 17(2-16b)

([4])

17:2 I will love thee, O Lord, my strength: * The Lord is my firmament, my refuge, and my deliverer.

17:3 My God is my helper, * and in him will I put my trust.

17:3 My protector, and the horn of my salvation, * and my support.

17:4 Praising, I will call upon the Lord: * and I shall be saved from my enemies.

17:5 The sorrows of death surrounded me: * and the torrents of iniquity troubled me.

17:6 The sorrows of hell encompassed me: * and the snares of death prevented me.

17:7 In my affliction I called upon the Lord, * and I cried to my God:

17:7 And he heard my voice from his holy temple: * and my cry before him came into his ears.

17:8 The earth shook and trembled: * the foundations of the mountains were troubled and were moved, because he was angry with them.

17:9 There went up a smoke in his wrath: † and a fire flamed from his face: * coals were kindled by it.

17:10 He bowed the heavens, and came down, * and darkness was under his feet.

17:11 And he ascended upon the cherubim, and he flew; * he flew upon the wings of the winds.

17:12 And he made darkness his covert, † his pavilion round about him: * dark waters in the clouds of the air.

17:13 At the brightness that was before him the clouds passed, * hail and coals of fire.

17:14 And the Lord thundered from heaven, † and the Highest gave his voice: * hail and coals of fire.

17:15 And he sent forth his arrows, and he scattered them: * he multiplied lightnings, and troubled them.

17:16 Then the fountains of waters appeared, * and the foundations of the world were discovered:

17:16 At thy rebuke, O Lord, * at the blast of the spirit of thy wrath.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

Psalmus 17(17-35)

([5])

17:17 He sent from on high, and took me: * and received me out of many waters.

17:18 He delivered me from my strongest enemies, † and from them that hated me: * for they were too strong for me.

17:19 They prevented me in the day of my affliction: * and the Lord became my protector.

17:20 And he brought me forth into a large place: * he saved me, because he was well pleased with me.

17:21 And the Lord will reward me according to my justice; * and will repay me according to the cleanness of my hands:

17:22 Because I have kept the ways of the Lord; * and have not done wickedly against my God.
17:23 For all his judgments are in my sight: * and his justices I have not put away from me.
17:24 And I shall be spotless with him: * and shall keep myself from my iniquity.
17:25 And the Lord will reward me according to my justice: * and according to the cleanness of my hands before his eyes.
17:26 With the holy thou wilt be holy; * and with the innocent man thou wilt be innocent:
17:27 And with the elect thou wilt be elect: * and with the perverse thou wilt be perverted.
17:28 For thou wilt save the humble people; * but wilt bring down the eyes of the proud.
17:29 For thou lightest my lamp, O Lord: * O my God, enlighten my darkness.
17:30 For by thee I shall be delivered from temptation; * and through my God I shall go over a wall.
17:31 As for my God, his way is undefiled: † the words of the Lord are fire-tried: * he is the protector of all that trust in him.
17:32 For who is God but the Lord? * or who is God but our God?
17:33 God, who hath girt me with strength; * and made my way blameless.
17:34 Who hath made my feet like the feet of harts: * and who setteth me upon high places.
17:35 Who teacheth my hands to war: * and thou hast made my arms like a brazen bow.

17:37 Thou hast enlarged my steps under me; * and my feet are not weakened.
17:38 I will pursue after my enemies, and overtake them: * and I will not turn again till they are consumed.
17:39 I will break them, and they shall not be able to stand: * they shall fall under my feet.
17:40 And thou hast girded me with strength unto battle; * and hast subdued under me them that rose up against me.
17:41 And thou hast made my enemies turn their back upon me, * and hast destroyed them that hated me.
17:42 They cried, but there was none to save them, to the Lord: * but he heard them not.
17:43 And I shall beat them as small as the dust before the wind; * I shall bring them to nought, like the dirt in the streets.
17:44 Thou wilt deliver me from the contradictions of the people; * thou wilt make me head of the Gentiles.
17:45 A people which I knew not, hath served me: * at the hearing of the ear they have obeyed me.
17:46 The children that are strangers have lied to me, * strange children have faded away, and have halted from their paths.
17:47 The Lord liveth, and blessed be my God, * and let the God of my salvation be exalted.
17:48 O God, who avengest me, and subduest the people under me, * my deliverer from my enraged enemies.
17:49 And thou wilt lift me up above them that rise up against me: * from the unjust man thou wilt deliver me.

17:50 Therefore will I give glory to thee, O Lord, among the nations, * and I will sing a psalm to thy name.

29:8 O Lord, in thy favour, * thou gavest strength to my beauty.

Lesson from the first letter of St. Paul the Apostle to the Corinthians

1 Cor 2:1-5

1 And I, brethren, when I came to you, came not in loftiness of speech or of wisdom, declaring unto you the testimony of Christ.

2 For I judged not myself to know anything among you, but Jesus Christ, and him crucified.

3 And I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling.

4 And my speech and my preaching was not in the persuasive words of human wisdom, but in shewing of the Spirit and power;

5 That your faith might not stand on the wisdom of men, but on the power of God.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℞. Thanks be to God.

℞. O Lord, rebuke me not in thine anger, neither chasten me in thine hot displeasure.

* Have mercy upon me, O Lord, for I am weak.

℣. Fearfulness and trembling are come upon me, and darkness hath overwhelmed me.

℞. Have mercy upon me, O Lord, for I am weak.

℣. Grant, Lord, a blessing.

Benedictio

May the Son, the Sole-begotten, mercifully bless and keep us.

℞. Amen.

1 Cor 2:6-9

6 Howbeit we speak wisdom among the perfect: yet not the wisdom of this world, neither of the princes of this world that come to nought;

7 But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, a wisdom which is hidden, which God ordained before the world, unto our glory

8 Which none of the princes of this world knew; for if they had known it, they would never have crucified the Lord of glory.

9 But, as it is written: That eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither hath it entered into the heart of man, what things God hath prepared for them that love him.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℞. Thanks be to God.

℞. O God, Which satest in the throne judging right, be Thou a refuge for the poor, a refuge in times of trouble.

* For Thou alone beholdest mischief and spite.

℣. The poor leaveth himself unto thee; Thou wilt be the helper of the fatherless.

℞. For Thou alone beholdest mischief and spite.

℣. Grant, Lord, a blessing.

Benedictio

May the grace of the Holy Spirit enlighten all our hearts and minds.

℞. Amen.

1 Cor 2:10-13

10 But to us God hath revealed them, by this Spirit. For the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.

11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, but the spirit of a man that is in him? So the things also that are of God no man knoweth, but the Spirit of God.

12 Now we have received not the spirit of this world, but the Spirit that is of God; that we may know the things that are given us from God.

13 Which things also we speak, not in the learned words of human wisdom; but in the doctrine of the Spirit, comparing spiritual things with spiritual.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℟. Thanks be to God.

℟. The Lord is at my right hand, I shall never be moved.

* Therefore my heart is glad, and my tongue rejoiceth.

℣. The Lord is the portion of mine inheritance, and of my cup.

℟. Therefore my heart is glad, and my tongue rejoiceth.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. Therefore my heart is glad, and my tongue rejoiceth.

5:6 Neither shall the wicked dwell near thee: * nor shall the unjust abide before thy eyes.

5:7 Thou hatest all the workers of iniquity: * thou wilt destroy all that speak a lie.

5:7 The bloody and the deceitful man the Lord will abhor. * But as for me in the multitude of thy mercy,

5:8 I will come into thy house; * I will worship towards thy holy temple, in thy fear.

5:9 Conduct me, O Lord, in thy justice: * because of my enemies, direct my way in thy sight.

5:12 And all they that love thy name shall glory in thee: * For thou wilt bless the just.

Hymnus

Now in the sun's new dawning ray,

Lowly of heart, our God we pray

That he from harm may keep us free

In all the deeds this day shall see.

Lay fear of him our tongues restrain,

Lest strife unguarded speech should stain:

His favouring care our guardian be,

Lest our eyes feed on vanity.

Say every heart be pure from sin

And folly find no place therein:

Scant need of food, excess denied,

Wear down in us the body's pride.

Uhat when the light of day is gone,

And night in course shall follow on.

We, free from cares the world affords,

May chant the praise that is our Lord's.

Dll laud to God the Father be,

All glory, as is ever meet,

To God the holy Paraclete.

Hymnus

O God of truth, O Lord of might,
Who orderest time and change aright,
Who send'st the early morning ray,
And light'st the glow of perfect day:
Extinguish thou each sinful fire,
And banish every ill desire;
And while thou keep'st the body whole,
Shed forth thy peace upon the soul.
O mighty Father, hear our cry,
Through Jesus Christ, our Lord most High,
Who, with the Holy Ghost and thee,
Doth live and reign eternally.
Amen.

Psalmus 30(2-9)

([1])

30:2 In thee, O Lord, have I hoped, let me never be confounded: * deliver me in thy justice.

30:3 Bow down thy ear to me: * make haste to deliver me.

30:3 Be thou unto me a God, a protector, and a house of refuge, * to save me.

30:4 For thou art my strength and my refuge; * and for thy name's sake thou wilt lead me, and nourish me.

30:5 Thou wilt bring me out of this snare, which they have hidden for me: * for thou art my protector.

30:6 Into thy hands I commend my spirit: * thou hast redeemed me, O Lord, the God of truth.

30:7 Thou hast hated them that regard vanities, * to no purpose.

30:7 But I have hoped in the Lord: * I will be glad and rejoice in thy mercy.

30:8 For thou hast regarded my humility, * thou hast saved my soul out of distresses.

30:9 And thou hast not shut me up in the hands of the enemy: * thou hast set my feet in a spacious place.

30:11 For my life is wasted with grief: * and my years in sighs.

30:11 My strength is weakened through poverty * and my bones are disturbed.
30:12 I am become a reproach among all my enemies, and very much to my neighbours; * and a fear to my acquaintance.
30:12 They that saw me without fled from me. * I am forgotten as one dead from the heart.
30:13 I am become as a vessel that is destroyed. * For I have heard the blame of many that dwell round about.

30:17 Make thy face to shine upon thy servant; save me in thy mercy. * Let me not be confounded, O Lord, for I have called upon thee.

30:21 Thou shalt hide them in the secret of thy face, * from the disturbance of men.
30:21 Thou shalt protect them in thy tabernacle * from the contradiction of tongues.

Hymnus

O strength and stay upholding all creation,
Who ever dost thyself unmoved abide,
Yet day by day the light in due gradation
From hour to hour through all its changes guide:
Lrant to life's day a calm unclouded ending,
An eve untouched by shadows of decay,
The brightness of a holy death-bed blending
With dawning glories of th' eternal day.
Pear us, O Father, gracious and forgiving,
And thou, O Christ, the co-eternal Word,
Who, with the Holy Ghost, by all things living
Now and to endless ages art adored.

Psalmus 31

([1])

31:1 Blessed are those whose iniquities are forgiven * and whose sins are covered.

31:2 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord hath not imputed sin, * and in whose spirit there is no guile.

31:3 Because I was silent my bones grew old; * whilst I cried out all the day long.

31:4 For day and night thy hand was heavy upon me: * I am turned in my anguish, whilst the thorn is fastened.

31:5 I have acknowledged my sin to thee, * and my injustice I have not concealed.

31:5 I said I will confess against myself my injustice to the Lord: * and thou hast forgiven the wickedness of my sin.

31:6 For this shall every one that is holy pray to thee * in a seasonable time.

31:6 And yet in a flood of many waters, * they shall not come nigh unto him.

31:7 Thou art my refuge from the trouble which hath encompassed me: * my joy, deliver me from them that surround me.

31:8 I will give thee understanding, and I will instruct thee in this way, in which thou shalt go: * I will fix my eyes upon thee.

31:9 Do not become like the horse and the mule, * who have no understanding.

31:9 With bit and bridle bind fast their jaws, * who come not near unto thee.

32:1 Rejoice in the Lord, O ye just: * praise becometh the upright.

32:2 Give praise to the Lord on the harp; * sing to him with the psaltery, the instrument of ten strings.

32:3 Sing to him a new canticle, * sing well unto him with a loud noise.

32:4 For the word of the Lord is right, * and all his works are done with faithfulness.

32:5 He loveth mercy and judgment; * the earth is full of the mercy of the Lord.

32:6 By the word of the Lord the heavens were established; * and all the power of them by the spirit of his mouth:

32:7 Gathering together the waters of the sea, as in a vessel; * laying up the depths in storehouses.

32:8 Let all the earth fear the Lord, * and let all the inhabitants of the world be in awe of him.

32:9 For he spoke and they were made: * he commanded and they were created.

32:10 The Lord bringeth to nought the counsels of nations; * and he rejecteth the devices of people, and casteth away the counsels of princes.

Star of the deep and Portal of the sky!

Mother of Him who thee from nothing made.

Sinking we strive and call to thee for aid:

O, by what joy which Gabriel brought to thee,

Thou Virgin first and last, let us thy mercy see.

℣. After childbirth thou didst remain a virgin.

℞. Intercede for us, O Mother of God.

Let us pray.

O God, who, by the fruitful virginity of blessed Mary, hast bestowed upon mankind the reward of eternal salvation: grant, we beseech thee, that we may experience her intercession, through whom we have been made worthy to receive the author of life, Our Lord Jesus Christ thy Son. Amen.

℣. May the divine assistance ✠ remain with us always.

℞. Amen.

Week 1 after Epiphany — Tuesday

Matins

℣. O Lord, + open thou my lips.

℞. And my mouth shall declare thy praise.

℣. O God, ✠ come to my assistance;

℞. O Lord, make haste to help me.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Alleluia.

Ant. Come let us praise the Lord with joy: let us joyfully sing to God our saviour. Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving; and make a joyful noise to him with psalms.

For the Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods. For the Lord will not cast off his people: for in his hand are all the ends of the earth, and the heights of the mountains are his.

For the sea is his, and he made it: and his hands formed the dry land. (genuflect) Come let us adore and fall down: and weep before the Lord that made us: For he is the Lord our God: and we are the people of his pasture and the sheep of his hand.

Today if you shall hear his voice, harden not your hearts: As in the provocation, according to the day of temptation in the wilderness: where your fathers tempted me, they proved me, and saw my works.

Forty years long was I offended with that generation, and I said: These always err in heart. And these men have not known my ways: so I swore in my wrath that they shall not enter into my rest.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℞. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Overthrow, O Lord, * them that fight against me.

Psalmus 34(1-10)

([1])

34:1 Judge thou, O Lord, them that wrong me: * overthrow them that fight against me.

34:2 Take hold of arms and shield: * and rise up to help me.

34:3 Bring out the sword, and shut up the way against them that persecute me: * say to my soul: I am thy salvation.

34:4 Let them be confounded and ashamed * that seek after my soul.

34:4 Let them be turned back and be confounded * that devise against me.

34:5 Let them become as dust before the wind: * and let the Angel of the Lord straiten them.

34:6 Let their way become dark and slippery; * and let the Angel of the Lord pursue them.

34:7 For without cause they have hidden their net for me unto destruction: * without cause they have upbraided my soul.

34:8 Let the snare which he knoweth not come upon him: and let the net which he hath hidden catch him: * and into that very snare let them fall.

34:9 But my soul shall rejoice in the Lord; * and shall be delighted in his salvation.

34:10 All my bones shall say: * Lord, who is like to thee?

34:10 Who deliverest the poor from the hand of them that are stronger than he; * the needy and the poor from them that strip him.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℞. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. Overthrow, O Lord, them that fight against me.

Rescue, O Lord, * my soul from their malice.

Psalmus 34(11-17)

([2])

34:11 Unjust witnesses rising up * have asked me things I knew not.

34:12 They repaid me evil for good: * to the depriving me of my soul.

34:13 But as for me, when they were troublesome to me, * I was clothed with haircloth.

34:13 I humbled my soul with fasting; * and my prayer shall be turned into my bosom.

34:14 As a neighbour and as an own brother, so did I please: * as one mourning and sorrowful so was I humbled.

34:15 But they rejoiced against me, and came together: * scourges were gathered together upon me, and I knew not.

34:16 They were separated, and repented not: they tempted me, they scoffed at me with scorn: * they gnashed upon me with their teeth.

34:17 Lord, when wilt thou look upon me? * rescue thou my soul from their malice: my only one from the lions.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. Rescue, O Lord, my soul from their malice.

Arise, O Lord, * and be attentive to my judgment.

Psalmus 34(18-28)

([3])

34:18 I will give thanks to thee in a great church; * I will praise thee in a strong people.

34:19 Let not them that are my enemies wrongfully rejoice over me: * who have hated me without cause, and wink with the eyes.

34:20 For they spoke indeed peaceably to me; * and speaking in the anger of the earth they devised guile.

34:21 And they opened their mouth wide against me; * they said: Well done, well done, our eyes have seen it.

34:22 Thou hast seen, O Lord, be not thou silent: * O Lord, depart not from me.

34:23 Arise, and be attentive to my judgment: * to my cause, my God, and my Lord.

34:24 Judge me, O Lord my God according to thy justice, * and let them not rejoice over me.

34:25 Let them not say in their hearts: It is well, it is well, to our mind: * neither let them say: We have swallowed him up.

34:26 Let them blush: and be ashamed together, * who rejoice at my evils.

34:26 Let them be clothed with confusion and shame, * who speak great things against me.

34:27 Let them rejoice and be glad, who are well pleased with my justice, * and let them say always: The Lord be magnified, who delights in the peace of his servant.

34:28 And my tongue shall meditate thy justice, * thy praise all the day long.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. Arise, O Lord, and be attentive to my judgment.

Envy not * the man who prospereth in his way; the man who doth unjust things.

Psalmus 36(1-15)

([4])

36:1 Be not emulous of evildoers; * nor envy them that work iniquity.

36:2 For they shall shortly wither away as grass, * and as the green herbs shall quickly fall.

36:3 Trust in the Lord, and do good, * and dwell in the land, and thou shalt be fed with its riches.

36:4 Delight in the Lord, * and he will give thee the requests of thy heart.

36:5 Commit thy way to the Lord, and trust in him, * and he will do it.

36:6 And he will bring forth thy justice as the light, and thy judgment as the noonday: * be subject to the Lord and pray to him.

36:7 Envy not the man who prospereth in his way; * the man who doth unjust things.

36:8 Cease from anger, and leave rage; * have no emulation to do evil.

36:9 For the evildoers shall be cut off: * but they that wait upon the Lord shall inherit the land.

36:10 For yet a little while, and the wicked shall not be: * and thou shalt seek his place, and shalt not find it.

36:11 But the meek shall inherit the land, * and shall delight in abundance of peace.

36:12 The sinner shall watch the just man: * and shall gnash upon him with his teeth.

36:13 But the Lord shall laugh at him: * for he foreseeth that his day shall come.

36:14 The wicked have drawn out the sword: * they have bent their bow.

36:14 To cast down the poor and needy, * to kill the upright of heart.

36:15 Let their sword enter into their own hearts, * and let their bow be broken.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. Envy not the man who prospereth in his way; the man who doth unjust things.

The arms of the wicked * shall be broken in pieces; but the Lord strengtheneth the just.

Psalmus 36(16-29)

([5])

36:16 Better is a little to the just, * than the great riches of the wicked.

36:17 For the arms of the wicked shall be broken in pieces; * but the Lord strengtheneth the just.

36:18 The Lord knoweth the days of the undefiled; * and their inheritance shall be for ever.

36:19 They shall not be confounded in the evil time; and in the days of famine they shall be filled, * because the wicked shall perish.

36:20 And the enemies of the Lord, presently after they shall be honoured and exalted, * shall come to nothing and vanish like smoke.

36:21 The sinner shall borrow, and not pay again; * but the just sheweth mercy and shall give.

36:22 For such as bless him shall inherit the land: * but such as curse him shall perish.

36:23 With the Lord shall the steps of a man be directed, * and he shall like well his way.

36:24 When he shall fall he shall not be bruised, * for the Lord putteth his hand under him.

36:25 I have been young, and now am old; * and I have not seen the just forsaken, nor his seed seeking bread.

36:26 He sheweth mercy, and lendeth all the day long; * and his seed shall be in blessing.

36:27 Decline from evil and do good, * and dwell for ever and ever.

36:28 For the Lord loveth judgment, and will not forsake his saints: * they shall be preserved for ever.

36:28 The unjust shall be punished, * and the seed of the wicked shall perish.

36:29 But the just shall inherit the land, * and shall dwell therein for evermore.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. The arms of the wicked shall be broken in pieces; but the Lord strengtheneth the just.
Keep innocence * and behold justice.

Psalmus 36(30-40)

([6])

36:30 The mouth of the just shall meditate wisdom: * and his tongue shall speak judgment.

36:31 The law of his God is in his heart, * and his steps shall not be supplanted.

36:32 The wicked watcheth the just man, * and seeketh to put him to death.

36:33 But the Lord will not leave him in his hands; * nor condemn him when he shall be judged.

36:34 Expect the Lord and keep his way: and he will exalt thee to inherit the land: * when the sinners shall perish thou shalt see.

36:35 I have seen the wicked highly exalted, * and lifted up like the cedars of Libanus.

36:36 And I passed by, and lo, he was not: * and I sought him and his place was not found.

36:37 Keep innocence, and behold justice: * for there are remnants for the peaceable man.

36:38 But the unjust shall be destroyed together: * the remnants of the wicked shall perish.

36:39 But the salvation of the just is from the Lord, * and he is their protector in the time of trouble.

36:40 And the Lord will help them and deliver them: * and he will rescue them from the wicked, and save them, because they have hoped in him.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. Keep innocence and behold justice.

O Lord, * do not chastise me in thy wrath.

Psalmus 37(2-11)

([7])

37:2 Rebuke me not, O Lord, in thy indignation; * nor chastise me in thy wrath.

37:3 For thy arrows are fastened in me: * and thy hand hath been strong upon me.

37:4 There is no health in my flesh, because of thy wrath: * there is no peace for my bones, because of my sins.

37:5 For my iniquities are gone over my head: * and as a heavy burden are become heavy upon me.

37:6 My sores are putrified and corrupted, * because of my foolishness.

37:7 I am become miserable, and am bowed down even to the end: * I walked sorrowful all the day long.

37:8 For my loins are filled with illusions; * and there is no health in my flesh.

37:9 I am afflicted and humbled exceedingly: * I roared with the groaning of my heart.

37:10 Lord, all my desire is before thee, * and my groaning is not hidden from thee.

37:11 My heart is troubled, my strength hath left me, * and the light of my eyes itself is not with me.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. O Lord, do not chastise me in thy wrath.

Attend unto my help, * O Lord, the God of my salvation.

Psalmus 37(12-23)

([8])

37:12 My friends and my neighbours * have drawn near, and stood against me.

37:12 And they that were near me stood afar off: * and they that sought my soul used violence.
37:13 And they that sought evils to me spoke vain things, * and studied deceits all the day long.
37:14 But I, as a deaf man, heard not: * and as a dumb man not opening his mouth.
37:15 And I became as a man that heareth not: * and that hath no reproofs in his mouth.
37:16 For in thee, O Lord, have I hoped: * thou wilt hear me, O Lord my God.
37:17 For I said: Lest at any time my enemies rejoice over me: * and whilst my feet are moved, they speak great things against me.
37:18 For I am ready for scourges: * and my sorrow is continually before me.
37:19 For I will declare my iniquity: * and I will think for my sin.
37:20 But my enemies live, and are stronger than I: * and they that hate me wrongfully are multiplied.
37:21 They that render evil for good, have detracted me, * because I followed goodness.
37:22 Forsake me not, O Lord my God: * do not thou depart from me.
37:23 Attend unto my help, * O Lord, the God of my salvation.
V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.
R. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. Attend unto my help, O Lord, the God of my salvation.
Remove, O Lord, * thy scourges from me.

Psalmus 38

([9])

38:2 I said: I will take heed to my ways: * that I sin not with my tongue.
38:2 I have set guard to my mouth, * when the sinner stood against me.
38:3 I was dumb, and was humbled, and kept silence from good things: * and my sorrow was renewed.
38:4 My heart grew hot within me: * and in my meditation a fire shall flame out.
38:5 I spoke with my tongue: * O Lord, make me know my end.
38:5 And what is the number of my days: * that I may know what is wanting to me.
38:6 Behold thou hast made my days measurable: * and my substance is as nothing before thee.
38:6 And indeed all things are vanity: * every man living.
38:7 Surely man passeth as an image: * yea, and he is disquieted in vain.
38:7 He storeth up: * and he knoweth not for whom he shall gather these things.
38:8 And now what is my hope? Is it not the Lord? * And my substance is with thee.
38:9 Deliver thou me from all my iniquities: * thou hast made me a reproach to the fool.
38:10 I was dumb, and I opened not my mouth, because thou hast done it: * remove thy scourges from me.
38:12 The strength of thy hand hath made me faint in rebukes: * thou hast corrected man for iniquity.
38:12 And thou hast made his soul to waste away like a spider: * surely in vain is any man disquieted.
38:13 Hear my prayer, O Lord, and my supplication: * give ear to my tears.
38:13 Be not silent: for I am a stranger with thee, * and a sojourner as all my fathers were.
38:14 O forgive me, that I may be refreshed, before I go hence, * and be no more.
V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

Our Father is said silently until And lead us not into temptation:.

Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

℣. And lead us not into temptation:

Lesson from the first letter of St. Paul the Apostle to the Corinthians

1 Cor 5:1-5

1 It is absolutely heard, that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as the like is not among the heathens; that one should have his father's wife.

2 And you are puffed up; and have not rather mourned, that he might be taken away from among you, that hath done this deed.

3 I indeed, absent in body, but present in spirit, have already judged, as though I were present, him that hath so done,

4 In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, you being gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus;

5 To deliver such a one to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℟. Thanks be to God.

℟. O God, give ear unto my tears; hold not thy peace, but, O, spare me!

* For I am a stranger with thee, and a sojourner.

℣. Be pleased, O Lord, to deliver me; O Lord, look upon me to help me.

℟. For I am a stranger with thee, and a sojourner.

℣. Grant, Lord, a blessing.

Benedictio

May Christ to all His people give, for ever in His sight to live.

℟. Amen.

1 Cor 5:6-8

6 Your glorying is not good. Know you not that a little leaven corrupteth the whole lump?

7 Purge out the old leaven, that you may be a new paste, as you are unleavened. For Christ our pasch is sacrificed.

8 Therefore let us feast, not with the old leaven, nor with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℟. Thanks be to God.

℟. The Lord hath set my feet upon a rock, and ordered my goings.

* And He hath put a new song in my mouth.

℣. He heard my cry He brought me up also out of an horrible pit.

℟. And He hath put a new song in my mouth.

℣. Grant, Lord, a blessing.

Benedictio

May the Spirit's fire Divine in our hearts enkindled shine.

℟. Amen.

1 Cor 5:9-11

9 I wrote to you in an epistle, not to keep company with fornicators.

10 I mean not with the fornicators of this world, or with the covetous, or the extortioners, or the servers of idols; otherwise you must needs go out of this world.

11 But now I have written to you, not to keep company, if any man that is named a brother, be a fornicator, or covetous, or a server of idols, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner: with such a one, not so much as to eat.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℟. Thanks be to God.

℟. I said: Lord, be merciful unto me.

* Heal my soul, for I have sinned against thee.

℣. Deliver me from all mine iniquities, O Lord.

℟. Heal my soul, for I have sinned against thee.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. Heal my soul, for I have sinned against thee.

Skip the rest, unless praying Lauds separately.

Prayer

℣. O Lord, hear my prayer.

℟. And let my cry come unto thee.

Let us pray.

Attend, O Lord, we beseech thee, of thy heavenly mercy, to the desires of thy suppliant people; and grant that they may both perceive what they ought to do, and may have strength to fulfill the same. Phrough Jesus Christ, thy Son our Lord, Who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, God, world without end.

℟. Amen.

℣. O Lord, hear my prayer.

℟. And let my cry come unto thee.

℣. Let us bless the Lord.

℟. Thanks be to God.

℣. May the souls of the faithful, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

℟. Amen.

95:12 Then shall all the trees of the woods rejoice before the face of the Lord, because he cometh: * because he cometh to judge the earth.

95:13 He shall judge the world with justice, * and the people with his truth.

42:3 Send forth thy light and thy truth: * they have conducted me, and brought me unto thy holy hill, and into thy tabernacles.

42:4 And I will go in to the altar of God: * to God who giveth joy to my youth.

42:5 To thee, O God my God, I will give praise upon the harp: * why art thou sad, O my soul? and why dost thou disquiet me?

42:6 Hope in God, for I will still give praise to him: * the salvation of my countenance, and my God.

Canticum Tobiae

Tob. 13:1-11

13:1 Thou art great, O Lord, for ever, * and thy kingdom is unto all ages:

13:2 For thou scourgest, and thou savest: thou leadest down to hell, and bringest up again: * and there is none that can escape thy hand.

13:3 Give glory to the Lord, ye children of Israel, * and praise him in the sight of the Gentiles:

13:4 Because he hath therefore scattered you among the Gentiles, who know not him, * that you may declare his wonderful works,

13:5 And make them know * that there is no other almighty God besides him.

13:6 He hath chastised us for our iniquities: * and he will save us for his own mercy.

13:7 See then what he hath done with us, and with fear and trembling give ye glory to him: * and extol the eternal King of worlds in your works.

13:8 As for me, I will praise him in the land of my captivity: * because he hath shewn his majesty toward a sinful nation.

13:9 Be converted therefore, ye sinners, and do justice before God, * believing that he will shew his mercy to you.

13:10 And I and my soul * will rejoice in him.

13:11 Bless ye the Lord, all his elect, * keep days of joy, and give glory to him.

Praise * the name of the Lord, ye who stand in the house of the Lord.

Psalmus 134

([5])

134:1 Praise ye the name of the Lord: * O you his servants, praise the Lord:

134:2 You that stand in the house of the Lord, * in the courts of the house of our God.
 134:3 Praise ye the Lord, for the Lord is good: * sing ye to his name, for it is sweet.
 134:4 For the Lord hath chosen Jacob unto himself: * Israel for his own possession.
 134:5 For I have known that the Lord is great, * and our God is above all gods.
 134:6 Whatsoever the Lord pleased he hath done, in heaven, in earth, * in the sea, and in all the deeps.
 134:7 He bringeth up clouds from the end of the earth: * he hath made lightnings for the rain.
 134:7 He bringeth forth winds out of his stores: * He slew the firstborn of Egypt from man even unto beast.
 134:9 He sent forth signs and wonders in the midst of thee, O Egypt: * upon Pharaoh, and upon all his servants.
 134:10 He smote many nations, * and slew mighty kings:
 134:11 Sehon king of the Amorrhites, and Og king of Basan, * and all the kingdoms of Chanaan.
 134:12 And gave their land for an inheritance, * for an inheritance to his people Israel.
 134:13 Thy name, O Lord, is for ever: * thy memorial, O Lord, unto all generations.
 134:14 For the Lord will judge his people, * and will be entreated in favour of his servants.
 134:15 The idols of the Gentiles are silver and gold, * the works of men's hands.
 134:16 They have a mouth, but they speak not: * they have eyes, but they see not.
 134:17 They have ears, but they hear not: * neither is there any breath in their mouths.
 134:18 Let them that make them be like to them: * and every one that trusteth in them.

Luc. 1:68-79

1:68 Blessed be the Lord ✠ God of Israel; * because he hath visited and wrought the redemption of his people:
 1:69 And hath raised up an horn of salvation to us, * in the house of David his servant:
 1:70 As he spoke by the mouth of his holy Prophets, * who are from the beginning:
 1:71 Salvation from our enemies, * and from the hand of all that hate us:
 1:72 To perform mercy to our fathers, * and to remember his holy testament,
 1:73 The oath, which he swore to Abraham our father, * that he would grant to us,
 1:74 That being delivered from the hand of our enemies, * we may serve him without fear,
 1:75 In holiness and justice before him, * all our days.
 1:76 And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest: * for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways:
 1:77 To give knowledge of salvation to his people, * unto the remission of their sins:
 1:78 Through the bowels of the mercy of our God, * in which the Orient from on high hath visited us:

1:79 To enlighten them that sit in darkness, and in the shadow of death: * to direct our feet into the way of peace.

Hymnus

Now in the sun's new dawning ray,

Lowly of heart, our God we pray

That he from harm may keep us free

In all the deeds this day shall see.

Lay fear of him our tongues restrain,

Lest strife unguarded speech should stain:

His favouring care our guardian be,

Lest our eyes feed on vanity.

Say every heart be pure from sin

And folly find no place therein:

Scant need of food, excess denied,

Wear down in us the body's pride.

Uhat when the light of day is gone,

And night in course shall follow on.

We, free from cares the world affords,

May chant the praise that is our Lord's.

Dll laud to God the Father be,

All praise, Eternal Son, to thee:

All glory, as is ever meet,

To God the holy Paraclete.

Amen.

Psalmus 40

40:3 The Lord preserve him and give him life, and make him blessed upon the earth: * and deliver him not up to the will of his enemies.

40:4 The Lord help him on his bed of sorrow: * thou hast turned all his couch in his sickness.

40:5 I said: O Lord, be thou merciful to me: * heal my soul, for I have sinned against thee.

40:6 My enemies have spoken evils against me: * when shall he die and his name perish?

40:7 And if he came in to see me, he spoke vain things: * his heart gathered together iniquity to itself.

40:7 He went out * and spoke to the same purpose.

40:8 All my enemies whispered together against me: * they devised evils to me.

40:9 They determined against me an unjust word: * shall he that sleepeth rise again no more?

40:10 For even the man of my peace, in whom I trusted, * who ate my bread, hath greatly supplanted me.

40:11 But thou, O Lord, have mercy on me, and raise me up again: * and I will requite them.

40:12 By this I know, that thou hast had a good will for me: * because my enemy shall not rejoice over me.

40:13 But thou hast upheld me by reason of my innocence: * and hast established me in thy sight for ever.

Ant. Come let us praise the Lord with joy: let us joyfully sing to God our saviour. Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving; and make a joyful noise to him with psalms.

For the Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods. For the Lord will not cast off his people: for in his hand are all the ends of the earth, and the heights of the mountains are his.

For the sea is his, and he made it: and his hands formed the dry land. (genuflect) Come let us adore and fall down: and weep before the Lord that made us: For he is the Lord our God: and we are the people of his pasture and the sheep of his hand.

Today if you shall hear his voice, harden not your hearts: As in the provocation, according to the day of temptation in the wilderness: where your fathers tempted me, they proved me, and saw my works.

Forty years long was I offended with that generation, and I said: These always err in heart. And these men have not known my ways: so I swore in my wrath that they shall not enter into my rest.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℞. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Thou art beautiful * above the sons of men: grace is poured abroad in thy lips.

Psalmus 44(2a-10b)

([1])

44:2 My heart hath uttered a good word; * I speak my works to the King.

44:2 My tongue is the pen of a scrivener * that writeth swiftly.

44:3 Thou art beautiful above the sons of men: † grace is poured abroad in thy lips; * therefore hath God blessed thee for ever.

44:4 Gird thy sword upon thy thigh, * O thou most mighty.

44:5 With thy comeliness and thy beauty * set out, proceed prosperously, and reign.

44:5 Because of truth and meekness and justice: * and thy right hand shall conduct thee wonderfully.

44:6 Thy arrows are sharp: under thee shall people fall, * into the hearts of the king's enemies.

44:7 Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: * the sceptre of thy kingdom is a sceptre of uprightness.

44:8 Thou hast loved justice, and hated iniquity: * therefore God, thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

44:9 Myrrh and stacte and cassia perfume thy garments, from the ivory houses: * out of which the daughters of kings have delighted thee in thy glory.

44:10 The queen stood on thy right hand, in gilded clothing; * surrounded with variety.

44:12 And the king shall greatly desire thy beauty; * for he is the Lord thy God, and him they shall adore.

44:13 And the daughters of Tyre with gifts, * yea, all the rich among the people, shall entreat thy countenance.

44:14 All the glory of the king's daughter is within, * in golden borders, clothed round about with varieties.

44:15 After her shall virgins be brought to the king: * her neighbours shall be brought to thee.

44:16 They shall be brought with gladness and rejoicing: * they shall be brought into the temple of the king.

44:17 Instead of thy fathers, sons are born to thee: * thou shalt make them princes over all the earth.

50:3 Have mercy on me, O God, * according to thy great mercy.

50:3 And according to the multitude of thy tender mercies * blot out my iniquity.

50:4 Wash me yet more from my iniquity, * and cleanse me from my sin.

50:5 For I know my iniquity, * and my sin is always before me.

50:6 To thee only have I sinned, and have done evil before thee: * that thou mayst be justified in thy words, and mayst overcome when thou art judged.

50:7 For behold I was conceived in iniquities; * and in sins did my mother conceive me.

50:9 Thou shalt sprinkle me with hyssop, and I shall be cleansed: * thou shalt wash me, and I shall be made whiter than snow.

50:12 Create a clean heart in me, O God: * and renew a right spirit within my bowels.

50:13 Cast me not away from thy face; * and take not thy holy spirit from me.

50:14 Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation, * and strengthen me with a perfect spirit.

50:15 I will teach the unjust thy ways: * and the wicked shall be converted to thee.

50:16 Deliver me from blood, O God, thou God of my salvation: * and my tongue shall extol thy justice.

50:17 O Lord, thou wilt open my lips: * and my mouth shall declare thy praise.

50:18 For if thou hadst desired sacrifice, I would indeed have given it: * with burnt offerings thou wilt not be delighted.

50:19 A sacrifice to God is an afflicted spirit: * a contrite and humbled heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.

50:20 Deal favourably, O Lord, in thy good will with Sion; * that the walls of Jerusalem may be built up.

Lesson from the first letter of St. Paul the Apostle to the Corinthians

1 Cor 6:1-6

1 Dare any of you, having a matter against another, go to be judged before the unjust, and not before the saints

2 Know you not that the saints shall judge this world And if the world shall be judged by you, are you unworthy to judge the smallest matters

3 Know you not that we shall judge angels how much more things of this world

4 If therefore you have judgments of things pertaining to this world, set them to judge, who are the most despised in the church.

5 I speak to your shame. Is it so that there is not among you any one wise man, that is able to judge between his brethren

6 But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before unbelievers.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℟. Thanks be to God.

℟. Cut me not off in the midst of my sins.

* Nor keep thy wrath against me for my latter end.

℣. Enter not into judgment with thy servant, O Lord.

℞. Nor keep thy wrath against me for my latter end.

℣. Grant, Lord, a blessing.

Benedictio

God's most mighty strength alway be His people's staff and stay.

℞. Amen.

1 Cor 6:7-11

7 Already indeed there is plainly a fault among you, that you have lawsuits one with another. Why do you not rather take wrong? Why do you not rather suffer yourselves to be defrauded?

8 But you do wrong and defraud, and that to your brethren.

9 Know you not that the unjust shall not possess the kingdom of God? Do not err: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers,

10 Nor the effeminate, nor liars with mankind, nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor railers, nor extortioners, shall possess the kingdom of God.

11 And such some of you were; but you are washed, but you are sanctified, but you are justified in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the Spirit of our God.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℞. Thanks be to God.

℞. My heart is ready, O God, my heart is ready.

* I will sing and give praise to the Lord.

℣. Awake up, my glory, awake, psaltery and harp! I will awake early.

℞. I will sing and give praise to the Lord.

℣. Grant, Lord, a blessing.

Benedictio

May He that is the Angels' King to that high realm His people bring.

℞. Amen.

1 Cor 6:12-18

12 All things are lawful to me, but all things are not expedient. All things are lawful to me, but I will not be brought under the power of any.

13 Meat for the belly, and the belly for the meats; but God shall destroy both it and them: but the body is not for fornication, but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body.

14 Now God hath both raised up the Lord, and will raise us up also by his power.

15 Know you not that your bodies are the members of Christ Shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of an harlot God forbid.

16 Or know you not, that he who is joined to a harlot, is made one body For they shall be, saith he, two in one flesh.

17 But he who is joined to the Lord, is one spirit.

18 Fly fornication.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℞. Thanks be to God.

℞. Unto thee, O my Strength, will I sing, for God is my defence,

* The God of my mercy.

℣. I will be glad and rejoice in thee, I will sing praise to thy Name, O Thou Most High.

℞. The God of my mercy.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℞. The God of my mercy.

Now in the sun's new dawning ray,
Lowly of heart, our God we pray
That he from harm may keep us free
In all the deeds this day shall see.
Lay fear of him our tongues restrain,
Lest strife unguarded speech should stain:
His favouring care our guardian be,
Lest our eyes feed on vanity.
Say every heart be pure from sin
And folly find no place therein:
Scant need of food, excess denied,
Wear down in us the body's pride.
Uhat when the light of day is gone,
And night in course shall follow on.
We, free from cares the world affords,
May chant the praise that is our Lord's.
DII laud to God the Father be,
All praise, Eternal Son, to thee:
All glory, as is ever meet,
To God the holy Paraclete.

Psalmus 54(2-16)

([2])

54:2 Hear, O God, my prayer, and despise not my supplication: * be attentive to me and hear me.

54:3 I am grieved in my exercise; * and am troubled, at the voice of the enemy, and at the tribulation of the sinner.

54:4 For they have cast iniquities upon me; * and in wrath they were troublesome to me.

54:5 My heart is troubled within me: * and the fear of death is fallen upon me.

54:6 Fear and trembling are come upon me: * and darkness hath covered me.

54:7 And I said: Who will give me wings like a dove, * and I will fly and be at rest?

54:8 Lo, I have gone far off flying away; * and I abode in the wilderness.
54:9 I waited for him that hath saved me * from pusillanimity of spirit, and a storm.
54:10 Cast down, O Lord, and divide their tongues; * for I have seen iniquity and contradiction in the city.
54:11 Day and night shall iniquity surround it upon its walls: * and in the midst thereof are labour, and injustice.
54:12 And usury and deceit * have not departed from its streets.
54:13 For if my enemy had reviled me, * I would verily have borne with it.
54:13 And if he that hated me had spoken great things against me, * I would perhaps have hidden myself from him.
54:14 But thou a man of one mind, * my guide, and my familiar.
54:15 Who didst take sweetmeats together with me: * in the house of God we walked with consent.
54:16 Let death come upon them, * and let them go down alive into hell.
54:16 For there is wickedness in their dwellings: * in the midst of them.

Psalmus 54(17-24)

54:17 But I have cried to God: * and the Lord will save me.
54:18 Evening and morning, and at noon I will speak and declare: * and he shall hear my voice.
54:19 He shall redeem my soul in peace from them that draw near to me: * for among many they were with me.
54:20 God shall hear, * and the Eternal shall humble them.
54:20 For there is no change with them, and they have not feared God: * he hath stretched forth his hand to repay.
54:21 They have defiled his covenant, they are divided by the wrath of his countenance, * and his heart hath drawn near.
54:22 His words are smoother than oil, * and the same are darts.
54:23 Cast thy care upon the Lord, and he shall sustain thee: * he shall not suffer the just to waver for ever.
54:24 But thou, O God, shalt bring them down * into the pit of destruction.
54:24 Bloody and deceitful men shall not live out half their days; * but I will trust in thee, O Lord.

Hymnus

O God of truth, O Lord of might,
Who orderest time and change aright,
Who send'st the early morning ray,
And light'st the glow of perfect day:
Extinguish thou each sinful fire,
And banish every ill desire;
And while thou keep'st the body whole,
Shed forth thy peace upon the soul.
Plmighty Father, hear our cry,
Through Jesus Christ, our Lord most High,
Who, with the Holy Ghost and thee,
Doth live and reign eternally.
Amen.

Psalmus 55

([1])

55:2 Have mercy on me, O God, for man hath trodden me under foot; * all the day long he hath afflicted me fighting against me.

55:3 My enemies have trodden on me all the day long; * for they are many that make war against me.

55:4 From the height of the day I shall fear: * but I will trust in thee.

55:5 In God I will praise my words, in God I have put my trust: * I will not fear what flesh can do against me.

55:6 All the day long they detested my words: * all their thoughts were against me unto evil.

55:7 They will dwell and hide themselves: * they will watch my heel.

55:8 As they have waited for my soul, for nothing shalt thou save them: * in thy anger thou shalt break the people in pieces.

55:9 O God, I have declared to thee my life: * thou hast set my tears in thy sight,

55:9 As also in thy promise. * Then shall my enemies be turned back.

55:10 In what day soever I shall call upon thee, * behold I know thou art my God.

55:11 In God will I praise the word, in the Lord will I praise his speech. * In God have I hoped, I will not fear what man can do to me.

55:12 In me, O God, are vows to thee, * which I will pay, praises to thee:

Psalmus 56

([2])

56:2 Have mercy on me, O God, have mercy on me: * for my soul trusteth in thee.

56:2 And in the shadow of thy wings will I hope, * until iniquity pass away.

56:3 I will cry to God the most High; * to God who hath done good to me.

56:4 He hath sent from heaven and delivered me: * he hath made them a reproach that trod upon me.

56:4 God hath sent his mercy and his truth, * and he hath delivered my soul from the midst of the young lions. I slept troubled.

56:5 The sons of men, whose teeth are weapons and arrows, * and their tongue a sharp sword.

56:6 Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens, * and thy glory above all the earth.

56:7 They prepared a snare for my feet; * and they bowed down my soul.

56:7 They dug a pit before my face, * and they are fallen into it.

56:8 My heart is ready, O God, my heart is ready: * I will sing, and rehearse a psalm.

56:9 Arise, O my glory, arise psaltery and harp: * I will arise early.

56:10 I will give praise to thee, O Lord, among the people: * I will sing a psalm to thee among the nations.

57:3 For in your heart you work iniquity: * your hands forge injustice in the earth.

57:4 The wicked are alienated from the womb; they have gone astray from the womb: * they have spoken false things.

57:5 Their madness is according to the likeness of a serpent: * like the deaf asp that stoppeth her ears:

57:6 Which will not hear the voice of the charmers; * nor of the wizard that charmeth wisely.

57:7 God shall break in pieces their teeth in their mouth: * the Lord shall break the grinders of the lions.

57:8 They shall come to nothing, like water running down; * he hath bent his bow till they be weakened.

57:9 Like wax that melteth they shall be taken away: * fire hath fallen on them, and they shall not see the sun.

57:10 Before your thorns could know the brier; he swalloweth them up, * as alive, in his wrath.

57:11 The just shall rejoice when he shall see the revenge: * he shall wash his hands in the blood of the sinner.

O strength and stay upholding all creation,
Who ever dost thyself unmoved abide,
Yet day by day the light in due gradation
From hour to hour through all its changes guide:
Lrant to life's day a calm unclouded ending,
An eve untouched by shadows of decay,
The brightness of a holy death-bed blending
With dawning glories of th' eternal day.
Pear us, O Father, gracious and forgiving,
And thou, O Christ, the co-eternal Word,
Who, with the Holy Ghost, by all things living
Now and to endless ages art adored.

60:4 Thou hast conducted me; for thou hast been my hope: * a tower of strength against the face of the enemy.

60:5 In thy tabernacle I shall dwell for ever: * I shall be protected under the covert of thy wings.

60:6 For thou, my God, hast heard my prayer: * thou hast given an inheritance to them that fear thy name.

60:7 Thou wilt add days to the days of the king: * his years even to generation and generation.

60:8 He abideth for ever in the sight of God: * his mercy and truth who shall search?

60:9 So will I sing a psalm to thy name for ever and ever: * that I may pay my vows from day to day.

Who, with the Holy Ghost and thee,
Doth live and reign eternally.
Amen.

Mother of Christ, hear thou thy people's cry

Star of the deep and Portal of the sky!

Mother of Him who thee from nothing made.

Sinking we strive and call to thee for aid:

O, by what joy which Gabriel brought to thee,

Thou Virgin first and last, let us thy mercy see.

℣. After childbirth thou didst remain a virgin.

℟. Intercede for us, O Mother of God.

Let us pray.

O God, who, by the fruitful virginity of blessed Mary, hast bestowed upon mankind the reward of eternal salvation: grant, we beseech thee, that we may experience her intercession, through whom we have been made worthy to receive the author of life, Our Lord Jesus Christ thy Son. Amen.

℣. May the divine assistance ✠ remain with us always.

Ant. The Lord is a great King * Come, let us adore Him.

The Lord is a great King * Come, let us adore Him.

Come let us praise the Lord with joy: let us joyfully sing to God our saviour. Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving; and make a joyful noise to him with psalms.

The Lord is a great King * Come, let us adore Him.

For the Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods. For the Lord will not cast off his people: for in his hand are all the ends of the earth, and the heights of the mountains are his.

Come, let us adore Him.

For the sea is his, and he made it: and his hands formed the dry land. (genuflect) Come let us adore and fall down: and weep before the Lord that made us: For he is the Lord our God: and we are the people of his pasture and the sheep of his hand.

The Lord is a great King * Come, let us adore Him.

Today if you shall hear his voice, harden not your hearts: As in the provocation, according to the day of temptation in the wilderness: where your fathers tempted me, they proved me, and saw my works.

Come, let us adore Him.

Forty years long was I offended with that generation, and I said: These always err in heart. And these men have not known my ways: so I swore in my wrath that they shall not enter into my rest.

The Lord is a great King * Come, let us adore Him.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Come, let us adore Him.

The Lord is a great King * Come, let us adore Him.

Hymnus

The dusky veil of night hath laid
The varied hues of earth in shade;
Before Thee, righteous Judge of all,
We contrite in confession fall.
Uake far away our load of sin,
Our soiled minds make clean within:
Thy sov'reign grace, O Christ, impart,
From all offence to guard our heart.
Mor lo! our mind is dull and cold,
Envenomed by sin's baneful hold:
Fain would it now the darkness flee,
And seek, Redeemer, unto Thee.

Rar from it drive the shades of night,
Its inmost darkness put to flight;
Till in the daylight of the blest
It joys to find itself at rest.
Plmighty Father, hear our cry,
Through Jesus Christ, our Lord most High,
Who, with the Holy Ghost and Thee,
Doth live and reign eternally.
Amen.

61:3 For he is my God and my saviour: * he is my protector, I shall be moved no more.

61:4 How long do you rush in upon a man? * you all kill, as if you were thrusting down a leaning wall, and a tottering fence.

61:5 But they have thought to cast away my price; I ran in thirst: * they blessed with their mouth, but cursed with their heart.

61:6 But be thou, O my soul, subject to God: * for from him is my patience.

61:7 For he is my God and my saviour: * he is my helper, I shall not be moved.

61:11 Trust not in iniquity, and cover not robberies: * if riches abound, set not your heart upon them.

61:12 God hath spoken once, these two things have I heard, that power belongeth to God, and mercy to thee, O Lord; * for thou wilt render to every man according to his works.

67:9 The earth was moved, and the heavens dropped at the presence of the God of Sinai, * at the presence of the God of Israel.

67:10 Thou shalt set aside for thy inheritance a free rain, * O God: and it was weakened, but thou hast made it perfect.

Save me, O God * for the waters are come in even unto my soul. ‡

Psalmus 68(2-13)

([7])

68:2 Save me, O God: for the waters are come in even unto my soul.

68:3 ‡ I stick fast in the mire of the deep: * and there is no sure standing.

68:3 I am come into the depth of the sea: * and a tempest hath overwhelmed me.

68:4 I have laboured with crying; my jaws are become hoarse: * my eyes have failed, whilst I hope in my God.

68:5 They are multiplied above the hairs of my head, * who hate me without cause.

68:5 My enemies are grown strong who have wrongfully persecuted me: * then did I pay that which I took not away.

68:6 O God, thou knowest my foolishness; * and my offences are not hidden from thee.

68:7 Let not them be ashamed for me, who look for thee, O Lord, * the Lord of hosts.

68:7 Let them not be confounded on my account, * who seek thee, O God of Israel.

68:8 Because for thy sake I have borne reproach; * shame hath covered my face.

68:9 I am become a stranger to my brethren, * and an alien to the sons of my mother.

68:10 For the zeal of thy house hath eaten me up: * and the reproaches of them that reproached thee are fallen upon me.

68:11 And I covered my soul in fasting: * and it was made a reproach to me.

68:12 And I made haircloth my garment: * and I became a byword to them.

68:13 They that sat in the gate spoke against me: * and they that drank wine made me their song.

68:16 Let not the tempest of water drown me, nor the deep swallow me up: * and let not the pit shut her mouth upon me.

68:17 Hear me, O Lord, for thy mercy is kind; * look upon me according to the multitude of thy tender mercies.

68:18 And turn not away thy face from thy servant: * for I am in trouble, hear me speedily.

68:19 Attend to my soul, and deliver it: * save me because of my enemies.

68:20 Thou knowest my reproach, and my confusion, * and my shame.

68:21 And I looked for one that would grieve together with me, * but there was none: and for one that would comfort me, and I found none.

68:22 And they gave me gall for my food, * and in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.

68:23 Let their table become as a snare before them, * and a recompense, and a stumblingblock.

68:34 For the Lord hath heard the poor: * and hath not despised his prisoners.

Lesson from the first letter of St. Paul the Apostle to the Corinthians

1 Cor 7:1-4

1 Now concerning the thing whereof you wrote to me: It is good for a man not to touch a woman.

2 But for fear of fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband.

3 Let the husband render the debt to his wife, and the wife also in like manner to the husband.

4 The wife hath not power of her own body, but the husband. And in like manner the husband also hath not power of his own body, but the wife.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℞. Thanks be to God.

℞. In thee, O God, do I put my trust; let me never be put to confusion, O Lord deliver me in thy righteousness,

* And cause me to escape.

℣. Incline thine ear unto me, deliver me speedily.

℞. And cause me to escape.

℣. Grant, Lord, a blessing.

Benedictio

May the Son, the Sole-begotten, mercifully bless and keep us.

℞. Amen.

1 Cor 7:5-9

5 Defraud not one another, except, perhaps, by consent, for a time, that you may give yourselves to prayer; and return together again, lest Satan tempt you for your incontinency.

6 But I speak this by indulgence, not by commandment.

7 For I would that all men were even as myself: but every one hath his proper gift from God; one after this manner, and another after that.

8 But I say to the unmarried, and to the widows: It is good for them if they so continue, even as I.

9 But if they do not contain themselves, let them marry. For it is better to marry than to be burnt.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℞. Thanks be to God.

℞. Let my mouth be filled with thy praise, that I may sing of thy glory, all the day long of thy greatness. Cast me not off in the time of old age;

* Forsake me not when my strength faileth.

℣. My lips shall be fain when I sing unto thee.

℞. Forsake me not when my strength faileth.

℣. Grant, Lord, a blessing.

Benedictio

May the grace of the Holy Spirit enlighten all our hearts and minds.

℞. Amen.

1 Cor 7:10-14

10 But to them that are married, not I but the Lord commandeth, that the wife depart not from her husband.

11 And if she depart, that she remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband. And let not the husband put away his wife.

12 For to the rest I speak, not the Lord. If any brother hath a wife that believeth not, and she consent to dwell with him, let him not put her away.

13 And if any woman hath a husband that believeth not, and he consent to dwell with her, let her not put away her husband.

14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the believing wife; and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the believing husband: otherwise your children should be unclean; but now they are holy.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℞. Thanks be to God.

℞. My lips shall be fain when I sing unto thee;

* And my soul, which Thou, O Lord, hast redeemed.

℣. My tongue shall also talk of thy righteousness, all the day long of thy praise.

℞. And my soul, which Thou, O Lord, hast redeemed.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℞. And my soul, which Thou, O Lord, hast redeemed.

89:1 Lord, thou hast been our refuge * ‡ from generation to generation.

89:2 Before the mountains were made, or the earth and the world was formed; * from eternity and to eternity thou art God.

89:3 Turn not man away to be brought low: * and thou hast said: Be converted, O ye sons of men.

89:4 For a thousand years in thy sight * are as yesterday, which is past.

89:5 And as a watch in the night, * things that are counted nothing, shall their years be.

89:6 In the morning man shall grow up like grass; in the morning he shall flourish and pass away: * in the evening he shall fall, grow dry, and wither.

89:7 For in thy wrath we have fainted away: * and are troubled in thy indignation.

89:8 Thou hast set our iniquities before thy eyes: * our life in the light of thy countenance.

89:9 For all our days are spent; * and in thy wrath we have fainted away.

89:9 Our years shall be considered as a spider: * the days of our years in them are threescore and ten years.

89:10 But if in the strong they be fourscore years: * and what is more of them is labour and sorrow.

89:10 For mildness is come upon us: * and we shall be corrected.

89:11 Who knoweth the power of thy anger, * and for thy fear can number thy wrath?

89:12 So make thy right hand known: * and men learned in heart, in wisdom.

89:13 Return, O Lord, how long? * and be entreated in favour of thy servants.

89:14 We are filled in the morning with thy mercy: * and we have rejoiced, and are delighted all our days.

89:15 We have rejoiced for the days in which thou hast humbled us: * for the years in which we have seen evils.

89:16 Look upon thy servants and upon their works: * and direct their children.

89:17 And let the brightness of the Lord our God be upon us: and direct thou the works of our hands over us; * yea, the work of our hands do thou direct.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

Psalmus 35

([3])

35:2 The unjust hath said within himself, that he would sin: * there is no fear of God before his eyes.

35:3 For in his sight he hath done deceitfully, * that his iniquity may be found unto hatred.

35:4 The words of his mouth are iniquity and guile: * he would not understand that he might do well.

35:5 He hath devised iniquity on his bed, * he hath set himself on every way that is not good: but evil he hath not hated.

35:6 O Lord, thy mercy is in heaven, * and thy truth reacheth even to the clouds.

35:7 Thy justice is as the mountains of God, * thy judgments are a great deep.

35:7 Men and beasts thou wilt preserve, O Lord: * O how hast thou multiplied thy mercy, O God!

35:8 But the children of men * shall put their trust under the covert of thy wings.

35:9 They shall be inebriated with the plenty of thy house; * and thou shalt make them drink of the torrent of thy pleasure.

35:10 For with thee is the fountain of life; * and in thy light we shall see light.

35:11 Extend thy mercy to them that know thee, * and thy justice to them that are right in heart.

35:12 Let not the foot of pride come to me, * and let not the hand of the sinner move me.

35:13 There the workers of iniquity are fallen, * they are cast out, and could not stand.

31:12 For the Lord hath redeemed Jacob, * and delivered him out of the hand of one that was mightier than he.

146:4 Who telleth the number of the stars: * and calleth them all by their names.

146:5 Great is our Lord, and great is his power: * and of his wisdom there is no number.

146:6 The Lord lifteth up the meek, * and bringeth the wicked down even to the ground.

146:7 Sing ye to the Lord with praise: * sing to our God upon the harp.

146:8 Who covereth the heaven with clouds, * and prepareth rain for the earth.

146:8 Who maketh grass to grow on the mountains, * and herbs for the service of men.

146:9 Who giveth to beasts their food: * and to the young ravens that call upon him.

146:10 He shall not delight in the strength of the horse: * nor take pleasure in the legs of a man.

Hymnus

See the golden sun arise!

Let no more our darkened eyes

Snare us, tangled by surprise

In the maze of sin!

From false words and thoughts impure

Let this light, serene and sure,

Keep our lips without secure,

Keep our souls within.

So may we the day-time spend,

That, till life's temptations end,

Tongue, nor hand, nor eye offend!
One, above us all,
Siews in his revealing ray
All we do, and think, and say,
Watching us from break of day
Till the twilight fall.
Dnto God the Father, Son,
Holy Spirit, Three in One,
One in Three, be glory done,
Now and evermore.
Amen.

1:70 As he spoke by the mouth of his holy Prophets, * who are from the beginning:

1:71 Salvation from our enemies, * and from the hand of all that hate us:

1:72 To perform mercy to our fathers, * and to remember his holy testament,

1:73 The oath, which he swore to Abraham our father, * that he would grant to us,

1:74 That being delivered from the hand of our enemies, * we may serve him without fear,

1:75 In holiness and justice before him, * all our days.

1:76 And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest: * for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways:

1:77 To give knowledge of salvation to his people, * unto the remission of their sins:

1:78 Through the bowels of the mercy of our God, * in which the Orient from on high hath visited us:

1:79 To enlighten them that sit in darkness, and in the shadow of death: * to direct our feet into the way of peace.

Hymnus

Now in the sun's new dawning ray,

Lowly of heart, our God we pray

That he from harm may keep us free

In all the deeds this day shall see.

Lay fear of him our tongues restrain,

Lest strife unguarded speech should stain:

His favouring care our guardian be,

Lest our eyes feed on vanity.

Say every heart be pure from sin

And folly find no place therein:

Scant need of food, excess denied,

Wear down in us the body's pride.

Uhat when the light of day is gone,

And night in course shall follow on.

We, free from cares the world affords,

May chant the praise that is our Lord's.

Ant. How good is God * to Israel, to them that are of a right heart! ‡

Psalmus 72(1-9)

([1])

72:1 How good is God to Israel, to them that are of a right heart!

72:2 ‡ But my feet were almost moved; * my steps had wellnigh slipped.

72:3 Because I had a zeal on occasion of the wicked, * seeing the prosperity of sinners.

72:4 For there is no regard to their death, * nor is there strength in their stripes.

72:5 They are not in the labour of men: * neither shall they be scourged like other men.

72:6 Therefore pride hath held them fast: * they are covered with their iniquity and their wickedness.

72:7 Their iniquity hath come forth, as it were from fatness: * they have passed into the affection of the heart.

72:8 They have thought and spoken wickedness: * they have spoken iniquity on high.

72:9 They have set their mouth against heaven: * and their tongue hath passed through the earth.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℞. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Psalmus 72(10-17)

([2])

72:10 Therefore will my people return here * and full days shall be found in them.

72:11 And they said: How doth God know? * and is there knowledge in the most High?

72:12 Behold these are sinners; and yet abounding in the world * they have obtained riches.

72:13 And I said: Then have I in vain justified my heart, * and washed my hands among the innocent.

72:14 And I have been scourged all the day; * and my chastisement hath been in the mornings.

72:15 If I said: I will speak thus; * behold I should condemn the generation of thy children.

72:16 I studied that I might know this thing, * it is a labour in my sight:

72:17 Until I go into the sanctuary of God, * and understand concerning their last ends.

72:18 But indeed for deceits thou hast put it to them: * when they were lifted up, thou hast cast them down.

72:19 How are they brought to desolation? they have suddenly ceased to be: * they have perished by reason of their iniquity.

72:20 As the dream of them that awake, O Lord; * so in thy city thou shalt bring their image to nothing.

72:21 For my heart hath been inflamed, and my reins have been changed: * and I am brought to nothing, and I knew not.

72:23 I am become as a beast before thee: * and I am always with thee.

72:24 Thou hast held me by my right hand; and by thy will thou hast conducted me, * and with thy glory thou hast received me.

72:25 For what have I in heaven? * and besides thee what do I desire upon earth?

72:26 For thee my flesh and my heart hath fainted away: * thou art the God of my heart, and the God that is my portion for ever.

72:27 For behold they that go far from thee shall perish: * thou hast destroyed all them that are disloyal to thee.

72:28 But it is good for me to adhere to my God, * to put my hope in the Lord God:

72:28 That I may declare all thy praises, * in the gates of the daughter of Sion.

73:2 The sceptre of thy inheritance which thou hast redeemed: * mount Sion in which thou hast dwelt.

73:3 Lift up thy hands against their pride unto the end; * see what things the enemy hath done wickedly in the sanctuary.

73:4 And they that hate thee have made their boasts, * in the midst of thy solemnity.

73:5 They have set up their ensigns for signs, * and they knew not both in the going out and on the highest top.

73:7 They have set fire to thy sanctuary: * they have defiled the dwelling place of thy name on the earth.

73:8 They said in their heart, the whole kindred of them together: * Let us abolish all the festival days of God from the land.

73:12 But God is our king before ages: * he hath wrought salvation in the midst of the earth.

O strength and stay upholding all creation,
Who ever dost thyself unmoved abide,
Yet day by day the light in due gradation
From hour to hour through all its changes guide:
Lrant to life's day a calm unclouded ending,
An eve untouched by shadows of decay,
The brightness of a holy death-bed blending
With dawning glories of th' eternal day.
Pear us, O Father, gracious and forgiving,
And thou, O Christ, the co-eternal Word,
Who, with the Holy Ghost, by all things living
Now and to endless ages art adored.

O sovereign Lord of nature's might,
Who bad'st the water's birth divide;
Part in the heavens to take their flight,
And part in ocean's deep to hide;
These low obscured, on airy wing
Exalted those, that either race,
Though from one element they spring,
Might serve thee in a different place.
Lrant, Lord, that we thy servants all,
Saved by thy tide of cleansing blood,
No more 'neath sin's dominion fall,
Nor fear the thought of death's dark flood!
Uhy varied love each spirit bless,
The humble cheer, the high control;
Check in each heart its proud excess,
But raise the meek and contrite soul!
Phis boon, O Father, we entreat,
This blessing grant, Eternal Son,
And Holy Ghost, the Paraclete,
Both now, and while the ages run.

Come, let us adore Him.

For the sea is his, and he made it: and his hands formed the dry land. (genuflect) Come let us adore and fall down: and weep before the Lord that made us: For he is the Lord our God: and we are the people of his pasture and the sheep of his hand.

The Lord is our God * Come, let us adore Him.

Today if you shall hear his voice, harden not your hearts: As in the provocation, according to the day of temptation in the wilderness: where your fathers tempted me, they proved me, and saw my works.

Come, let us adore Him.

Forty years long was I offended with that generation, and I said: These always err in heart. And these men have not known my ways: so I swore in my wrath that they shall not enter into my rest.

The Lord is our God * Come, let us adore Him.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Come, let us adore Him.

The Lord is our God * Come, let us adore Him.

Hymnus

O Three in One, and One in Three,

Who rulest all things mightily:

Bow down to hear the songs of praise

Which, freed from bonds of sleep, we raise.

While lingers yet the peace of night,

We rouse us from our slumbers light:

That might of instant prayer may win

The healing balm for wounds of sin.

Qf, by the wiles of Satan caught,

This night-time we have sinned in aught,

That sin Thy glorious power to-day,

From heaven descending, cleanse away.

Net naught impure our bodies stain,
No laggard sloth our souls detain,
No taint of sin our spirits know,
To chill the fervor of their glow.
Oherefore, Redeemer grant that we
Fulfilled with thine own light may be:
That, in our course, from day to day,
By no misdeed we fall away.
Prant this, O Father ever One
With Christ, thy sole-begotten Son,
And Holy Ghost, whom all adore,
Reigning and blest forevermore.
Amen.

Ant. The Lord set up a testimony in Jacob: * and made a law in Israel.

Psalmus 77(1-8)

([1])

77:1 Attend, O my people, to my law: * incline your ears to the words of my mouth.

77:2 I will open my mouth in parables: * I will utter propositions from the beginning.

77:3 How great things have we heard and known, * and our fathers have told us.

77:4 They have not been hidden from their children, * in another generation.

77:4 Declaring the praises of the Lord, and his powers, * and his wonders which he hath done.

77:5 And he set up a testimony in Jacob: * and made a law in Israel.

77:5 How great things he commanded our fathers, that they should make the same known to their children: * that another generation might know them.

77:6 The children that should be born and should rise up, * and declare them to their children.

77:7 That they may put their hope in God and may not forget the works of God: * and may seek his commandments.

77:8 That they may not become like their fathers, * a perverse and exasperating generation.

77:8 A generation that set not their heart aright: * and whose spirit was not faithful to God.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. The Lord set up a testimony in Jacob: and made a law in Israel.

The Lord did wonderful things * in the sight of their fathers.

Psalmus 77(9-16)

([2])

77:9 The sons of Ephraim who bend and shoot with the bow: * they have turned back in the day of battle.

77:10 They kept not the covenant of God: * and in his law they would not walk.

77:11 And they forgot his benefits, * and his wonders that he had shewn them.

77:12 Wonderful things did he do in the sight of their fathers, in the land of Egypt, * in the field of Tanis.

77:13 He divided the sea and brought them through: * and he made the waters to stand as in a vessel.

77:14 And he conducted them with a cloud by day: * and all the night with a light of fire.

77:15 He struck the rock in the wilderness: * and gave them to drink, as out of the great deep.

77:16 He brought forth water out of the rock: * and made streams run down as rivers.

Ÿ. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℞. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. The Lord did wonderful things in the sight of their fathers.

The Lord opened * the doors of heaven and had rained down manna upon them to eat.

Psalmus 77(17-31)

([3])

77:17 And they added yet more sin against him: * they provoked the most High to wrath in the place without water.

77:18 And they tempted God in their hearts, * by asking meat for their desires.

77:19 And they spoke ill of God: * they said: Can God furnish a table in the wilderness?

77:20 Because he struck the rock, and the waters gushed out, * and the streams overflowed.

77:20 Can he also give bread, * or provide a table for his people?

77:21 Therefore the Lord heard, and was angry: * and a fire was kindled against Jacob, and wrath came up against Israel.

77:22 Because they believed not in God: * and trusted not in his salvation.

77:23 And he had commanded the clouds from above, * and had opened the doors of heaven.

77:24 And had rained down manna upon them to eat, * and had given them the bread of heaven.

77:25 Man ate the bread of angels: * he sent them provisions in abundance.

77:26 He removed the south wind from heaven: * and by his power brought in the southwest wind.

77:27 And he rained upon them flesh as dust: * and feathered fowls like as the sand of the sea.

77:28 And they fell in the midst of their camp, * round about their pavilions.

77:29 So they did eat, and were filled exceedingly, and he gave them their desire: * they were not defrauded of that which they craved.

77:30 As yet their meat was in their mouth: * and the wrath of God came upon them.

77:31 And he slew the fat ones amongst them, * and brought down the chosen men of Israel.

Ÿ. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℞. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. The Lord opened the doors of heaven and had rained down manna upon them to eat.

God is their helper, * and the most high God their redeemer.

Psalmus 77(32-41)

([4])

77:32 In all these things they sinned still: * and they believed not for his wondrous works.

77:33 And their days were consumed in vanity, * and their years in haste.

77:34 When he slew them, then they sought him: * and they returned, and came to him early in the morning.

77:35 And they remembered that God was their helper: * and the most high God their redeemer.

77:36 And they loved him with their mouth: * and with their tongue they lied unto him:

77:37 But their heart was not right with him: * nor were they counted faithful in his covenant.

77:38 But he is merciful, and will forgive their sins: * and will not destroy them.

77:38 And many a time did he turn away his anger: * and did not kindle all his wrath.

77:39 And he remembered that they are flesh: * a wind that goeth and returneth not.

77:40 How often did they provoke him in the desert: * and move him to wrath in the place without water?

77:41 And they turned back and tempted God: * and grieved the holy one of Israel.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. God is their helper, and the most high God their redeemer.

The Lord redeemed them * from the hand of him that afflicted them.

Psalmus 77(42-58)

([5])

77:42 They remembered not his hand, * in the day that he redeemed them from the hand of him that afflicted them:

77:43 How he wrought his signs in Egypt, * and his wonders in the field of Tanis.

77:44 And he turned their rivers into blood, * and their showers that they might not drink.

77:45 He sent amongst them diverse sorts of flies, which devoured them: * and frogs which destroyed them.

77:46 And he gave up their fruits to the blast, * and their labours to the locust.

77:47 And he destroyed their vineyards with hail, * and their mulberry trees with hoarfrost.

77:48 And he gave up their cattle to the hail, * and their stock to the fire.

77:49 And he sent upon them the wrath of his indignation: * indignation and wrath and trouble, which he sent by evil angels.

77:50 He made a way for a path to his anger: * he spared not their souls from death, and their cattle he shut up in death.

77:51 And he killed all the firstborn in the land of Egypt: * the firstfruits of all their labour in the tabernacles of Cham.

77:52 And he took away his own people as sheep: * and guided them in the wilderness like a flock.

77:53 And he brought them out in hope, and they feared not: * and the sea overwhelmed their enemies.

77:54 And he brought them into the mountain of his sanctuary: * the mountain which his right hand had purchased.

77:54 And he cast out the Gentiles before them: * and by lot divided to them their land by a line of distribution.

77:55 And he made the tribes of Israel * to dwell in their tabernacles.

77:56 Yet they tempted, and provoked the most high God: * and they kept not his testimonies.

77:57 And they turned away, and kept not the covenant: * even like their fathers they were turned aside as a crooked bow.

77:58 They provoked him to anger on their hills: * and moved him to jealousy with their graven things.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. The Lord redeemed them from the hand of him that afflicted them.

God built * his sanctuary in the earth.

Psalmus 77(59-72)

([6])

77:59 God heard, and despised them, * and he reduced Israel exceedingly as it were to nothing.

77:60 And he put away the tabernacle of Silo, * his tabernacle where he dwelt among men.

77:61 And he delivered their strength into captivity: * and their beauty into the hands of the enemy.

77:62 And he shut up his people under the sword: * and he despised his inheritance.

77:63 Fire consumed their young men: * and their maidens were not lamented.
 77:64 Their priests fell by the sword: * and their widows did not mourn.
 77:65 And the Lord was awaked as one out of sleep, * and like a mighty man that hath been surfeited with wine.
 77:66 And he smote his enemies on the hinder parts: * he put them to an everlasting reproach.
 77:67 And he rejected the tabernacle of Joseph: * and chose not the tribe of Ephraim:
 77:68 But he chose the tribe of Juda, * mount Sion which he loved.
 77:69 And he built his sanctuary as of unicorns, in the land * which he founded for ever.
 77:70 And he chose his servant David, and took him from the flocks of sheep: * he brought him from following the ewes great with young,
 77:71 To feed Jacob his servant, * and Israel his inheritance.
 77:72 And he fed them in the innocence of his heart: * and conducted them by the skilfulness of his hands.
 Ṽ. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.
 R̃. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. God built his sanctuary in the earth.
 Help us, O God, our Saviour, * deliver us: and forgive us our sins.

Psalmus 78

([7])

78:1 O God, the heathens are come into thy inheritance, they have defiled thy holy temple: * they have made Jerusalem as a place to keep fruit.
 78:2 They have given the dead bodies of thy servants to be meat for the fowls of the air: * the flesh of thy saints for the beasts of the earth.
 78:3 They have poured out their blood as water, round about Jerusalem, * and there was none to bury them.
 78:4 We are become a reproach to our neighbours: * a scorn and derision to them that are round about us.
 78:5 How long, O Lord, wilt thou be angry for ever: * shall thy zeal be kindled like a fire?
 78:6 Pour out thy wrath upon the nations that have not known thee: * and upon the kingdoms that have not called upon thy name.
 78:7 Because they have devoured Jacob; * and have laid waste his place.
 78:8 Remember not our former iniquities: let thy mercies speedily prevent us, * for we are become exceeding poor.
 78:9 Help us, O God, our saviour: and for the glory of thy name, O Lord, deliver us: * and forgive us our sins for thy name's sake:
 78:10 Lest they should say among the Gentiles: Where is their God? * And let him be made known among the nations before our eyes, 78:10 By the revenging the blood of thy servants, which hath been shed: * let the sighing of the prisoners come in before thee.
 78:11 According to the greatness of thy arm, * take possession of the children of them that have been put to death.
 78:12 And render to our neighbours sevenfold in their bosom: * the reproach wherewith they have reproached thee, O Lord.
 78:13 But we thy people, and the sheep of thy pasture, * will give thanks to thee for ever.
 78:13 We will shew forth thy praise, * unto generation and generation.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. Help us, O God, our Saviour, deliver us: and forgive us our sins.

I am the Lord * God of Israel, who brought you out from the land of Egypt.

Psalmus 80

([8])

80:2 Rejoice to God, our helper: * sing aloud to the God of Jacob.

80:3 Take a psalm, and bring hither the timbrel: * the pleasant psaltery with the harp.

80:4 Blow up the trumpet on the new moon, * on the noted day of your solemnity.

80:5 For it is a commandment in Israel, * and a judgment to the God of Jacob.

80:6 He ordained it for a testimony in Joseph, when he came out of the land of Egypt: * he heard a tongue which he knew not.

80:7 He removed his back from the burdens: * his hands had served in baskets.

80:8 Thou calledst upon me in affliction, and I delivered thee: * I heard thee in the secret place of temple: I proved thee at the waters of contradiction.

80:9 Hear, O my people, and I will testify to thee: * O Israel, if thou wilt hearken to me; there shall be no new god in thee: neither shalt thou adore a strange god.

80:11 For I am the Lord thy God, who brought thee out of the land of Egypt: * open thy mouth wide, and I will fill it.

80:12 But my people heard not my voice: * and Israel hearkened not to me.

80:13 So I let them go according to the desires of their heart: * they shall walk in their own inventions.

80:14 If my people had heard me: * if Israel had walked in my ways:

80:15 I should soon have humbled their enemies, * and laid my hand on them that troubled them.

80:16 The enemies of the Lord have lied to him: * and their time shall be for ever.

80:17 And he fed them with the fat of wheat, * and filled them with honey out of the rock.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. I am the Lord God of Israel, who brought you out from the land of Egypt.

Be not thou silent, O Lord, * for Thy enemies lifted up their head.

Psalmus 82

([9])

82:2 O God, who shall be like to thee? * Hold not thy peace, neither be O God, thou still,

82:3 For lo, thy enemies have made a noise: * and they that hate thee have lifted up the head.

82:4 They have taken a malicious counsel against thy people, * and have consulted against thy saints.

82:5 They have said: Come and let us destroy them, * so that they be not a nation: and let the name of Israel be remembered no more.

82:6 For they have contrived with one consent: * they have made a covenant together against thee; the tabernacles of the Edomites, and the Ismahelites:

82:8 Moab, and the Agarens, Gebal, and Ammon and Amalec: * the Philistines, with the inhabitants of Tyre.

82:9 Yea, and the Assyrian also is joined with them: * they are come to the aid of the sons of Lot.

82:10 Do to them as thou didst to Madian and to Sisara: * as to Jabin at the brook of Cisson.

82:11 Who perished at Endor: * and became as dung for the earth.

82:12 Make their princes like Oreb, and Zeb, * and Zebbee, and Salmana.
82:13 All their princes, * who have said: Let us possess the sanctuary of God for an inheritance.
82:14 O my God, make them like a wheel; * and as stubble before the wind.
82:15 As fire which burneth the wood: * and as a flame burning mountains:
82:16 So shalt thou pursue them with thy tempest: * and shalt trouble them in thy wrath.
82:17 Fill their faces with shame; * and they shall seek thy name, O Lord.
82:18 Let them be ashamed and troubled for ever and ever: * and let them be confounded and perish.
82:19 And let them know that the Lord is thy name: * thou alone art the most High over all the earth.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. Be not thou silent, O Lord, for Thy enemies lifted up their head.

℣. Let them know that the Lord is thy name.

℟. Thou alone art the most High over all the earth.

Our Father is said silently until And lead us not into temptation:.

Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

℣. And lead us not into temptation:

℟. But deliver us from evil.

Benedictio

May God the Father Omnipotent, be to us merciful and clement.

Lesson from the first letter of St. Paul the Apostle to the Corinthians

1 Cor 13:1-3

1 If I speak with the tongues of men, and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.

2 And if I should have prophecy and should know all mysteries, and all knowledge, and if I should have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing.

3 And if I should distribute all my goods to feed the poor, and if I should deliver my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℟. Thanks be to God.

℟. I will praise thee, O Lord my God, with all my heart, and I will glorify thy Name for evermore.

* For great is thy mercy, O Lord, toward me.

℣. Thou art my God, and I will praise thee; Thou art my God, and I will exalt thee.

℞. For great is thy mercy, O Lord, toward me.

℣. Grant, Lord, a blessing.

Benedictio

May Christ to all His people give, for ever in His sight to live.

℞. Amen.

1 Cor 13:4-10

4 Charity is patient, is kind: charity envieth not, dealeth not perversely; is not puffed up;

5 Is not ambitious, seeketh not her own, is not provoked to anger, thinketh no evil;

6 Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth with the truth;

7 Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

8 Charity never falleth away: whether prophecies shall be made void, or tongues shall cease, or knowledge shall be destroyed.

9 For we know in part, and we prophesy in part.

10 But when that which is perfect is come, that which is in part shall be done away.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℞. Thanks be to God.

℞. Great, O Lord, is thy mercy toward me.

* And Thou hast delivered my soul from the lowest hell.

℣. In the day of my trouble I called upon thee, for Thou hast heard me.

℞. And Thou hast delivered my soul from the lowest hell.

℣. Grant, Lord, a blessing.

Benedictio

May the Spirit's fire Divine in our hearts enkindled shine.

℞. Amen.

1 Cor 13:11-13

11 When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child. But, when I became a man, I put away the things of a child.

12 We see now through a glass in a dark manner; but then face to face. Now I know in part; but then I shall know even as I am known.

13 And now there remain faith, hope, and charity, these three: but the greatest of these is charity.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℞. Thanks be to God.

℞. The Lord is my refuge.

* And my God is the stay of my trust.

℣. He delivered me from the strongest of mine enemies, and the Lord was my stay.

℞. And my God is the stay of my trust.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

98:2 The Lord is great in Sion, * and high above all people.

98:3 Let them give praise to thy great name: for it is terrible and holy: * and the king's honour loveth judgment.

98:4 Thou hast prepared directions: * thou hast done judgment and justice in Jacob.

98:5 Exalt ye the Lord our God, and adore his footstool, * for it is holy.

98:6 Moses and Aaron among his priests: * and Samuel among them that call upon his name.

98:6 They called upon the Lord, and he heard them: * he spoke to them in the pillar of the cloud.

Psalmus 142

([2])

142:1 Hear, O Lord, my prayer: give ear to my supplication in thy truth: * hear me in thy justice.

142:2 And enter not into judgment with thy servant: * for in thy sight no man living shall be justified.

142:3 For the enemy hath persecuted my soul: * he hath brought down my life to the earth.

142:3 He hath made me to dwell in darkness as those that have been dead of old: * and my spirit is in anguish within me: my heart within me is troubled.

142:5 I remembered the days of old, I meditated on all thy works: * I meditated upon the works of thy hands.

142:6 I stretched forth my hands to thee: * my soul is as earth without water unto thee.

142:7 Hear me speedily, O Lord: * my spirit hath fainted away.

142:7 Turn not away thy face from me, * lest I be like unto them that go down into the pit.

142:8 Cause me to hear thy mercy in the morning; * for in thee have I hoped.

142:8 Make the way known to me, wherein I should walk: * for I have lifted up my soul to thee.

142:9 Deliver me from my enemies, O Lord, to thee have I fled: * teach me to do thy will, for thou art my God.

142:10 Thy good spirit shall lead me into the right land: * for thy name's sake, O Lord, thou wilt quicken me in thy justice.

142:11 Thou wilt bring my soul out of trouble: * and in thy mercy thou wilt destroy my enemies.

142:12 And thou wilt cut off all them that afflict my soul: * for I am thy servant.

84:3 Thou hast forgiven the iniquity of thy people: * thou hast covered all their sins.

84:4 Thou hast mitigated all thy anger: * thou hast turned away from the wrath of thy indignation.

84:5 Convert us, O God our saviour: * and turn off thy anger from us.

84:6 Wilt thou be angry with us for ever: * or wilt thou extend thy wrath from generation to generation?

84:7 Thou wilt turn, O God, and bring us to life: * and thy people shall rejoice in thee.

84:8 Shew us, O Lord, thy mercy; * and grant us thy salvation.

84:9 I will hear what the Lord God will speak in me: * for he will speak peace.

84:9 And unto his saints: * and unto them that are converted to the heart.

84:10 Surely his salvation is near to them that fear him: * that glory may dwell in our land.

84:11 Mercy and truth have met each other: * justice and peace have kissed.

84:12 Truth is sprung out of the earth: * and justice hath looked down from heaven.

In the Lord * shall all the seed of Israel be justified and praised.

Canticum Isaiaë

Isa 45:15-30

45:15 Verily thou art a hidden God, * the God of Israel the saviour.

45:16 They are all confounded and ashamed: * the forgers of errors are gone together into confusion.

45:17 Israel is saved in the Lord with an eternal salvation: * you shall not be confounded, and you shall not be ashamed for ever and ever.

45:18 For thus saith the Lord that created the heavens, * God himself that formed the earth, and made it, the very maker thereof:

45:19 He did not create it in vain: he formed it to be inhabited. * I am the Lord, and there is no other.

45:20 I have not spoken in secret, * in a dark place of the earth:

45:21 I have not said to the seed of Jacob: Seek me in vain. * I am the Lord that speak justice, that declare right things.

45:22 Assemble yourselves, and come, and draw near together, * ye that are saved of the Gentiles:

45:23 They have no knowledge that set up the wood of their graven work, * and pray to a god that cannot save.

Hymnus

O Christ, whose glory fills the heaven,
Our only hope, in mercy given;
Child of a Virgin meek and pure;
Son of the Highest evermore:
Drant us thine aid thy praise to sing,
As opening days new duties bring;

That with the light our life may be
Renewed and sanctified by thee.
O he morning star fades from the sky,
The sun breaks forth; night's shadows fly:
O Thou, true Light, upon us shine:
Our darkness turn to light divine.
Mithin us grant thy light to dwell;
And from our souls dark sins expel;
Cleanse thou our minds from stain of ill,
And with thy peace our bosoms fill.
O give us strong faith forever give,
With joyous hope, in thee to live;
That life's rough way may ever be
Made strong and pure by charity.
All laud to God the Father be,
All praise, Eternal Son, to thee:
All glory, as is ever meet,
To God the holy Paraclete,
Amen.

1:70 As he spoke by the mouth of his holy Prophets, * who are from the beginning:

1:71 Salvation from our enemies, * and from the hand of all that hate us:

1:72 To perform mercy to our fathers, * and to remember his holy testament,

1:74 That being delivered from the hand of our enemies, * we may serve him without fear,

1:75 In holiness and justice before him, * all our days.

1:76 And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest: * for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways:

1:77 To give knowledge of salvation to his people, * unto the remission of their sins:

Hymnus

Now in the sun's new dawning ray,

Lowly of heart, our God we pray

That he from harm may keep us free

In all the deeds this day shall see.

Lay fear of him our tongues restrain,

Lest strife unguarded speech should stain:

His favouring care our guardian be,

Lest our eyes feed on vanity.

Say every heart be pure from sin

And folly find no place therein:

Scant need of food, excess denied,

Wear down in us the body's pride.

Uhat when the light of day is gone,

And night in course shall follow on.

We, free from cares the world affords,

May chant the praise that is our Lord's.

Dll laud to God the Father be,

All praise, Eternal Son, to thee:

All glory, as is ever meet,

To God the holy Paraclete.

Amen.

21:2 O God my God, look upon me: why hast thou forsaken me? * Far from my salvation are the words of my sins.

21:3 O my God, I shall cry by day, and thou wilt not hear: * and by night, and it shall not be reputed as folly in me.

21:4 But thou dwellest in the holy place, * the praise of Israel.

21:5 In thee have our fathers hoped: * they have hoped, and thou hast delivered them.

21:6 They cried to thee, and they were saved: * they trusted in thee, and were not confounded.

21:7 But I am a worm, and no man: * the reproach of men, and the outcast of the people.

21:8 All they that saw me have laughed me to scorn: * they have spoken with the lips, and wagged the head.

21:9 He hoped in the Lord, let him deliver him: * let him save him, seeing he delighteth in him.

21:10 For thou art he that hast drawn me out of the womb: * my hope from the breasts of my 21:13 Many calves have surrounded me: * fat bulls have besieged me.

21:14 They have opened their mouths against me, * as a lion ravening and roaring.

21:15 I am poured out like water; * and all my bones are scattered.

21:15 My heart is become like wax melting * in the midst of my bowels.

21:17 They have dug my hands and feet. * They have numbered all my bones.

21:18 And they have looked and stared upon me. * They parted my garments amongst them; and upon my vesture they cast lots.

88:7 For who in the clouds can be compared to the Lord: * or who among the sons of God shall be like to God?

88:8 God, who is glorified in the assembly of the saints: * great and terrible above all them that are about him.

88:9 O Lord God of hosts, who is like to thee? * thou art mighty, O Lord, and thy truth is round about thee.

88:10 Thou rulest the power of the sea: * and appeasest the motion of the waves thereof.

88:11 Thou hast humbled the proud one, as one that is slain: * with the arm of thy strength thou hast scattered thy enemies.

88:12 Thine are the heavens, and thine is the earth: the world and the fulness thereof thou hast founded: * the north and the sea thou hast created.

88:13 Thabor and Hermon shall rejoice in thy name: * thy arm is with might.

88:14 Let thy hand be strengthened, and thy right hand exalted: * justice and judgment are the preparation of thy throne.

88:15 Mercy and truth shall go before thy face: * blessed is the people that knoweth jubilation.

88:16 They shall walk, O Lord, in the light of thy countenance: and in thy name they shall rejoice all the day, * and in thy justice they shall be exalted.

88:18 For thou art the glory of their strength: * and in thy good pleasure shall our horn be exalted.

88:19 For our protection is of the Lord, * and of our king the holy one of Israel.

Psalmus 88(20-38)

([2])

88:20 Then thou spokest in a vision to thy saints, and saidst: * I have laid help upon one that is mighty, and have exalted one chosen out of my people.

88:21 I have found David my servant: * with my holy oil I have anointed him.

88:22 For my hand shall help him: * and my arm shall strengthen him.

88:23 The enemy shall have no advantage over him: * nor the son of iniquity have power to hurt him.

88:24 And I will cut down his enemies before his face; * and them that hate him I will put to flight.

88:25 And my truth and my mercy shall be with him: * and in my name shall his horn be exalted.

88:26 And I will set his hand in the sea; * and his right hand in the rivers.

88:27 He shall cry out to me: Thou art my father: * my God, and the support of my salvation.

88:28 And I will make him my firstborn, * high above the kings of the earth.

88:29 I will keep my mercy for him for ever: * and my covenant faithful to him.

88:30 And I will make his seed to endure for evermore: * and his throne as the days of heaven.

88:31 And if his children forsake my law, * and walk not in my judgments:

88:32 If they profane my justices: * and keep not my commandments:

88:33 I will visit their iniquities with a rod: * and their sins with stripes.

88:34 But my mercy I will not take away from him: * nor will I suffer my truth to fail.

88:35 Neither will I profane my covenant: * and the words that proceed from my mouth I will not make void.

88:36 Once have I sworn by my holiness: I will not lie unto David: * his seed shall endure for ever.

88:37 And his throne as the sun before me: * and as the moon perfect for ever, and a faithful witness in heaven.

Psalmus 88(39-53)

88:39 But thou hast rejected and despised: * thou hast been angry with thy anointed.

88:40 Thou hast overthrown the covenant of thy servant: * thou hast profaned his sanctuary on the earth.

88:41 Thou hast broken down all his hedges: * thou hast made his strength fear.

88:42 All that pass by the way have robbed him: * he is become a reproach to his neighbours.

88:43 Thou hast set up the right hand of them that oppress him: * thou hast made all his enemies to rejoice.

88:44 Thou hast turned away the help of his sword; * and hast not assisted him in battle.

88:45 Thou hast made his purification to cease: * and thou hast cast his throne down to the ground.
88:46 Thou hast shortened the days of his time: * thou hast covered him with confusion.
88:47 How long, O Lord, turnest thou away unto the end? * shall thy anger burn like fire?
88:48 Remember what my substance is: * for hast thou made all the children of men in vain?
88:49 Who is the man that shall live, and not see death: * that shall deliver his soul from the hand of hell?
88:50 Lord, where are thy ancient mercies, * according to what thou didst swear to David in thy truth?
88:51 Be mindful, O Lord, of the reproach of thy servants * which I have held in my bosom of many nations:
88:52 Wherewith thy enemies have reproached, O Lord; * wherewith they have reproached the change of thy anointed.

And grant thy gifts of grace below;

For the Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods. For the Lord will not cast off his people: for in his hand are all the ends of the earth, and the heights of the mountains are his.

The Lord is with thee.

For the sea is his, and he made it: and his hands formed the dry land. (genuflect) Come let us adore and fall down: and weep before the Lord that made us: For he is the Lord our God: and we are the people of his pasture and the sheep of his hand.

Hail Mary, full of grace, * The Lord is with thee.

Today if you shall hear his voice, harden not your hearts: As in the provocation, according to the day of temptation in the wilderness: where your fathers tempted me, they proved me, and saw my works.

The Lord is with thee.

Forty years long was I offended with that generation, and I said: These always err in heart. And these men have not known my ways: so I swore in my wrath that they shall not enter into my rest.

Hail Mary, full of grace, * The Lord is with thee.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

The Lord is with thee.

Hail Mary, full of grace, * The Lord is with thee.

Hymnus

The God whom earth, and sea, and sky

Adore, and laud, and magnify,

Who o'er their threefold fabric reigns,

The Virgin's spotless womb contains.

Che God, whose will by moon and sun

And all things in due course is done,

Is borne upon a maiden's breast,

By fullest heavenly grace possest.

Bow blest that mother, in whose shrine

The great artificer divine,

Whose hand contains the earth and sky,

Vouchsafed, as in his ark, to lie.

Blest, in the message Gabriel brought;
Blest, by the work the Spirit wrought;
From whom the great desire of earth
Took human flesh and human birth.
Ill honour, laud, and glory be,
O Jesu, Virgin-born to thee;
All glory, as is ever meet,
To Father and to Paraclete.
Amen.

104:12 When they were but a small number: * yea very few, and sojourners therein:

104:13 And they passed from nation to nation, * and from one kingdom to another people.

Lesson from the first letter of St. Paul the Apostle to the Corinthians

1 Cor 16:1-4

1 Now concerning the collections that are made for the saints, as I have given order to the churches of Galatia, so do ye also.

2 On the first day of the week let every one of you put apart with himself, laying up what it shall well please him; that when I come, the collections be not then to be made.

3 And when I shall be with you, whomsoever you shall approve by letters, them will I send to carry your grace to Jerusalem.

4 And if it be meet that I also go, they shall go with me.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℟. Thanks be to God.

℟. Mercy and judgment I will sing to thee, O Lord:

* I will sing, and I will understand in the unspotted way, when thou shalt come to me.

℣. I walked in the innocence of my heart, in the midst of my house.

℞. Mercy and judgment I will sing to thee, O Lord

℣. Grant, Lord, a blessing.

Benedictio

May the Virgin of virgins, intercede for us to the Lord.

1 Cor 16:5-9

5 Now I will come to you, when I shall have passed through Macedonia. For I shall pass through Macedonia.

6 And with you perhaps I shall abide, or even spend the winter: that you may bring me on my way whithersoever I shall go.

7 For I will not see you now by the way, for I trust that I shall abide with you some time, if the Lord permit.

8 But I will tarry at Ephesus until Pentecost.

9 For a great door and evident is opened unto me: and many adversaries.

1 Cor 16:10-14

10 Now if Timothy come, see that he be with you without fear, for he worketh the work of the Lord, as I also do.

11 Let no man therefore despise him, but conduct ye him on his way in peace: that he may come to me. For I look for him with the brethren.

12 And touching our brother Apollo, I give you to understand, that I much entreated him to come unto you with the brethren: and indeed it was not his will at all to come at this time. But he will come when he shall have leisure.

13 Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, do manfully, and be strengthened.

14 Let all your things be done in charity.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℞. Thanks be to God.

℞. Haste thee to hear me, O Lord.

* For my days are consumed away like smoke:

* But thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.

℣. My days have declined like a shadow, and I am withered like grass.

℞. For my days are consumed away like smoke.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℞. But thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.

℣. Grant, Lord, a blessing.

Benedictio

Through the Virgin Mother, the Lord grant us salvation and peace.

℞. Amen.

From the letter of Blessed Ambrose, bishop of Milan, to Pope Siricius

Epist. 81, alias 7, post initium

How great is the madness of their dismal barkings, that the same persons should say that Christ could not be born of a virgin, and yet assert that women, after having given birth to human pledges, remain virgins? But if they will not believe the doctrines of the Clergy, let them believe the oracles of Christ, let them believe the admonitions of Angels who say, For with God nothing shall be impossible. Let them give credit to the Creed of the Apostles, which the Roman Church has always kept and preserved undefiled. Mary heard the voice of the Angel, and she who before had said "How shall this be?", not asking from want of faith in the mode of generation, afterwards replied: "Behold the handmaid of the Lord, be it unto me according to thy word."

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℟. Thanks be to God.

Psalmus 63

([3])

63:2 Hear, O God, my prayer, when I make supplication to thee: * deliver my soul from the fear of the enemy.

63:3 Thou hast protected me from the assembly of the malignant; * from the multitude of the workers of iniquity.

63:4 For they have whetted their tongues like a sword; * they have bent their bow a bitter thing, to shoot in secret the undefiled.

63:6 They will shoot at him on a sudden, and will not fear: * they are resolute in wickedness.

63:6 They have talked of hiding snares; * they have said: Who shall see them?

63:7 They have searched after iniquities: * they have failed in their search.

63:7 Man shall come to a deep heart: * and God shall be exalted.

63:8 The arrows of children are their wounds: * and their tongues against them are made weak.

63:9 All that saw them were troubled; * and every man was afraid.

63:10 And they declared the works of God: * and understood his doings.

63:11 The just shall rejoice in the Lord, and shall hope in him: * and all the upright in heart shall be praised.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. The just shall rejoice in the Lord, and shall hope in him.

Show us, O Lord, * the light of thy mercies.

Canticum Ecclesiastici

Sir 36:1-16

36:1 Have mercy upon us, O God of all, and behold us, * and shew us the light of thy mercies:

36:2 And send thy fear upon the nations, * that have not sought after thee:

36:3 That they may know that there is no God beside thee, * and that they may shew forth thy wonders.

36:4 Lift up thy hand over the strange nations, * that they may see thy power.

36:5 For as thou hast been sanctified in us in their sight, * so thou shalt be magnified among them in our presence,

36:6 That they may know thee, as we also have known thee, * that there is no God beside thee, O Lord.

36:7 Renew thy signs, and work new miracles. * Glorify thy hand, and thy right arm.

36:8 Raise up indignation, and pour out wrath. * Take away the adversary, and crush the enemy.

36:9 Hasten the time, and remember the end, * that they may declare thy wonderful works.

36:10 Let him that escapeth be consumed by the rage of the fire: * and let them perish that oppress thy people.

36:11 Crush the head of the princes of the enemies * that say: There is no other beside us.

36:12 Gather together all the tribes of Jacob: that they may know that there is no God besides thee, * and may declare thy great works.

36:13 And thou shalt inherit them * as from the beginning.

36:14 Have mercy on thy people, upon whom thy name is invoked: * and upon Israel, whom thou hast raised up to be thy firstborn.

36:15 Have mercy on Jerusalem, the city which thou hast sanctified, * the city of thy rest.

36:16 Fill Sion with thy unspeakable words, * and thy people with thy glory.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Hymnus

O glorious lady! throned on high
Above the star-illumined sky;
Thereto ordained, thy bosom lent
To thy Creator nourishment.
Qhrough thy sweet offspring we receive
The bliss once lost through hapless Eve;
And heaven to mortals open lies
Now thou art portal of the skies.
Thou art the door of heaven's high King,
Light's gateway fair and glistering;
Life through a Virgin is restored;
Ye ransomed nations, praise the Lord!
Ill honour, laud, and glory be,
O Jesu, Virgin-born, to thee;
All glory, as is ever meet,
To Father and to Paraclete.
Amen.

℣. Blessed art thou amongst women,

℟. And blessed is the fruit of thy womb.

Ant. This day is set forth a wonderful mystery, * a new thing hath been created in the earth: God is made man. That which He was, He remaineth; and that which He was not, He taketh; suffering therein neither confusion nor division.

Luc. 1:68-79

1:68 Blessed be the Lord ☩ God of Israel; * because he hath visited and wrought the redemption of his people:

1:69 And hath raised up an horn of salvation to us, * in the house of David his servant:

1:70 As he spoke by the mouth of his holy Prophets, * who are from the beginning:

1:71 Salvation from our enemies, * and from the hand of all that hate us:

1:72 To perform mercy to our fathers, * and to remember his holy testament,

1:73 The oath, which he swore to Abraham our father, * that he would grant to us,

1:74 That being delivered from the hand of our enemies, * we may serve him without fear,

1:75 In holiness and justice before him, * all our days.

1:76 And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest: * for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways:

1:77 To give knowledge of salvation to his people, * unto the remission of their sins:

1:78 Through the bowels of the mercy of our God, * in which the Orient from on high hath visited us:

1:79 To enlighten them that sit in darkness, and in the shadow of death: * to direct our feet into the way of peace.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

Hymnus

Now in the sun's new dawning ray,

Lowly of heart, our God we pray

That he from harm may keep us free

In all the deeds this day shall see.

Lay fear of him our tongues restrain,

Lest strife unguarded speech should stain:

His favouring care our guardian be,

Lest our eyes feed on vanity.

Say every heart be pure from sin

And folly find no place therein:

Scant need of food, excess denied,

Wear down in us the body's pride.

Uhat when the light of day is gone,

And night in course shall follow on.

We, free from cares the world affords,

May chant the praise that is our Lord's.

Dll laud to God the Father be,

All praise, Eternal Son, to thee:

All glory, as is ever meet,

To God the holy Paraclete.

Amen.

Ant. Lift up thyself, O Lord, * thou that judgest the earth: render retribution to the proud.

Psalmus 93(1-11)

([1])

93:1 The Lord is the God to whom revenge belongeth: * the God of revenge hath acted freely.

93:2 Lift up thyself, thou that judgest the earth: * render a reward to the proud.

93:3 How long shall sinners, O Lord: * how long shall sinners glory?

93:4 Shall they utter, and speak iniquity: * shall all speak who work injustice?

93:5 Thy people, O Lord, they have brought low: * and they have afflicted thy inheritance.

93:6 They have slain the widow and the stranger: * and they have murdered the fatherless.

93:7 And they have said: The Lord shall not see: * neither shall the God of Jacob understand.

93:8 Understand, ye senseless among the people: * and, you fools, be wise at last.

93:9 He that planted the ear, shall he not hear? * or he that formed the eye, doth he not consider?

93:10 He that chastiseth nations, shall he not rebuke: * he that teacheth man knowledge?

93:11 The Lord knoweth the thoughts of men, * that they are vain.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℞. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Psalmus 93(12-23)

([2])

93:12 Blessed is the man whom thou shalt instruct, O Lord: * and shalt teach him out of thy law.

93:13 That thou mayst give him rest from the evil days: * till a pit be dug for the wicked.

93:14 For the Lord will not cast off his people: * neither will he forsake his own inheritance.

93:15 Until justice be turned into judgment: * and they that are near it are all the upright in heart.

93:16 Who shall rise up for me against the evildoers? * or who shall stand with me against the workers of iniquity?

93:17 Unless the Lord had been my helper, * my soul had almost dwelt in hell.

93:18 If I said: My foot is moved: * thy mercy, O Lord, assisted me.

93:19 According to the multitude of my sorrows in my heart, * thy comforts have given joy to my soul.

93:20 Doth the seat of iniquity stick to thee, * who framest labour in commandment?

93:21 They will hunt after the soul of the just, * and will condemn innocent blood.

93:22 But the Lord is my refuge: * and my God the help of my hope.

93:23 And he will render them their iniquity: and in their malice he will destroy them: * the Lord our God will destroy them.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℞. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Psalmus 107

([3])

107:2 My heart is ready, O God, my heart is ready: * I will sing, and will give praise, with my glory.

107:3 Arise, my glory; arise, psaltery and harp * I will arise in the morning early.

107:4 I will praise thee, O Lord, among the people: * and I will sing unto thee among the nations.

107:5 For thy mercy is great above the heavens: * and thy truth even unto the clouds.

107:6 Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens, and thy glory over all the earth: * that thy beloved may be delivered.

107:7 Save with thy right hand and hear me. * God hath spoken in his holiness.

107:8 I will rejoice, and I will divide Sichem * and I will mete out the vale of tabernacles.

107:9 Galaad is mine: and Manasses is mine: * and Ephraim the protection of my head.

107:10 Juda is my king: * Moab the pot of my hope.

107:10 Over Edom I will stretch out my shoe: * the aliens are become my friends.

107:11 Who will bring me into the strong city? * who will lead me into Edom?

107:12 Wilt not thou, O God, who hast cast us off? * and wilt not thou, O God, go forth with our armies?

107:13 O grant us help from trouble: * for vain is the help of man.

107:14 Through God we shall do mightily: * and he will bring our enemies to nothing.

Hymnus

O strength and stay upholding all creation,
Who ever dost thyself unmoved abide,
Yet day by day the light in due gradation
From hour to hour through all its changes guide:
Lrant to life's day a calm unclouded ending,
An eve untouched by shadows of decay,
The brightness of a holy death-bed blending
With dawning glories of th' eternal day.
Pear us, O Father, gracious and forgiving,
And thou, O Christ, the co-eternal Word,
Who, with the Holy Ghost, by all things living
Now and to endless ages art adored.

Ant. O God, be thou not silent * for the mouth of the wicked man is opened against me.

Psalms 108(2-13)

([1])

108:2 God, be not thou silent in my praise: * for the mouth of the wicked and the mouth of the deceitful man is opened against me.

108:3 They have spoken against me with deceitful tongues; and they have compassed me about with words of hatred; * and have fought against me without cause.

108:4 Instead of making me a return of love, they detracted me: * but I gave myself to prayer.

108:5 And they repaid me evil for good: * and hatred for my love.

108:6 Set thou the sinner over him: * and may the devil stand at his right hand.

108:7 When he is judged, may he go out condemned; * and may his prayer be turned to sin.

108:8 May his days be few: * and his bishopric let another take.

108:9 May his children be fatherless, * and his wife a widow.

108:10 Let his children be carried about vagabonds, and beg; * and let them be cast out of their dwellings.

108:11 May the usurer search all his substance: * and let strangers plunder his labours.

108:12 May there be none to help him: * nor none to pity his fatherless offspring.

108:13 May his posterity be cut off; * in one generation may his name be blotted out.

Psalms 108(14-21)

108:14 May the iniquity of his fathers be remembered in the sight of the Lord: * and let not the sin of his mother be blotted out.

108:15 May they be before the Lord continually, and let the memory of them perish from the earth:

* because he remembered not to shew mercy,

108:17 But persecuted the poor man and the beggar; * and the broken in heart, to put him to death.

108:18 And he loved cursing, and it shall come unto him: * and he would not have blessing, and it shall be far from him.

108:18 And he put on cursing, like a garment: * and it went in like water into his entrails, and like oil in his bones.

108:19 May it be unto him like a garment which covereth him; * and like a girdle with which he is girded continually.

108:20 This is the work of them who detract me before the Lord; * and who speak evils against my soul.

108:24 My knees are weakened through fasting: * and my flesh is changed for oil.

108:25 And I am become a reproach to them: * they saw me and they shook their heads.

108:26 Help me, O Lord my God; * save me according to thy mercy.

108:27 And let them know that this is thy hand: * and that thou, O Lord, hast done it.

108:28 They will curse and thou wilt bless: * let them that rise up against me be confounded: but thy servant shall rejoice.

108:29 Let them that detract me be clothed with shame: * and let them be covered with their confusion as with a double cloak.

108:30 I will give great thanks to the Lord with my mouth: * and in the midst of many I will praise him.

For the Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods. For the Lord will not cast off his people: for in his hand are all the ends of the earth, and the heights of the mountains are his.

He is our Creator.

For the sea is his, and he made it: and his hands formed the dry land. (genuflect) Come let us adore and fall down: and weep before the Lord that made us: For he is the Lord our God: and we are the people of his pasture and the sheep of his hand.

Let us adore the Lord * He is our Creator.

Today if you shall hear his voice, harden not your hearts: As in the provocation, according to the day of temptation in the wilderness: where your fathers tempted me, they proved me, and saw my works.

He is our Creator.

Forty years long was I offended with that generation, and I said: These always err in heart. And these men have not known my ways: so I swore in my wrath that they shall not enter into my rest.

Let us adore the Lord * He is our Creator.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

He is our Creator.

Let us adore the Lord * He is our Creator.

Hymnus

Hail day! whereon the One in Three
First formed the earth by sure decree,
The day its Maker rose again,
And vanquished death, and burst our chain.
Pway with sleep and slothful ease
We raise our hearts and bend our knees,
And early seek the Lord of all,
Obedient to the Prophet's call.
Nhat He may hearken to our prayer,
Stretch forth His strong right arm to spare,
And ev'ry past offense forgiven,
Restore us to our home in heaven.

Ussembled here this holy day,
This holiest hour we raise the lay,
And O that He to whom we sing,
May now reward our offering!
IFather of unclouded light!
Keep us this day as in thy sight,
In word and deed that we may be
From ev'ry touch of evil free.
Nhat this our body's mortal frame
May know no sin, and fear no shame,
Nor fire hereafter be the end
Of passions which our bosom rend.
Medeemer of the world, we pray
That thou wouldst wash our sins away,
And give us, of Thy boundless grace,
The blessings of the heavenly place.
Post Holy Father, hear our cry,
Through Jesus Christ our Lord most High
Who, with the Holy Ghost and thee
Shall live and reign eternally.
Amen.

Psalmus 1

([1])

1:1 Blessed is the man who hath not walked in the counsel of the ungodly, † nor stood in the way of sinners, * nor sat in the chair of pestilence.

1:2 But his will is in the law of the Lord, * and on his law he shall meditate day and night.

1:3 And he shall be like a tree which is planted near the running waters, * which shall bring forth its fruit, in due season.

1:3 And his leaf shall not fall off: * and all whatsoever he shall do shall prosper.

1:4 Not so the wicked, not so: * but like the dust, which the wind driveth from the face of the earth.

1:5 Therefore the wicked shall not rise again in judgment: * nor sinners in the council of the just.

1:6 For the Lord knoweth the way of the just: * and the way of the wicked shall perish.

([2])

2:1 Why have the Gentiles raged, * and the people devised vain things?

2:2 The kings of the earth stood up, and the princes met together, * against the Lord and against his Christ.

2:3 Let us break their bonds asunder: * and let us cast away their yoke from us.

2:4 He that dwelleth in heaven shall laugh at them: * and the Lord shall deride them.

2:5 Then shall he speak to them in his anger, * and trouble them in his rage.
2:6 But I am appointed king by him over Sion his holy mountain, * preaching his commandment.
2:7 The Lord hath said to me: * Thou art my son, this day have I begotten thee.
2:8 Ask of me, and I will give thee the Gentiles for thy inheritance, * and the utmost parts of the earth for thy possession.
2:9 Thou shalt rule them with a rod of iron, * and shalt break them in pieces like a potter's vessel.
2:10 And now, O ye kings, understand: * receive instruction, you that judge the earth.
2:11 Serve ye the Lord with fear: * and rejoice unto him with trembling.
2:12 Embrace discipline, lest at any time the Lord be angry, * and you perish from the just way.

8:2 For thy magnificence is elevated * above the heavens.
8:3 Out of the mouth of infants and of sucklings thou hast perfected praise, because of thy enemies, * that thou mayst destroy the enemy and the avenger.

9:4 When my enemy shall be turned back: * they shall be weakened and perish before thy face.

9:5 For thou hast maintained my judgment and my cause: * thou hast sat on the throne, who judgest justice.

9:6 Thou hast rebuked the Gentiles, and the wicked one hath perished: * thou hast blotted out their name for ever and ever.

Psalmus 9(22-32)

([7])

9:22 Why, O Lord, hast thou retired afar off? * ‡ why dost thou slight us in our wants, in the time of trouble?

9:23 Whilst the wicked man is proud, the poor is set on fire: * they are caught in the counsels which they devise.

9:24 For the sinner is praised in the desires of his soul: * and the unjust man is blessed.

9:25 The sinner hath provoked the Lord, * according to the multitude of his wrath he will not seek him.

9:26 God is not before his eyes: * his ways are filthy at all times.

9:26 Thy judgments are removed from his sight: * he shall rule over all his enemies.

9:27 For he hath said in his heart: * I shall not be moved from generation to generation, and shall be without evil.

9:28 His mouth is full of cursing, and of bitterness, and of deceit: * under his tongue are labour and sorrow.

9:31 In his net he will bring him down, * he will crouch and fall, when he shall have power over the poor.

The Lord is just * and He hath loved justice.

Psalmus 10

([9])

10:2 In the Lord I put my trust: † how then do you say to my soul: * Get thee away from hence to the mountain, like a sparrow?

10:3 For, lo, the wicked have bent their bow: † they have prepared their arrows in the quiver, * to shoot in the dark the upright of heart.

10:5 The Lord is in his holy temple, * the Lord's throne is in heaven.

10:5 His eyes look on the poor man: * his eyelids examine the sons of men.

10:6 The Lord trieth the just and the wicked: * but he that loveth iniquity, hateth his own soul.

Lesson from the second letter of St. Paul the Apostle to the Corinthians

2 Cor 1:1-5

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother: to the church of God that is at Corinth, with all the saints that are in all Achaia:

2 Grace unto you and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort.

4 Who comforteth us in all our tribulation; that we also may be able to comfort them who are in all distress, by the exhortation wherewith we also are exhorted by God.

5 For as the sufferings of Christ abound in us: so also by Christ doth our comfort abound.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℟. Thanks be to God.

℟. O Lord, rebuke me not in thine anger, neither chasten me in thine hot displeasure.

* Have mercy upon me, O Lord, for I am weak.

℣. Fearfulness and trembling are come upon me, and darkness hath overwhelmed me.

℟. Have mercy upon me, O Lord, for I am weak.

℣. Grant, Lord, a blessing.

Benedictio

God's most mighty strength alway be His people's staff and stay.

℟. Amen.

2 Cor 1:6-7

6 Now whether we be in tribulation, it is for your exhortation and salvation: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation: or whether we be exhorted, it is for your exhortation and salvation, which worketh the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer.

7 That our hope for you may be steadfast: knowing that as you are partakers of the sufferings, so shall you be also of the consolation.

2 Cor 1:8-11

8 For we would not have you ignorant, brethren, of our tribulation, which came to us in Asia, that we were pressed out of measure above our strength, so that we were weary even of life.

9 But we had in ourselves the answer of death, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God who raiseth the dead.

10 Who hath delivered and doth deliver us out of so great dangers: in whom we trust that he will yet also deliver us.

11 You helping withal in prayer for us: that for this gift obtained for us, by the means of many persons, thanks may be given by many in our behalf.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℟. Thanks be to God.

℟. The Lord is at my right hand, I shall never be moved.

* Therefore my heart is glad, and my tongue rejoiceth.

℣. The Lord is the portion of mine inheritance, and of my cup.

℟. Therefore my heart is glad, and my tongue rejoiceth.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. Therefore my heart is glad, and my tongue rejoiceth.

℣. Grant, Lord, a blessing.

Benedictio

May the Gospel's glorious word Cleansing to our souls afford.

℟. Amen.

From the Holy Gospel according to John

Ioannes 2:1-11

At that time, there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee: and the mother of Jesus was there. And Jesus also was invited, and his disciples, to the marriage. And so on.

Homily by St. Augustine, Bishop of Hippo.

Tract. 9 in Ioannem, post initium

Even setting aside any mystical interpretation, the fact that the Lord was pleased to be asked, and to go to a marriage, sheweth plainly enough that He is the Author and Blessor of marriage. There were yet to be those of whom the Apostle hath warned us as forbidding to marry; who say that marriage is a bad thing in itself, and a work of the devil. Yet we read in the Gospel that when the Lord was asked, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause? He answered that it was not lawful, except it were for fornication. In which answer ye will remember that He used these words: What God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

℟. Thanks be to God.

Hymnus

Maker of all, eternal King,
Who day and night about dost bring:
Who weary mortals to relieve,
Dost in their times the seasons give:
Now the shrill cock proclaims the day,
And calls the sun's awak'ning ray
The wand'ring pilgrim's guiding light,
That marks the watches night by night.
Housed at the note, the morning star
Heaven's dusky veil uplifts afar:
Night's vagrant bands no longer roam,
But from their dark ways hie them home.
Hhe encouraged sailor's fears are o'er,
The foaming billows rage no more:
Lo! e'en the very Church's rock

Melts at the crowing of the cock.
Slet us then like men arise;
The cock rebukes our slumbering eyes,
Bestirs who still in sleep would lie,
And shames who would their Lord deny.
Gew hope his clarion-note awakes,
Sickness the feeble frame forsakes,
The robber sheathes his lawless sword,
Faith to the fallen is restored.
Look on us, Jesu, when we fall,
And with thy look our souls recall:
If thou but look, our sins are gone,
And with due tears our pardon won.
Thed through our hearts thy piercing ray,
Our souls' dull slumber drive away:
Thy name be first on every tongue,
To thee our earliest praises sung.
DII laud to God the Father be,
All praise, Eternal Son, to thee,
All glory, as is ever meet,
To God the holy Paraclete.
Amen.

Hymnus

Now in the sun's new dawning ray,

Lowly of heart, our God we pray

That he from harm may keep us free

In all the deeds this day shall see.

Lay fear of him our tongues restrain,

Lest strife unguarded speech should stain:

His favouring care our guardian be,

Lest our eyes feed on vanity.

Say every heart be pure from sin

And folly find no place therein:

Scant need of food, excess denied,

Wear down in us the body's pride.

Uhat when the light of day is gone,

And night in course shall follow on.

We, free from cares the world affords,

May chant the praise that is our Lord's.

Dll laud to God the Father be,

All praise, Eternal Son, to thee:

All glory, as is ever meet,

To God the holy Paraclete.

Amen.

117:7 The Lord is my helper: * and I will look over my enemies.

117:8 It is good to confide in the Lord, * rather than to have confidence in man.

117:9 It is good to trust in the Lord, * rather than to trust in princes.

117:11 Surrounding me they compassed me about: * and in the name of the Lord I have been

revenged on them.

117:12 They surrounded me like bees, † and they burned like fire among thorns: * and in the name of the Lord I was revenged on them.

117:13 Being pushed I was overturned that I might fall: * but the Lord supported me.

117:14 The Lord is my strength and my praise: * and he is become my salvation.

117:15 The voice of rejoicing and of salvation * is in the tabernacles of the just.

117:16 The right hand of the Lord hath wrought strength: † the right hand of the Lord hath exalted me: * the right hand of the Lord hath wrought strength.

117:17 I shall not die, but live: * and shall declare the works of the Lord.

117:18 The Lord chastising hath chastised me: * but he hath not delivered me over to death.

117:19 Open ye to me the gates of justice: † I will go in to them, and give praise to the Lord. * This is the gate of the Lord, the just shall enter into it.

117:21 I will give glory to thee because thou hast heard me: * and art become my salvation.

117:22 The stone which the builders rejected; * the same is become the head of the corner.

117:23 This is the Lord's doing: * and it is wonderful in our eyes.

117:24 This is the day which the Lord hath made: * let us be glad and rejoice therein.

118:23 For princes sat, and spoke against me: * but thy servant was employed in thy justifications.

118:24 For thy testimonies are my meditation: * and thy justifications my counsel.

118:25 (Daleth) My soul hath cleaved to the pavement: * quicken thou me according to thy word.

118:26 I have declared my ways, and thou hast heard me: * teach me thy justifications.

118:27 Make me to understand the way of thy justifications: * and I shall be exercised in thy wondrous works.

118:28 My soul hath slumbered through heaviness: * strengthen thou me in thy words.

118:29 Remove from me the way of iniquity: * and out of thy law have mercy on me.

118:30 I have chosen the way of truth: * thy judgments I have not forgotten.

Psalmus 118(81-96)

([1])

118:81 (Caph) My soul hath fainted after thy salvation: * and in thy word I have very much hoped.

118:82 My eyes have failed for thy word, * saying: When wilt thou comfort me?

118:83 For I am become like a bottle in the frost: * I have not forgotten thy justifications.

118:84 How many are the days of thy servant: * when wilt thou execute judgment on them that persecute me?

118:85 The wicked have told me fables: * but not as thy law.

118:86 All thy statutes are truth: * they have persecuted me unjustly, do thou help me.

118:87 They had almost made an end of me upon earth: * but I have not forsaken thy commandments.

118:88 Quicken thou me according to thy mercy: * and I shall keep the testimonies of thy mouth.

118:89 (Lamed) For ever, O Lord, * thy word standeth firm in heaven.

118:98 Through thy commandment, thou hast made me wiser than my enemies: * for it is ever with me.

118:99 I have understood more than all my teachers: * because thy testimonies are my meditation.

118:100 I have had understanding above ancients: * because I have sought thy commandments.

Hymnus

O strength and stay upholding all creation,
Who ever dost thyself unmoved abide,
Yet day by day the light in due gradation
From hour to hour through all its changes guide:
Lrant to life's day a calm unclouded ending,
An eve untouched by shadows of decay,
The brightness of a holy death-bed blending
With dawning glories of th' eternal day.
Pear us, O Father, gracious and forgiving,
And thou, O Christ, the co-eternal Word,
Who, with the Holy Ghost, by all things living
Now and to endless ages art adored.

Hymnus

O blest Creator of the light,
 Who mak'st the day with radiance bright,
 And o'er the forming world didst call
 The light from chaos first of all;
 Whose wisdom joined in meet array
 The morn and eve, and named them day:
 Night comes with all its darkling fears;
 Regard thy people's prayers and tears.
 Nest, sunk in sin, and whelmed with strife,
 They lose the gift of endless life;
 While thinking but the thoughts of time,
 They weave new chains of woe and crime.
 Cut grant them grace that they may strain
 The heavenly gate and prize to gain:

Each harmful lure aside to cast,
And purge away each error past.
PFather, that we ask be done,
Through Jesus Christ, thine only Son;
Who, with the Holy Ghost and thee,
Doth live and reign eternally.

Who, with the Holy Ghost and thee,
Doth live and reign eternally.
Amen.

Mother of Christ, hear thou thy people's cry

Star of the deep and Portal of the sky!

Mother of Him who thee from nothing made.

Sinking we strive and call to thee for aid:

O, by what joy which Gabriel brought to thee,

Thou Virgin first and last, let us thy mercy see.

℣. After childbirth thou didst remain a virgin.

℞. Intercede for us, O Mother of God.

Let us pray.

O God, who, by the fruitful virginity of blessed Mary, hast bestowed upon mankind the reward of eternal salvation: grant, we beseech thee, that we may experience her intercession, through whom we have been made worthy to receive the author of life, Our Lord Jesus Christ thy Son. Amen.

℣. May the divine assistance ✠ remain with us always.

℞. Amen.

Week 2 after Epiphany — Monday

Matins

℣. O Lord, + open thou my lips.

℟. And my mouth shall declare thy praise.

℣. O God, ✠ come to my assistance;

℟. O Lord, make haste to help me.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Alleluia.

Ant. Come * Let us glorify the Lord.

Come * Let us glorify the Lord.

Let us joyfully sing to God our saviour. Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving; and make a joyful noise to him with psalms.

Come * Let us glorify the Lord.

For the Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods. For the Lord will not cast off his people: for in his hand are all the ends of the earth, and the heights of the mountains are his.

Let us glorify the Lord.

For the sea is his, and he made it: and his hands formed the dry land. (genuflect) Come let us adore and fall down: and weep before the Lord that made us: For he is the Lord our God: and we are the people of his pasture and the sheep of his hand.

Come * Let us glorify the Lord.

Today if you shall hear his voice, harden not your hearts: As in the provocation, according to the day of temptation in the wilderness: where your fathers tempted me, they proved me, and saw my works.

Let us glorify the Lord.

Forty years long was I offended with that generation, and I said: These always err in heart. And these men have not known my ways: so I swore in my wrath that they shall not enter into my rest.

Come * Let us glorify the Lord.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Let us glorify the Lord.

Come * Let us glorify the Lord.

Hymnus

Our limbs refreshed with slumber now,

And sloth cast off, in prayer we bow;

And while we sing thy praises dear,

O Father, be thou present here.

To thee our earliest morning song,

To thee our hearts full powers belong;

And thou, O Holy One, prevent

Each following action and intent.

Cs shades at morning flee away,

And night before the star of day;

So each transgression of the night

Be purged by thee, celestial Light!

Put off, we pray thee, each offense,
And every lust of thought and sense:
That by their lips who thee adore
Thou mayst be praised forevermore.
Prant this, O Father ever One
With Christ, thy sole-begotten Son,
And Holy Ghost, whom all adore,
Reigning and blest forevermore.
Amen.

Ant. The Lord hath looked down from heaven * upon the children of men.

Psalmus 13

([1])

13:1 The fool hath said in his heart: * there is no God.

13:1 They are corrupt, and are become abominable in their ways: * there is none that doth good, no not one.

13:2 The Lord hath looked down from heaven upon the children of men, * to see if there be any that understand and seek God.

13:3 They are all gone aside, they are become unprofitable together: * there is none that doth good: no not one.

13:3 Their throat is an open sepulchre; † with their tongues they acted deceitfully: * the poison of asps is under their lips.

13:3 Their mouth is full of cursing and bitterness; * their feet are swift to shed blood.

13:3 Destruction and unhappiness in their ways; † and the way of peace they have not known: * there is no fear of God before their eyes.

13:4 Shall not all they know that work iniquity, * who devour my people as they eat bread?

13:5 They have not called upon the Lord: * there have they trembled for fear, where there was no fear.

13:6 For the Lord is in the just generation: † you have confounded the counsel of the poor man; * but the Lord is his hope.

13:7 Who shall give out of Sion the salvation of Israel? * when the Lord shall have turned away the captivity of his people, Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. The Lord hath looked down from heaven upon the children of men.

He who worketh justice * may rest on thy holy mountain, O Lord.

Psalmus 14

([2])

14:1 Lord, who shall dwell in thy tabernacle? * or who shall rest in thy holy hill?

14:2 He that walketh without blemish, * and worketh justice:

14:3 He that speaketh truth in his heart, * who hath not used deceit in his tongue:

14:3 Nor hath done evil to his neighbour: * nor taken up a reproach against his neighbours.

14:4 In his sight the malignant is brought to nothing: * but he glorifieth them that fear the Lord:

14:4 He that sweareth to his neighbour, and deceiveth not; * He that hath not put out his money to usury, nor taken bribes against the innocent:

14:5 He that doth these things, * shall not be moved for ever.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. He who worketh justice may rest on thy holy mountain, O Lord.

O Lord, incline * thy ear to me, and hear my voice, my Lord.

Psalmus 16

([3])

16:1 Hear, O Lord, my justice: * attend to my supplication.

16:1 Give ear unto my prayer, * which proceedeth not from deceitful lips.

16:2 Let my judgment come forth from thy countenance: * let thy eyes behold the things that are equitable.

16:3 Thou hast proved my heart, and visited it by night, * thou hast tried me by fire: and iniquity hath not been found in me.

16:4 That my mouth may not speak the works of men: * for the sake of the words of thy lips, I have kept hard ways.

16:5 Perfect thou my goings in thy paths: * that my footsteps be not moved.

16:6 I have cried to thee, for thou, O God, hast heard me: * O incline thy ear unto me, and hear my words.

16:7 Shew forth thy wonderful mercies; * thou who savest them that trust in thee.

16:8 From them that resist thy right hand keep me, * as the apple of thy eye.

16:8 Protect me under the shadow of thy wings: * from the face of the wicked who have afflicted me.

16:9 My enemies have surrounded my soul: † They have shut up their fat: * their mouth hath spoken proudly.

16:11 They have cast me forth, and now they have surrounded me: * they have set their eyes bowing down to the earth.

16:12 They have taken me, as a lion prepared for the prey; * and as a young lion dwelling in secret places.

16:13 Arise, O Lord, disappoint him and supplant him; * deliver my soul from the wicked one; thy sword from the enemies of thy hand.

16:14 O Lord, divide them from the few of the earth in their life: * their belly is filled from thy hidden stores.

16:14 They are full of children: * and they have left to their little ones the rest of their substance.

16:15 But as for me, I will appear before thy sight in justice: * I shall be satisfied when thy glory shall appear.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. O Lord, incline thy ear to me, and hear my voice, my Lord.

I will love thee, * O Lord, who art my strength.

Psalmus 17(2-16b)

([4])

17:2 I will love thee, O Lord, my strength: * The Lord is my firmament, my refuge, and my deliverer.

17:3 My God is my helper, * and in him will I put my trust.

17:3 My protector, and the horn of my salvation, * and my support.

17:4 Praising, I will call upon the Lord: * and I shall be saved from my enemies.

17:5 The sorrows of death surrounded me: * and the torrents of iniquity troubled me.
17:6 The sorrows of hell encompassed me: * and the snares of death prevented me.
17:7 In my affliction I called upon the Lord, * and I cried to my God:
17:7 And he heard my voice from his holy temple: * and my cry before him came into his ears.
17:8 The earth shook and trembled: * the foundations of the mountains were troubled and were moved, because he was angry with them.
17:9 There went up a smoke in his wrath: † and a fire flamed from his face: * coals were kindled by it.
17:10 He bowed the heavens, and came down, * and darkness was under his feet.
17:11 And he ascended upon the cherubim, and he flew; * he flew upon the wings of the winds.
17:12 And he made darkness his covert, † his pavilion round about him: * dark waters in the clouds of the air.
17:13 At the brightness that was before him the clouds passed, * hail and coals of fire.
17:14 And the Lord thundered from heaven, † and the Highest gave his voice: * hail and coals of fire.
17:15 And he sent forth his arrows, and he scattered them: * he multiplied lightnings, and troubled them.
17:16 Then the fountains of waters appeared, * and the foundations of the world were discovered:
17:16 At thy rebuke, O Lord, * at the blast of the spirit of thy wrath.
V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.
R. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. I will love thee, O Lord, who art my strength.
The Lord will reward me * according to my justice.

Psalmus 17(17-35)

([5])

17:17 He sent from on high, and took me: * and received me out of many waters.
17:18 He delivered me from my strongest enemies, † and from them that hated me: * for they were too strong for me.
17:19 They prevented me in the day of my affliction: * and the Lord became my protector.
17:20 And he brought me forth into a large place: * he saved me, because he was well pleased with me.
17:21 And the Lord will reward me according to my justice; * and will repay me according to the cleanness of my hands:
17:22 Because I have kept the ways of the Lord; * and have not done wickedly against my God.
17:23 For all his judgments are in my sight: * and his justices I have not put away from me.
17:24 And I shall be spotless with him: * and shall keep myself from my iniquity.
17:25 And the Lord will reward me according to my justice: * and according to the cleanness of my hands before his eyes.
17:26 With the holy thou wilt be holy; * and with the innocent man thou wilt be innocent:
17:27 And with the elect thou wilt be elect: * and with the perverse thou wilt be perverted.
17:28 For thou wilt save the humble people; * but wilt bring down the eyes of the proud.
17:29 For thou lightest my lamp, O Lord: * O my God, enlighten my darkness.
17:30 For by thee I shall be delivered from temptation; * and through my God I shall go over a wall.
17:31 As for my God, his way is undefiled: † the words of the Lord are fire-tried: * he is the protector of all that trust in him.
17:32 For who is God but the Lord? * or who is God but our God?

17:33 God, who hath girt me with strength; * and made my way blameless.

17:34 Who hath made my feet like the feet of harts: * and who setteth me upon high places.

17:35 Who teacheth my hands to war: * and thou hast made my arms like a brazen bow.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. The Lord will reward me according to my justice.

The Lord liveth, * and blessed be my God, my salvation.

Psalmus 17(36a-51)

17:36 Thou hast given me the protection of thy salvation: * and thy right hand hath held me up:

17:36 And thy discipline hath corrected me unto the end: * and thy discipline, the same shall teach me.

17:37 Thou hast enlarged my steps under me; * and my feet are not weakened.

17:38 I will pursue after my enemies, and overtake them: * and I will not turn again till they are consumed.

17:39 I will break them, and they shall not be able to stand: * they shall fall under my feet.

17:40 And thou hast girded me with strength unto battle; * and hast subdued under me them that rose up against me.

17:41 And thou hast made my enemies turn their back upon me, * and hast destroyed them that hated me.

17:42 They cried, but there was none to save them, to the Lord: * but he heard them not.

17:43 And I shall beat them as small as the dust before the wind; * I shall bring them to nought, like the dirt in the streets.

17:44 Thou wilt deliver me from the contradictions of the people; * thou wilt make me head of the Gentiles.

17:45 A people which I knew not, hath served me: * at the hearing of the ear they have obeyed me.

17:46 The children that are strangers have lied to me, * strange children have faded away, and have halted from their paths.

17:47 The Lord liveth, and blessed be my God, * and let the God of my salvation be exalted.

17:48 O God, who avengest me, and subduest the people under me, * my deliverer from my enraged enemies.

17:49 And thou wilt lift me up above them that rise up against me: * from the unjust man thou wilt deliver me.

17:50 Therefore will I give glory to thee, O Lord, among the nations, * and I will sing a psalm to thy name.

17:51 Giving great deliverance to his king, † and shewing mercy to David, his anointed: * and to his seed for ever.

℣. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

℟. As it was in the beginning, is now, * and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Ant. The Lord liveth, and blessed be my God, my salvation.

May the Lord hear * thee in the day of tribulation. ‡

Psalmus 19

([7])

19:2 May the Lord hear thee in the day of tribulation: * ‡ may the name of the God of Jacob protect thee.

19:3 May he send thee help from the sanctuary: * and defend thee out of Sion.
19:4 May he be mindful of all thy sacrifices: * and may thy whole burnt offering be made fat.
19:5 May he give thee according to thy own heart; * and confirm all thy counsels.
19:6 We will rejoice in thy salvation; * and in the name of our God we shall be exalted.
19:7 The Lord fulfil all thy petitions: * now have I known that the Lord hath saved his anointed.
19:7 He will hear him from his holy heaven: * the salvation of his right hand is in powers.
19:8 Some trust in chariots, and some in horses: * but we will call upon the name of the Lord, our God.
19:9 They are bound, and have fallen: * but we are risen, and are set upright.
19:10 O Lord, save the king: * and hear us in the day that we shall call upon thee.

The king rejoices * in Thy strength, O Lord. ‡

Psalmus 20

([8])

20:2 The king rejoices in thy strength, O Lord; * ‡ and in thy salvation he shall rejoice exceedingly.
20:3 Thou hast given him his heart's desire: * and hast not withholden from him the will of his lips.
20:4 For thou hast prevented him with blessings of sweetness: * thou hast set on his head a crown of precious stones.
20:5 He asked life of thee: * and thou hast given him length of days for ever and ever.
20:6 His glory is great in thy salvation: * glory and great beauty shalt thou lay upon him.
20:7 For thou shalt give him to be a blessing for ever and ever: * thou shalt make him joyful in gladness with thy countenance.
20:8 For the king hopeth in the Lord: * and through the mercy of the most High he shall not be moved.
20:9 Let thy hand be found by all thy enemies: * let thy right hand find out all them that hate thee.
20:10 Thou shalt make them as an oven of fire, * in the time of thy anger: the Lord shall trouble them in his wrath, and fire shall devour them.
20:11 Their fruit shalt thou destroy from the earth: * and their seed from among the children of men.
20:12 For they have intended evils against thee: * they have devised counsels which they have not been able to establish.
20:13 For thou shalt make them turn their back: * in thy remnants thou shalt prepare their face.
20:14 Be thou exalted, O Lord, in thy own strength: * we will sing and praise thy power.
